WEEK'S NEWS OF BERLIN

GERMAN PRESS CONDEMNNS THE GOVERNMENT'S COURSE IN RUSSO-CHINESE DEAL

INTERESTED IN TARIFF WAR

AGRARIANS LESS INSISTENT SINCE RUSSIA HAS THREATENED REPRISALS—MATTER OF AMERICAN SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA.

BERLIN, March 2.—The latest phase of the China question, the projected commercial treaties, including the extraordinarily hostile tone of the Russian inspired press, on the subject, the Russo-American tariff dispute and the Anglo-American relations, held public attention this week. A considerable portion of the German press strongly disapproves of Germany's protesting against the Russian annexation of Manchuria, claiming that Germany has no interests there and that she is pledged to Russia not to interfere with anything Russia chooses to do there. The jingo and agrarian papers are particularly outspoken in this respect. The Deutsche Tages-Zeitung today says that Count von Buelow's proceeding on the subject is illogical and stupid and amounting to hauling chestnuts out of the fire for Great Britain. The more sober portion of the press deplores this new trouble which creates diplomatic antagonisms likely to split the whole enterprise of the powers. The National-Zeitung believes this newest threat of the China situation to be the most dangerous for the peace of the world that has come about since the beginning of the Chinese troubles. The arguments today reviews Germany's Chinese policy since the Sino-Japanese war and declares it to be one unbroken chain of blunders. The paper adds: GRABBED BY RUSSIA.

"If the triumvirate of Great Britain, Germany and Japan had stood together from the first, it would have been able to check Russia's land-grabbing insolence, but now it is too late, Russia has what she wanted and is sure of China's ratification. "Protests from the other powers are now useless." Agitation over the new tariff and the new commercial treaties is as lively as ever; the agrarian demands, after growing with the apparent indifference of Count von Buelow and the bündersath seem now to have become more modest since the Russian papers, at the instigation of M. De Witte, minister of finance, came out with the series of articles against Germany's proposed large increase of agricultural duties and threatening severe reprisals against the importation of German industrial products. Some of the most important German papers have this week printed St. Petersburg correspondence explaining that since Russian industry, in spite of its elaborate pampering by Minister De Witte, is now plainly shown to be a total failure, Russia is all the more constrained to retain those countries to which she can export her agricultural produce, hence M. De Witte's fierce attack upon the projected Russo-American THINLY VEILED THREAT.

GERMAN PRESS CONDEMNNS THE GOVERNMENT'S COURSE IN RUSSO-CHINESE DEAL

One inspired Russian article printed this week wherein it is plainly set forth that if Germany persists in shutting out Russian produce, Russia will retaliate, not only economically, but also politically, has been generally commented upon here. A public address this week by Dr. von Siemens, a member of the Reichstag and a director of the Deutsche Bank, has also created a sensation. Dr. von Siemens said that if the new treaties are not consummated, Germany will enter upon a period of unparalleled distress, the emigration of from 7,000,000 to 10,000,000 must be expected, and that Germany would sink back into the shadows of provincial existence. Anglo-German relations are slowly improving. A number of the more serious newspapers confess the folly of repelling Great Britain's advances. The authorized news that the alleged disfiguring of the emperor's picture by his British regiment (the First Royal Dragoons) in January, 1896, is a myth, has done its share to allay German rancor against the British. Scathing articles by the influential Grenzboten (a weekly newspaper), the Vossische Zeitung, the Cologne Volkszeitung, the Kreuzzeitung and the Berlin Tageblatt have also done their share.

AMBASSADOR WHITE POPULAR.

The unauthentic news published in the German papers to the effect that United States Ambassador White will retire has brought forth a series of articles from the American residents in different parts of Germany. Petitions are spoken of asking President McKinley to retain Mr. White. It is related by Americans, who have recently returned here from St. Petersburg, that in high circles of the Russian capital it is generally understood that the approach of the discussion of the tariff difficulty in the friendliest spirit toward the United States, and the belief that that fact is a source of disappointment, is emphasized in St. Petersburg. American exports to Russia are much heavier than United States statistics show, as heavy shipments come to Russia by way of England and Germany. A large German dealer and importer of dental instruments showed the representative of the Associated Press a letter from his St. Petersburg agent instructing him to accompany the shipments of non-American goods with a certificate of their origin in order to avoid the payment of extra duty.

NAMED JUDGE HANEY.

MACHINE CANDIDATE WON IN CHICAGO REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

CHICAGO, March 2.—Judge Edridge Haney, of the circuit court of Cook county, was placed in nomination for mayor of Chicago by the Republican city convention today. The nomination was not made until the eighth ballot, and followed one of the most stubborn contests ever held in a local convention. Although there were several other candidates, the fight for the nomination was practically a three-cornered one between the machine Republicans, supporting Judge Haney, and the anti-machine and independent Republicans, supporting John Maynard Harlan, and the German Republicans, whose candidate was William Boldewick, former president of the board of drainage commissioners. Much ill-feeling between the factions was shown during the progress of the balloting and after Judge Haney's nomination was announced, and several times Chairman Smyth threatened to clear the galleries and situate the benches of various candidates ceased. The nomination was as follows: Haney 48; Rayner 74; Boldewick 57. Necessary to choice, 47. After the nomination of Judge Haney, the following nominations were made for the other offices: City Treasurer—Adolph Gartz. City Clerk—Thomas O'Shaughnessy. City Attorney—Oscar Hebel.

NEGRO CHRISTIAN WORK.

Plans Afoot for Huge Gathering at Washington Next Year.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Perhaps the largest movement ever inaugurated among the colored people of the United States has just taken shape here in Washington. The Rev. M. E. Church, where twenty designated official representatives of religious denominations and agencies engaged in Christian work among the negroes have gathered to consider the spiritual, moral, intellectual and social progress of the race, and to make arrangements for a monster gathering of the enlightened young negro men and women in the summer of 1902. This meeting will be known as the negro young peoples' congress.

SAMPLE BRITISH BLUNDER.

War Office Just Learns of Return of Liverpool Volunteers.

LONDON, March 2.—An almost unexpected case of official blundering is reported from Liverpool today. It appears that the war office was under the impression that the Liverpool volunteers were still in South Africa, and kept a new special service corps on waiting orders which could be sent to the front at any time. The Liverpool volunteers returned to Liverpool four months ago.

BIRTHDAY OF THE POPE

LEO XIII. YESTERDAY COMPLETED HIS NINETY-FIRST YEAR OF HIS LIFE

HIS HEALTH IS STILL GOOD

Has Been Twenty-Three Years the Head of the Roman Catholic Church—His Holiness' Anniversary Address.

ROME, March 2.—Today Leo XIII. celebrated quietly his ninety-first birthday, and, although there were so cordial wishes in connection with the affair, he held an informal reception in the throne room this afternoon, receiving the congratulations of the sacred college and the Roman prelates, as well as a number of Vatican dignitaries. Tomorrow the twenty-third anniversary of the pope's coronation will be celebrated with great solemnity in the Sistine chapel. In view of the fact that Leo XIII. has now occupied the papal chair nearly a quarter of a century, it is somewhat difficult to realize that one of the chief objections to his elevation to the supreme pontificate in 1878 was his advanced age, and that he is now in his eightieth year.

But it is now a matter of certainty that Leo XIII. can survive but a short time. In spite of the daily reassurances there is no doubt that the pope's indefatigable will sustains the vitality in his frail tenement of clay. Of the great European statesmen of the latter half of the nineteenth century, Gladstone and Bismarck have both passed to their resting place, leaving Pope Leo standing alone. When news of Queen Victoria's death was brought to him the venerable pontiff was heard to remark that his own end was not far away. Dr. Mazzoni, the pope's physician, says his holiness is in good health.

HIS HOLINESS' ADDRESS.

During the reception upon the occasion of the anniversary of the birth and coronation of the pope, his holiness today made an address, in the course of which he said: "It is one of the duties that enfeebled by age and infirmities do not succumb amidst the difficulties which still come to place obstacles before the free exercise of action by the church. Impudence, calumny and other iniquitous means are exercised freely against the church, which aims only at the good of humanity."

Hyser, well known hotel man, and he is about to remodel the buildings to meet the requirements of a high-class European hotel. The present owners will spend $25,000, and the lessee will also put a considerable sum into the property. The place will be operated strictly on the European plan and will be equipped in the most complete manner possible.

BAUER WAS FOUND DEAD.

An Old Man Thought to Have Taken His Own Life.

Charles Bauer was found dead in a room at 621 Washington avenue north yesterday morning, and the belief is that he took his own life. Bauer was married in 1891, at the age of sixty years, to Mary L. B. F. Elwhart, who was thirty years younger than himself. A couple of weeks ago he commenced legal proceedings, alleging cruelty. Bauer had at that time been a speculator in wheat, but at the time of his death was night watchman in a downtown building. An inquest will be held today.

TEDDY IN WASHINGTON

VICE PRESIDENT-ELECT GUEST OF HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Vice President-elect Roosevelt accompanied by his wife and children reached Washington at 4:30 on the Pennsylvania railway, which was more than an hour late, owing to the crush of inaugural travel. His entry was as quiet as well could be imagined. Mrs. Cowles, his sister, and wife of Commander Cowles of the navy, was at the station to meet him. Owing to the confusion of schedules it was difficult to tell one train from another, and the probability is that she would have missed her distinguished brother in the hurrying crowd had not one of Col. Roosevelt's rough riders come to the rescue. Creighton Webb, of New York, happened to be on the platform watching for some friends of his own. The ex-rough rider, in a silk hat and a long Raglan coat, did not look much like a member of the khaki-clad, mud-covered cavalry regiment that tramped after Col. Roosevelt in Cuba. But the rough rider initiative was there and catching Mrs. Cowles by the arm he rushed her through the crowd to head off the Roosevelt party, at that moment wedged between a baggage truck and the side of the car. They were kissed all round, and then the party stepped out of a side exit of the station, avoiding the dense throng of people waiting behind the railing at the far end of the platform. The party went to Commander Cowles' residence, where the vice president-elect will remain until after the inauguration.

ITALIANS RIOTOUS.

Palermo Police and Firemen Had Their Hands Busy.

ROME, March 2.—According to the press manifestations in Palermo today operated the closing of tramways by the placing of obstructions on the tracks and the cutting of overhead wires. The crowd attempted to enter the Olympia theater, but was unsuccessful. On Canal street bill boards were overturned and set on fire. The firemen were called out to extinguish the flames. Agitators were most active in the crowd. Cain had been restored.

NEGRO WAS LYNCHED.

Summary Justice at Camden, Mo., May Provoke Race War.

CAMDEN, Mo., March 2.—Dewey Smith, a negro man, who shot and killed Chester Stanley, a white miner, four days ago last Friday night, was captured by a mob late Friday night. He was taken back to the scene of his crime and lynched. Smith and Stanley quarreled over some trivial matter. After the shooting the negro escaped, but was captured last night at Camden by two white men. He took him to a hotel, and wired Sheriff Crowley at Richmond to come at once. When the sheriff arrived a large crowd from Lexington Junction and Camden were waiting. A general rush was made on the hotel. A dozen shots were fired, but no one was hit. Members of the mob overpowered the guard, dragged Smith out and escorted him to mine No. 4, where the shooting occurred. A halt was called under a tree near the mine, where the prisoner confessed to the killing, but said it was done in self defense. After a prayer by one of the crowd a rope was placed around the negro's neck and he was quickly hauled up. Bad feeling existed for some time between the negroes and whites and more trouble is feared.

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

IN MEMORY OF DEAD JURISTS.

Bar Association Adopts Resolutions on Judge Russell and C. A. Ebert.

Before Judges Elliott, Simpson, Pond and Brooks the Hennepin County Bar association yesterday morning honored the memory of the late Judge R. D. Russell and C. A. Ebert. Fully 200 lawyers were present, many of them intimate personal friends of the departed jurists. The resolutions adopted by the bar association were as follows: "Resolved, that the memory of the late Judge R. D. Russell and C. A. Ebert, who were members of this association, and whose personal acquaintance, particularly with Judge Russell, enabled them to speak straight from the heart, and whose noble character and sterling character, and particularly the great loss which the association and the city has sustained in their death."

MAYOR IS NOT MISSED.

Though the fact that Mayor Ames is at West Baden taking the bathing treatment at the public property now, it was not for several days after his departure that his destination was known. At his office he was stated that he was confined to his home suffering from a grippe. The president of the council, on whom the duties of the mayor devolve in the absence of the chief executive, has not expected himself to perform them, beyond signing the council warrants, but the business of the city has not been disturbed in the least, and everyone is running as smoothly as though the doctor himself were at his post.

He was escorted by a squadron of cavalry to the palace, where the usual military honors were rendered him. Prince von Radolin, in a short speech, said he was charged by his sovereign to maintain and strengthen the good relations existing between the two countries. President Loubet said in reply: "If you are happy to testify to those good relations between our two countries and say that your mission is in conformity with your own personal feelings, to maintain and strengthen them, I, on my part, assure you of our intention to respond to those feelings of emperor of which you are the faithful and sincere interpreter. PHYSICIAN'S CURE.

Physicians Recommend It, Druggists Sell It, Everybody Praises It.

If we could sell one package of Pyramid Pile Cure to every person in America who is troubled with piles and who would gladly give the 50 cents to be rid of piles, we would have about ten million dollars. The only reason that we don't sell that many packages this year is that we will not be able to get ten million people to try it. Just one application will prove its merit and amply repay the cost of a whole box. The effect is immediate. Comfort comes at once and continued treatment will cure any case no matter how bad. Pyramid Pile Cure soothes the inflamed surface the instant it touches it, heals it, reduces the swelling and puts the parts into a healthy condition. There is no substitute for it. Nothing compares with it. We have never heard of a single case that it failed to cure. We have heard of thousands that it has cured quickly and completely. Here are a couple of letters recently received. From Geo. C. Geick, Owens Mill, Mo.: "Some time ago I bought a package of Pyramid Pile Cure for my wife who had suffered very much. The first trial did her more good than anything she has ever tried. It is just what is claimed for it."

From Richard Loan, Whipple, Ohio: "I have used Pyramid Pile Cure and am entirely pleased and satisfied with results. It does the work and no mistake. The proprietors of the Pyramid Pile Cure could publish columns of similar letters, but these are enough to show what it will do in different cases. All druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure or will get it for you. It is 50 cents per package and made only by the Pyramid Drug Co., of Marshall, Mich.
