TIGHT GRIP ON SALARIES

There is a possible chance that city officials and employees will not receive their December salaries on the appointed date, Jan. 15. In some unexplained manner the weeks have been allowed to slip by without making preparation for the issuance of the customary certificates of indebtedness. It is contended that each who receives "so much per" from the city will have to wait, possibly several weeks.

Notice of the impending state of affairs was given yesterday by Comptroller McCardy, and without delay special meetings of both the board of aldermen and the board of common council were held Wednesday, at which time the required resolution authorizing the issuance of certificates was passed.

The delay comes principally from the fact that the certificates must first be printed and then sold, and this, unless the unexpected happens, will take several weeks. This fact, when the two bodies met in the early part of the week, did not dawn upon the members or arrangements would have been made without delay.

FRIDAY IN POLICE COURT.

TO DISCUSS A FRANCHISE.

Aldermanic Street Committee Will Meet on Monday.

A special meeting of the committee on streets, of the board of aldermen, has been called by Chairman Ulmer for Monday afternoon, at which time several matters will be considered.

The proposed grant of a right of way to the Omaha road along the West Side will be taken up, also the ordinance granting to the Northern Manufacturing company a twenty-five-year franchise for the conduct of a heating and power plant. At the last meeting the representatives of the company were asked to furnish some definite information as to their future intentions, and this information will likely be received.

The Mississippi Valley Telephone company will also come in for share of attention. An investigation of what the company intended to do was started some months ago, but the matter has never got beyond the Mississippi in which it was placed.

Andrew Olson, employed at Burns & Frank's wholesale liquor store, 172 East Third street, was painfully injured yesterday morning while attempting to carry a barrel of liquor down stairs. The barrel slipped and tripped Olson, causing him to fall into the cellar. He sustained a broken leg and two scalp wounds. He was removed to the city hospital for treatment. Olson has a wife and several children, unmarried, and lives at 193 North Smith avenue.

STORY OF YOUNG'S ILL-TREATMENT DENIED BY HIS SON.

Perole Young stated last night that the statements made by his brother Arthur, in one of the evening papers, to the effect that their father, Henry G. Young, had been grossly ill-treated at the St. Peter hospital, and that the inmates were altogether untrue, said Mr. Young:

"I can not see what induced my brother or to tell such a wild story of my father's mistreatment at St. Peter, when it is without foundation. I feel that it is my duty to the hospital authorities to deny the story, and I have just mailed a letter to Dr. H. A. Tomlinson denying the charges that have been made and giving him liberty to publish the same.

"My father was taken to the asylum five years ago, and during that time I have kept in close communication with him and have never once found reason to complain of his treatment. Two weeks ago I decided that I would bring him home for Christmas, and consulted the hospital authorities. They told me positively that father was not cured and that his malady was chronic. They told me that I might take him home if I wished to take care of him, but that it was advisable to leave him there. I brought him home and, though he was troublesome at times, decided to keep him.

"When he arrived here from the hospital his physical condition was good. He weighed at least 170 pounds and had not become emaciated, as was stated. There were in all five scars on his body, which I am sure were from self-inflicted wounds. After coming home he disfigured himself frightfully with his finger nails and it became necessary to watch him constantly. He never murmured a word, neither did he ever when approached, as was stated. I have been with my father constantly and have seen no reason to think that the statements made by my brother, who was but a casual visitor, are true."

Those present were Gen. Ludwig, of Winona; Adm. Gen. Lambert, Surgeon A. J. Stone, Col. R. Hurd, Assistant Surgeon Gen. Whitcomb, Col. Chace, Chap-

There will be no lord mayor's show at the Biou or any other place other than the council chamber in the old city hall Monday afternoon. If the incoming mayor wants to make a speech before the aldermen, he can find them in the council chamber this afternoon, writing to extend him the courtesy of a hearing.

The present city council at its meeting last night, went on record by a vote of 21 to 10 in favor of the Biou theater Monday afternoon to transact any of the city's business. Ald. Mason voted against Ald. Peterson's motion, recommending that the inaugural ceremony take place in the council chamber.

There was some discussion. After Ald. Mason had responded Manager Day's offer of the Biou theater, Ald. Powers said there were two reasons why the council might advantageously meet at the Biou. First, it would do away with the necessity of sitting for four or five hours in a big cloud of tobacco smoke, and second, it would give the many friends of the aldermen a chance to witness the election by the council.

At this juncture Ald. Rand inquired of City Attorney Healy:

"Is there any law warranting or requiring an inaugural ceremony?"

"No, sir," replied Mr. Healy.

Ald. Jones reminded the council that those responsible for the suggestion that the council meet at the Biou to transact the city's business had mixed two distinct matters: to wit: The business of the council and the inauguration of the mayor, between which there is no connection. On mature deliberation, Ald. Jones thought that the regular business of the council should be transacted in the council chamber.

Ald. Peterson agreed with Ald. Jones. Moreover, he couldn't see why the inauguration of the mayor should not take place in the council chamber. The inauguration of the mayor is a public ceremony, and the council chamber is a public place. The inauguration of the mayor is a public ceremony, and the council chamber is a public place.
