WHAT A BLESSING.

Many People in St. Paul Learning to Appreciate.

What a blessing it is. Bought after by thousands. St. Paul is finding it out. Many a miserable man is happy now. Nights of unrest, days of trouble. Any itching skin disease means this. Ezema just as bad, and just as bad to cure.

But Doan's Ointment relieves at once, and cures all itching of the skin. A blessing to a suffering public. Here's St. Paul proof to back our statement.

Mrs. M. P. McMahon, of 703 L'Orion street, says: "Doan's Ointment proved a very remarkable preparation for itching irritation. I cordially recommend it for all purposes for which its use is indicated. My advice is to get to F. M. Parker's such a remedy is to get to F. M. Parker's drug store, corner of Washaba and Fifth streets, procure Doan's Ointment and the results will not be disappointing."

Doan's Ointment is sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

WISCONSIN.

Ashland, Wis.—Private information has been received in this city that Alexander Stewart, who for three terms has represented the Ninth congressional district, will not be a candidate for reelection. A. W. Sanborn, of this city, will be a candidate. Mr. Stewart voted for the Puerto Rican bill.

Sparta, Wis.—Within the last week a hunter named Hughes has brought in sixteen gray wolves. He says these animals have become more plentiful and better than for many years before. Killing sheep and annoying farmers. A bounty of $10 is now paid, which may be the means of ridding this section of the pests.

Madison, Wis.—A party of principals and teachers of Chicago schools, who were here last week, have effected a permanent organization of the Teachers' Club, which is a Wisconsin organization, the purpose being to secure summer resort for teachers. The club has already practically closed a deal for a tract on the southern shore of Lake Monona, about a mile and a half from the city. It is expected that about 500 Chicago teachers will spend the summer here.

TO GO TO CRIPPLE CREEK

NEXT MEETING OF THE TRANS-MISSISSIPPI COMMERCIAL CONGRESS LOCATED

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

Many Reforms in Government Affairs Are Suggested—Addresses Given Cordial Reception by Delegates.

HOUSTON, Tex., April 19.—Today's session of the trans-Mississippi commercial congress was well attended.

The committee on resolutions brought in a partial report, endorsing several bills now before the national congress, intended to benefit the whole West, and favoring the introduction of other bills with the same object in view.

The reception given Mr. Lowe's paper on the Nicaragua canal evidenced the great interest which is taken in that question. There was applause throughout, but this was vehement when he declared that the time had come for the United States to build the canal without asking the consent of Great Britain or any other European power.

Cripple Creek was chosen as the next place of meeting, by acclamation. A paper by Hon. J. W. Springer, of Denver, was read by title, and is to be included in the minutes.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

The committee on resolutions made a report, of which the following is a synopsis, and which was adopted:

1.—That the consular service should be thoroughly organized upon a basis of efficiency and without reference to politics.

2.—Favoring the immediate admission as a state of New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma.

3.—That sheep should be permitted to graze upon public domain not set apart for any special purpose.

4.—Favoring the government department of commerce and industries.

5.—Favoring the immediate further improvement and development of the harbor of Galveston.

6.—Indorsing the project of a ship channel of such depth and width as to be of the depth of 25 feet and a width of 150 feet.

8.—Favoring the government department of commerce and industries.

9.—Favoring the immediate further improvement and development of the harbor of Galveston.

10.—Indorsing the project of a ship channel of such depth and width as to be of the depth of 25 feet and a width of 150 feet.

11.—Asking the national congress to at once settle the several questions which now vex the people of the Indian Territory.

12.—Favoring the speedy construction of a Pacific cable to Alaska, China, Japan and the Philippines, and indorsing the bill providing for a cable from San Francisco to Honolulu.

CRIPPLE CREEK CHOSEN.

At the conclusion of the committee's report Dr. Tichenor, of New Orleans, delivered an address on "The Mississippi and the Mouths Thereof."

Dr. Young, of Utah, addressed the congress, his subject being the future development of Utah.

Judge James M. Lowe, of Kansas City, was the next speaker, and there was applause at his appearance.

H. R. C. Broadbald, of Oklahoma, made a brief talk on the reasons why that territory should be admitted as a state.

Chairman Moses, of the executive committee, gave notice that tomorrow plans would be presented for the organization of the trans-Mississippi congress on a permanent basis, with a regular membership.

The time for the selection of the next place of meeting having arrived, Cripple Creek and New Orleans were placed in nomination. When Arkansas voted for Cripple Creek, New Orleans withdrew, and the Colorado city was selected by acclamation.
