-Absolutely Pure-

The housewife will find the Royal Baking Powder indispensable in making finest foods. It makes the hot bread, hot biscuit, cake and other pastry light, sweet and excellent in every quality.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, the most healthful and pleasant of all fruit acids, and adds anti-dyspeptic qualities to the food.

Many low-priced imitation baking powders are upon the market. These are made with alum, and care should be taken to avoid them, as alum is a poison, never to be taken in the food.

REPORTER CALDWELL INJURED

Bicycle Rider Runs Him Down in the Street—Condition Serious.

Alex. W. Caldwell, a reporter on the Dispatch, was run over by a bicyclist on the morning of July 6. Caldwell, who is 26 years of age, was riding on the sidewalk of the street between Fourth and Minnesota streets. He started to cross the street and a team and several wheelmen blocked his path. While waiting for them to pass, T. A. Forbes, who was coasting at a high rate of speed, turned the corner and struck him on the left leg, knocking him violently to the pavement. The fall rendered him instantly unconscious and blood flowed freely from his right ear. The St. Joseph's ambulance took the patient to the hospital after a delay of half an hour. Dr. Louis Nelson, a specialist, examined the patient and is of the opinion that there is a serious skull fracture and the drum of the right ear is broken.
Mr. Caldwell is twenty-six years of age and resides with his parents at 825 Westminister street.
At 1 o'clock this morning the injured man was sleeping quietly and was pronounced some better than during the day. The physicians were still unable to judge of the final result.

Revenue Stamp Decision.

Judge Orr yesterday filed a decision in the case of Henry L. Moses against the American Express company in an appeal from the justice court by the company.
The decision of the United States supreme court and holds that the imposition of the value of the revenue stamp on the shipping receipt does not make a reasonable charge an unreasonable one. The decision reverses the judgment of the justice court.

New Engine House.

INTERESTED LADIES.

Working in a Good Cause.
"In the Institution where I am employed as nurse (The Home for Aged Women) we find many ladies suffering from gastric trouble caused by coffee."
"My own personal experience is that since a child I have been a moderate drinker of coffee, but most of the latter years have suffered from acidity of the stomach, sluggish liver and nervousness. I finally gave up coffee entirely, about three years ago, using hot water in its place. Of course, after removing the cause, the symptoms disappeared, but I seemed to need a beverage more strengthening than hot water, as my occupation of nurse required considerable exertion. I began to look about for a suitable breakfast beverage and undertook the preparation of one by browning some wheat berries and using that as coffee, but the result was far from satisfactory. Finally I came across Postum Food Coffee, on a visit at my home in Roselle, N. J., and found it exactly fitted the case."
"I have been using it regularly and introduced it to our institution. When it was first served, it was not satisfactory, but I looked into the matter and insisted upon having it boiled fully fifteen minutes after the actual boiling had started, not counting the time that it was on the stove before boiling began. The next time it appeared you would not think it was the same article, it was so much improved. Several of the patients decided to use it to the exclusion of coffee and I found that its use reduced the number of cases of indigestion. The result has been very gratifying, and for two years now, Postum Food coffee has been in daily use at the Home."
"Mrs. Matilda Seaver and Miss Anna Merrill are desirous that their names be used to help forward the good cause. My mother has been greatly helped by the discontinuance of coffee. She was formerly subject to cramps, but they have entirely disappeared since she has abandoned coffee and taken up Postum Food Coffee. Respectfully," Miss E. Stryker, Elizabeth, N. J.

ROOSEVELT HERE JULY 17

RECEPTION TO HIM WILL BE NON-POLITICAL.

A meeting of a number of prominent citizens was held yesterday afternoon in the club rooms of the Commercial club to perfect arrangements for the reception to be given Gov. Roosevelt, of New York, July 17, in this city.
The governor will arrive in the city in the morning and be met at the union depot by the reception committee, of which George Thompson is chairman. He will be taken to the Ryan hotel, where he will remain until he is driven to the Commercial club by the committee. A reception will be given by the club for club members exclusively, and Gov. Roosevelt will dine at the club at 12 o'clock. The bill there is very little room for doubt that the patronage will be large.
Theater's Original Nashville Students will be the leading attraction at Woodward next week. This company of artists, really the best colored combination in the country, has been delighting audiences at Woodward for the last few weeks. The band concert given last afternoon and evening, have been attended by thousands of people.
The Bands Russia will give two of the best concert programs yet presented at Lake Harriet this afternoon and evening. The Bands Russia, under the direction of James Meacham, has been exceedingly popular this season with lovers of the best class of music in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

MAY NOT GET PACKER.

Governor Refers the Matter to Attorney General.
Gov. Lind is still in doubt as to the Packer extradition case, being convinced that the extradition of Packer to Illinois is not a good thing. The case came up before the governor yesterday morning, who, after hearing arguments, referred the question to the attorney general. The attorney general's decision is expected in a few days.
The supreme courts of many states have upheld the right of a governor to extradite a fugitive. The extradition matters, and it is very probable that Packer's enemies will not succeed in forcing his return to Illinois.
The hearing Frank M. Nye, representing the state of Illinois, and the officers of the company, presented affidavits to show that Packer was a fugitive from justice. He contended that it was not within the power of the governor to extradite Packer, and that the extradition of Packer was a violation of the United States constitution regarding extradition to support his arguments.

WAS WEARY OF LIFE.

P. S. Moody Takes a Fatal Dose of Strychnine.
P. S. Moody, chief engineer at the Pioneer Press building, killed himself yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, by taking a dose of strychnine.
Moody informed his daughters, with whom he had been living at his home, 627 John street, that he had taken strychnine and was afraid he was going to die. Dr. William Richardson was summoned, but death ensued before he arrived.
Coroner Nelson viewed the remains and decided that an inquest was not necessary.
Mr. Moody was fifty-one years of age, a widower, and he kept house with his two grown daughters. He came to this city about ten years ago from Minneapolis, and had been employed at the Pioneer Press building since that time.
He was a member of the local lodge of Odd Fellows and also of the Royal Arcanum council.

Modern Woodmen Convention.

The head camp committee of the Modern Woodmen of America held its annual meeting at Central hall last night. Reports were received from many camps, showing that a fund of $2,500 had already been raised for the big convention to be held in this city in June. Arrangements were also made for the establishment of headquarters for the Woodmen at the state fair grounds, and for conducting a lunch counter and eating house for the convenience and benefit of the order.

THE GUARDIAN

MILITIA TO REMAIN IN INDIAN COUNTRY FOR THE PRESENT

SETTLERS THANK GOV. LIND

Still Fear Trouble From the Indians When They Get Their Annuity—Whisky Sold Openly.

Gov. Lind yesterday received a communication from the United States consular agent at Rat Portage, thanking the governor for his prompt action in sending the state militia to the Rainy lake country to allay the fears of the settlers and also throwing considerable light upon the Indian situation. Gov. Lind sent copies of the letter to the war department and also to United States Marshal Grimshaw. Gov. Lind, discussing the matter last evening, said:

I expect that the federal authorities will take the matter up very soon, but until the United States troops are sent to a point somewhere along the border it is not likely that I shall withdraw the detachment sent up on Monday. It is the intention of the war department, I believe, to send soldiers to Rainy lake as soon as they can get around to it.

The United States consular agent's communication is as follows: Rat Portage, Ontario, July 6, 1900.—Dear Sir: Mr. Levesque, the inspector of Indian agencies, has just been in to see me and showed me a dispatch from Agent Beggs, at Fort Francis, saying that the Indians had promised to disperse and go back to their reserves, and denying that they had any hostile intentions. All the settlers claim that the reason they were gathering in numbers was that they thought their own destruction was impending, as well as the white race, and they were buying the "Big Medicine" to avert the impending catastrophe; that they had no special grievance against the whites, and that the whites should not hold them responsible for the crazy utterances of a few drunken Indians.

I do not think that there is going to be any trouble. Your course in promptly sending troops is everywhere commended, and the manner in which you have treated the Indians will have a good effect. The settlers are still afraid, and many of them refuse to leave the Rainy lake country. The Indians are actually there. Many of them say that the Indians have only put off their coming until the money for the annuities, as they were afraid that it would be refused last year, on account of the building of the railway through a portion of Minnesota at the crossing of the Rainy river. The Indians have sprung up a town called Port Henry, thirteen miles from the mouth of the Rainy river, and the natives who are there do not appear to be any officer of the law. I understand that the places have internal revenue licenses, but no state licenses, but they are running wild open and selling to the natives whisky indiscriminately. —G. Clayton Frisbee, United States Consular Agent.

STATE GUARD

INSPECTING OFFICER PRAY POINTS OUT SOME OF ITS DEFICIENCIES

SAYS ITS DISCIPLINE IS GOOD

But There is Evident Lack of Soldierly Training, and Neglect in Care of Accoutrements.

Criticism calculated to improve a number of evils that have crept into the state national guard are indulged in by Lieut. A. F. Pray, inspecting officer of the state national guard, whose report is being published by Adj. General Lambert under the caption, "General Orders No. 24."

Lieut. Pray commends the First regiment particularly for its uniform, good discipline and the condition of the regimental equipment.

The total number of enlisted men present at the inspection or accounted for is given as 1,821, with 152 absent without leave. With the exception of the First infantry and the First artillery, the guard is criticized for evident lack of training in the school of a soldier, shown by unsteadiness while at "attention."

Many of the company guns gave signs of not being best cared for, and company officers are advised in the future to see that arms are wiped off after every drill or handled with gloves. Officers and men exhibited ignorance during the inspection of the arms, and the company records as unserviceable could be made useful if the men were skilled in the use of tools in the possession of every company. Ignorance of officers and men in this respect appears to be universal.

The care of the state's property by companies was rather to be commended except in certain cases where men were allowed to wear their uniforms home. This the inspecting officer branded as a bad practice, resulting very frequently in a shortage, as well as an undue amount of wear. Otherwise Lieut. Pray gives the highest of commendations, and publishes an itemized statement of percentages, which have already been published in the Globe.

Adj. General Lambert yesterday announced the following decorations: Silver faithful service medal, Lieut. Col. C. E. Johnson, Third Infantry; bronze faithful service medal, First Lieut. Roy G. Stank, Third Infantry; medals, Sergt. H. Hanson, Battery B, Minneapolis, and as an expert gunner, Herbert Williams, of Minneapolis.

The Minnesota State band will give two concerts at Lake Harriet tomorrow, matinee and evening. The band is presenting a number of novelties as part of both bills. The management of the Twin City Rapid Transit company has engaged the Minnesota State band to give concerts at Como park every evening next week. There is very little room for doubt that the patronage will be large.

Attempted Highway Robbery.

James Meacham, a young fellow about 25 years of age, was arrested last night at the corner of Olive and Ninth streets, on a charge of attempted highway robbery.

Meacham was held until an officer arrived, who placed him under arrest.
