

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR GOVERNOR LIND

Additional Reports from Chairmen of County Committees of the Same Cheerful Tenor.

Increased Pluralities Predicted in Counties Carried Before and Increased Democratic Vote in the Republican Strongholds.

The Globe of Tuesday last contained letters from the Democratic chairmen of forty counties giving an idea of present conditions in their respective parts of the state, with the probable strength of Gov. Lind, as compared with two years ago. Every man claimed his county would give the governor an increased vote. The Globe herewith gives its readers some additional information of the same kind. While nearly all the counties are among the twenty-five carried by Eustis two years ago, the letters are of the same general tenor as the first batch, and that, in brief, is that Gov. Lind will have an increased plurality in every one of them over the vote Van Sant will get. The same kind of reports are received daily at the headquarters of all the parties in St. Paul, Republican, Democrat and People's party. The Republicans have nothing to make a campaign on against Lind, except money, but they haven't enough of that to change the inevitable result.

gradually. We need help and lots of it, so as to keep the boys in line. —C. W. VANDYKE, Assistant Chairman.

GOV. LIND WILL HAVE A LARGELY INCREASED VOTE. MANTORVILLE, Minn., Oct. 17.—Responding to your recent request, for a statement as to the political outlook in this county, I will say that I am firmly of the opinion Mr. Bryan and Mr. Lind will both have a largely increased vote over that of '98 and '99, and that the vote for our candidate for congress, Mr. Brown, will be equally good, if not in excess of either. Of course, Dodge is a strong Republican county, but everything indicates that the people are thinking, and, I personally, know of many changes. —G. H. PARKER, Chairman Democratic Committee.

GOV. LIND WILL MAKE INROADS INTO THIS REPUBLICAN COUNTY. JACKSON, Oct. 16.—The campaign in this county is proceeding nicely, and the Democratic committee is very active throughout the county, especially in the townships. Nothing definite can be said as to the probable outcome of the county election for governor in July next, but I believe a county seat fight here, and the county seat question will enter more or less into the election of the county officers. The county is Republican by 400 or 500 normally, but we are in hopes of electing at least four county officers.

GOV. LIND'S VOTE WILL SHOW A NOTABLE INCREASE. DETROIT CITY, Minn., Oct. 19.—From what I can learn from county candidates that are canvassing the county, there will be an increased Democratic vote in county, state and national. It will be more noticeable in favor of Gov. Lind. —M. V. B. DAVIS, Chairman County Committee.

BLUE EARTH. Blue Earth county has never been in such good condition before, and the greatest harmony prevails here. No county can boast of a larger number of enthusiastic and unselfish workers. Yours very truly, —ARTHUR SCHAUB, Chairman County Committee.

CHIPPEVA. MONTEVIDEO, Minn., Oct. 15.—Chippewa county will give Lind at least 200 majority. McKinley will in all probability carry the county very comfortably. The fight between McCleary and Mathews will be close, and it is doubtful which will get the larger vote. For the legislative, the Democratic candidate has withdrawn owing to the Populists persisting in running a man against him to divide the vote. This gives the Republicans the best chance. The local county ticket will be a surprise party. A very even vote will be cast on both sides in many cases. The Democrats will make considerable gains as a party over previous campaigns. Montevideo City, will be a small majority Democratic. Clara City, also will be a majority Democratic; other villages in the county may be found Democratic. The outlying townships will supply whatever majority McKinley gets. —A. J. BENNETT, —GEORGE H. CLAGGETT, CHISAGO.

INDICATIONS POINT TO AN INCREASED VOTE FOR LIND. CENTER CITY, Minn., Oct. 15.—The situation in Chisago county is difficult to state at present. It appears some one has taken a contract to deliver everything to the Republican party. Until yesterday, it was not known that any opposing candidates would go on the ticket. The county ballot has the following Democratic candidates: P. M. Gust, county attorney; Archie Fox, legislator; A. J. Stone for congress. The indications point to an increase over two years ago for John Lind and the state, with a proportionate gain for W. T. Bryan.

WADENA. The Majority Given to Eustis Will Be Wiped Out. WADENA, Oct. 16.—Normally, Wadena may be considered a Republican county, but there will certainly be a pronounced slump to Democracy this year. The farmers are very reticent when approached on politics, and their aversion for engaging in political conversation is puzzling to candidates and managers. It is hardly to be expected that Bryan will carry the county, though his gain will be considerable. Lind, however, has gained

Continued on Fifth Page.

BIXBY'S NEW PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

Report Says That the Republican Committee Is Telling Every Visitor From the State to Go Home and Make a Bluff at Betting on Van Sant.

ARE STARTING FOR PEKIN

CENTER OF INTEREST IN CHINA IS MOVED TO THE CAPITAL. WALTERSEE IS ON HIS WAY. The British and Russian Ministers Have Also Left Tien Tsin—Washington Government Well Pleased.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—According to the latest telegrams from the Chinese situation received at the Japanese legation, four Japanese commissariat soldiers were attacked by insurgents near Peking, a village between Peking and Tsung Chow, and were lost sight of. A detachment sent on the 16th from Peking, but as the village was already deserted, it was burned down as their temporary abode. Field Marshal Count Waldersee and staff left Tien Tsin on the 14th for Peking by train as far as Yangtsun and thence on horseback. The empress dowager's palace will be their temporary abode. They will return to Tien Tsin in three weeks. Sir Ernest M. Satow, the new British minister to China, left Tien Tsin by boat for Peking on the 15th. A body of German troops burned down a small village below the German settlement at Tien Tsin, after killing eighteen Chinese and looting the houses. The village appealed for protection to the provisional government at Tien Tsin, which, however, was refused, as it was outside their jurisdiction.

CABINET MEETING. The cabinet meeting today was devoted principally to the consideration of the Chinese situation. After the meeting the members seemed impressed with the favorable report that had been taken and the prospect of a satisfactory adjustment. The government has received the proposals of Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching, offering indemnity and guarantees for the future, and they have been accepted in good faith. For the present the negotiations will proceed through Minister Conger.

UNOFFICIAL REPORT THAT THE CHINESE MADE NO OBJECTION. TIEN Tsin, Oct. 19.—Reliable unofficial reports say the advance guard of the allied forces entered Peking on Wednesday, Oct. 17. The city, it is added, was practically deserted, and offered no resistance. The British column captured seventeen Imperial soldiers at Wei-Nan-Sien Oct. 10, who were part of the force of 2,000 men sent to disperse the Boxers in that region. The captives assert that they killed 200 Boxers and were returned to Pa-Chow when they were fired upon and dispersed by the French. Runners report that many Chinese are returning to the villages in the path of the German-French column.

CONSTABLE SHOT DEAD. Nevada Bank Robbers Add Murder to Their Crime. NEVADA, Mo., Oct. 19.—Three masked men dynamited the safe of the Farmer's bank during the night. Constable Wm. Maron, who heard the explosion, fired his revolver to alarm the citizens. The robbers returned the fire, killing Maron instantly. Sheriff Ewing with a posse and bloodhounds immediately started in pursuit of the robbers, who secured, it is stated, about $3,000.

KILLED BY A THRASHER. HENRY S. D., Oct. 19.—(Special)—Daniel H. Williams was crushed between a thrashing engine and a tender Oct. 18, and instantly killed. His home and relatives are unknown.

LIND RECEIVES AN OVATION AT ADA

Greeted by Largest Political Audience Ever Assembled in That Town.

ADA, Minn., Oct. 19.—(Special)—Gov. John Lind spoke here this afternoon and addressed the largest gathering of people who have ever assembled in Ada to listen to a political address. Owing to lack of train connections he was compelled to drive by team from Warren, a distance of seventy miles, after 12 o'clock the night before. He arrived at Ada a few minutes before 4 o'clock and the opera house, with a seating capacity of 600, was filled long before the governor arrived. He spoke for about one hour and a half mainly on state issues.

HANGS IN THE BALANCE

FATE OF HENRY E. YOUTSEY NOW RESTS WITH THE JURORS. EX-GOV. TAYLOR IS SCORED. Severe Castigation of the Fugitive by State's Attorney Franklin in His Closing Address to the Jury.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Oct. 19.—There will be no verdict in the Youtsey case tonight. When court met at 8:30 tonight the case was formally submitted to the jury. The judge told them they could use their own pleasure about considering the case tonight or tomorrow morning. They preferred to take the papers to their room tonight and report back at 9 o'clock tomorrow. They were sent to their boarding house with that understanding. Henry E. Youtsey, on trial here charged with being a principal in the shooting of Gov. Goebel, was reported greatly improved today from his recent illness, during which he has been carried on a bed to the jury room of Judge Cantrell's court, while the trial proceeded. Youtsey, it was reported this morning, seemed well during the night and took nourishment in the ordinary way on awakening.

SCORED GOV. TAYLOR. Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin began his speech at 3:30 this afternoon and spoke until 7 o'clock. His eloquence at times was thrilling, and he brought sobriety to the jury. Judge Cantrell on the bench, and Judge Askew, of the defense, was visibly affected. He scored ex-Gov. Taylor, saying that if he had two sparks of courage he would strike here and help Youtsey out of this trouble if any of the witnesses had lied on Youtsey; that if Taylor had even only one spark of manhood he would have struck the jury and the witness.

AMERICAN CO-OPERATION NEEDED. "The church," said the cardinal, "needs in Cuba and the Philippines the co-operation of the American government for the protection of its rights and liberties. In Cuba the American government needs the co-operation of the church for the pacification of those countries. In the Philippines the American government needs the co-operation of the church for the pacification of those countries. The cardinal also made his elevation to the cardinalate, had been superior general of the Carmelite Monks, and had been in Cuba and the Philippines for several years. He had been superior general of the Carmelite Monks, and had been in Cuba and the Philippines for several years. He had been superior general of the Carmelite Monks, and had been in Cuba and the Philippines for several years.

WARREN, Minn., Oct. 19.—(Special)—Gov. Lind spoke at Haddock, Stephen and Warren yesterday to immense crowds. At Haddock the largest hall in the city was unable to accommodate half the crowd. At Stephen the train was held for ten minutes, where the governor spoke to a crowd of several hundred. At Warren not one-third of the people could get into the hall where he was escorted by the Warren band and a torchlight procession of several hundred. At each station the governor was greeted by hundreds. Kittson, Roseau and Marshall counties will each give Gov. Lind a larger majority than ever before.

IS COUCHED THE POSITION OF THE GOVERNMENT TO THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

IS COMMENDED BY THE POPE. NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Archbishop Ireland, in conversation today, touching the sentiment at Rome towards the Catholic church in the Philippines and in Cuba, remarked that he felt quite willing to repeat what he recently said to him in Rome on this subject. He said he did so the more readily that the eminent persons with whom he had the honor of conversing, the pope and others, themselves to be in no way unwilling to have the statements made by them become public. The archbishop said: "In one of the audiences which he graciously granted me, the pope said: 'We are well pleased with the relations of the American government to the church in Cuba and the Philippines. The American government gives proof of good faith and exists in respect for the rights of justice and of liberty of conscience. We have confidence in the intelligence and the spirit of justice of the American people at large. We believe that the future will lead us to a change of sentiment towards it. Under the American people there will be a respect for rights of property and of conscience. You will thank in my name the cardinal of the republic for what is being done.'"

AMERICAN CO-OPERATION NEEDED. "The church," said the cardinal, "needs in Cuba and the Philippines the co-operation of the American government for the protection of its rights and liberties. In Cuba the American government needs the co-operation of the church for the pacification of those countries. In the Philippines the American government needs the co-operation of the church for the pacification of those countries. The cardinal also made his elevation to the cardinalate, had been superior general of the Carmelite Monks, and had been in Cuba and the Philippines for several years. He had been superior general of the Carmelite Monks, and had been in Cuba and the Philippines for several years. He had been superior general of the Carmelite Monks, and had been in Cuba and the Philippines for several years.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LOUISIANA JUSTICE. PLAZUEMINES, La., Oct. 19.—Milroy Johnson, colored, who shot and seriously wounded a conductor on the Texas and Pacific railway Wednesday, was lynched early today. The lynch mob was conveyed him in a skiff from West Baton Rouge to Port Allen. When the skiff touched shore a number of men were on the shore, and carried him to hand over Johnson to the sheriff, who carried him to the jail, where he was held.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

GUIDE OF SOUTH DAKOTA

SENATOR PETTIGREW IS POSITIVE THAT STATE WILL GO FOR BRYAN. HANNA'S VISIT OF NO AVAIL. VOTERS ARE THINKING, AND HE BELIEVES THEY WILL VOTE DEMOCRATIC TICKET. LIEN WILL BE NEXT GOVERNOR. He is Making a Strong Campaign, and Will Add to the Weight of the Ticket.

United States Senator R. F. Pettigrew, of South Dakota, spent yesterday in St. Paul. Business other than political matters he seems to the city, but he found time to talk somewhat of politics while here. He also paid a visit to the Democratic headquarters at the Merchants hotel. Senator Pettigrew as very soon even attacking him (the senator), which might be considered a fortunate thing for the Republican ruler to have done. The influence which the lordly Marcus wielded and the sentiment which he created by his talks in the state are not regarded by Senator Pettigrew as very serious. There is, he says, very little effect noticeable by the visit of Hanna to South Dakota. None of his meetings seem to have attracted special attention, and the voters were not by any means led to change their minds or opinions by anything he said.

SURE OF SUCCESS. Senator Pettigrew was asked what he believed of his own prospects. He is not unconfident of the fact that his opponents are making the fight of their lives against him in every conceivable way and in all parts of the state. He is fully aware of the fact that the Republicans to the United States senate will mean a relentless fight, but he feels confident of success. Says the senator: "The Republicans have started speakers of ability and genius in every district, perhaps every precinct in the state, and they are bending their mightiest effort to attain success at the polls this fall. Most, in fact nearly all, of the speakers are importations, and in nearly every case they are men of considerable ability and note in their party."

DEMOCRACY'S HARD FIGHT. Senator Pettigrew says: "No one has any right to boast that South Dakota will do this or that she will do that this year, but any man who is impartial with himself and has studied the field and conditions carefully and honestly can say that he believes from the best information obtainable and from the general indications, that the state will go both for Bryan and the state ticket." Democracy, according to the senator's theory, has a hard, but a safe fight.

LIEN WILL BE NEXT GOVERNOR. The South Dakotan, while he believed that his state would give Bryan and Stevens a majority and would elect the state ticket, was not ready to deal with majorities. Lien, the Democratic candidate for governor, will, if Senator Pettigrew's contention is correct, be elected. The same result will accrue to the candidacy of ex-Gov. Leet, who is running for congress, unless the senator's forecasts are correct. Lien is a Scandinavian, and he is going to draw heavily from his fellow countrymen, who are quite numerous in South Dakota. He is characterized by strong, and active and able campaigner. Senator Pettigrew was asked whether he thought the influence of Mr. Lien would have the effect of diverting the voters from the state ticket, and he replied that it would have that effect, but that it would be hard to make. Lien might create a sentiment in favor of the state ticket, but around him only, and not favor Bryan to any considerable degree, and yet in his opinion Mr. Bryan was sure of the state.

PERSONALLY Senator Pettigrew is just now a very active man. He is improving each shining hour and is making great headway for his party in South Dakota, as there are scores of evidences to indicate.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

SHE SHOT AND FLED

COMPANION OF A SUICIDE MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARS AFTER HIS SHOOTING. ARLINGTON HOTEL MYSTERY. WHO WAS THE CONSORT OF JAMES TURFURS, WHO KILLED HIMSELF LAST NIGHT? "JAMES MILLER AND WIFE". Dead Man Had Been Staying at the Hotel at Intervals With a Woman Known as "Mrs. Miller."

James Turfurs, a bartender, committed suicide about 6:15 last evening at the Arlington hotel by shooting himself twice, once in the chest and once in the right ear. He did not die immediately and the patrol wagon was called and took him to the city hospital. He died, however, just as they were putting him on the operating table at the hospital. He left a note, scribbled on a piece of card board, which read: "My name is Jim Turfurs. Please notify David Chambers, Sauphauk hotel, Mankato, Minn." The circumstances surrounding the suicide are very peculiar, and nobody knows why he killed himself. He is thought to have been drinking heavily before he committed the deed as there were a number of beer and whisky bottles, empty, on the table in the room.

Turfurs, a well known around town, having worked at the Windsor hotel for six years. Last spring he left there and went to work for Pat Gallagher, who runs the Interurban saloon at Eighth and Washburn. REGISTERED TUESDAY. Last Tuesday noon he came to the Arlington hotel with a woman and registered as James Miller and wife. He killed himself shortly after 6 o'clock last night. He used to room at 578 North Exchange street. The night clerk on getting to the door found it locked and he immediately went down and got Officer Anselmy and they broke the door open. On entering the room they found Turfurs lying on the bed, with hardly anything on him, and blood spattered over the bed.

Coroner Nelson was notified and decided that an inquest was necessary. Nothing is known of his folks, except that they live in Cleveland, O., and that he has a cousin named David Chambers, at the Sauphauk hotel, Mankato, Minn. The remains were taken to the morgue. Shortly before the Globe went to press it was ascertained by the police that Turfurs' companion was a Mrs. Nellie Schmidt. She had not then been located. The police are also informed that Turfurs had recently been told by a physician that his condition was such that this had preyed upon his mind.

IN HIS FINAL REST. Burial of the Remains of Hon. W. L. Wilson. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 19.—The remains of the late William Wilson, postmaster general in President Cleveland's cabinet, and president of Washington and Lee university, of Lexington, Va., were laid to rest today in the family lot at Edgemoor cemetery. The procession to the burial ground started at 1 o'clock. The cortege was composed of John Rowan, Camp Confederate veterans, ministers of the gospel, Washington and Lee university students, bearers, the family, ex-president Cleveland, Hon. John S. Straus and other distinguished visitors. The city was thronged with visitors who had come to pay their last tribute to the memory of one of West Virginia's most illustrious citizens. At the request of the deceased the ceremonies at the grave were very simple. Rev. Thomas A. Johnson, Baptist, of Hagerstown, officiated at a selection. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Abner C. Hopkins, Presbyterian, of Charleston, and a choir from the church sang "Lead Kindly Light." The benediction was delivered by Rev. R. S. Copland, Episcopal, of Charleston. At the cemetery were assembled several thousand people. All places of business were closed.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.

LORENZO MARQUES, Oct. 19.—Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock this morning on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers would attack him. The feeling of the Boers against Mr. Kruger for fleeing from the country is very strong. He left the governor's house in a hired carriage, accompanied by Dr. Haymann, the governor's acting manager in private carriage. The party drove through the custom house and embarked on the passenger jetty. It is reported that the Gelderland will sail tomorrow.