ADDRESS BY BEVERIDGE

THE INDIANA SENATOR DELIVERS A TALK TO REPUBLICANS OF MINNEAPOLIS

BOY ORATOR OF THE WABASH

He Held His Audience for Two Hours Last Night in a Discussion of Prosperity and Its Causes.

GLOBE'S MINNEAPOLIS OFFICE, 417 PHOENIX BUILDING. F. D. DIBBLE, AGENT.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—The meeting in honor of United States Senator A. C. Beveridge here tonight was the most imposing public demonstration ever held in Minneapolis since the Republican national convention, eight years ago. More than 5,000 men were in the parade which the senator reviewed, and more than 7,000 heard him speak, others being turned away. The speech was delivered at the Exposition building, in the hall where Benjamin Harrison defeated James B. Blaine for the presidential nomination in 1888.

A feature of the parade was the marching of the Roosevelt Rough Riders club, of St. Paul, the original "Rough Riders" club, organized April 24, 1898, two months before the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt for the vice presidency.

The University Republican club was in line 500 strong, the boys locking arms and zig-zagging from curb to curb, instead of marching in the regulation military fashion. As they passed along they shouted the "Ski-U-Mah" college yell and cheered for Beveridge.

There were several floats and transparencies appropriately inscribed were numerous. Prizes had been offered for the best marching clubs, and they were awarded as follows: For the best club outside the Twin Cities, $100, the Hutchinson club, of Hutchinson, Minn.; the best of the Minneapolis club, $50, the Minneapolis Roosevelt club, for the best St. Paul club, the St. Paul Original Rough Riders club, $30. The Exposition meeting was most enthusiastic, and Senator Beveridge was given a rousing reception. Preceding him on the programme of speeches were Hubert A. Hays, the Hon. Van Sant, and Dr. A. A. Ames, nominee for mayor of Minneapolis.

THE SENATOR'S ADDRESS.

Sensor Beveridge's speech was almost two hours long, the greater part of it being devoted to our present prosperity and the method by which it can be continued. He said that it could not be continued by any formula of administration, but that a continuing prosperity depended upon constantly adding to the markets for American products. "This," he said, "is the purpose of the Republican party. It invents new policies to meet new and changed conditions. It is the party of commercial growth as well as territorial growth. That is why the Republican administration always means American prosperity and that is why Democratic administration always means commercial disaster."

Said the senator: "Look at the record of which every man here has personal knowledge: 1880 to 1884 the Republican party and prosperity; 1884 to the Democratic party and the beginning of hard times; 1888 to 1892, the Republican party, Harrison and prosperity; 1892 to 1896, the Democratic party and a continuation of hard times; 1896 to 1900, the Republican party, William McKinley and the highest tide of prosperity that has ever swept around the world. And now, with an audience that is the Democratic party, the party asks to let it once more manage our affairs, and he is a candidate for hunger who favors that management of certain disaster at home and certain dishonor abroad."

Sensor Beveridge analyzed at length the causes of the present prosperity and the new conditions which it was necessary to create in order that the present prosperity might be continued. He said that the present prosperity could not be continued merely by standing still; it could not be continued by going backward, as the Democratic party proposed; it could only be continued by going forward and opening still newer avenues for American energy. He said, "There cannot be a better test than this, let all whose condition improved under McKinley, vote for McKinley, and all whose condition has grown worse since McKinley, vote against him. If any man thinks that his present prosperity has not been made possible by McKinley, I want him to tell me how it will be increased by Bryan."

TWO PARTIES COMPARED.

Reviewing the past and present conditions, he said: "The Democratic party produced a deficit in time of peace, the Republican party produced a surplus in time of war. At the attitude of the two parties in reference to foreign possessions, he said: 'The Republican party and the flag in the sky. The Democratic party and the flag in the dust. This is the attitude of the party of Calhoun and the attitude of the nineteenth century. National domain, the consolidation of the people; the extension of territory have been the incentive and persistent efforts of the American people since first they found their separate banner out among the flags of men, all other questions have been incidental temporary. Issues of a decade ago, a day, and then political parties have lost and won and had their little day, equally unimportant, victory or defeat, but every political party that has stood for the traditional policy of the Republican party, and the American people every party that has opposed their onward march the American people have overthrown.'"

May Make It Interesting for Irving

Charles H. Irving, alias C. C. Atwood, if the stories of the true, has been leading a double life in this city. Both claim him as a husband, Irving is quite well known in the city as a pianist and musician. The matter was brought to the attention of the grand jury yesterday, and the grand jury witnesses were present, not more than a dozen, and the grand jury did not collect more evidence against Irving is not in the city at present, having disappeared Sept. 20.

Irving, alleged wife began a few months ago, when he met Miss Selma Atwood at one of the hotels where he was employed. He said he had been a widower for nine years, and paid the young lady considerable attention. He proposed marriage and was accepted. A home was neatly furnished, with what he said was furniture from his old home. Atwood traveled, and there he kept away from home about half of the time. A few weeks ago, when he was out of the city, a collection of women of the furniture houses called and said Atwood had not promptly met the payments on the furniture. This, she said, was the first time she had been called, and she called at the establishment. She learned that the furniture had not been purchased by C. C. Atwood, but in the name of Charles H. Irving, south. A call was made there and the truth was revealed to the two women. "Mrs. Atwood," and of course, she followed. The man said he had never been legally married to the first woman, and he disappeared a few days later. Mrs. Irving says they were married, but says the marriage papers have been stolen.

CANNOT FIND THEM.

Some Democratic Primary Returns Are Missing.

The Democratic returns from some of the districts from the Third and Eleventh wards are missing, and the Auditor Minor has been unable to obtain track of them, and he has ordered the city clerk for an order for the inspection of the ballot boxes in the custody of the city clerk. Missing returns are sought in the boxes.

UNLIKE MERCURY AND POTASH, which not only do not cure, but add other poisons to the blood, forcing the disease back into the system, thus producing Mercurial Rheumatism, decay of the bones, and a complete collapse.

Mr. Wm. E. Ballard, of 322 Stevens St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was under the doctor's treatment for eleven months, but continued to get worse. The doctor advised me to go to Hot Springs, but I decided to try S. S. S. Before I had finished the first bottle my scalp was well and my hair cut fell out. I continued the remedy and it cured me thoroughly and permanently."

The Engineering Contract company, which constructed the power house and dam at Apple River Falls, Wis., will today turn over the plant to the St. Paul company. One of the officers of the company stated yesterday that in his opinion the power to be had there is far more than is needed, and that it will approach 7,000-horse power. At any rate, there is more than enough water coming through the flume to operate all of the machinery in the power house.
