Railroad Magnate's Position Has Been Persistently Misunderstood -Large Homeseekers' Excursion.

J. J. Hill, president of the Great North-ern, returned from Chicago yesterday morning and in an interview with a reporter of the Globe, definitely set at rest all the rumors concerning his atti-tude toward the ship subsidy bill and the authenticity of the telegram reported to have been received by Senator Hanna from the railway magnate on the sub-

"Yes, the telegram is all right," said Mr. Hill, "I sent it to Senator Hanna and it fully expresses my sentiments to-ward the measure. You may say further that it is the only genuine and truthful piece of news concerning my affairs which I have seen for three month.

It has from time to time been said that Mr. Hill was bitterly opposed to Hanna's pet bill, and that he was exerting his influence to defeat it. of the matter has been that Mr. Hill only once expressed his views officially with regard to it, and that was in his only once expressed his views officially with regard to it, and that was in his message to the senator from Ohio. HEADED FOR THE WEST.

Fifteen Hundred Homeseekers Started Yesterday From St. Paul.

Great as was the rush on the opening lay of the home seekers' excursions, yesterday's business put it completely into the shade. The Great Northern and the Northern Pacific both sent out two very heavily loaded sections, and the four trains hauled out fully fifty cars. The Soo sent out only one train, but it

So great was the crush in the morning when the trains went out that the depot officials experienced considerable difficul-ty in handling the crowds. All the pas-All the passengers were cooped up in the depot until the rains were made up, and then there was a scramble for places. Several parties had special cars reserved, and they fared the best, but the main body left on the five trains, and this record easily eclipses the figures of the first excursion last fall. Next week still more are expected and adequate arrangements will be made to handle the crowds. The low rates apply all over the North-west, but the bulk of the land seekers are headed for Montana and points furthmost of them are far from sare that what they drunk was cittler whisky or beer. There is said to be so much compounding of drinks nowadays that it may really require the analysis of an expert chemist to decide as to the real spiritual nature of any of the local beverages. This is the view taken by some of the jurymen in the case of Billy Patterson, and the precedent has been established. The testimony to convict under the prohibition law in this country must be very clear indeed, and puber west. About 80 per cent of the ex-cursionists yesterday were bound for Montana and Oregon, and only a scatter-ing for the Dakotas. This is to be explained by the fact that it is too early in the season for the great wheat belt. Those desiring to settle in this district will not commence to come for about six weeks, when the winter is breaking By that time the rush to the far st will be nearly over, and the Northunder the prohibition taw in this country must be very clear indeed, and public opinion is inclined to favor a not too harsh treatment of illicit liquor dispensors as long as the drug stores have west will benefit from the excursion

Copper Range Extension. HOUGHTON, Mich., Feb. 13.—Contractor Johnson today began work on the twelve-mile extension of the Copper Range railroad, which is to handle the stamp rock traffic of the Adventure, Baltic, Champion and Tri-Mountain mines between the main line and the mill site, along the shore of Lake Superior. This railroad, when planned three years This railroad, when planned three years ago, had a population of scarcely 500 between termini, leaving out Atlantic Mine, practically a suburb of Houghton. The mines along the line how employ upwards of 1,000 men, and will work about 2,500 by next fall.

Terminals at Chicago.

The Northern Steamship has concluded negotiations for terminal facilities for the big steamers North Land and North West, which will this year ply between that city and Buffalo.

The boats will land passengers just below the Rush street bridge, which is a convenient location. Suitable waiting rooms and offices will be built fronting on Kinzie street and adjoining the wharves of the Manitou company.

WATERLOO, Io., Feb. 13.—George Andrews, Ira Straight, J. A. Shields and H. P. Hugenford were called to the general office of the Chicago Great Western railroad in St. Paul and discharged. They are four of the oldest and best known conductors on the road. No cause is known for this action.

Des Moines & Northern. BELLE PLAINE, Minn., Feb. 13.—The Des Moines & Northern Iowa railroad has ten surveyors surveying a line which will run from Des Moines to Minneapolis. The line runs about two miles east of Relia Plaine.
