

ARMY MEN GET TAYLOR

THE KENTUCKY FUGITIVE BECOMING A BURDEN ON THE INDIANA REPUBLICANS

GOV. DURBIN MAY YIELD HIM

SENATOR DEBOE IN WASHINGTON TO APPEAL TO MCKINLEY FOR AID

SAYS HE CANNOT GET JUSTICE

Testimony of Former Gov. Bradley Has Had Its Effect—Why Ripley Is Being Tried.

CHICAGO, April 14.—A Washington special to the Chronicle says: Senator Deboe, of Kentucky, who arrived unexpectedly last night, has created a panic among the Republican colony on the blue grass state by giving currency to a story to the effect that Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, will honor a requisition from Gov. Beckham, of Kentucky, for W. S. Taylor, who is charged with complicity in the murder of the late Gov. Goebel. Senator Deboe's mission to Washington is to intercede with the Republican leaders in behalf of Taylor by persuading them to give up the fugitive to the Kentucky authorities.

Word has reached Louisville from Indianapolis that Gov. Durbin will not assume the responsibility for giving Taylor from arrest and prosecution if the authorities of Kentucky are prepared to back up their claims for the return of the pseudo-governor. That state with affidavits and new testimony that will prove his connection with the conspiracy which ended in the murder of Gov. Goebel. Senator Deboe has been a steadfast adherent of Taylor and defended him on the stump as well as in private, appreciating the gravity of the danger to which his friend was exposed by the testimony of ex-Gov. Bradley and other witnesses who have appeared recently in the trial at Frankfort, came to Washington to seek assistance from the only men who are likely to have influence with Gov. Durbin to follow the example of his predecessor, the late Gov. Mount, in refusing to give up Taylor.

Gov. Durbin's old-time association with the leaders of the National Republican committee and his close relations with the White house as a result of the conspicuous part played in the election of President McKinley are believed by Kentuckians who are desirous of saving Taylor from extradition to be the only channel through which an appeal to the governor of Indiana can be made effective.

WILL APPEAL TO MCKINLEY. Deboe will see both President McKinley and Senator Hanna at the earliest opportunity and urge them to use their influence with Gov. Durbin to save Taylor upon the ground that he is a fugitive from justice for Taylor to secure justice at the hands of any jury selected under the present political regime in the blue grass state. If surface indications count for anything, Senator Deboe's mission is not likely to be altogether successful.

Republican leaders in Washington, like those of Indiana, are tired of the Taylor business. They have lost faith in the man; they do not like the way he has acted, and their impressions about his culpability have undergone radical revision since ex-Gov. Bradley testified for the state early in the present week. It is known in Washington also that Taylor has come to be regarded as an unnecessary burden upon the Republican organization in the present campaign to carry him any farther would involve serious consequences to the party in that state.

Senator Deboe saw Commissioner of Internal Revenue John W. Yerkes tonight. Mr. Yerkes, it will be recalled, delivered a glowing eulogy of Taylor at the Philadelphia convention last summer. He will be expected to testify for the senator's efforts to save the pseudo-governor.

READY TO GIVE UP FUGITIVES. A Frankfort, Ky., special says it is known through the attorneys for the commonwealth that immediately after the trial of Capt. Garnett Ripley, Gov. Beckham will make requisition upon Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, for ex-Gov. W. S. Taylor and ex-Secretary of State Charles Finley, fugitives from Kentucky who are charged with the murder of Gov. William Goebel. Both men are now in Indianapolis. Republican leaders here, including ex-Gov. Durbin, have been informed that Gov. Durbin will honor the requisition for Taylor and Finley, and will deliver them over to the Kentucky authorities to be tried. Gov. Mount declined to honor the requisition on the ground that excitement was so high in Kentucky and prejudices existed against the men to such an extent that a fair trial could not be secured. It is claimed, cannot have that excuse. According to the information of Republicans here Senator Fairbanks and other advisers of Gov. Durbin have told him that he could do nothing but honor the requisition of Gov. Beckham, and the Indiana executive is said to have determined to take this course.

WILL NOT LET THEM ESCAPE. In order to prevent the escape of Taylor and Finley, Ripley is being held in the custody of the dead governor and others connected with the prosecution have taken steps which will put them constantly in touch with the two fugitives. The governor has deferred action, awaiting the opinion of the court of appeals, which sustained the legality of the indictments returned against Taylor and Finley. While Capt. Ripley may be convicted, the object in trying him was not so much to punish him as to get from the lips of ex-Gov. Bradley and ex-Chief Justice Goebel the conversation which Taylor had with Ripley in which he told him "to bring his military organization to Frankfort as quickly as possible," and that Goebel could not be living in twenty-four hours.

BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY. "The effect of Mr. Bradley's testimony has been wide-reaching in Indiana and in Kentucky. Gov. Bradley had never taken the witness stand in any of the previous trials. Republicans who were Taylor's staunch friends at first now doubt him and say he should face his accusers.

ATTEMPT TO STAB MR. KRUGER.

Paris Paper Authority for Such a Report.

PARIS, April 15.—(5:45 a. m.)—L'Estafette publishes a report that an attempt was made to stab Mr. Kruger.

CAUGHT AN AMERICAN.

RANDOLPH MARTINSON TAKEN PRISONER IN SOUTH AFRICA.

PARIS, April 14.—"Among the Boer prisoners who recently arrived in Lisbon from Lourenço Marques," says a special dispatch from the Portuguese capital, "was a young American, Randolph Martinson, who described himself as a son of the president of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway. He was captured by the British, but released as an American on promising not to fight again. Subsequently he was arrested in Lourenço Marques at the request of the British authorities under suspicion of being a Boer agent. Mr. Martinson on being brought here secured his release through the American charge d'affaires, and his father sent him money to pay his passage home. According to his representations he was aid de camp to Col. John Blake, commander of the Irish brigade."

A dispatch to the London Daily Mail from Lourenço, Marques, dated March 11, said that a Mr. Martinson, who was said to have resigned a post in the United States army to join the Boer forces, had been shipped for Lisbon on the Portuguese transport Zaire, which carried 100 Boer families, and had made an official attempt to obtain American protection.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 14. Three of the party were killed and one injured. The dead are: Morris O'Connell, Mrs. Morris O'Connell, Mrs. Frank Cramer. Frank Cramer was injured.

O'Connell and his wife were entertaining the Cramer couple, whose home is in Bradford county.

During the evening they visited relatives in this city, and at 1:30 this morning started to return home. When they reached the crossing at South Wilkesbarre a freight train was blocking it. As soon as the freight train moved out the party started to cross the tracks, but did not notice the approaching passenger train from an opposite direction. The engineer of the express failed to see the people on the track until the locomotive ploughed into them. The two women were hurled a great distance in the air and when picked up were dead. Both bodies were badly mangled. Mr. O'Connell had both legs and arms broken. He was taken to a hospital, where he died in a short time. Mr. Cramer was able to step back from the train, but was struck to full force and escaped with slight injuries.

POSTOFFICE OFFICIALS SECURING OPINIONS ABOUT CATCH-PENNY MEANS OF CIRCULATION

USED BY SOME NEWSPAPERS

Suggests That All Merchandise Premiums, Guessing Contests and Similar Schemes Should Be Cut Out.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Having repeatedly failed to secure remedial legislation from congress to prevent abuses of the privilege of second-class mail matter, the postoffice department officials have under consideration the adoption of a postoffice department rule by authority of the department to bring about the desired reforms with this object in view. Mr. Edwin G. Madden, third assistant postmaster general, has addressed a long circular letter to about 400 publishers of newspapers and periodicals setting forth the objects sought to be accomplished by the proposed rule and asking the following questions:

"In the judgment of those addressed, is a departmental rule to be regarded as injurious to legitimate newspapers and periodicals which will stop absolutely all premium inducements, direct or indirect, and of whatever character, for subscriptions? In other words, after a publisher has fixed a price on his publication, any bonus or premium given to the subscriber, or any combination with another thing, except a second-class publication, shall vitiate that subscription in its relation to the second-class rates of postage."

CASE OF BUBONIC PLAGUE

AUTHORITIES ADMIT ANN ARBOR STUDENT IS SUFFERING FROM IT

NO SPREAD OF THE DISEASE

Contracted by an Accident Similar to That Which Occurred in Vienna in 1898.

CHICAGO, April 14.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Ann Arbor, Mich., says: Dr. Victor C. Vaughan, dean of the medical department and one of the most noted bacteriologists in the country, appeared before the state board of health yesterday and practically acknowledged that the case of Student Charles E. Prof. Nothnagle and his assistant, Barisch, were conducting bacteriological experiments on bubonic bacillus in a village quarter when the case did also Dr. Muller, who attended him.

HENDERSON HAS 'EM GUESSING.

Omaha Officials Investigating the Claims of Dallas Man.

DALLAS, Tex., April 14.—There was a meeting at the county jail today between Attorney George W. Shields, of Omaha, and H. C. Henderson, who asserts that he is one of the Cudahy kidnapers. This meeting was arranged Saturday on a statement from Henderson to Shields that he would probably talk after having consulted his attorneys.

Mr. Shields said tonight that Henderson still declined to make a detailed statement of his alleged connection with the kidnaping, and that his talk was full of generalities and had very little of the details that are wanted. He also said that Henderson is very cautious as to what he says about this case, though he will converse freely on other subjects connected with Omaha.

Mr. Shields said it was probable that E. A. Cudahy and his son would come to Dallas within the next few days to see Henderson.

WANT KIWANG IN PEKIN

JAPANESE ENVOY NOTIFIED PRINCE CHING THAT THE EMPEROR MUST RETURN

WILL RECEIVE ALL COURTESY

IS ASKED TO COME ACCOMPANIED BY EVERY AVAILABLE SOLDIER

THESE NEEDED IN MANCHURIA

Dilatory Tactics of the Plenipotentiaries Chase Adverse Comment, Besides Delaying the Negotiations Needlessly.

PEKIN, April 14.—Komars Yutari, the Japanese envoy, accompanied by Gen. Yunoschi, the Japanese commander, recently called upon Prince Ching and notified him that the immediate return of Emperor Kwang Su to Peking was urgently demanded. Prince Ching was informed that the emperor's return would be regarded by the foreign troops and every courtesy would be shown him.

It was pointed out to the Chinese plenipotentiary that the emperor's return was of the highest importance as connected with the integrity of the Chinese empire and he should come accompanied by every available soldier, by at least 20,000 men if possible. These troops it was contended by the Japanese minister, must be sent into Manchuria, as the Russian reported great disturbances there, and it was pointed out that the quelling of the troubles should be thrown upon the shoulders of one nation. Finally Prince Ching was assured that if the 20,000 Chinese troops could not suppress the disorders in Manchuria, other troops would send an international force to cooperate with China, which the powers regarded as a friendly power.

No reply having been received to this communication Lo Hing Chang was today notified to the same effect, and was told that Emperor Kwang Su must give an immediate answer.

The preparations which the Japanese here are making for an early start indicate that they expect war between Russia and Japan. Vessels arriving at Taku from Nagasaki report the mobilization of the Japanese fleet and the continuation of preparations on board ship for the anticipated struggle.

DISCREDITED REBELLION.

Prince Chang says all reports so far show that the missionary statements regarding the rebellion in Mongolia are not supported by facts. Neither does he believe that the rebellion of Gen. Lung Fu Hsiang amounts to much.

"It is the object of certain elements," he asserts, "to make it seem that China is in a kind of constant peril, rendering it unsafe for the foreign troops to be withdrawn. Those who have this in view will make every effort to bring about a big rebellion. The missionaries, naturally timid, take these reports in good faith."

The conduct of the ministers of the powers over the negotiations with the Chinese plenipotentiaries causes much adverse comment among the military authorities. Their dilatory tactics have prevented what might have been accomplished two months ago. Even now the meetings of the ministers are postponed for the most trivial causes. For instance, the desire of one minister to go on a picnic to the tomb of the first emperor prevented the holding of a meeting for a number of days. Then M. de Giers and other ministers insisted upon celebrating Easter, and hence an unnecessary visit by one minister to Tien Tsin held up the negotiations for four days. These are fair indications of the kind of negotiation most continuous from the beginning.
