AT A STANDSTILL.

NEITHER BOERS NOR BRITISH DOING MUCH JUST NOW.

LONDON, July 29. 3:45 p. m.—Operations in South Africa have again arrived at a sort of standstill.

Commandant General Botha, with several thousand Boers, like Gen. Christian Dewet, has thus far eluded Lord Roberts' grasp.

Gen. Delany is besieging Gen. Baden-Powell at Rustenburg, in western Transvaal. The relief force sent to Gen. Baden-Powell's assistance, under Col. Hickman, proved too weak to be effective and was obliged to fall back on Pretoria.

Operations have been hampered with bad weather, thunderstorms and deluges of rain, accompanied by intense cold.

A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Lourenco Marques says that President Kruger is now at Watervalder. He adds that a big fight is expected and that the Boers are preparing to enter the river which will trek through Swaziland to Delagoa bay and take a steamer for Europe.

A dispatch from Fouriesburg, dated July 28, says that the capture of Fouriesburg was preceded by heavy fighting to force a passage of the passes, which was stubbornly contested for two days.

Upwards of 5,000 Boers, with a very large number of wagons, a large quantity of stores, many of which have now been driven into the mountain passes, where they are watched by British troops.

FROM THE NORTH FRONT

COL. COOLIDGE'S OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE FIGHT AT TIEN TSI

FIFTEEN HOURS UNDER FIRE

Fifteen Were Killed and Sixty-Nine Wounded Out of 420 Engaged—News From Peking Expected Any Moment.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The war department received a cablegram from Lieut. Col. Coolidge, who assumed command of the Ninth Infantry after the death of Col. Liscum, giving a part of the part played by that organization during the fighting at Tien Tsin. The report is as follows:

"The Foo-Corbin, Washington: Six companies Ninth Infantry, under Liscum, with marines commanded by Meade, joined the British forces under Gen. Doward, in conjunction with French and Japanese, and attacked southwest part of the walled city at daybreak on the 12th. The Ninth Infantry, on the right, were east of the south gate, protecting the allied forces from flanking fire. After being under fire for fifteen minutes they were withdrawn to the outer wall at night. Ninth Infantry had 15 killed, 69 wounded and 1 missing, out of 420 engaged at this point. Company A, posted at the railroad station east of Pao Ho, was exposed to heavy shrapnel fire, losing two killed and seven wounded in addition to the foregoing.

On the morning of the 14th the Japanese view up the south gate, entering the walled city. Allied forces entered town. Assigned the southeast quarter to the Americans for police and protection. Guards were established in the American quarter, which was already on fire. British commander highly praised American soldiers for arduous work and gallantry in communication to Meade, Tien Tsin, July 28.

MAY BE NEWS SOON.

There is a growing expectation at the state department that news of the utmost importance may be forthcoming at any moment from Peking. It was even thought that something might be received today, but this hope was doomed to disappointment.

It is believed that the basis for this expectation is the taking on the part of officials that certain machinery heretofore set in motion may result in the opening up of communication through some secret though reliable channel.

It is known that a second effort has been made by our own government to get another message from Mr. Conger, and that nearly all of the powers also have endeavored to private agencies in their own interest with a like object.

The fact has just been developed that one of the last acts of the late Col. Liscum, before his death at Tien Tsin was to undertake the dispatch of a spy to Peking. Gen. Doward, the British commanding officer at Tien Tsin, also sent two messengers, and it is believed that the Japanese did the same. Up to date not one of these messengers has returned to Tien Tsin, nor has there been a single word heard from any of them.

It is true in particular of the message expected from Mr. Conger, Minister Wu is perhaps the basis for this hope on our part, and he maintains an unshaken confidence in his original assertion that the news when it does come will show that the legation is alive.

The message reported to have come through Missionary Wilder at Chefoo is regarded as most promising.

WU HAD NO MESSAGES.

Minister Wu had no cablegrams himself today, nor had the state department any directly from China. Nothing further has been heard as to the date set for the beginning of the movement from Tien Tsin toward Peking, and it is said here that this is a detail that must be fixed by the military commanders upon the spot.

A message came to the war department from the quartermaster on the Lenox, announcing the arrival of that ship, together with the Connaught, at Kobe, Japan. They have aboard the mounts for the Sixth cavalry, and although they will start for Taku at once, not less than five days will be consumed in this last stage of the voyage.

It is doubtful whether Gen. Chaffee will take the Lenox and Taku without horses for the Sixth cavalry, particularly, as according to all reports, mounted cavalry is needed for successful operations in the flat country lying between Tien Tsin and Taku.

Capt. John Little Dead.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Gen. Brooke, at York, has informed the war department of the death of Governor's aide, Capt. John Little, of the 10th cavalry, who died of typhoid fever, at Peking, on July 27.

FESTA WAS A FIZZLE

CELEBRATION IN HONOR OF AMNESTY WAS NOT APPRECIATED BY ANYONE

ELABORATE PRECAUTIONS

Provost Guards Doubled, but No Demonstration Was Attempted—Americans Lose Ten Men While Scouting.

MANILA, July 29.—11:10 p. m.—(Edited by the censor.)—The two days' festa in Manila, organized by Senator Paterno and his political followers to commemorate the amnesty, resulted in a fiasco.

Judge Taft and his colleagues of the commission felt constrained to decline to attend the banquet, as they had been informed that the speeches would favor independence under American protection, and they could not passively lend their acquiescence by being present.

Senor Paterno, foreseeing the suspension of the banquet without the Americans, frantically appealed to them to attend, promising that there should be no speeches.

The provost precautions were extreme. The guards were doubled both days and the authorities forbade the display of Filipino flags and of pictures of President McKinley and Aguinaldo fraternally framed.

The festa is generally considered to have been premature and unfortunate. During last week's scouting ten Americans were killed and fourteen wounded. One hundred and eighty Filipinos were killed and sixty taken prisoners. Forty insurgent rifles were captured.
