

CORNELL WINNER OF 'VARSITY RACE

Badger Crew Made a Game Struggle, but the Pace Was Too Fast for Them.

Cornell Also Wins the 'Varsity Fours, While Pennsylvania Takes Freshman Race.

POTCHKKEEPSIE, N. Y., July 2.—The inter-collegiate boat races over the Hudson river course were decided today as follows: Varsity eights, Cornell first, time, 18:31.5; Columbia, second, time, 18:53; Wisconsin third, time, 19:06.45; Georgetown fourth, time, 19:21.

The best previous record for 'varsity eights was 19:43.5. No time was taken for Syracuse and Pennsylvania, who were many lengths behind Pennsylvania. In the 'varsity fours Cornell was first, time, 11:39.35; Pennsylvania second, time, 11:42.25; Columbia third, time, 11:51.3-5. The best previous record for this distance was 12:31.5.

In the freshmen race Pennsylvania was first, time, 10:20.15; Cornell second, time, 10:23; Columbia third, time, 10:36.15; Syracuse fourth, time, 10:44. The best previous record for freshmen eight was 9:19.5.

The first crews in the 'varsity eight rowed the following strokes during the race:

Not only was a new record for 'varsity eights made, but it is more remarkable that the four leading crews in the race each broke the old record by many seconds.

The race was rowed in water that was phenomenally advantageous and while this may have helped the race, still it did not seem to assist the freshmen, who rowed under almost the same conditions.

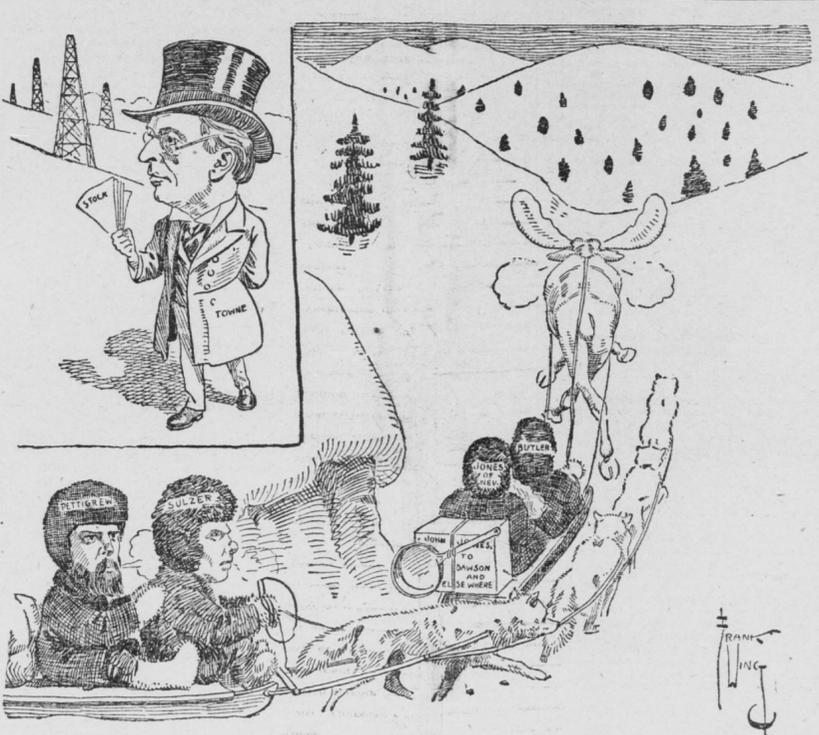

The 'varsity race was the most exciting of the day, although the other races with much uncertainty over the winner, caused a flurry. The fact that Pennsylvania had been picked as a sure winner of the four-mile race, and hung on to the lead until the Cornell boat broke in the last half mile, Cornell would tonight have three victories to her credit.

Georgetown, a new rival for honors and to whom little attention had been paid, got inside the time record and hung on to the leaders with a tenacity that surprised everybody. Pennsylvania was never in the race with its second crew and Syracuse with its light oarsmen was outclassed.

The 'varsity race was one of the fiercest struggles ever witnessed in college athletics and had any one of the crews in the lead disavowed the fact that tail-enders were ready to take their place and make good time at that. As it was, although the race was one of the most severe ever rowed, there was not a sign of distress in any boat. It was a minute after half past 5 when the six 'varsity crews lined up at the start, there being a slight delay because of the breaking away of Cornell's stake boat.

The referee gave the usual warnings and at the pistol the start was practically uniform. Cornell having the advantage because of the absence of a stake boat, had to make a flying start. It was evident before twenty-five strokes had been rowed that the pace cut out by Cornell, Wisconsin, Columbia and Georgetown was too much for the light Syracuse crew and the second crew from Pennsylvania, for they began to drop behind into a second division. The half-mile showed no change between the first three boats, while Georgetown had dropped about a length behind them. Columbia was leading at this point. At the mile Cornell, with pretty rowing, had taken the lead, raising of her stroke, had taken the lead away from Columbia and had about half a length advantage. Wisconsin had tried in vain to steal second place from Columbia and from this point, although close to Columbia's stern, never managed to draw up on her.

CORNELL HOLDS THE LEAD. From the mile and half past to the three-mile point at the bridge it was one of the most remarkable feats of endurance and skill ever witnessed. Cornell, rowing a low stroke to the minute, kept the nose of her shell just a scant half length in front of Columbia, who, with her fast stroke and a clean running boat, made desperate efforts to reach her rival, Wisconsin, a half length behind Columbia, made equally great efforts, but they seemed to be of no avail and Georgetown held on to the trio of pacemakers with a tenacity that won for her the plaudits of the spectators. Those who watched the terrific pace being continued, looked at any moment to see one of the four leaders go to pieces, but they swept down under the bridge without changing positions. Here it was that Columbia made

JUBILEE OF THE DIOCESE

"And now, in this jubilee year 1901, fifty years from the day when Bishop Crehn for the first time blessed his little flock in his cabin cathedral, there are, in what is barely more than the region then covered by the diocese of St. Paul, six episcopal sees, one of them vested with metropolitan dignity. 600 priests, a Catholic population of 400,000, and, in fullest proportion, churches and convents, colleges and schools, asylums and hospitals, commissioned and equipped to spread through city, town and hamlet, over the whole land, the strength and sweetness of Christian truth and of Christian charity. Spirit of sainted Crehn be among us, we pray thee, this morning, viewing with us thy vast spiritual demesne, once an empty waste, now blossoming bounteously beneath the wide-spreading, soul-protecting branches of a mighty tree, the grand and good of which thine own apostolic hands did plant in Minnesota soil."

CORNER STONE OF ST. MARY'S

At the close of the mass Archbishop Ireland delivered a beautiful sermon, "Fifty Years of Catholicity in the North-West," in which he reviewed the coming of Crehn, his untiring work and after his death the rapid strides made by the church which he had so humbly nurtured.

THOUSANDS OUT FOR DERBY DAY

Weather Was Ideal for Racing and Track Is In Finest Possible Condition—Fast Time Made.

Handsome Equipages of the Smart Set of the Two Cities In Evidence at Horse Show.

Derby day at the Minneapolis Driving park was a magnificent success. The weather was perfect, and even Old Sol took pity on the vast assemblage and frequently stole softly under the fleecy lace of lightly interwoven clouds while the finishing touches were being put upon nearly every heat and at critical horse show periods. The track was in the finest possible condition and lightning fast, as is well evidenced by the time made.

Long before the appointed hour for the races to be called great throngs wended their way to the park, and the spacious grandstand soon overflowed with an enthusiastic assemblage of humanity. The commodious clubhouse was filled to repletion, while the infield was thronged with vehicles of every description, the lofty four-in-hand, flanked by Stanhopes, splinter phaetons and the luxurious Victorias going side by side in gracious magnanimity with the humbler buggy. The infield was a vehicular inspiration and presented a most bizarre tinge to the auditory picture that was a rare feature.

Over 4,500 people were in attendance, and it is needless to say that they saw send-off and hit herself, laming her so that she was unable to do profitable work. The second heat was won in a drive by Winfred Stratton, the Minneapolis driver, making a terrific side wheeler, Duster, making a terrific drive in the last eighty yards. The horses were sent off in good shape and Stratton led the way into the stretch, with Duster well up. Half way down the gray gelding, Gen. Otis, lapped Stratton and Vivian S sought to make a showing and down into the far turn the three swept and a blanket would have covered the three until they entered into the home stretch, when Winfred Stratton came out in a rush, followed by Duster and it was a merry chase to the wire, although Otis got disgraced and came home in a jog in sixth place. Mollie Stocking's lameness caused her to act badly, so she had the flag shaken in her face. Time, 2:14.5.

The third heat, while virtually a repetition of the second, was a fast proposition and was the prettiest heat of the day, for it was a merry chase to the wire, with Gen. Otis a throat lacer in the rear. It was one of those finishes that swell the bump of admiration and find vent in shouting. Time, 2:14.5.

THE DERBY RACE. The 2:34 trotting Derby, three-mile dash, was saved for the last event, and it was by far the most interesting of the day, as each one of the three contestants led a portion of the time, and it was only won right at the wire, and a terrific drive at that. It was surprising to see such a finish at the end of a fast three-mile heat, and serves to show that such horses of a superior quality can do such a feat. Three horses only responded when the bell rang, Ecstasy, who drove the pole; Random and Philip Lockheart, St. Paul's candidate, Nushka, having failed to materialize. The horses after a preliminary score, were sent off on even terms, and Random jumped into the lead and maintained it for a mile and three quarters, when Philip Lockheart, who had been trailing, swung into the lead and kept it until the last quarter, when he was reached by the game mare Ecstasy caught him, and they came neck and neck down the stretch, until within fifty feet of the wire, when Lockheart left his feet and the mare showed her nose under the wire and the cheer of the multitude. Random was six lengths in the rear. The time of the dash was as follows: One mile, 2:26, two miles, 4:43, three miles, 7:17. The summary: 2:34 trotting Derby, three-mile dash, special purse: Ecstasy, b m by Red Barron (Gerrity), 1 Philip Lockheart, b g, (Loomis).....2 2 2 Random, b g, (Phipps).....3 3 3 Time, 7:17.5.

THE HORSE SHOW. Society's choicest midsummer function—the horse show—was a glowing success and participated in by the very cream of the smart set in the Twin Cities. It was a most affable and the best of its sort ever pulled off in the Twin Cities.

some rare, fine racing as well as memorable horse show features. THE 2:30 TROT. It was shortly after 2 o'clock when the starting gong called the 2:30 class trotters out. Seven speedy horses answered the summons, and they were duly assigned to their respective positions. Meta Arthur drew the pole, Lena Birchwood second, Rose McInez third, Dr. Shorb fourth, Maud B fifth, Leo Lee sixth, and Annie Ripley seventh.

On the trot the horses were sent off to a fairly good start. Meta Arthur jumped off in the lead, much after the fashion of a deer running to cover through the open. Annie Ripley negotiated second place, and Leo Lee the back stretch, while the game son of McKinney, Dr. Shorb, ambled along four lengths behind. The positions were unchanged as the horses swept into the home stretch, but Driver Durfee shook out a link, and with Meta Arthur four lengths ahead under the wire, Dr. Shorb finished an easy second, Annie Ripley two lengths behind and Leo Lee leading the rest of the bunch. Time, 2:16.5.

The second heat of this race was an easy game for Meta Arthur, and while the Californian was content to stay in the rear, most of the way round, he came out and glided into second place with becoming modesty, with the rest trailing. Time, 2:16.

It was easy picking for Meta in the first heat to the three-quarter pole, but here Dr. Shorb came after the game Austin mare and made her pick up her feet lively and sweep under the wire in 2:15.5. Rose McInez finished fourth in a run, but was set back and the place given to Leo Lee. The summary follows: First race, 2:30 trot, purse $500. Meta Arthur, br m, by Kirke J. Smith (Rutherford).....1 1 1 Dr. Shorb, blk h (Durfee).....2 2 2 Annie Ripley, ch m (Freund).....3 3 3 Leo Lee, b g (Sherrill).....4 4 4 Rose McInez, b m (Blindert).....5 5 5 Lena Birchwood, b m (Ostrander).....6 6 6 Maud B, ch m (Curry).....7 7 7 Time, 2:16.5, 2:16, 2:15.5.

THE 2:22 PACE. The 2:22 pace, although won in straight heats, was closely contested and it was a drive that was in every heat for the first four horses. Anna Caffee drew the pole, but in scoring went wrong and was drawn and succeeded by Halmalme, Winfred Stratton second, Mollie Foster third, City four, Removine fifth, Vivian S sixth, Duster seventh, and Gen. Otis eighth. It was a difficult matter to get the horses to score up properly in the first heat and they were sent back a half dozen times, but the second heat was a much more much to the disgust of the crowd. When the word was given, however, Winfred Stratton, the Colorado wonder, jumped into the pole before the first turn was made, while Gen. Otis, Duster and Vivian S, battled fiercely for the place almost to the half, when the gang bunch-ed until they straightened out into the home stretch. It was anybody's race at the three-quarter pole, but Stratton let out another link or two while the huge Duster chased her home in a hurry, finishing a half length in the rear, in 2:14.5. Gen. Otis finished an easy third, the rest well punched with the exception of Mollie Foster, who got much the worst of the

INJUNCTION TO STOP BULL FIGHT AT OMAHA

OMAHA, Neb., July 2.—(Special.)—Upon the application of Alfred S. Sutton and various South Omaha clergymen, District Judge Fawcett has granted a temporary restraining order forbidding the contemplated bull fights. The order is made returnable at 2 o'clock tomorrow, when the legal rights of the promoters will be put to the test. The humane society takes no further interest in the affair, now that it is assured that the bulls shall come to no harm, and although human life will admittedly be jeopardized. The society thinks human beings are competent to take care of themselves. The appeal of the clergymen is based on the state statute forbidding wanton cruelty to animals. They believe the exhibition will injure the moral well being of the city. The South Omaha street fair management has completed its huge amphitheater and is advertising two fights for the Fourth of July. It guarantees that the bulls will be injured, but promises that the performance will execute all the approved edicts with red sash and vaulting poles.

STONE SUED FOR $100,000. Was President of Defunct First National Bank of Sioux City. SIOUX CITY, Iowa, July 2.—A suit for $100,000 has been instituted against T. J. Stone, president of the Old First National bank, involving the legality of his management of the affairs of that institution, which was forced to the wall in 1898. It is charged T. J. Stone, as president and director of the First National bank, diverted, misappropriated and converted to his own use funds of the bank to the amount of $100,000. It is alleged that the loans were made in violation of the federal laws.

DEADLY AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 2.—The heat which has worked such havoc in this city since last Sunday was somewhat mitigated late this afternoon by a succession of thunder storms, which cleared the atmosphere and sent the mercury tumbling down 10 degrees, between the hours of 4:30 and 8 p. m. Never did a downpour of rain relieve such enthusiastic reception as did this one. The thunder and lightning were heavy and many houses were struck, causing fires, but so far as known no person was killed or injured. During the last of the downpour hail fell in quantities.

It was the hottest July 2 in the history of the local weather bureau and a day which almost reached the city's record of Sept. 7, 1881. The morning opened with the temperature at 82 at 6 a. m. In an

L. J. PHELPS, FAIRBAULT. "The only good place to see a trotting race is on top of the fence."

The Inner field was given over exclusively to this affair and around the half-mile track was crowded a myriad of vehicles of every sort, shape and color. As viewed from the clubhouse it was an enchanting picture and the many participants received a full meed of unstinted praise. The women were in stunning gowns, white holding its own against all other colors in evidence, and black and white coming in a close second for honors. Picture hats of every conceivable shape and make adorned the heads of fair matrons and maidens. From the wide-tipped leghorn with its wealth of roses which set off a young Gibson girl, through every grade of picturesqueness up to the chic straw hat with a perfect costume of black and white worn with a "to the manner born" air by a striking young matron.
