"UNDAUNTED LIES THE HEAD THAT WEARS A CROWN."

The nomination of Peter E. Hanson for secretary of state by the Republican state convention is likely to prove a losing venture in the campaign for that political party.

WANT TO BE ON THE PAY ROLL.

The notices served by former city officials of St. Paul on their friend, the city comptroller, tell an instructive tale.

GLOBULETS.

They say the price of wheat will do a little electioneering for the McKinley ticket.

SHOT INTO HIS HAND.

A young man named Charles Piedman, of Spring Park, yesterday accidentally discharged a blank cartridge into his left hand.

endangering his following among his faithful Norwegian subjects. It is singular that a man who knows he is so great, so powerful and so eminent as Senator Knute Nelson should harbor in his breast so small a sentiment as jealousy, and seemingly live in constant dread of a rival of his own nation. Surely there are enough of honors and places for one other Norwegian than Senator Nelson, and if he fears competition—if he dreads a rival—he might let some small political favor fall upon the mildest and least ambitious of his fellow countrymen.

THE DEMOCRATIC CHOICE FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

The greatest interest at the Democratic national convention, as at the Republican national convention, centers upon the nomination of a candidate for the vice presidency. Upon whom the choice will fall it is impossible to foretell.

LESSON OF THE CARNIVAL.

The experience of the people of this city for the past two weeks ought to teach them a lesson of great value. It shows that with intelligent thought and direction it does not require any great effort to make the city a place of popular resort for the people of the entire state, as well as of those sections of other states which adjoin our own.

GEN. BEATY CANNOT STAND FOR THE PHILADELPHIA EFFORT.

Gen. John Beatty, a veteran of the Civil war, for years a Republican leader in Ohio, and prominent in business and in the following caucuses, has been heard to say that he cannot stand for the Philadelphia convention of the Republican party.

Press to discountenance the enthusiastic devotion to the public service manifested under such distressing circumstances by Mr. Getchell and his associates. It will not be surprising, however, should the supreme court gratify these patriotic impulses of Getchell and his friends, to hear the two organs declaiming their conviction that the adoption of the charter was an absolute mistake.

AT THE THEATERS.

Such friendship as that portrayed in "Friends" at the Grand last evening, by the Pike Theater company, is rare, and yet was presented so naturally, that it seemed possible, Byron Douglas, as John Paden Jr., a modern poet, and Charles W. Korte, as Adrian Karje, a pianist, are friends. Each sacrificed his own happiness that the other might be benefited, and each did it with a willingness and sincerity that won the sympathies of the audience.

WOMEN KEELER'S SLAUGHTERED.

Nothing has been learned of the column which relieved Admiral Seymour four days ago and which sailed for Peking, but as it takes at least two days for dispatches to reach Chefoo there is nothing extraordinary in this. Troops are arriving at Taku daily, though some reports from Peking say it will be three weeks before a large force can be sent to Peking.

Republicans over the national platform. Mr. McKinley and Postmaster General Smith fixed up a nice one, and sent it to the convention committee changed by the late Frank Quigg, who had a final copy, made changes to suit himself, and now Old Man Grosvenor, of Ohio, the administration ring master in the house, is sounding the White house displeasure over the independence exhibited by the committee.

ROLLIN B. DE LANO, OF ST. PAUL, MEETS A TRAGIC END. LOST HIS LIFE YESTERDAY. Seized With Cramps While Bathing at Northwood and Sinks Before Help Reaches Him.

Rollin B. De Lano, a well known young business man of this city, was drowned yesterday afternoon at Northwood, on Lake Minnetonka, while bathing.

Mr. De Lano went to Northwood yesterday morning to visit H. W. Bowdoin, and in the afternoon, with Mr. Bowdoin and two other gentlemen, went in bathing. When about 200 yards from shore, where the water was about seven feet deep, Mr. De Lano was seized with cramps and called for help.

Rollin De Lano was born in St. Paul, March 9, 1870, but spent his early years at Fergus Falls and Fairbairn. At the latter place he attended the high school, his mother, younger brother and sister (his father having died when the children were infants) had an attractive home.

at 7 o'clock tonight on the transport Grant. Gen. Chaffee arrived in this city at 5 p. m., and immediately went aboard the transport. He was met at Sacramento by one of Gen. Shafter's aides with dispatches from the war department. The Grant was carrying the Headquarters band, First and third squadrons of the Sixth cavalry, 80 men and 20 officers, under command of Lieut. Col. T. J. Winn. Besides the troops, nurses and baggage on board, there are several tons of ammunition for the Asiatic squadron.

The general orders of the Sixth cavalry direct that two squadrons, comprising eight troops in all, proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, on the Grant, and there await orders from the war department.
