PETER W. CORBETT IS DEAD

WELL KNOWN AND HIGHLY RESPECTED RAILWAY MAN EXPIRES SUDDENLY

HEART FAILURE THE CAUSE

He Was Assistant Secretary of the Northern Pacific Company, and Forty-Nine Years Old, S. McAllen's Private Secretary.

The sudden and untimely death of Peter W. Corbett, assistant secretary of the Northern Pacific railway company, occurred yesterday afternoon at St. Luke's hospital, as the result of an attack of heart disease which seized Mr. Corbett at about 2:30 in the afternoon.

The railroad official was returning from his noon lunch to his office at the Northern Pacific building when prostrated. He fell just in front of the wholesale store of Scheffer & Rossum, 174 East Fourth street, and was quickly carried into the street out of the heat and sun.

He was unconscious and the efforts of those present were unavailing in restoring his consciousness. The police turned in a call for an ambulance and the afflicted man was conveyed to St. Luke's hospital.

The first person to observe Mr. Corbett was Harry A. Fabian, President McAllen's private secretary, and the successor of Mr. Corbett, who himself had filled that position for a period of about eight years. Mr. Fabian was directly across the street and was also on his way to the office at the time.

As soon as Mr. Corbett reached the hospital, Dr. C. F. Denny was called and he discovered that the pulse of the stricken man was very feeble. He applied proper stimulants with the hope of reviving the faintly throbbing pulse, but the restoration was but slight.

Dr. Charles L. Greene, the sick man's family physician, with Dr. J. O. Cavanaugh, who was called in to consult, found that heart trouble was the source of the ailment and confirmed Dr. Denny's statement that his patient was in a dangerous condition.

Mr. Corbett had been a long time suffering from this dreaded disease and the physicians did not think at the time that he would survive the afternoon.

The news of Mr. Corbett's affliction was received at the general offices of the Northern Pacific with great anxiety, and his condition was made the subject of constant thought and frequent inquiry until the end came.

Mr. Corbett had been a long time suffering from this dreaded disease and the physicians did not think at the time that he would survive the afternoon.

Mr. Corbett was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and migrated to this country in his early days.

He began his career as a railroad man in Boston in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad.

He started at the bottom, and by faithful application of duty and persistent effort in the performance of his duties, he rose to places of responsibility.

From Boston he went to Omaha, where he came in contact with President C. S. McAllen, of the Northern Pacific.

Mr. Corbett was held private secretary to Mr. McAllen, and held the position with honor for a period of eight years.

He was then promoted to the position of general manager of the Northern Pacific, and he was a very able railroad man and had an excellent character.

He was thirty-three years of age when he died.

He was a devoted family man and was survived by his wife and two daughters.

MINNESOTA DEMOCRATIC LEADERS LEAVE TODAY FOR THE NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS

They Will Try to Carry That State

Chairman L. A. Rosing, of the Democratic state central committee, and Secretary Charles L. Rosing, of the Chicago branch, left today for Chicago where they have been called by Chairman Jones to attend a conference of the various chairmen and secretaries of the states at which important matters pertaining to the work of the campaign will be discussed.

W. H. Badger, chairman, and H. M. Jewell, secretary, of the Minnesota state central committee, arrived in St. Paul yesterday on their return trip from Chicago, where they had been to consult with national committeemen regarding a supply of speakers for their territory.

The gentlemen were in St. Paul a few days at which time it is understood arrangements were made to have some of the Republican orators from Minnesota go out and stump Montana.

FIELD, SCHLICK & CO. | FIELD, SCHLICK & CO. | FIELD, SCHLICK & CO.

Offerings for all day Saturday.

The Saturday half-holiday season is past. The vacation season is over. Every employe of this store, from the cash boys to the managers, is entitled to and receives a vacation with pay during the summer.

These resting spells have been enjoyed, and today from 8 to 6 a full corps of alert, vacation-refreshed employes will be here to serve you.

You will be welcome, whether your mission be to take advantage of the many bargains now offered, or merely to inspect the correct garments, fabrics and fixings for the coming season.

Common Sense Skirts. Ladies' $25.00 Suits $12.50.

A good assortment now of those new walking skirts at $5.75. $5.75—there are Oxforas, grays, blues, browns and blacks—finished at bottom with 12 rows of silk stitching and every seam four times stitched.

A uniform clearance price is now put on all $17.50, $20. and $25.00 suits—among them are suits of homespun, men's-wear tweeds and chevots, correctly tailored in every detail, and the difference between them and the advanced fall styles is hardly perceptible, yet the price is about half actual value.

Table Sets. Silk Waists: Half-Price. Cretonnes.

About 40 table sets to be sold at less than half the actual cost of importation. They are silver-bleached damask linen, one table cloth and one dozen napkins, all hemmed ready for use.

Several dozen silk waists, including black and colors, are now being sold at about half-price—all are desirable styles, some being tucked all over and hemstitched.

These cretonnes which go on sale Saturday at 15c are as handsome as some in designs and colorings as any French cretonnes ever imported, and yet this price is only about one-third the French cretonne price.

Box Stationery. 10c Handkerchiefs, 10c. 50c Hose 25c.

About 300 boxes of stationery will be closed out Saturday. The boxes have become somewhat soiled in the handling now necessary by alterations made going on in the stationery department, but none of the goods are worth less than 25c and choice is given for 10c.

Close to half-price for choice from a table loaded with a great variety of strictly pure Irish Linen Handkerchiefs for men and women.

A special purchase, bought at half value, and the same was stopped and selling will not begin until 2 o'clock.

These are among the best values ever given in this great valuing handkerchief department.

Women's pure Irish Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs—nicely hemstitched with narrow hems—lauded ready for use.

contest for prizes, which occurred in the second act during the stable scene. The dancing was greatly enjoyed by the audience, and the contestants met with much approbation and encouragement.

Prizes were awarded by a committee chosen from the audience.

The first prize, a gold medal, was won by Harry Swinton, one of the colored boys of the company, who proved himself far superior to any of his competitors.

Second prize went to Clarence Bowen, also of the company; third to Ed Steward, of the company, who resides in St. Paul; fourth to F. Bell, colored, and also a resident of this city, and fifth to Ed Steward, of the company.

One of the prizes was a 75-cent watermelon, which was devoured with great relish by the contestants as soon as the act was over.

MYSTERIES OF THEATER. HARRY SUNDBERG MOVES.

They will be an open book tonight. Tonight from 7:30 to 10 o'clock the Metropolitan opera house will be thrown wide open to the general public.

Harry Sundberg, the probate court clerk who has been forced to resign his position because of a street brawl with a woman of rather shady reputation early Thursday morning, followed by his arrest and forfeiture of bail, has left the city for Rockford, Ill., where his father is pastor of a church.

THE FAMILY FORUM.

Look in next Sunday's Globe for two pages of added matter specially prepared, under the above title.

Particular attention is given to features for boys and girls. Prizes will be given for the solution of certain intellectual puzzles and answers to queries in "The Question Box."

The "Question Box." The young folks will also be interested in "A Son in History," and "A Daughter in History," and the synopsis of two famous books, and also a story or two.

There is also something for the wee little ones—pretty rhymes. Under the heading of the "Deaf, Dumb and Blind" is a sketch of Laura Bridgman, together with the single and double handed alphabets used by the deaf, and a sample of printing for the blind.

Boys and girls who enjoy all their faculties should read and examine this department and be thankful that they are blessed with beyond many thousands in this country who cannot hear, nor speak, nor see.

Under the heading of "How to Do Things" there will be found a large variety of valuable hints to the housewife. Ladies will be interested, and the gentlemen as well, in "Old Time Table Manners" and the "Menu of Millionaires."

It may surprise some to learn that rich men are usually plain livered. Under the heading of "Famous Men" will be found short sketches of great men, who rose to fame and usefulness through difficulties.

This is a departure, an increase, and an event in the Sunday Globe, a feature not equaled in any other paper in the country for the space occupied.

HAD HIS HAND CRUSHED

BILL-POSTING WAGON STRUCK BY AN INTERURBAN CAR. A Como interurban car ran into a bill posting wagon owned by L. N. Scott, on Fifth street, between Minnesota and Robert street, shortly before 11 o'clock last night.

The driver, John J. Brien, had his hand crushed by being thrown under the horse. The wagon was just crossing Fifth street to go into Morrison's livery barn, when the car struck it.

L. P. Colmgard, who was also riding in the rig, probably saved himself from serious injury by jumping from the wagon just in time.

WAS A POOR SHOT.

An Alleged Policeman Said to Have Fired at Peter Dickson. Peter Dickson, an expressman, whose family lives on Seventh street near Bradley, yesterday complained to Chief O'Connor that a policeman had shot at him last Thursday evening.

The marksmanship of the policeman must have been very poor, as Mr. Dickson was not hurt, but he was plenty good enough to suit him, as the bullets whizzed uncomfortably close to his head.

Dickson has not been living with his wife for some time, and he called on her Thursday evening. He remained in the late, but departed on an intimation that one of the children had been sent to call a policeman. As he left the place he says he was accosted by a policeman, Dickson ran away and the policeman, he says, shot at him.

Chief O'Connor ordered Lieut. Gebhart, of the Margaret station, to investigate and report.

REV. D. J. BYRNE ORDAINED.

Bishop Shanley Conferred Order of Priesthood at St. Patrick's Church. Rev. D. J. Byrne, nephew of Rev. James C. Byrne, pastor of St. Patrick's church, the ordination took place at St. Patrick's church, where high mass was celebrated at 10:30 o'clock.

Bishop Shanley was celebrant. He was assisted by Fathers Gibbons, O'Neill, Cosgrove, Harrington, Fitzpatrick, Byrne, O'Brien, Colmgard, Dolphin, O'Sullivan, Corcoran and Danahy.

TWO NEW JANITORS.

They Were Appointed at Yesterday's Commission Meeting. The joint court house and city hall committee met late yesterday afternoon and passed the August pay roll, amounting to $1,280.

DOUBT AS TO JAIL BONDS

QUESTION AS TO RIGHT OF COUNTY TO PURCHASE SITE. The county commissioners will meet Monday as a mere formality and then adjourn, on account of Labor day, until Tuesday, when the jail site matter will be again considered.

County Attorney Bigelow is of the opinion that under the law the board of county commissioners has the right to issue bonds for the purchase of a jail site.

The opinion is based on a discovery made while studying the laws with reference to bond issues.

An official announcement of the fact as yet, said County Attorney Bigelow, "as I have not completed my investigation. Nevertheless, I am much in doubt as to whether the county, under existing circumstances, has the right to issue bonds for the purchase of a jail site. There is no question as to the right to issue for construction."

Chief O'Connor has told the board that if the county had a new jail site he would furnish one at the corner of Franklin and Eagle streets for $1,000.

John Hagenmeyer offers lots 8, 9, 10 and 11, block 2, on Central Park addition, fronting 100 feet on Robert street and 129 feet deep to an alley, for $11,000.

D. H. Michael offers the north 138 feet of lots 5 and 6, block 22, St. Paul proper, for $2,000. He also offers lots 7 and 8 and the south fifty feet of lots 5 and 6, block 22, for $18,000. This property is located on St. Peter street, between Third and Fourth streets.

Small Boys Locked Up.

Francis O'Brien and David Busten, two boys, eleven years old, were before Judge Hine yesterday on the charge of larceny, alleged to have been committed at the Five and Ten Cent store on East Seventh street. The boys were charged with pocket books, valued in all at fifteen cents, from one of the counters yesterday morning.

The boys were given in charge of Probate Officer English, and are to report to him once every two weeks until Dec. 1.
