WILL PROBABLY DIE.

William Grundmann, Who Was Shot at Winona, Cannot Recover.

WINONA, Minn., June 27.—(Special.)—William Grundmann, who was shot last evening by Joseph Campbell, who afterwards attempted to kill the doctor, is still alive this evening at St. James, both men being at the hospital. The doctors have had no reason to believe that the man of last night, Grundmann, can recover, but they now think it quite likely that Campbell will recover. His right eye was cut out by a bullet. Grundmann died he will have to stand trial for murder.

SHOT BY A COMPANION.

Brainerd Lad Wounded in the Brain—Stories of Shooting Conflict.

BRAINERD, Minn., June 27.—(Special.)—This evening about 8 o'clock Jacob Madsen, a fourteen-year-old Finlander boy, shot and severely wounded John Hill, a boy about the same age, with a Eberhart revolver. Young Madsen fired the shot, only one of the bullets hitting the right thigh. The youth who did the shooting is said to be rather a tough character, and those who saw the fracas state the shots were fired with deliberate aim. Madsen was arrested and locked up and a charge of shooting with intent to kill will be filed against him in the morning. Young Madsen claims that the shooting was purely accidental, that he and his companions were pretending to shoot at a target, and he did not know the gun was loaded. The families of both youngsters live in East Brainerd.

Sheriff G. W. Smith, of this city, was made happy yesterday afternoon by the presentation to him of a magnificent gold star, the gift of William Crossette, a well known traveling man and a prince of good fellows. Mr. Crossette, accompanied by several of his friends, arrived in the city shortly after noon and proceeded to hunt up Sheriff Smith. After finding him J. E. Skemp, city passenger agent of the Burlington line in St. Paul, stepped up to him and in behalf of Mr. Crossette presented him with the token of friendship. The star is inscribed with Mr. Smith's initials in a monogram and in the center are the words "Sheriff of Washington County." Sheriff Smith was surprised but responded feigning to the presentation.

LEIPZIGER BANK FAILURE SHOWS QUESTIONABLE DEALINGS.

GERMAN BANKER IN JAIL

LEIPZIG, June 27.—The director of the Leipziger bank, which suspended payment Tuesday, June 25, has been arrested. The public prosecutor is investigating the affairs of the bank.

DISAPPOINTMENT AT DULUTH.

BERLIN, June 27.—It turns out that the report of the Leipziger bank published yesterday was misleading. Reliable information shows that the sum of 11,000,000 marks, which forms the bulk of the assets includes 7,000,000 marks loaned to the Cassel Treber-Trocknung company, which only a small part can be realized upon.

CONGRESSIONAL SANCTION NECESSARY FOR PROPOSED HIGH BRIDGE.

DULUTH, Minn., June 27.—(Special.)—Mayor Hugo received word from the war department today that it could not sanction the construction of the proposed aerial ferry bridge across the ship canal to Minnesota street, because the pier for the structure would rest on government land. Acting Secretary Sanger expressed the opinion that it would be necessary to obtain a permanent structure to occupy government land.
