BY STROKE OF APOPLEXY

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY TO C. H. CHADBOURN, A MINNEAPOLIS BANKER

WAS A ROCHESTER PIONEER

Came to Minnesota Nearly Half a Century Ago and Had Amassed a Fortune—News of the Mini City.

G LCEE'S MINNEAPOLIS OFFICE, 20 WASHINGTON AV. SOUTH.

C. H. Chadbourn, one of the founders of the Flour City National bank, died suddenly last evening without a second's warning, while exhibiting one of the rooms at the Vendome hotel on Fourth street, controlled by Mr. Chadbourn and his two sons. Mr. Chadbourn's health had been excellent and last evening he was in exceptionally fine spirits. About 10 o'clock Mr. Chadbourn was on one of the upper floors of the hotel examining one of the rooms. As he turned to leave the room he lifted his hand to turn out an electric light and with a gasp fell to the floor. Assistance was quickly summoned and Drs. Norred and Mann were sent for, but life was found to be extinct. Mr. Chadbourn resided at 126 Oak Grove street. He came to Minneapolis some fourteen years ago from Rochester, Minn., having been born in Maine and having gone to California during the gold fever of '49. He came to Minneapolis with G. W. Van Duzen and with him for a time was engaged in business. Of late years he has been engaged in real estate and financial brokerage business with his two sons, C. N. and R. W. Chadbourn. He has traveled extensively during his life, having been twice around the world, and leaves a valuable estate. Besides his wife and two sons, he is survived by two daughters, one of whom is in Minneapolis, while the other is a missionary in Costa Rica. Death is supposed to have been due to apoplexy.

VERDICT FOR CONTRACTORS.

They Obtain Judgment Against Champlin Railway Company.

A decision was handed down by Judge Harrison yesterday in the case of John Grant et al., against the Champlin Suburban Railway company, in which action was brought to enforce the terms of a contract for grading the road. The projectors of the line proposed to construct a road from the city limits of Minneapolis to a point near Champlin on the Soo road, the intention being to eventually have an all electric line between this city and Anoka. The contract for grading the road was let to John Grant for $16,000, and as default was made in the payment an action was made. Judge Harrison awards judgment in favor of the plaintiffs as follows: John Grant, $14,000; Lewis Harmon, $12,118; Joseph Davis, $3,573; Fred L. Decker, $13,735; H. H. Colwell, $10; S. H. Decker, $78,79; Ed L. Demick, $153.25. It is understood that the company will be recognized and that the work will be completed.

THEY LET IT BURN.

Old House Infected With Smallpox Is Destroyed.

An old two-story frame structure at 112 Fifth street north was destroyed by fire yesterday morning. Although the fire department was present in force and many citizens viewed the flames, all were considerably surprised by an emphatic order not to throw any water on the burning building, but instead to protect surrounding property.

The house was an old shack, which was quarantined for small pox last winter. As the owner desired to put up a new building, he decided that the quickest way to get rid of the old one was to set fire to it. Accordingly Friday a permit was secured from the chief and at 5:30 yesterday morning the building was set on fire by the firemen and burned to the ground.

Yesterday afternoon two barns at 2710 and 2718 Oakland avenue were destroyed by fire, and a third barn at 2718 was badly damaged. The fire is supposed to have been caused by children playing in the barns. The heaviest loss will be on the structure at 2710, which was occupied by George Sherer, sign painter, to which the loss will be about $300.

The home of T. McNerny, 1105 Jefferson street, was slightly damaged by fire yesterday. McNerny is a member of the fire department.

DR. VINCENT KILLED.

Fatal Accident to Former Manager of Keweenaw Institute.

Dr. Edward E. Vincent, formerly manager of the Minneapolis Keweenaw Institute, was run over and killed by a street car in Detroit, Mich., yesterday morning, while attempting to ride in front of the car in his bicycle.

Taxes Will Soon Be Due.

The official notice of special taxes, which will be due before July 1, have been sent to the Minneapolis office by G. W. Wilson, commissioner of internal revenue at Washington. The notice requires the local collectors to procure the requisite stamps of all descriptions ready for distribution. The list of those affected includes thirty-four classes, among which are liquor dealers, dealers in oleomargarine, brewers, bankers, brokers, proprietors or lessees of theaters, circuses or any exhibitions for money; tobacco dealers and manufacturers and packers of mixed flour. The stamps required for this special purpose can be procured from Fred von Baumbach, commissioner of internal revenue.

His Cuts Were Fatal.

Carl Jensen, who severed the arteries in his wrists Friday while in a fit of despondency, died yesterday at the city hospital as the result of his injuries. The body was turned over to Colonel Nelson, and a cablegram was sent to Jensen's brother, a wealthy merchant at Copenhagen, Denmark. Jensen was employed in the Washburn C mill.

In Minneapolis, Too.

The Minneapolis Pistol and Revolver club is preparing for an active season at the targets. A meeting will be held during the coming week, and the matter of the location of a range will be settled. Several sites have been under consideration, but as yet no action has been taken.

Oil Stove Exploded.

Mrs. George W. Salisbury, 290 Twenty-third avenue south, was painfully injured while preparing breakfast yesterday morning. The flames enveloped her face, painfully burning her. Slight damage was done to the house. Mrs. Salisbury will recover.

Dr. Murray Wants a Divorce.

An action for a divorce has been commenced by Dr. William B. Murray against Olive T. Murray. Infidelity is alleged. Daniel Conley is named as co-respondent. Judge McGee issued an order granting attorney's fees and $5 a week temporary alimony to the defendant, the payment of which is to date from April 23.

MINNEAPOLIS BRIEVITIES.

Mayor Gray yesterday sent $1,152 to the Ottawa and Hull fire sufferers.
