FIELD, SCHLICK & CO. | FIELD, SCHLICK & CO. | FIELD, SCHLICK & CO. After One Goes Outing

And we don't believe you begrudge us or any one a half holiday such weather as this. In the rush of doing many things and the eagerness to get rich quickly Americans are prone to sentence themselves to a ceaseless grind of work.

Linen Handkerchiefs. Linen Handkerchiefs, the kind that cool the face and absorb the perspiration, are in great demand now. You will find several specially priced lots here.

Ribbons and Neckwear. The little "fixings" that go to complete the dress are expensive now. A little expenditure will make an otherwise shabby outfit most presentable.

Men's Furnishings. This selling of 35 Bal-briggen Shirts at 19c can't go on forever. The most wanted sizes are nearly gone now, though there's enough to last until 1 o'clock Saturday.

LET VAN SANT SUE. REPUBLICANS WILL STAR THE NATIONAL ISSUES IN MINNESOTA THIS FALL. ELECTORAL VOTE THE THING.

That is What the National Committee is Most Interested In and What It is Paying For. Tama Bixby gave but little advice to the Republican state central committee yesterday and the gathering devoted itself chiefly to reports made by judicial districts.

Mr. Bixby, while in Washington, assured President McKinley that Minnesota would be redeemed from the doubtful column. For this assurance Tama was given a little note from the president.

Mr. Bixby suggested that the national committee be organized in Minnesota, and that national and state issues be expounded with equal energy and force.

At the general committee meeting nearly all the candidates were present and Senator Jones and Shell were the only absentees of the committee's membership.

Other candidates also made reports of local conditions and their confidence for an overwhelming victory. The committee also heard reports from the various districts.

PROJECT FOR NEW JAIL. IT IS UPPERMOST IN THOUGHTS OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. FIVE ARCHITECTS COMPETE.

Four of the Plans Submitted Are by St. Paul Men, the Fifth by a St. Louis Firm. The plans of the various architects for the new county jail were exhibited yesterday afternoon before the board of county commissioners.

Some of the ideas were considered rather expensive and several did not fit the specifications exactly. All were taken under advisement.

For a while it seemed possible that the southeast corner of Cedar and Fifth streets might be bought for a site, but as $50,000 is the price asked by the owner it is considered out of the question.

The commissioner will reconvene to look into the matter of a site further and to thoroughly discuss the proposed plans Monday at 2 p. m. The aggregate cost must not exceed $100,000.

WAR THAT WAS STOOPED. MILITARY EXPEDITION COSTS THE STATE ABOUT $2,500. ADJ. Gen. Lambert yesterday audited the pay roll for the detachment of the Third Infantry that recently made a trip to Koochiching to quell the Indian disturbances there.

The voucher is indorsed "Indian war," but the adjutant general qualifies it with the explanation that it was the Indian war that might have been.

MANY PROTESTS HEARD. Board of Equalization Had a Busy Session. The board of equalization held a long session yesterday and listened to many protests against the assessments as made by the board, mostly from large business firms.

Other candidates also made reports of local conditions and their confidence for an overwhelming victory. The committee also heard reports from the various districts.
