

CRITERION'S BIG STUNT

SUMMER STOCK COMPANY TO PRESENT "UNDER TWO FLAGS"

MR. MAGUIRE MAKES GOOD

Said He Would Give St. Paul Theater Goers Some Novelties, and Proposes to Keep His Word.

The Criterion Stock company will present one of New York's most recent dramatic successes, "Under Two Flags," at the Metropolitan the coming week.

Manager Sylvester Maguire is fulfilling his promise to give St. Paul a number of theatrical novelties during the summer in the shape of plays that have never been seen here, but which have won fame through long runs in New York.

"Under Two Flags," which has been secured at a heavy expense, is the first of these novelties, and the announcement of this play will no doubt create a flutter of interest, as the play is taken from Ouida's popular novel of the same name, and has been generally conceded to be one of the best known of her best works.

RINGLING BROS. COMING

Big Show Will Visit St. Paul July 23.

It has been two years since Ringling Brothers' popular combination of acrobatics and hippodrome exhibited in St. Paul.

AMUSEMENTS

Metropolitan...

L. N. Scott, Lessee and Mgr.

THE COOLEST PLACE IN THE CITY.

THIS SUNDAY EVENING.

CRITERION STOCK CO.

In the Reigning New York Melodramatic Success

"UNDER TWO FLAGS"

From the Novel by Ouida.

THE HIT OF THE SEASON.

Mr. Robert Drouet

AND ALL THE FAVORITES.

ELABORATE SCENIC EFFECTS.

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES.

Matinees, All Seats, 25c.

Evenings, 25c and 50c.

Special Matinee Thursday, July 4.

WEEK JULY 7—"SAPPHO."

Coney Island Hotel.

On M. & St. L. Ry., 8 miles west of Minnetonka Lake.

Railway fare $1.00 round trip.

Rate for board and use of row boats, $8.00 per week.

The only first-class family resort in Minnesota.

My steamer will make connections with all trains at the water tank (Coney Island station). Fishing very good.

For the convenience of St. Paul people desiring to visit Coney Island the railroad will have a special train leaving Waconia at 7:30 p.m. on July 4th.

R. ZEGLIN, Prop. Hotel.

made to present a performance strictly novel and up-to-date, and this has necessitated the importation of an unusually large number of European experts.

BANDA ROSSA AT HARRIET.

Signor Sorrentino and His Players Drawing Immense Crowds.

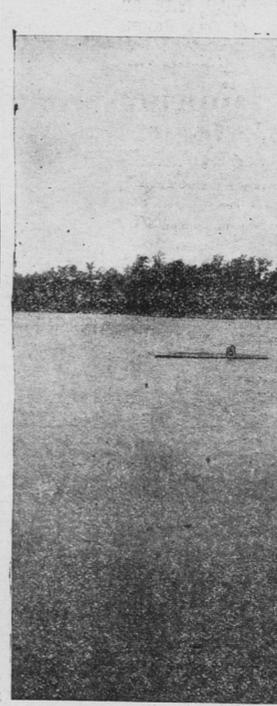

"The greatest summer attraction in the country" is the unanimous verdict of the press and public concerning Signor Sorrentino and his great Banda Rossa, at the Lake Harriet pavilion.

Signor Sorrentino is a great actor, both on and off the stage, and is so much so that he enjoys nothing so much as presenting the latest works of eminent composers.

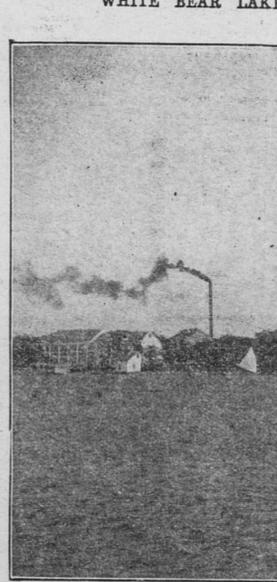

The theater for July is full of good things of special interest to playgoers. The cover, done in six colors and exquisite and dainty as a miniature painting, shows Mrs. Langtry as Queen Marie Antoinette, while the inside pages bear a wealth of interesting pictures of scenes from plays and many striking portraits of the prominent players.

The theater for July is full of good things of special interest to playgoers. The cover, done in six colors and exquisite and dainty as a miniature painting, shows Mrs. Langtry as Queen Marie Antoinette, while the inside pages bear a wealth of interesting pictures of scenes from plays and many striking portraits of the prominent players.

THE ROLLER COASTER AT WILDWOOD, WHITE BEAR LAKE.

WHITE BEAR LAKE, AS SEEN FROM THE SHORE AT WILDWOOD.

NEW BATH HOUSE AT WILDWOOD, WHITE BEAR LAKE.

whose works have aroused the music world have been undertaken by the enthusiastic musicians of the city.

Signor Sorrentino has a number of magnificent programmes yet to deliver, and he frankly admits that he likes help in their arrangement. He cannot follow every one's advice, but he gives every request for some certain composition careful consideration.

Castle Was Appreciated.

"William Castle, the tenor," says the Philadelphia Record, "who sang the leading male roles with Caroline Richinga, Parepa Rosa, Clara Louise Kellogg and Emma Abbott, was in the city the other day on his way from Chicago to the south shore, and was chatting of some odd rewards won in the musical world.

The Theater for July.

The Theater for July is full of good things of special interest to playgoers. The cover, done in six colors and exquisite and dainty as a miniature painting, shows Mrs. Langtry as Queen Marie Antoinette, while the inside pages bear a wealth of interesting pictures of scenes from plays and many striking portraits of the prominent players.

MAUDE ODELL'S FOX HOUND.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

America's First Playhouse.

The first theater in America was built at Annapolis in 1752, and was opened on the 22d of June of that year with "The Beggar's Opera," the principal performers being Messrs. Wyll, Kenn, Herbert, Eranson and Miss Osborne.

HEARD ON THE RIALTO.

Miss Maude Granger will be a leading member of the company supporting Blanche Walsh.

HEARD ON THE RIALTO.

Miss Clara Gisko has been engaged for the summer season to play the leading role in the Packard Comedy company.

HEARD ON THE RIALTO.

Richard Mansfield opens his next tour in October at Brooklyn, N. Y., presenting "Monsieur Beaucaire," which will be his principal production.

HEARD ON THE RIALTO.

Marie Wainwright will present a revival of "The School for Scandal" next season, appearing as Lady Teazle, John E. Henshaw and May Ten Broeck will probably be associate stars in the production.

George, Miss Rebecca Warren, Mr. E. J. Morgan, Mr. Egerton Castle, Miss Ella Snyder, Mr. J. E. Dodson, Mr. Hamilton Rovelie, Faderewski and others.

The literary features include illustrated articles on Rostand, by Cleveland Moffett, "The Endowed Theater," by Horace E. Fry, the first production in America of Rostand's "Les Romanesques," "In Memoriam J. A. Horne," by Edward E. Kilduff, Faderewski's new opera, "Manru," plays and plays, etc.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

Among her many possessions Miss Maude Odell prizes most highly an English foxhound, which proudly bears the name of "Sapho." They are inseparable during the day, "Sapho" being the night guardian and chaperone, and at night during the play is the watchdog guardian of her dressing room, reposing in the top tray of her trunk, which will be given up with a satin covered couch for his doghouse.

ture the theater cat, an ill-bred mongrel, into Miss Odell's dressing room, and began nosing around her wardrobe, "Sapho" awakened, and in her most impressive manner bade the intruder begone, but the cat only arched its back and said "Sapho" out.

CROWDS AT WILDWOOD.

Recent Improvements Make It an Ideal Place for an Outing.

There have been some big crowds each evening the past week at Wildwood. Tuesday evening the attendance was exceptional, the picnic grounds being "hopped." The dancing music is being furnished each evening during the week, excepting Sunday, by the Wolf & Barrett orchestra, Messrs. Wolf & Barrett also supply music each afternoon.

AFTERNOON.

- March—"Charter Day".....Recker
Idyle—"Du Miille in Schwarz".....Ellenberg
Spanish Waltz—"The Blue Bird".....Johnson
La Petite Fugere".....Robyn
"Old Times Sake".....Harris
"Intermezzo—"Salambo".....Morse
"Two-Step Medley—"Bergere".....Waldfel
"Ly Gray".....Chattaway

EVENING.

- March—"The Willow Grove" (by request).....Sorrentino
Morgan.....Armand
Waltz—"The Dete".....Bucalassi
Cupid's dance—"Manzanillo".....Robyn
"Hello Central, Give Me Heaven".....Harris
Gavotte—"Maude".....Bratton
Nanette—"Waltz".....Grabbe
Two-step medley—"I I I".....Smith
"Dreams About You".....Smith

CONCERTS AT COMO.

Minnesota State Band to Be Heard During Entire Week.

There will be two concerts at Como Park today, and a concert every evening of the week. This will be continued at the Como Park during the month of July and part of that of August.

AFTERNOON.

- March—"The Battleship Oregon".....Fulton
Overture—"Poet and Peasant".....Supps
Waltz—"The Wave".....Metra
Medley—"The Blue Bird".....Boetger
Caprice Heroique—"Awakening of the Lion".....Kontskio
"Light Serenade".....Grader
"Little Christopher".....Kerker
Characteristic March—"The Colored Major".....Henry

EVENING.

- March—"Soldiers' Blood".....Blon
Overture—"Light Cavalry".....Sippe
Cornet Duet—"La Belle Creole".....Dobby
"Mirrors".....Lawson and Bestman.
Description—"A Trip to Buffalo."
Grand Selection—"Martha".....Flotow
Waltz—"Jelly Fellows".....Boetger
Serenata Mexicana—"Lella".....Chambers
Medley—"The Best Ever".....Beyer

HUMOURS

Complete External and Internal Treatment

Cuticura THE SET

Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA OINTMENT to instantly allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT to cool and cleanse the blood, and expel humour germs.

MILLIONS USE CUTICURA SOAP

Assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and chaffings, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour.

Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle; CUTICURA OINTMENT to instantly allay itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT to cool and cleanse the blood.

THE SET

all else fails. Sold throughout the British Empire, F. Newbery & Sons, 27, Charterhouse Sq., London, E. C. POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CO., Sole Props., Boston, U. S. A.

the new company in which Dave Warfield is to star, opens her season the first week in September at the Bijou theater, New York, under the management of David Belasco.

Miss Helaine Hadley's performance of Nell in "The Parolite," will be remembered by Providence theatergoers. During the reception which was given by the entire company to the patrons of Kreib's theater, she was the recipient of many congratulations for her past work.

The fairy extravaganza, "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast," the largest spectacular production ever made on the stage of the Lyric Lane theater, London, England, has been secured by Jacob Litt, and will be presented at the Broadway theater, New York, Nov. 4, for an extended run.

Stuart Robson's impersonation of Bertie the Lamb in "The Benetta" made so lasting an impression that the comedian has yielded to the popular demand for a revival of Bronson Howard's play next season. The production will be given on a grand scale. The supporting company will be the strongest that has ever been associated with Mr. Robson, whose tour will be under the direction of Daniel Arthur.

Joseph Callahan will be seen next season in a grand spectacular production of Goethe's "Faust." He will open his tour at the Third Avenue theater, New York, on Sept. 2. The scenery for the production has been painted by Mr. Frank Platter, of the Academy of Music, San Francisco, in "Garrett O'Magh," on July 2.

Li Gratian Donnelly, author of "Darkest Russia," has written "Love's Sake," in which Mabel and Ethel Strickland will be joint stars.

Odell Williams will be the originator of a principal character in "Down Under," a new play, by Lee Arthur, which will be presented under the management of David Belasco.

Miss Marie Hunt, a talented artist, will appear a few weeks in New York prior to going to Atlantic City for the summer. She will be seen in a prominent New York production this fall.

Richard Mansfield opens his next tour in October at Brooklyn, N. Y., presenting "Monsieur Beaucaire," which will be his principal production. He will spend the summer at Southampton, L. I.

Marie Wainwright will present a revival of "The School for Scandal" next season, appearing as Lady Teazle, John E. Henshaw and May Ten Broeck will probably be associate stars in the production.

Harry Corson Clarke, who recently closed a successful season of thirty-seven weeks, presenting "What Did Tompkins Do?" is visiting the Pan-American exposition in Buffalo, N. Y., accompanied by his wife.

"Dangers of Paris," a well known dramatic success that is now playing in its seventh year in England, will open its American tour, Aug. 25 at Cleveland, Ohio, under the management of Mitchell Bros.

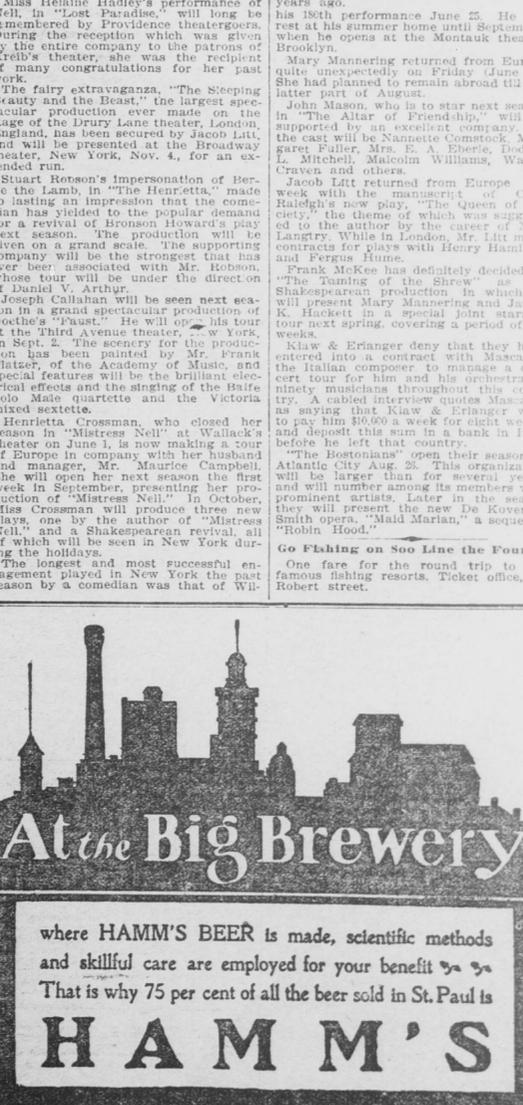

Howard P. Taylor will have two elaborate productions in London in the coming fall of his plays "The Mystery of Chitcott Pass" and "Fuisse of Chinatown," the former at the Terriss theater and the latter at the Lyric.

Miss Grace Washington, a beautiful and graceful woman from California, will be a member of the company supporting Pete Daly, in Augustus Thomas' new comedy, under the management of Frank McKee, during the coming season.

Miss Maude Odell's attraction in the words and music of a new lullaby, which she will sing in public for the first time, will be "The Whippoorwill," in the production of "King Dodo," Ill., has been named "The Whippoorwill."

Through the efforts of the American Dramatists club, four seasons ago in New York, Pennsylvania, Oregon and Louisiana have enacted a state law making it a crime to pirate a play, even if uncopyrighted.

Miss Maude Winter, who plays the leading female role in "The Auctioneer," where HAMM'S BEER is made, scientific methods and skillful care are employed for your benefit.

That is why 75 per cent of all the beer sold in St. Paul is

HAMM'S