JOCKEY FATALLY HURT.

Frightful Accident at the Aqueduct

Race Track. NEW YORK, April 24.-A frightful accident happened at the Aqueduct race track today, in which Jockey Frank O'Leary was fatally injured and two other boys were badly shaken up. It occurred in the fifth race, and in a moderate field. The horses got away in good order, and when they had gone about a sixteenth of a mile G. E. Wightman, McJoint up stumbled and fell, the jockey rolling under the fence out of harm's way and escaping with slight bruises, and a shaking up. Pettifogger bumped into Wightman as the latter was falling, and went up into the air, turning a somersault and landing on his back. was thrown some distance, but he, too. was out of the way of the other horses. and was even less hurt than McJoint. O'Leary, however, was not so fortunate. for Randy, which he was riding, stumbled into the pair of horses on the ground and threw O'Leary among them. He was kicked in the head by one of them and his head crushed in. An ambulance was called and he was taken to St. Mary's hospital, in Brooklyn, the doctor saying that it was unlikely that he would live to reach the hospital

The three horses escaped with severe injuries, which are not thought to be serious, although they are not likely to race for some time.

The event of the day was the Carnarsle stake for two-year-olds, at four and a half furlongs, in which Blues was the favorite. The start was good for all but the Keen pair, Outlander and the Regent. Kenliworth went to the front at once, and held his advantage to the end, winning by a head, which looked like a fine drawn finish on the part of the jockey. BREWERS VS. CLOTHIERS.

Baseball at Lexington Park Next Sunday Afternoon.

Next Sunday at Lexington park the Palace team, from Minneapolis, will try conclusions on the diamond with the unbeaten Hamm team, and at that time the fans who have watched the advent of the amateur teams will be able to determine as to whether the St. Paul teams will ontinue to put it over their adversaries. The Hamm nine has been materially strengthened by the signing of Peter Fo ley, who for several years has been pitchng for the Waupon and Oshkosh teams, and whose old-time comrades are mostly playing professional baseball. Foley is holding down a position in St.

Paul and is said to be a good amateur pitcher. The fans have by their patronage and approval decided that the Twin City Amateur league is a go, and, when it is considered that the four nines in the league are men holding positions in business and with little or no time for hard practice, it is conceded that the article of ball thus ar given those who paid their admissions Lexington park is all that could be asked for from amateurs. When the teams settle down to their playing strength and the weak points have been

Remarkable Record Made by a Yale

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 24.-The records made by Charles Andrews Carver, of Chicago, a Yale sophomore, in the intercollegiate strength test competition, are the best ever made at Yale, and probably at any American college. The claim is made that Carver is the champion of the college for 1900, as no records thus far reported equal his. He scored a total of 1,754 kilogrammes in the gymnasium. following out the regular tests of the in tercollegiate competition. The best previous record at Yale was 1,676, made two years ago by C. S. Verril, breaking the record of C. Chadwick, the football guard. Carver weighs 175 pounds and stands a trifle taller than 6 feet. He has just attained his majority.

CHICAGO BOXING COMBINE.

Houseman, Hanton and Frank Reach an Agreement.

With an energetic committee in charge of the women's championship at Shinne-cock, the tournament there in August will doubtless prove one of the chief social events of the Southampton season. These feminine affairs have always been more or less noted for their social side, and this year there will be a continuous round of dinners, parties, fetes and dances to add to the pleasure of the visitors. On this committee there are such well-known society women as Mrs. Charles T. Barney, Mrs. J. L. Breese, Mrs. H. G. Trevor, Mrs. George-C. Clark, Mrs. Charles S. Brown, Mrs. A. B. Claffin and Mrs. Peter B. Wyckoff. Intending competitors are invited to communicate with them with a view to securing suitable accommodations during championship week, and those who are not specially entertained at the various summer cottages will be provided with accommodations in the neighboring hotels and boarding houses. SILER WILL NOT REFEREE.

Veteran Is at Outs With the Tattersall's Management .

CHICAGO, April 25.-George Siler will not referee any more fights at Tattersall's, acording to a well grounded re-port which was circulated in fight circles today. Tom O'Rourke, as is well known, is at outs with Siler because the latter did not give Sharkey the decision in his fight with Jeffries. O'Rourke is to bring Sharkey, Dixon and Walcott here. He will not agree to Siler as referee, and the Tattersall's club will not insist on Siler, but it is said has offered him the pre liminaries. This arrangement Siler will not agree to, and sooner than referee preliminaries and be refused to handle important fights he will decline to have anything to do with the club. Malachi Hogan will probably officiate.

Importance of the Wheel. "Few people understand the important position the bicycle has achieved among the exports of this country," said Secretary C. W. Dickerson, of the American Bi-cycle company. "I do not believe people appreciate, even approximately what a great industry the exporting of bicycles has become. Bicycle interests in this country have made such tremendous strides in the development of foreign business as to reach in the amount of money involved a higher figure than any other similar product. There is hardly a country in the world where the American bicycle is not known. And where it is bicycle is not known. And where it is known it is favorably known. In spite of the few attempts to discredit it, it has successfully given combat to the products of all other countries and demonstrated its superiority. BEN ROLLINS AND HIS WIFE ARE BADLY CUT UP Cries of murder and for help, issuing from 444 Cedar street, shortly before 1 o'clock this morning, attracted several police officers and a large crowd of curious people. When Lieut, Davis and Sergeant Rose reached the house they found a good-looking mulatto woman covered with blood streaming from a deep gash in her head, declaring that an attempt had been made to murder her. She said her name was Mrs. Cora Rollins and that her assailant had run down the base-ment steps. On the steps, bleeding from two knife wounds, the police found Ben Rollins, her husband. One cut is in Rollin's shoulder, another in his left groin, both deep wounds, evidently made by a pocket knife. Mrs. Rollins appears to have been struck with a club.

After being taken to the station both Rollins and his wife claimed that a third negro-had assaulted them. She said the fellow followed them into their room to talk with her husband about money mat-ters; that a fight resulted, in which she took her husband's part. Rollins tells the same story. The police are inclined to doubt the couple's story and rather think there was a family quarrel.

AND WALLER IS A "CON."

Miss Doane Says the Ticket Puncher Broke His Promise.

Miss Della Marle Doane, of Austin, Minn., has commenced an action in the district court against Elza R. Waller to recover $10,000 for breach of promise. Plaintiff in her complaint alleges that on Dec. 22, 1899, in St. Paul, the defendant promised to marry her within three weeks but on Dec. 27, and ever since, he has refused to carry out his promise. Plaintiff also says that despite this conduct of the defendant she is ready to marry him, but declares that she "has suffered special damage by reason of defendant's breach of promise, which has caused her permanent suffering and injury to her prospects in life and health." Waller is a conductor on the Omaha road. as it is possible to do. The 1900 model is the finest model that has ever been put forth, and the popularity of the chain-

As to Church Exemptions.

Judge Lewis has filed orders in two tax cases. He finds that the German Evangelist Lutheran St. John congregation is exempt from the taxes levied and delinquent for 1891, 1892 and 1893, amounting to $58.84. The Olivet Congregational society, Merriam Park, is, in part, exempt, and orders judgment in part for the tax items of $8.78, $18.35, and water frontage tax of $2.50 and $5. After Many Years. Harry Sundberg, clerk of the probate court, has received notice from the super-intendent of the Fergus Falls insane asylum, of the death of Frank Beckwith, who was committed to the St. Peter hospital, July 25, 1883, seventeen years ago. Beckwith was forty-one years old.

At the annual meeting of the Columbia University Golf club the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Stephen P. Nash; secretary and treasurer, L. Rhodes Jr.; captain, J. A. Edwards; executive committee, H. H. Bulkley, William Pell and J. G. Bates. It was announced some time ago that Columbia had arranged with the West-chester Golf club for the use of its links for the coming season, but it has developed that satisfactory terms could not be made. The organization may decide to use the public links at Van Cortlandt park, New York, which is about thirty minutes' ride from the university. The delegates to the meeting of the Intercollegiate Golf association, which meets this month, was appointed, and instructed to oppose the holding of the intercollegiate tournament in the spring. Columbia golfers believe that the fall is by far the best time. Chief of Police Getchell yesterday received a letter from his son, Jesse Getchell, who is with a government expedition en route to Cape Nome. Young Getchell left here March 18 last, and the party has just reached Valdes, Alaska. The letter relates a number of interesting incidents of the long trip to the gold country, and reports that the writer and all of the party are enjoying good health. The trip to Cape Nome will be undertaken in two weeks.

The local forces of the Salvation Army will again be reinforced by the divisional band for a special campaign lasting one week. The first meeting will be held on Wednesday night at the hall on East Seventh street. Quite a number of converts have been made recently, and the army in St. Paul is in a prosperious condition.

Why the Medical Specialist Often Fails.

There are two great fundamental systems which make up the human body. The Nervous System and the Muscular System, each having its distinct functions to perform, yet both must work together in harmony to preserve life and health. Either of these systems is liable to certain diseases. Medical treatment is more effective in diseases of the muscular system, while electrical treatment is more beneficial in diseases of the nervous system. There are very few diseases of the nervous system but what sooner or later become complicated with diseases of the muscular system, or vice versa, and become nervo-muscular in their nature; thus, both electrical and medical treatment are required to effect a cure. You can readily understand why the combined Electro-Medical Treatment, as administered by the able Specialists of this Institute, will positively cure diseases which cannot be cured or even benefited by the medical specialist or electrical treatment alone. If you cannot plainly see the advantage in this treatment we stand ready to prove it to you at once.

WARNING—The sick are cautioned that certain medical specialists of Minne-apolis, having learned of our great success, are attempting to copy our Electro-Medical treatment. Don't be deceived.
