Pittsburg at New York. Chicago at Philadelphia. Cincinnati at Boston.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—

In today's game between Philadelphia and Chicago, neither side scored until the eighth inning, when, with two men on bases, Orth batted a home run over the right-field wall. That was sufficient to win, Chicago being shut out. Orth and Taylor both pitched well, but the fielders had numerous high balls to handle. Attendance, 1,350. Score:

WAS A PITCHERS' BATTLE.

Eleven-Inning Game Between Boston and Cincinnati.

BOSTON, May 31.—Today's eleven-inning game was a pitchers' battle, in which Pittsburg proved the more fortunate. The fielding was very sharp. The work of Long and Crawford was especially good. Boston won out in the eleventh on two singles, a sacrifice and a long fly to the outfield. Attendance, 1,300. Score:

LENNON & GIBBONS' TEAM TO MEET HAMM'S BREWERS.

Arrangements have been completed for what promises to be a great day's sport at Lexington park next Sunday, when, in addition to the ball game in the Twin City Amateur league series, between the Lennon & Gibbons team and the Hamm Brewing company team, there will be four bicycle races, under the auspices of the Twin City Bicycle Racing league.

MACALESTER VS. FIREMEN.

One of the best amateur games of the season will be that between the firemen and Macalester, at Lexington park this afternoon. The fire laddies have been putting in steady practice for several weeks and claim that they will give the collegians a run for their money. The collegiate team is none the less confident.

GEORGETOWN TO SEND A CREW.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 31.—The Georgetown university has reconsidered its conclusion not to enter the regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing association this year, and will send an eight to compete in the university race on the Hudson on June 30. Official information to that effect has been given to Francis Gates, chairman of the board of arbitration. Georgetown's entry makes six contestants in the university race, the others being Pennsylvania, Cornell, Columbia, Wisconsin and Syracuse.

EPSON RACES.

LONDON, May 31.—At Epson today the Riddlesdown plate was won by Sir Fox, ridden by Tod Sloan. The Epson cup was won by Joly Tar, with J. Reiff, up and the Durand plate was won by Marconi, with J. Reiff in the saddle. "Sly" Fox was owned by S. B. Joel, Joly Tar by the property of Lord William Beresford, and Marcon was the property of the Miller.

AS TO GRAND STAND'S VALUE.

Additional evidence as to the value of the improvements made upon the state fair grounds by the Twin City Jockey club was taken at the office of J. W. Kellogg & Severance yesterday. Andrew Toney, the builder who had supervision of the construction, was the principal witness.

IF ALL WERE WHITE.

Saturday Evening Post. The word "candidate" is from the Latin candidatus. Literally it means white, robed, and it was thus called because in Rome those who sought office wore a glittering white toga. Fancy, if you can, all our modern Americans dressed in accordance with their political ambitions. In some sections there would be no such thing as a dark suit of clothes. Washington would simply be one shining center of universal whiteness.
