HELP CAME TOO LATE.

ROBERT MAIR, THROWN FROM A BUDDY INTO A POND, IS DROWNED.

Rudolph Mair, ten years old, was accidentally drowned yesterday afternoon in a pond of water at Lexington and Ireland streets. Young Mair had started on a hunting trip with his uncle Andrew, and as they passed the pond, the horse was driven into it to be watered. They drove in about twenty feet, and in some way the boy tipped over into the hole and the lad and his uncle were thrown into the water. The uncle managed to get out and it was only a few minutes later about thirty minutes after the accident that the boy was pulled out and found to be dead. The coroner was notified and ordered the remains sent to the lad's home, 601 Blair street.

WILL SING A CANTATA.

Special Musical Service at St. Paul's Church Tomorrow Evening.

Sunday evening, at St. Paul's church, Ninth and Olive streets, will be one of unusual interest, being the first Sunday evening after the return of the rector, Rev. John Wright, who has been absent abroad for the past fourteen months, and will be celebrated by a musical service rendered by the choir, who will sing Garrett's "Harvest Cantata," which will take about thirty minutes to sing (with the aid of a former named Atkins. It was too late, however. The coroner was notified and ordered the remains sent to the lad's home, 601 Blair street.

MORE BOXES OF GOLD.

To secure additional information directly from the people, it is proposed to send little boxes of gold and greenbacks to persons who write the most interesting, detailed and truthful descriptions of their experience on the following topics:

1. How have you been affected by coffee drinking and by changing from coffee to Postum?

2. Do you know any one who has been driven away from Postum because it came to the table weak and characterless at the first trial?

3. Did you feel such a person right regarding the easy way to make Postum clear, black and with a crisp, rich taste?

4. Have you ever found a better way to make it than to use four heaping teaspoons of the pint of water, let stand on stove until real boiling begins, then note the clock and allow it to continue easy boiling full fifteen minutes from that time, stirring down occasionally? (A piece of butter about the size of a Navy bean placed in the pot will prevent boiling over.)

5. Give names and account of those you know to have been cured or helped in health by the dismissal of coffee and the daily use of Postum Food Coffee in its place.

Write names and addresses of twenty friends whom you believe would be benefited by leaving off coffee. (Your name will not be divulged to them.)

Address your letter to the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., writing your own name and address clearly.

Be honest and truthful; don't write poetry or fanciful letters; just plain, truthful statements.

Decision will be made between October 30th and November 10th, 1900, by three judges, not members of the Postum Cereal Co., and a neat little box containing a $10 gold piece sent to each of the five best writers, a box containing a $5 gold piece to each of the twenty best writers, a $2 greenback to each of the 100 next best, and a $1 greenback to each of the 200 next best writers, making cash prizes distributed to 225 persons.

Almost every one interested in pure food and drink is willing to have their name and letter appear in the papers, for such help as it may offer to the human race. However, a request to omit name will be respected.

Every friend of Postum is urged to write, and each letter will be held in high esteem by the company; as an evidence of such friendship, while the little boxes of gold and envelopes of money will reach many modest writers whose plain and sensible letters contain the facts desired, although the sender may have but small faith in winning at the time of writing.

Talk this subject over with your friends and see how many among you can win prizes. It is a good, honest competition and the best kind of a cause. Cut this statement out, for it will not appear again.

Hokanson Threatened His Wife.

Swan Hokanson, living at Park and Como streets, was arrested last night on a warrant sworn out by his wife charging him with having threatened her life.

SOCIAL LIFE IN ST. PAUL.

An important event in social and club circles will be the state meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution, to be held in the Auditorium of the Park Congregational church, Wednesday, Oct. 10. It is expected that over 300 women, members of the various chapters throughout the state, will be in attendance.

Miss Mary E. McPhee, daughter of Donald McPhee, of Summit avenue, and William M. Bratton, of Sterling, N. D., were married Wednesday evening at the bride's home, Dr. A. B. Meldrum, of the Central Presbyterian church, officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eliza Bratton, and the best man was Roy Wright. The bride wore white mouseline de soie over white swiss. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Thirty-five guests were entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Bratton will reside in Sterling.

Mrs. L. C. Gould and Mrs. Shafer, entertained at dinner Thursday evening at their home on Portland avenue. Mrs. Eugene Merritt, of Chicago, was the guest of honor.

Mrs. J. F. Tostevin, of Fuller street, has returned from La Crosse.

Mrs. Stewart L. Moore, of Holy avenue, returned yesterday after a four months' absence in Europe.

Mrs. Horace E. Lamb, of Laurel avenue, will go to Sioux City today.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Eden, of Laurel avenue, returned from the East.

Miss Johnson, of Los Angeles, is the guest of Miss Grace, of Iglehart street.

Mrs. S. L. Moore, of Holy avenue, is entertaining Mrs. E. P. Palmer, of New York.

Mrs. Emma Lyons, of Dayton avenue, will go to St. Paul next week.

Mrs. James Compton, of Grand forks, is the guest of Mrs. Caldwell, of Goodrich avenue.

Mrs. Thomas Reilly, of Arundel street, is in Sheldon, Ia.

Mrs. H. S. Johnson, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. P. Palmer, of Cleveland, O.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Buehl, who have been the guests of Mrs. and Mrs. Olson, of John street, have returned to Rapid City, S. D.

DRECOLL OF VIENNA.

The Globe of next Sunday will print an illustration of a charming creation by Drecol, the fashion designer of Vienna, with a letter written by the famous costume artist himself.

HIGH MASONS TO MEET.

ANNUAL CONVENTIONS OF TWO BODIES NEXT WEEK.

Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock the grand council of Royal and Select Master Masons will hold its thirty-first annual assembly.

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and apart from the grand master, George Forsyth of Brainerd, who retires, it is likely that the present officers will be advanced one step each.

The list of officers at present is: Geo. Forsyth, grandmaster; Robert T. McCann, deputy grandmaster; Jerome Cooley, principal conductor of the work; Jean C. Fischer, the grand sentinel, was one of the two members who died the past year.

On Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock, in the Masonic hall, the thirty-ninth annual convention of the Royal Arch Masons will convene. Josiah A. Peck, grand priest, will assume his duties at that time. The other officers, who will probably be advanced one grade each, are: Andrew P. Swanstrom, St. Paul, deputy high priest; Charles H. Brinsmaid, Minneapolis, grand high priest; E. C. Cooley, grand scribe.

Solon Armstrong, the grand treasurer, has held the office for twenty-eight years, and will probably be again re-elected. Thomas Montgomery, the grand recorder, will also be re-elected. He has held his present office for eleven years.

During the noon recess on Tuesday Thomas Montgomery, who is president of the assembly of high priests, will confer the degree of priesthood in the holy and exalted order of high priests on a class composed of the companions elected masters of chapters.

MANY WERE CONVERTED.

Evangelist Romig Meeting With Success at First Christian Church.

The meeting of the First Christian church, Nelson and Farrington avenues, was well attended last night. Evangelist Romig preached a very strong sermon on Christian baptism, and was closely followed by his audience. A number of confessions were made. The song "Ninety and Nine" was illustrated by the stereopticon.

On Tuesday night a special programme will be given.

Did Not Get Possession.

Alonzo W. Payne has begun action in the district court to recover from Leslie E. Hackney the sum of $300. Payne, for which he agreed to pay $1,100. He paid $200 and when he came to take possession of the farm he alleged that Hackney refused to let him have it and would not return the amount paid. He now sues for the amount paid, and also for additional damages.

HER ALLOWANCE IS CUT.

JUDGE GRANTS MRS. KITTSOON INTERIM ALIMONY OF $100 PER MONTH.

Pending her divorce from Alfred B. Kittson, Mrs. Violet K. Kittson will receive $50 a month for the support of her and her child, $25 suit money at once and an additional $25 when the action comes up for trial. In addition to this she is to have the use of the Kittson homestead at White Bear.

The above is the substance of an order handed down yesterday by Judge Lewis and burles from public sight for awhile, the differences existing between Mrs. Kittson and her husband. Mrs. Kittson asked for $100 a month alimony, but the court cut the amount one-half.

Three for Judge Kelly and two for Judge Otis was the record of the divorce suits in the district court yesterday. Desires in the district court in each case and the court was kept busy listening to the recital of woes as furnished by the petitioners.

The case of William Patterson, eighty years of age, who asked for a severance of the galling bonds from his wife, Nora Patterson, was possibly the most interesting. She was sixty, he said, and they had only been married twenty years when one fine morning Nora walked off with the savings of a life time, amounting to $100. Nora went to Ireland and he has never seen her since. Judge Kelly granted his petition without further delay.

Desertion also was what Eliza Edwards alleged, and after hearing the evidence, Judge Kelly granted her an absolute divorce. She was twenty-one and he twenty-three years of age and after two years of married life the husband left for parts unknown.

"I haven't seen him since 1888," was what Mrs. Lena Leonard told Judge Kelly in asking for a divorce from her husband, Charles Leonard. They were married in Farmington in 1888, and while at Grand Island in 1889, she learned that her husband's married state was not what it should be and left. The decree was granted.

Just seventeen days the marriage vows were kept intact," Charles Hessler told Judge Kelly in petitioning the court to be divorced from his wife, Ida Hessler. They were married in 1886 and two weeks later Mrs. Hessler departed, taking her children, Anna and Charles. He was twenty-seven and she twenty-five years of age.

Julia Bedor was granted a divorce from her husband, Frank Bedor, a railroad man, on the grounds of desertion. Married at Hudson, July 11, 1891, the husband left her in 1897, and has since refused to live with her. Her name by her first husband, Webber, was restored in addition to giving her a divorce.
