

The Story of a Woman's Suffering.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—When I began the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was suffering terribly. At times the pain was almost more than I could stand. My heart would nearly stop beating and I would get cold and numb. My husband thought many times I was dying and did not dare to leave me alone. I also suffered severely at times of menstruation. I had tried several doctors and they told me that they had done all that medicine could do. In the face of all this, and to the astonishment of my family and friends, your remedies cured me. I am now well and do the work for eight in the family. I feel very grateful for my recovered health, and constantly recommend your medicine."—MRS. CARRIE BELLVILLE, Ludington, Mich.

The record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is written in thousands of such letters as Mrs. Bellville's. When during the whole career of thirty years no physician had knowledge of this medicine, and thousands are daily prescribing it in their practice, should you, who know less about medicine than they, say, "Oh, I do not believe it is any good?"

Mrs. Pinkham advises women free of charge. Her address is Lynn, Mass. No woman knows the truth about women's ills as thoroughly as Mrs. Pinkham, and no medicine in the world has done so much good as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

$5000 REWARD We have deposited with the City Bank of Lynn, $5,000, which will be paid to any person who can find the name of a genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission.—LYDIA E. PINKHAM, MAINE, U.S.A.

RECORD OF PUBLIC INTEREST DECIDED BY SUPREME COURT

HENNEPIN BENCH REVERSED
Proprietors of Places of Amusement Where Liquors are Sold Are Responsible for Safety of Their Patrons.

Thirteen decisions were handed down yesterday by the supreme court. The most important in the matter of public interest was that affecting the Swedish Brethren case, administered by the higher court reverses the decision of the Hennepin county district court, and holds that keepers of places of amusement, where intoxicating liquors are sold, are responsible for the protection of their guests from bodily injury.

Ludvig Mastad was injured at the Swedish Brethren's hall, while attending an entertainment, by some guests, who were under the influence of intoxicants. Justice Brown files the opinion which holds that the management of a "place of amusement which invites the public for entertainment, and where intoxicating liquors are dispensed," is bound to protect its guests, and is liable for injuries inflicted. The syllabus:

Ludvig Mastad, appellant, vs. The Swedish Brethren, respondents.

A person managing and controlling a public place of amusement, to which he invites the public, and where intoxicating liquors are sold, is bound to exercise due diligence to protect his other customers and patrons from injuries which may be inflicted by persons who are intoxicated and who are under the influence of liquor. If the management of such a place is negligent in this respect, it is liable for damages caused by such persons to other customers and patrons. Order affirmed.—Brown, J.

John G. Johnson, appellant, vs. Thomas F. Walsh, respondent, and the City of Crookston, respondents.

Certain erroneous instructions to the jury in this action, which is one to recover damages for personal injuries alleged to have been caused by the negligence of defendant, are considered and held to be reversible error.

Louis J. Johnson, appellant, vs. The Swedish Brethren, respondents.

A person managing and controlling a public place of amusement, to which he invites the public, and where intoxicating liquors are sold, is bound to exercise due diligence to protect his other customers and patrons from injuries which may be inflicted by persons who are intoxicated and who are under the influence of liquor. If the management of such a place is negligent in this respect, it is liable for damages caused by such persons to other customers and patrons. Order affirmed.—Brown, J.

David Lemery, appellant, vs. Great Northern Railway company, respondent.

Where a through passenger on a railway is injured by a collision with a passenger car, and the injury is caused by the negligence of the railway, the railway is liable for damages. Order affirmed.—Brown, J.

August A. Hansen, appellant, vs. Town of Vord, in the county of Lincoln, said vs. The Board of Supervisors of Lincoln county, respondents.

The town of Vord is not a municipality under the provisions of the general statutes, and is not entitled to the benefits of the same. Order affirmed.—Lovely, J.

Edward B. Patterson, respondent, vs. J. Grant, respondent, and James W. Thomson, appellants.

A notice of the expiration of the period of redemption from a tax sale read, in part, as follows:

"...and that the period within which such notice shall be given shall expire when sixty days shall have elapsed after due service of this notice upon you, and after the expiration of such period you shall be deemed to have accepted of this notice as a compliance with the provisions of section 184, general statutes 1894. Order affirmed.—Lovely, J.

M. L. Murphy and Myrna A. Watler, co-appellants, vs. Anna Bordwell, defendant, and Lumbermen's National bank, garnishee; Emma J. Grant, claimant, respondent.

A gift of money in a bank on deposit in the name of a donor, but which continues in the name of the donor, is not a gift, and the donor is not liable for the same. Order affirmed.—Lovely, J.

John Christenson, appellant, vs. City of Owatonna, respondent.

Where a question of fact is presented, it is the duty of the jury to find the facts, and the court is bound to follow their verdict. Order affirmed.—Lovely, J.

RECOVER STOLEN GOODS.
Police Find Bolts of Cloth Concealed in Lounge.

Miss M. Johnson, a woman living near the corner of St. Peter and Seventh streets, was arrested last evening charged with receiving stolen property. In her room were found several bolts of cloth that were stolen from the tailor shop of Herman Gall & Sons, 272 Jackson street, two weeks ago, and a bicycle that was stolen from a house at 4 East Eleventh street, at about the same time. The bolts of cloth were concealed in a lounge from which the railing had been removed. She said that she received the goods from Pevter, Karl and Carmody, the three men who have already been held on grand jury charges for breaking into the house of J. P. Joyce, 115 West Tenth street, April 24.

new trial is not sufficient in such case to review the question whether the court erred in refusing to amend findings. Order affirmed.—Lovely, J.

State of Minnesota, ex rel. Patrick Kelly, incompetent, respondent, vs. Probate Court Ramsey County and Judge of Probate Court Ramsey County, appellants.

An order of a probate court made under the general statutes of 1894, section 454, which gave the care of a person under guardianship for incompetency, to be restored to capacity, is to all intents and purposes a final order, and is not reviewable by certiorari, nor appeal from such order being provided by statute.

Northern Cattle Company, appellant, vs. George H. Minroe, as sheriff of Stevens county, Minn., respondent.

Where a mortgage is secured by a real estate mortgage containing the usual power of sale, and the mortgagee exercises such power, the mortgagee is not liable for the loss of the property, unless it is shown that the mortgagee acted negligently. Order affirmed.—Start, C. J.

State of Minnesota, by Thomas Olson, Svend Olson and Harry Helgeson, respondents, vs. Board of County Commissioners of Hennepin County, appellants.

The board of county commissioners of Hennepin county is authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of raising money for the building of a bridge across the river between Hennepin and Ramsey counties, and provided that such a bridge, when built, should be kept in good condition. Order affirmed.—Start, C. J.

James H. Gray has brought suit against Wm. J. Jordan and William G. Jordan for back salary while in the employ of defendant. He is a traveling salesman, and the defendant is a defendant, S. P. 1, 1900, with the stipulation that he should get $25 on the first day of the month, and $25 on the last day. The complaint recites that the agreement was kept for five months, but in February, 1901, the defendant refused to pay. The total amount due in the suit is $25, together with interest on $25 from Feb. 28, 1901, and on $50, from April 1, 1901, and on costs and disbursements. Order affirmed.—Start, C. J.

Joseph T. Gilbert has brought suit against Alvaren Allen and Louis J. Allen to have himself appointed guardian of the property of certain property described in the complaint as lots 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, block 27, in the original plat of the city of St. Paul. The defendant, Boardman and Henry F. Boardman have brought suit against the plaintiff, claiming that the property taken away from the store owned by plaintiff on the southeast corner of Washburn street and Sixth street, was returned yesterday in the case of Katie Hartman against the city. She sued for an amount of money caused by a defective sidewalk.

Archibald J. McCollum has brought suit against the city of St. Paul for damages to his store last July, caused by a defective manhole or catchbasin. He asserts that the city is liable for the damage in question it rained for two or three days in succession, and the catchbasin became choked up, his bicycle store was flooded.

Nick Lambert has brought suit against his former employer, the Phillips, a salaried man, to collect $6 for services as a porter. In defense Mr. Phillips puts up the following bill against his former employer: For car fare, $2.25; for drinks, $2.50 a day for a nurse, while the prisoner was sick, an additional charge for extra call during the sickness.

William H. Mowry has been arrested at New Ulm for counterfeiting nickels. The prisoner will be given a hearing at Manhattan.

A decision has been filed by Judge Jagoe in the case of Frederick Banhoizer against William Claus and Herman Claus, granting the plaintiff judgment for the premises in question.

The Foley Mercantile company have brought suit against Van Dervort & Co. for $67.57. The complaint alleges that goods were sold to the defendant to the amount of $127.49, and that $206.92 has been paid.

EXAMINERS ON OPTOMETRY.
Other Appointments.

Gov. Van Sant gave out a number of appointments yesterday, among which were five persons to serve on the board of examiners on optometry, appointed in compliance with a law enacted at the regular session of legislature. The members are: Charles W. Gering, of Moorhead; J. W. Granger, of Rochester; F. A. Upham, of St. Paul; H. H. Hitebock, of Redwood Falls, and C. A. Shell, of Minneapolis.

PERMITS FOR OUTLAY OF OVER $100,000 ISSUED YESTERDAY

GERMANIA LIFE ADDITIONS
With the Two Extra Stories This Building Will Be One of the Highest in the City.

Building permits representing a contemplated outlay of over $100,000 were issued by the building inspector of the engineering department yesterday, the number and amount being greater than for any day during the month.

The largest permit was secured by the Germania Life Insurance company, it representing an expenditure of $84,000, and calling for the addition of two stories to their block at the corner of Fourth and Minnesota streets, for the purpose of the Commercial club. The architect will be the same as the remainder of the building, only that the expense of glass used in giving light will be greater. For the roof garden that the club hopes to open at no distant date, the roof has been made almost flat, the
