

PAVING CHEAP... 1 Dyer-Howard... $85 1 Gabler... $80 1 Bent & Co... $95 1 New England... $100 1 Fischer... $118 1 Ludwig... $125 1 DeLeon... $145 1 Chokering... $165 1 Stalway... $185

RAUDENBUSH... GRAND JURY BELIEVED TO BE NEARLY READY TO ADJOURN

RELEASE OF MOLLIE MORRIS Fred Schiffmann Told His Story Yesterday—Transfer Fire Cases Were Also Considered.

The grand jury will probably make its final report today. When this report is made it is very likely that an indictment will be returned against the man whom the grand jury thinks to have been guilty of causing the death of Albert Rosen, the newsboy who was killed by being run over by a horse and buggy several weeks ago.

FOR FINDING COAL FIELDS. Herbert Pearson Says the Great Northern Owes Him $1,500,000. Herbert W. Pearson has commenced an action in the district court against the Great Northern Railway company to recover $1,500,000 alleged to be due for services rendered by him as an expert in locating some coal fields in Montana and Washington.

CITY MAY NOT PAVE. Objections to Paving of Chestnut Street Are Sustained. Judge Ots, of the district court, has filed a decision in the application of the city treasurer for judgment and assessment for paving Chestnut street with vitrified brick, in which the court denies the application.

Trust Was Violated Innocently. Judge Bunn, of the district court, has filed findings in the case of the St. Paul Trust company as trustee under the will of Charles D. Strong, against Albert Spurr Strong and others, in which the court says that the case is a bona fide one for the plaintiff, as it is admittedly innocent of any fraud, but nevertheless the conditions of the trust were violated.

Mistake May Save Blakely. A motion for a rest of judgment in the case against James Blakely, who was indicted for grand larceny in the first degree and convicted of grand larceny in the second degree, was argued before Judge Kelly in the district court yesterday by R. D. O'Brien.

SEND NO MONEY... You can have your pictures taken and your negatives developed and printed at a very low price.

GRAND LODGE IS GAINING. SONS OF HERMANN HAVE HAD A VERY PROSPEROUS YEAR. OVER 300 MEMBERS JOINED. Only Twenty Died, and the Reserve Fund Shows an Increase of $6,000 for the Year.

Nurse Files a Claim. Judge Bazille, of the probate court, is hearing the claim of Mrs. Eliza C. Mills, against the estate of Mrs. Charlotte Crossley, deceased, for $1,125 for nursing and attentions paid Mrs. Crossley from May 1, 1891, to April 19, 1900, when Mrs. Crossley died.

Thornton-Moran Suit Drags. Judge Jaggard, of the district court, is still hearing the case of Patrick Thornton, against D. Moran. The parties to the suit were engaged in partnership in the railroad contracting business and Thornton asked for the dissolution of the partnership and the appointment of a receiver.

Say Patent Was Infringed. An action has been commenced in the United States district court by Horace Bros. & White, against George C. Davonport, a local druggist, to restrain the latter from infringing on the patent entitled, "Frog in Your Throat."

New Guests for Warden Reeve. Charles Nelson, who, with O. R. Hillard, pleaded guilty to robbing Bonn Pearson of $200 about two months ago, was taken to Stillwater yesterday. Hillard will be taken over today.

Nolled Charge Against Tipp. The indictment against Dan Tipp, indicted with Fred L. Klingberg for grand larceny, was nolled yesterday on motion of the county attorney.

Will Meet Every Year. Sheriffs Think Biennial Sessions Too Infrequent. The association of sheriffs of the state of Minnesota met yesterday in court room No. 6 in the court house, and elected officers for the ensuing year.

Sullivan Will Go Back. John Sullivan, who for the past week has been under arrest at the county jail on a charge of larceny, is to be released today, and will return to Havre, Mont., with Sheriff Taylor, without requisition papers.

For Gilbert Memorial Fund. The contributions for the Bishop Gilbert monument fund, sent in by the children of the Episcopal Sunday schools throughout the state, now amount to almost $300. Designs are being sent in by artists in the state and outside, and the committee in charge hope that it will be able to have the monument erected on the anniversary of Bishop Gilbert's death.

Game Commission Is Busy. The new state game and fish commission was a busy body yesterday. In the forenoon it inspected the hatchery at Willow River, and in the afternoon it was taking effect March 1, and Assistant Superintendent Marti will succeed him.

WILLIAM FOELSEN. President of the State Grand Lodge, Sons of Hermann.

Capital Half a Million. The Brooks-Seaman Lumber company, of $500,000, articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state yesterday.

Will Be Known as Lake Owen. Long Lake, between the stations of Cable and Drummond, Wis., Northern District, Wisconsin division, Omaha road, heretofore known as maps and in publications as Long Lake, will be known as Lake Owen hereafter.

Company D Will Elect. Companies D and E held election drill at the armory last night. Company D will elect officers tomorrow evening.

Method of Fly Boos. Continued From First Page. The fly boos will be of a military character, there probably will be no parades, though possibly at Windsor Park, where the boos will be taken up, while the coffin is being carried up the nave of St. George's chapel.

WON PRIZES AT CHICAGO. ST. PAUL POULTRY GATHERED SOME RIBBONS THERE. The local committee of the State Poultry association, have leased the store building at 47 and 49 East Seventh street, and are planning to hold the annual poultry and pet stock show, which will be held there Feb. 6 to 12 inclusive.

NEIGHBORS MAY OPPOSE IT. Proposed Spur of Omaha Road Arouses Some Objections. The proposed grant to the Omaha railroad of a right of way along the West side for a side-track some two miles long is attracting considerable attention from numerous requests to late have been made for an inspection of the maps showing the proposed route.

AS TO MARKET SITE. Commission Has Finished and Will Report Next Tuesday. The report of the market commission will be presented at the meeting of the board of aldermen Feb. 5. A meeting of the commission was held yesterday and the business on hand cleaned up.

A HAPPY CHILD is one who grows, without interruption of health, from a baby up—except the inevitable diseases of children. And Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil has done more, in the 26 years of its existence, than any half-dozen other things, to make such children.

It keeps them in uninterrupted health. It is food that takes hold at once, whenever their usual food lets go.

translation of the Talmud, in which she collaborated, she has been selling to the libraries, public and private, of the Twin Cities. She has also sold to the Chicago American Sunday, and repeated yesterday by certain Twin City papers, that she is dead.

BOARD WANTS THE MONEY. Water Commissioners Claim Proceeds of Frontage Tax. A meeting of the board of water commissioners will be held this afternoon. The water frontage tax, which it is claimed has been wrongfully paid into the city treasury, instead of direct to the water board, will be discussed, and steps probably taken to gain possession of the amount, which will reach over $50,000.

HAS TIME FOR IT NOW. The Hospitable Over, Sam Fullerton Takes Charge of His Office. Samuel F. Fullerton is now in charge of the executive office of the state game and fish commission. The members of the commission held a meeting at the state house today, and the selection of a clerk and an attorney and some of the wardens will probably be taken up.

Burned by Bowl of Grease. Miss Annie Wold, a servant in the employ of George J. Osgood, 231 Alameda avenue, was badly burned yesterday afternoon. A bowl of grease which she was holding in her hands, fell and ignited her clothing. She was removed to St. Luke's hospital.

Death of Mrs. B. S. Osgood. Mrs. Lucinda S. Osgood, wife of Benjamin S. Osgood, of the Osgood & Blomquist Co., died at her home, 107 East Sixth street, last night. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Company D Will Elect. Companies D and E held election drill at the armory last night. Company D will elect officers tomorrow evening.

Method of Fly Boos. Continued From First Page. The fly boos will be of a military character, there probably will be no parades, though possibly at Windsor Park, where the boos will be taken up, while the coffin is being carried up the nave of St. George's chapel.

WON PRIZES AT CHICAGO. ST. PAUL POULTRY GATHERED SOME RIBBONS THERE. The local committee of the State Poultry association, have leased the store building at 47 and 49 East Seventh street, and are planning to hold the annual poultry and pet stock show, which will be held there Feb. 6 to 12 inclusive.

NEIGHBORS MAY OPPOSE IT. Proposed Spur of Omaha Road Arouses Some Objections. The proposed grant to the Omaha railroad of a right of way along the West side for a side-track some two miles long is attracting considerable attention from numerous requests to late have been made for an inspection of the maps showing the proposed route.

AS TO MARKET SITE. Commission Has Finished and Will Report Next Tuesday. The report of the market commission will be presented at the meeting of the board of aldermen Feb. 5. A meeting of the commission was held yesterday and the business on hand cleaned up.

No matter how pleasant your surroundings, health, good health, is the foundation for enjoyment. Bowel trouble causes more aches and pains than all other diseases together, and when you get a good dose of bilious bile coursing through the blood life's a hell on earth.

THE TONIC LAXATIVE. CURE all bowel troubles, appendicitis, biliousness, bad breath, bad blood, wind on the stomach, bloated bowels, foul mouth, headache, indigestion, pimples, and all other diseases connected with the bowels.

Without them. You will find all your other disorders commence to get better at once, and soon you will be well by taking—dent J. L. Hughes in the chair, when Joseph Ruff initiated. The international gave notice of a special assessment of 25 cents for each member on account of the unprecedented calls upon the funds of the international, as in addition to necessary for help from Chicago and other localities, there will fall on them claims for Galveston, Tex., union for more than $6,000 for members and their wives who perished in the disastrous flood last September.

THE TONIC LAXATIVE. CASCARETS. BEST FOR THE BOWELS. NEVER SOLD IN BULK. ALL DRUGGISTS.

THE TONIC LAXATIVE. CASCARETS. BEST FOR THE BOWELS. NEVER SOLD IN BULK. ALL DRUGGISTS.

Burlington Route. New Train Service to Florida. Commencing January 14, 1901, through daily train service will be established from Chicago to Jacksonville and St. Augustine, Fla.

WEATHER FOR TODAY. For Minnesota—Fair Wednesday; northerly winds, fresh to brisk on lake; Thursday fair.

DEATHS. AMUSEMENTS. METROPOLITAN. L. N. SCOTT, Lessee and Manager. TONIGHT—MATINEE. ALL THIS WEEK. TODAY...