NOTABLE CHANGES. THE EXPANSION OF A POPULAR INSTITUTION—UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITIES.

Thirteen millions of people added to our population in the last ten years means that room must be found for them. Their daily needs, as well as the daily pleasure, must be provided with adequate space. St. Paul takes pride in its part of the tremendous expansion, which results in some radical changes and re-adjustments of existing conditions. Among those is the projected enlargement of the Young Men's Christian association quarters, in the Dyer building, already overcrowded. They must have more room, and there is only one way to get it—we must make room. A large stock of instruments, several of our various repairs departments, and the space used for piano storage, is now occupied by us, but all this must be moved into other parts of the building, which means crowding out of something else. They must go at once—as there is no time to lose. Our friends and patrons are to have the benefit, and we are a valuable one. For this purpose we have arranged a SPECIAL ALTERNATION SALE a new and used pianos and organs. Our warehouses are loaded with the products of leading manufacturers. REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES ARE AFTER PLACE HELD BY MARY WHITE.

They Have Sailed Their Castors into the Field Early in the Contest for the Place. Judging from the number of candidates that have already appeared for the office of state labor commissioner, it is the office of the most desirable within the giving of the gubernatorial election. E. B. Lott, who held the place for a number of years, is reported to be a candidate for the place, and George W. Meyers, of Minneapolis, president of the State Officers' union, is another who is reported to be out after it. L. G. Powers, who held the place under the last Republican state regime, has since found a fat berth in the census department at Washington, and presumably will not be a candidate again for the state job. S. P. Spates, of the Seventh ward, is unable to handle in his candidacy for enrolling clerk of the house. Mr. Spates lives in the Seventh ward, and the opposition to him emanates from the Fourth ward. The bids will be awarded by the county auditor to advertise for bids for $100,000 worth of bonds, for the erection of the new jail on block 20, St. Paul proper. The bids will be opened at the regular meeting of the commissioners next Monday morning. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Mayor Smith was the only one that voted against the resolution. These bonds are to be known as "bonds of Ramsey county for the erection and construction of a county jail," dated Dec. 1, 1900, issued in denotation of $500,000, to a total amount of $100,000, at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent, payable semi-annually, according to the coupons attached. The principal is to be paid twenty years from date. After considerable discussion of the jail commission yesterday the Chamber of Commerce has adopted the plan for a new county jail, to be erected on the northeast corner of the city. Mr. Peet introduced a resolution which, after some discussion, was passed under a suspension of the rules, taking the place of the one calling for Kasota stone. The county commissioners be requested to confer with the city council and consider the plan for a new jail, accommodations may not be provided for the central police station and the city prisoners in the same building. President Dorr was empowered to select three members in denotation of the national irrigation congress in Chicago. Charles A. Towne arrived in St. Paul yesterday afternoon from Duluth and returned to Minneapolis in the evening, where he will remain until the 15th. Corser, James R. Bennett Jr., of St. Cloud, was with Mr. Towne. Mr. Towne is again settled back in his law practice in Duluth, and will follow his legal profession so far as any present arrangement is concerned. He is a member of the Minnesota bar, and has a long experience of political work, whether he was Republican or Democrat. Mr. Towne said he would be glad to invest in California would go for the state. The eloquent Minnesota states that all the talk by certain grasping politicians about the "democratic" party is a mere ruse to attract the party to a private ward, and two attendants to the city hospital, 17 Aurora street, says an attendant who visited Gustafson, and he escaped from them and plunged through a window. On examination by the physicians, Gustafson has sustained a fracture of a small bone in the right arm, besides a number of other injuries. Gustafson was thirty-two years old, and leaves a wife and two children.

PETER WHITE, AN OLD RESIDENT, PASSES AWAY VERY SUDDENLY. HE HAD WORKED HALF HIS LIFE IN THE BLACKSMITH SHOP OF THE GREAT NORTHERN ROAD.

When Mrs. Peter White, of 144 Granite street, tried to arouse her apparently sleeping husband a few minutes before midnight, she was horrified to find his body cold in death. Coroner Nelson was notified, and decided that no inquest was necessary, heart failure evidently being the cause of death. Mr. White was a native of Hartford, Conn., forty-two years of age, a blacksmith by trade, and for twenty-one years had worked in the Great Northern shops, a few blocks from his home. He had worked half his life in the Blacksmith Shop of the Great Northern Road. BARTENDER LEAPS THROUGH WINDOW WHILE DEMENTED. Christ Gustafson, living at 253 L'Orleans street, jumped through a window at the hospital yesterday morning, and while in a violent state, and died shortly thereafter. The post mortem showed that Gustafson had chronic Bright's disease. There were several bruises on the body, but none were of such a nature as would have caused death. Gustafson was a bartender, and worked at the East Seventh street. He was taken to the city hospital, 17 Aurora street, by the doctors diagnosed the case as typhoid fever, and he died shortly thereafter. The county commissioners have clinched the matter by accepting plans and specifications for the new structure which do not make any provision for the additional features. Unofficially the county commissioners say that the jail will, to all appearances, be an extension of the northeast wing of the court house, and that there are still two wings on the north side of the building which may be built out for police purposes if the city desired to do so. 20 Years of Vile Catarrh.—Chas. O. Brown, journalist, of Duluth, Minn., writes: "I have been a sufferer from Brown's and Nasal Catarrh for over 20 years, during which my head has been kept up almost constantly in a miserable state. Within 15 minutes after using Dr. Apen's Catarrh Powder I obtained relief. The cure was complete, if not entirely, cured me." Sold by Ticknor & Jaggar, Hotel Ryan; Clarendon Drug Store, 4th and Washburn.
