

News of St. Paul Society.

A roselike garden of girls is not an unusual sight at a social function, but a rose garden of old ladies, most of them past seventy, some of them nearing eighty, all of them enjoying afternoon tea and the cheerful gossip that accompanies it, is surely something of an event in society circles.

Yesterday afternoon, from 4 to 6, Mrs. E. M. Woodbury, who will celebrate her eightieth birthday this fall, and Mrs. S. V. Hanley, who will soon be seventy years of age, entertained a group of old ladies at a tea party. Both hostesses wore soft black silk dresses and snowy caps, the black of the gowns being relieved by ruchings of snowy white. Most of the guests, of whom there were seventy, were filled in the same manner, and they made a quaint picture as they sat in the best room, snowy heads nodding over bits of reminiscences, while withered hands busily plied the needle, every one of them enjoying afternoon tea and the cheerful gossip that accompanies it, is surely something of an event in society circles.

Thereabouts were presented to the hostesses. The tea was served at 3 o'clock, and here a touch of the fin de siècle crept in, for there were place cards at each plate, little block of white, tied with delicate lavender ribbon. The hostesses were assisted yesterday by Mrs. F. B. Doran, Mrs. Slits, Miss Hanley and Miss Woodbury. The guests were: Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Dunsmuir, Mrs. Kibbs, Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. Hawthorne, Mrs. Young, of Minneapolis; Mrs. Timmons, Mrs. Sharpe, Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. Rau, Mrs. Herrick, Mrs. Osgood, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Vannatta, of River Falls, Wis.

The marriage of Miss Sophie Greve, daughter of Mrs. J. K. Greve, and Mr. George Mark Kenyon, was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at the bride's home on Summit avenue. Rev. Dudley W. Rhodes, former rector of the church of St. John the Evangelist, officiated at the marriage service. The wedding was one of the prettiest social functions of this season, the floral appointments being unusually handsome. The ceremony was performed in the main drawing room, which was decorated to resemble as nearly as possible the interior of a church. The severe refinement of the colonial style in which the building is finished added in the transformation. The bride's party stood facing a large window that was curtained with the feathery asparagus, edged with lace. The long white veil was fastened with diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom. A bunch of white roses was carried. Mr. Kenyon led last evening for the East. They will be at home after Sept. 1 at 445 Summit avenue.

The cut of town guests present last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Quincy, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Baird and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bryant, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Elliott, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Cotton, Duluth.

Mrs. H. T. Black, of Goodrich avenue, will entertain Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. L. D. Garrett, of New York, and Miss Lillian Woods, of Kansas City. Mrs. Richard Newell will give a party for them Wednesday, to be followed by a dinner at the Dellwood club house.

Miss Richardson, of Ashland avenue, gave a luncheon Thursday.

MATRIMONIAL.
The marriage of Miss Ida Mahie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mahie, to Jonathan D. Jans, was solemnized Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride on Mount Ida street. Rev. W. J. Weber, of the First German M. E. church, read the marriage service. The ceremony was performed in the parlors, which was decorated with palms, ferns, and cut flowers. Prof. A. C. Koerner presided at the piano and played the Mendelssohn wedding march during the ushers. Mr. Frank C. Mahie and Mr. Will Greve, followed by Miss Rose Mahie as maid of honor, and Miss Marion Jans

Wedding Gifts.

As bridesmaid, Luella Pfaff and Clara Buette were flower girls, and preceded the bride, who entered with her father, her mother, her bridesmaid, the bridegroom and groomsmen, Mr. George W. Mahie met the bride in the parlor. During the reading of the service by Arthur C. Koerner played selections from Schumann. The ceremony was witnessed by about eighty of the relatives and most intimate friends. The bride wore white point des esprit over white tulle and carried a large white bouquet. Her only ornament was a diamond brooch, a gift from the groom. The maid of honor wore white tulle and carried a large white bouquet. The bridesmaids wore white organdy over blue tulle. The flower girls wore white organdy. A large reception was held in the evening at the home of the bride, Mrs. W. J. Weber, 445 Summit street. Her only ornament was a diamond brooch, a gift from the groom. The maid of honor wore white tulle and carried a large white bouquet. The bridesmaids wore white organdy over blue tulle. The flower girls wore white organdy.

The marriage of Miss Adelaide Stapleton, daughter of Mr. M. R. Stapleton, of 43 Cedar street, to Mr. J. M. Byrne, of South Dakota, were solemnized Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock in St. Patrick's church on Church street. Rev. Father Byrne performed the ceremony. The church was tastefully decorated with palms, roses and smilax. Miss Alice McCauley and Miss Angie Mullay sang the wedding hymns. The bride was attended by Miss Edith Cochran, as maid of honor, and Mr. Albert Stapleton, brother of the bride, was best man. Little Jeanette Williams, niece of the bride, was ring bearer, while Master Charles Bleasling, Miss Ethel Kaiser and Miss Hazel Curtis acted as flower bearers. All were dressed in white. The bride was carried in white organdy over white. She carried a white prayer book. The maid of honor wore white and carried white carnations. A wedding breakfast was served, followed by a reception from 12 to 2 Mrs. George Williams and Mrs. Blaine. The bride was assisted in receiving, Mrs. Charles Lange served frappe in the back parlor. Mrs. Carl Payne, Mrs. Morris, the Misses Allen McCauley and Miss Angie Mullay had charge of the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left in the afternoon for a trip on the great lakes, and will reside in South Dakota.

A prominent wedding of the week will be that of Miss Grace Sanborn, daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. H. Sanborn, who will take place Tuesday evening at the bride's home on Virginia avenue. Rev. Alexander McCreedy, of Park Congregational church, will perform the ceremony. Miss Marion Sanborn, a younger sister of the bride, arrived home from Vassar last week and will be maid of honor to the bride. Rachel Sanborn and Helen Sanborn will be the flower girls, and Henry Sanborn will be the ring bearer. Just before the wedding ceremony, Miss Denegre will act as best man, and Howard Wheeler and Bruce Sanborn, and Mrs. Harlin will be at home after July 15 at the Aberdeen.

The marriage of Miss Georgia Johnson,
