against him aside from the stories told of his having often been seen with his brother Pat prior to the abduction. When the inquisition was at an end and Eddie Cudahy declared that the voice of John Crowe bore no resemblance to the voice of the guard. He said in addition that Crowe was not nearly so stout as the man who had pointed the revolver in his face and called him "Eddie McGee."

This was interesting to the police inasmuch as John Crowe is a man five feet ten inches in height and stout

PREPARING TO DEPART CAPE TOWN

Situation of the British in South Africa Is Becoming Serious in the Extreme, If Not Critical.

Boers Are Everywhere Active and the Cape Dutch May Rise Against the British at Any Moment.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 2.—The British battleship Monarch will land guns tomorrow as a precautionary measure. The situation is undoubtedly serious.

It is true that the Dutch have not joined the invaders in any considerable numbers, but a lack of arms is believed to be the true reason for it. In many places Boers are freely offered and information freely supplied to the Boers.

The early proclamation of martial law in the Cape Town division is expected. This division does not include Cape Town itself.

The latest reports show the situation to be generally as follows: Kuruman, it still uninvested, probably will.

Griguel and West is filled with small parties of Boers, who are working south toward Prieska for the purpose of cooperating with or supporting Commandant Herzog, who advance parties are in the neighborhood of Frasersburg.

In the eastern part of the colony the advance of the Cape Colony says: "The Maratsburg, about twenty-five miles northeast of Cradock.

GENERAL RISING FEARED.

The general opinion here is that the position is not properly appreciated in England. The Worcester conference excited the Dutch throughout the colony.

Many old residents, who are by no means alarmists, regard a general uprising of the Dutch as quite likely.

The Boers commanded by Herzog, Wessels, Pretorius, Nieuwenhout, are continuing their march on Frasersburg.

It is reported that they have arrived at Spionkop.

The Boers continues. The Boer horses are fat and there is great want for fodder, as the country is barren.

Communication with Frasersburg is suspended and it is doubtful when this will be restored, inasmuch as the Boers are traveling along the line. Col. Thornycroft and Col. De Lisle are continuing the chase, but their horses and mules are very tired.

Many Dutch residents attended the funeral of a Boer killed in action and placed wreaths upon his coffin.

The Boers captured and destroyed the mails due Dec. 30.

MARTIAL LAW.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—Martial law has been proclaimed in the Worcester, Ceres, Prince Albert, Frasersburg and Sutherland divisions, says the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, writing yesterday.

The Boers continues. The Boer horses are fat and there is great want for fodder, as the country is barren.

Communication with Frasersburg is suspended and it is doubtful when this will be restored, inasmuch as the Boers are traveling along the line. Col. Thornycroft and Col. De Lisle are continuing the chase, but their horses and mules are very tired.

QUEEN VICTORIA MAKES LORD ROBERTS AN EARL

COWES, Isle of Wight, Jan. 2.—The steamer Canada, having Field Marshal Lord Roberts on board, anchored off the island at 11:15 a.m.

The ships in the roads were gaily decked, the sea front was elaborately decorated with hunting and Venetian masts with festoons of laurel and cheering sight-seers.

Lord Roberts was still in the carriage for Osborne house, the entrance of which was erected a unique tribute of the queen in appreciation of the field marshal's work in the shape of an arch of laurel.

This was the first time such an arch had ever appeared there in honor of any subject of her majesty.

A large concourse of people awaited Lord Roberts' arrival at Trinity pier and landing. The field marshal landed from the royal launch at 3:26 p. m.

He was warmly greeted and the party started in royal carriages for Osborne house. The route was lined with troops and thronged with cheering sight-seers.

Smith, Dec. 22, troop D, Eleventh volunteer cavalry, Francis Sullivan; Dec. 21, troop E, Eleventh volunteer cavalry, William P. Monart; Dec. 20, H, Seventeenth infantry, George Morgan; Dec. 25, troop M, Eleventh volunteer cavalry, Chester A. Markham; Dec. 1, Co. M, Sixteenth infantry, Hughie Flynn.

MONEY WAS MARKED.

Cudahy Ransom Gold Will Be Watched For.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 2.—All the banks of Dallas today received descriptions of the money paid by Mr. Cudahy to the kidnappers for the ransom of his son.

It is claimed that marks were placed on the money by which to identify it. When any of it is attempted to be passed the arrest of the person or persons offering the marked money is to follow.

During the afternoon Eddie Cudahy was taken to the city jail by Detective Donahue. In the Bertillon room had congregated a number of police officers. In this assemblage Crowe was brought and questioned, the purpose being to let young Cudahy hear his voice.

MOSQUITOES AT BERMUDA.

Four of Uncle Sam's Tiny Defenders Sighted.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Jan. 2.—Four United States war vessels have just been sighted. Their names have not yet been ascertained.

The fleet did not get up in time to enter the channel before dark.

THE RUSSIAN BEAR GRABS MANCHURIA

NOW UP TO ENGLAND AND KAISER WILHELM TO SAY SOMETHING.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—The Pekin correspondent of the Daily Mail, writing Jan. 1, says:

"Russia by conciliation is trying to secure special advantages and there is a strong belief that she will receive American support."

In a dispatch to the Times from Peking, dated Dec. 31, Dr. Morrison gives the text of the Russo-Chinese agreement for the Russian protection of the Manchurian province of Pen Tung.

OTHERS FROM MORE NORTHERN TOWNS

deal with a commando that is raiding around Kuruman.

The Boers have occupied Jaegersfontein, which, together with Pauresfontein, the British evacuated on Christmas day.

The convoy of retiring inhabitants, with hundreds of wagons, extended for several miles. It was a mournful spectacle.

Camp was pitched at Edengurg. A gathering that the motive for the evacuation was the difficulty of maintaining food supplies so far from the railway.

STILL CHASING DE WET.

The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener: "De Wet tried to move toward Bethlehem, but was headed off by Pliicher and returned toward Lindley or Rietz."

"One hundred and thirty Boers have been captured near Thaba N'Chu. The railway has been damaged south of Sarcotene."

Williams engaged the Boers southeast of Middleburg, Cape Colony, and the British now occupy Graaf Reinet.

The Standard commenting on the invasion of Cape Colony says: "The American civil war provides a useful parallel. The confederate raids failed to achieve anything serious."

KRUGER IS ILL.

Oom Paul's Physicians Are Keeping Him in Bed.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 2.—Mr. Kruger is suffering from a slight attack of bronchitis. While there is no anxiety as to his condition he is obliged to keep to his bed.

Doctors Heymans, Van Knuyssen and Court, during the day, issued the following bulletin: "Mr. Kruger has for some days been suffering from a recurrence of bronchitis, which in view of his age and the effects of this climate is a necessary precaution for him to be more than ordinarily careful."

BOUQUETS FOR BOERS.

But the London Press Doesn't Forget That War Still Wages.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—Lord Roberts figures largely in the papers this morning and there is a chorus of eulogistic editorials.

All call attention to the serious position in South Africa and to the need of patience and moderation and all appeal to public to avoid in what is certain to be a tremendous ovation today, any misplaced exultation and above any repetition of the indecorous scenes all that have disgraced the capital on former occasions.

PROMOTION FOR KITCHENER.

Is Stated for Commander-in-Chief in India.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—It is understood that at the conclusion of operations in South Africa Lord Kitchener will become commander-in-chief in India.
