Senator Pettigrew Calls Attention to Inappropriateness at This Time of Two Presidential Appointments

Harlan's Son Named for Attorney General, McKenna's Son a Major, While Harrison's Son Is Removed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—While the senate was in executive session today an effort was made to secure confirmation of the nomination of James S. Harlan, son of Justice Harlan, of the United States supreme court, to attorney general for Porto Rico, but the action was prevented by the objection of Senator Pettigrew.

Senators Foraker and Spooner united in an appeal to Mr. Pettigrew to withdraw his objection, saying that Mr. Harlan is an excellent lawyer and an accomplished gentleman, and would fill the place as acceptably as any one who could be named.

Mr. Pettigrew responded that he had no doubt of Mr. Harlan's fitness for the position for which he had been named, and added that he had no personal objection to him. His objection, he said, was based on higher grounds. He then recited the fact of the nomination's relationship to Justice Harlan, and declared that the nomination is entirely out of place in view of the fact that important litigation affecting the island to which Mr. Harlan is appointed is now pending before the court of which the father is a member.

STRONG OBJECTION. "I make no charge against the supreme court," said Mr. Pettigrew, "but I do say that the appointment of that court to important positions under the administration of this executive is indecent, to say the least."

He referred in this connection to the nomination of Justice McKenna's son to the office of major in the army, saying that in giving him this place he had been promoted over 118 other lieutenants and captains. Mr. Pettigrew also commented upon the removal of Maj. Harrison, son of the ex-president, intimating that this action was occasioned by the fact that the father of Mr. Harrison's son was on the question of the ownership of our insular possessions, and was not in accord with the administration's course in those matters.

Mr. Pettigrew said he had no doubt that Mr. Harlan would be confirmed, but he added that a year and a half would be necessary to that accomplishment, and for that reason it was necessary to have a quorum present when the nomination should be acted on.

Senator Foraker replied briefly, referring to Mr. Harlan's qualifications, and expressing the opinion that the administration would have the support of Justice Harlan and McKenna without conferring favors upon their families. There was no quorum present, and the senate adjourned without action.

PROGRESS ON ARMY BILL. Some progress was made by the senate today in the consideration of the army bill.

An amendment that has created much discussion was disposed of and a tacit agreement has been reached for a vote very soon.

Mr. Cockrell, of Missouri, emphasized his opposition to the increase in the army proposed by the bill and his intention to vote against it, expressed his opinion that the bill ought to be passed as speedily as possible. Mr. Sewell, of New Jersey, also urged speedy action on the measure on account of the serious embarrassment the government was laboring under in preparing for the return of the volunteers from the Philippines.

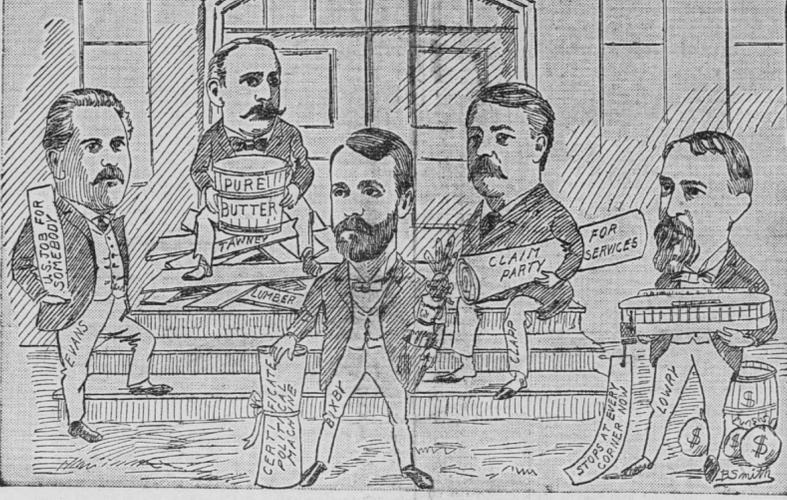

The principal speeches against the bill were made by Mr. Bacon, of Arkansas; Mr. Bacon, of Georgia; Mr. Taylor, of Colorado; Mr. Warren, of Wyoming, delivered an extended argument in support of the bill. During the speech of Mr. Bacon a colloquy between him and Mr. Hanna, of Ohio, as to the issues in the November elections created much interest. Mr. Bacon's amendment striking out of the bill the discretionary authority conferred upon the president to increase the size of the ANTI-QUAY REPUBLICANS ARE VERY MAD Renegade Pennsylvania Legislators Come in for Caustic Denunciation.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 15.—The anti-Quay Republicans tonight gave out the following: "At their meeting held at the Commonwealth hotel on Tuesday night, the members of the legislature signed or had previously signed the following pledges: 'We, the undersigned members of the next general assembly of Pennsylvania hereby pledge ourselves, one with the other, that we will not vote for any candidate for United States senator, or will not enter any caucus or committee, or be in his interest or in his behalf.' This pledge was signed by John K. Thompson, of Centre county; John P. McTigue, of Allegheny county; George C. Hill and George B. Tiffany, of Susquehanna county; Thomas J. Reynolds, of Lackawanna county; Benjamin F. Welch, of Franklin county, and Samuel Kendall, of Somerset county. These men (except Mr. Thompson, who was at home) participated in the meetings of the anti-Quay organization, seemingly in perfect sympathy and accord with the movement undertaken. Without any change, however, in their attitude, these men broke their solemn pledges and voted directly for the election of Mr. Quay for United States senator. If these Republicans had been true to their pledges the election of Mr. Quay would have been impossible, and the possibility of the party of those Democrats who deserted their party.

DEMOCRATS VOTE FOR GUFFEY

Anti-Quay Republican Vote Is Split, Most of It Going to Congressman Dassel—Other Senatorial Elections.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 15.—After a memorable caucus, Matt Quay, regular Republican nominee for United States senator, was elected today by the Pennsylvania legislature to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of his term on March 4, 1899. His combined vote in the senate and house was 139, or three more than the number necessary to a choice. The house and senate voted for Quay tomorrow to canvass the vote and declare an election. Mr. Quay's commission has already been prepared and signed, and he will take it to Washington tomorrow afternoon. A party of his friends will go with him, to be present when he takes his seat in the senate on Thursday.

The Democratic vote was cast almost solidly for Col. James M. Guffey, of Pittsburg, and that of the anti-Quay Republicans was divided among nine favorites. Representative W. J. Galvin, of Schuylkill, who, two weeks ago, voted with the Republicans on the organization of the house, was the only Democrat who voted against Quay. When he cast his vote the followers of Col. Quay broke into cheers, which continued for more than a minute. Representative L. D. Brown, of Crawford, voted for Galvin, of Schuylkill, who, two weeks ago, voted with the Republicans on the organization of the house, was the only Democrat who voted against Quay.

Col. Guffey lost three votes by the absence of Representatives George J. Manning, of Schuylkill, and James A. Garvin, of Adams, who were unable to be present, on account of illness, and the pairing of Representative Arthur H. Squier, of Wyoming, with Isaiah H. Holdeman, of Montgomery. Republican Mr. Squier was present, while his pair was ill at his home with typhoid fever.

The sole Democratic vote in the senate was cast for Col. Quay.

JAM IN THE HOUSE. The wildest excitement prevailed during the balloting in the house. Long before that body convened, at 3 o'clock, the chamber was packed with legislators and spectators, and the doors were so great that many members had to have the aid of police to get into the hall. The entrances were guarded by a cord of policemen, but they were powerless to come with the crowd. In a rush to admit Representative Galvin the door in one of the lobbies was broken down, and the hall was soon crowded to suffocation.

Speaker Marshall called the house to order at 3 o'clock, and directed the sergeant-at-arms to open the doors. The house officers were unable to handle the crowds, and the Harrisburg police force was called in to assist them. Before the ballot was opened, Charles W. Neuh, of Allegheny, and John H. Thorne, of Centre, Republicans, who were absent on account of illness when the house organized two weeks ago, presented themselves at the bar and were qualified by Judge Wilson, of Beaver. These members were claimed by both sides, and when they voted for Col. Quay they were heartily applauded by his followers.

THE VOTE IN DETAIL. Name. House. Senate. Total. M. S. Quay ..... 104 26 130 James M. Guffey ..... 44 12 56 Charles Emory Smith, 11 12 23 George E. Huff ..... 6 1 7 John Stewart ..... 3 1 4 Henry C. CONTEST IN MONTANA. W. A. Clark One Vote Short of a Majority in the House. HELENA, Mont., Jan. 15.—William A. Clark, of Butte, lacked one vote of the number required to elect him to the United States senate today. The first ballot for senator was taken at noon by both senate and house. Two members, Senator Hobson, Republican, and Representative Gregory, Republican, were absent. Clark received 34 votes in the house, lacking one of a majority, and 13 in the senate, where he had a majority of three. There were thirty Republicans in the senate and house, and they voted for Senator Thomas H. Carter for the long term, and former Senator Mantle, of Butte, for the short term. Ten labor men in the house voted solidly for A. E. Spriggs for the long term, while three of the four independent Democrats voted for Maj. Martin Maginnis, of Helena. Had the vote been in joint session today Mr. Clark would have been elected, as he received a majority of the votes cast.

For the short term Mantle, Republican, received the entire Republican strength, H. L. Frank, of Butte, received ten votes, while the others were scattered.

DEADLOCK IN DELAWARE. J. Edward Addicks Was Nine Votes Short.

DOVER, Del., Jan. 15.—The result of last night's Union Republican caucus, when sixteen members of the legislature nominated J. Edward Addicks for United States senator, lent interest to the initial vote for the two senatorships taken separately by the two houses of the general assembly today. Prior to the convening of the legislature today the anti-Addicks, or the regular Republicans, held a caucus and agreed to vote for Charles F. Richards, of Georgetown, for the short term for United States senator, and to support the regular Republicans, for the long term.

The Union Republicans, on the other hand, recognize no candidate but Mr. Addicks. The refusal of the regular Republicans to go into the Union Republican caucus, in even with the assurance that they could have the long term senatorship at their disposal, was the subject tonight, as showed, that a deadlock would be the result. The total number of votes in both houses is 52, and 27 are necessary for the two senatorships. Polls were held on the joint ballot.

NO CHOICE IN NEBRASKA. Chance for a Prolonged Contest Is Good.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 15.—The first vote in the United States senators to be elected was taken today by the two houses of the legislature separately. For the long term, in the house, sixteen men were voted for. For the regular Republicans for the long term the leading candidates for the long term the vote was: McKeljohn, 16; Currie, 3; Gause, 3; Rosewater, 3.

In the senate the vote for the long term was: Currie, 3; Rosewater, 3. Short term: D. E. Thompson, 7. The complimentary vote of the Populists in the house and senate is largely for W. V. Allen, and of the Democrats in the senate for W. H. Thompson. In the house the Democrats voted for G. M. Hitchcock.

All hope of a caucus was abandoned tonight, and the conference adjourned without date. This leaves the situation as complex as when the legislature met two weeks ago.

ALEXANDER BURNED AT THE STAKE

Negro Who Attempted to Assault Miss Eva Roth Dealt Out Vengeance at Hands of an Inflamed Mob

Father of Pearl Forbes, Outraged and Murdered in November Last, Applied the Torch to the Culprit.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 15.—Fred Alexander, the negro who Saturday evening attempted to assault Miss Eva Roth, and who was supposed to have assaulted and killed Pearl Forbes in this city in November last, was this afternoon taken from the guards and burned at the stake at the scene of his crime. A dozen blocks from the center of the city, probably 8,000 people witnessed the lynching.

The negro was taken from his cell at the state penitentiary at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and loaded into a hack and brought to town. Fifty deputy marshals surrounded him, and Deputy Sheriff Stencymen and Tom Brown sat in the hack on either side of him.

There were fifty huggies and wagons in the procession, which followed the hack in, and it was a funeral march, indeed, for Fred Alexander. The trip to town was made quietly, and there was no attempt to create a disturbance on the road.

When the corner of Fourth and Olive streets was reached, the police, who were in the hack following the hack in, Alexander was concealed, jumped out and chased several negroes. This created a confusion which attracted the attention of every one in the vicinity. The hack in which Alexander was concealed was frantically driven to the county jail, and just as the mob reached the doors he was locked in the first cell on the east side of the cell house. All the doors of the jail were locked, and the crowd first attempted to gain admission by peaceful means.

MOB FORCED AN ENTRANCE. Then the crowd pushed its way to the cell door, and using one man as a battering ram, the door came down from its hinges. Then the crowd surged into the corridors by the narrow doorway. A heavy iron bar was secured and the iron door of the cell attacked. This was finally but so that it could be forced far enough back for men to climb over it.

Several gained entrance in this manner, and the mob entered the cell. In the meantime the crowd had pushed down the stairs of the stockade, and in a moment there was a mass in the jail yard. The side door, which was made of heavy steel, iron, was the next object of attack. Several thoughtless ones had provided themselves with sledge hammers and cold chisels, and it was the work of only a few moments before the hinges were cut from the stockade, and its hinges in a moment. More men pushed inside, and the iron bar was again broken down, and the doors of the cell room broken down.

Then the cry went up, "He is not here! He has escaped!" "Search the court house. There is a tunnel between, and he has been taken out that way." Then a man with sharp eyes spotted a shapeless mass crouched down in one corner of the cell.

An exultant cry went up: "He is here! We've got him! Bring the keys." Several keys were found lying around the corner of the cell, and the door was opened. Then again a sledge hammer was called into action, and in five minutes the heavy lock had been broken off. A yell of terror issued from the cell.

THIRSTED FOR BLOOD. The tension was so great that strong men filled the room with hysterical laughter. Outside the crowd was yelling in the street, and the police never before heard in the city of Leavenworth. Inside the cell rushed those who were nearest the door.

The mob issued forth in a moment, dragging the body of the negro by the collar. He had been struck over the head with a hammer, but was still conscious. Many fought to get at him. "Don't hurt him!" they cried. "We'll burn him," was the response. "Take him where he committed the murder," suggested the police. The suggestion met with instant approval, and the crowd, carrying the negro, pushed on for Fourth street. There were many wagons standing out, and into one of these they threw him. The wagon was started for the vicinity of Lawrence avenue and Spruce streets, followed on the run by the crowd.

At a quarter past 5 o'clock Alexander was brought to the scene of the murder of Pearl Forbes, at the corner of Lawrence avenue and Spruce street. The exact spot where the murdered girl was found was located by the leader of the crowd, and there a semi-circle was formed. The men standing behind the negro showed him from the wagon.

ROAR FROM THE CROWD. The negro drove every other sound. The negro was quickly driven down the embankment to the pile of wood with his hands still shackled, and there bound to the stake. Long before the wagon containing the doomed man arrived at the place a crowd had gathered. Many carried rails and boards. Several seized railroad irons and carried them to the ravine.
