GOV. THEODORE ROOSEVELT
CLOSES HIS LONG SPELL-

FINISHED HIS TRIP AT OWEGO

The Home of Senator Thomas C. Platt—Calls Bryanism and Crokerism Paramount in Na-

OWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Theodore Roosevelt, Republican candidate for vice president, completed tonight at this point one of the most remarkable campaigns talked to what is estimated to be 3,000,000 people. This record includes more speeches made, more miles covered and more places visited than all other candidates for the offices of president and vice president of the United States for the last 100 years, with the exception of the record made by W. J. Bryan in 1896, and it exceeds Mr. Bryan's record, which was 529 speeches, made at 19,000 miles covered. This wonderful campaign was directed by a two weeks' tour of the state of New York, during which the candidate traveled 2,253 miles, through 37 counties, and made 120 speeches, the majority of them from the rear platform of the train. Mr. Roosevelt finished this tour in excellent health and good spirits, and, as he said tonight, "with a slightly weakened voice."

but able to go on with the campaign a couple of weeks more."

The last day of this campaign included eight stops between Jamestown, in Chautauqua county, and inclusive of Owego, in Tioga county. The stops today varied from two hours in duration at Olean to ten minutes at other points. He finished tonight at Owego, the home of United States Senator Thomas C. Platt. Among things which Gov. Roosevelt said in Owego, Hornellsville, Wellsville and Addison, the last four places on the day's tour, were these:

THE FULL DINNER PAIL.

"Mr. Bryan is now inclined to laugh at the argument of the full dinner pail. Nobody laughed about it four years ago. It is a mighty sight easier to laugh about when it is full than when it is empty. When it is empty it is serious business. If this nation chooses to turn bedlamite and nut Mr. Bryan and his allies will and put Mr. Bryan and try his policies, we have nobody but ourselves to thank for the disaster that will surely follow.

It won't do any good to say that we mean well; that we do not mean to hurt ourselves. What I am saying applies just as much to Democrats as to Republicans. It is to the interest of all of us to have prosperity and good times. The only chance of Mr. Bryan is in that queer flection which people have when they are weak.

"There are two important issues in this campaign. One is the issue of how to really change the nation and Crokerize the state." ("They can't do it," came an interruption.)

"I continued the governor's letter

No," continued the governor, "they can't do it. Because our people are not willing to see the level of the state brought down to the level of Tammany government of New York city. I appeal to every Democrat who believes in decency in politics to stand with us and avert a calamity. I ask you to compare the state administration, department for department, from top to bottom, put each in comparison with the government of New York, with its blackmail and crime, its corruption, its indifference to the de-corruption, its indifference to the demands of the people, make the comparison and you cannot help resolving that no change to Tammany hall shall be made in this state. I ask you support for the re-election of President McKinley and the election of Mr. Ocell, not on party grounds, for I feel this is far more than a mere party contest, but because I believe we have a right to appeal to good citizenship, to the principles of decent government and challenge the aid of all men who have the honor and welfare of the nation at heart."
