Immediately after the governor's parade some of the staff returned to the city. Many remained over and amused themselves at the infantry and artillery camps, retiring very early. Those of the staff who stayed in camp were distributed among the two headquarters. Gen. C. J. Monfort, St. Paul, and Col. Roland Hartley were assigned to infantry headquarters. Col. Hartley left his clothes outside of camp a night or two ago and came very near losing a valuable jewel which he had left in one of his pockets. His clothes were removed. He

IS PASSING A CONFEDERATE BILL COUNTERFEITING OR NOT?

Whether getting rid of an old Confederate bill at the expense of an unsuspecting individual is counterfeiting or obtaining money under false pretenses will be settled in the courts at Devil's Lake, N. D., within a short time.

Not many moons ago Capt. J. W. Lawlence, a secret service agent, arrested one M. L. Barrett at Glendive, Mont. The man was charged with having given a Confederate bill of the denomination of $50 in payment of a bill for that amount. The victim was a North Daken of the camp. Throngs of visitors poured in to view the surroundings during the day and the military band gave a special concert. Preparing for Labor Day.

The Labor day committee of the Trades and Labor assembly did not hood a meeting last night, as was expected. The failure to meet was occasioned by the unavoidable absence from the city of the committeemen. A. E. Donaldson, who is the committee's secretary, will call another meeting of the committee early in the week, when questions bearing upon the observance of labor's national holiday will be taken up and pushed vigorously. Organized Against Union Labor.

San Francisco is confronted today with e most serious condition that has ever en presented to any city in the United ates. There never was a time or place States. There never was a time or place where labor was more thoroughly united and all working in unison than here. The labor council represents over eighty local unions, with a membership of nearly 40,000, and is becoming so powerful that the employers are organizing for the purpose of opposing its further advancement. Employers have also organized their local associations, embracing all industries. These locals all belong to a central body known as the Employers' association. The latter has apparently determined to refuse to recognize the right of its employes to organize.

No Settlement Yet in Sight. No settlement of the machinists' strike in Minneapolis was effected last week. The situation is apparently unchanged. The employers claim to have nearly all the men they need, while the strikers assert that the local shops are tied up. During the first of the week conferences between the men and the manager of the Twin City Iron works were held, but no settlement was reached. It looks like settlement was reached. It looks like a fight to the finish.

Striking Bag Factory Workers. The bag factory employes in Minneapolis are still out, but it is generally believed that the trouble will be brought to an end within a short time. It is understood that the managers of the company have agreed to recognize the union and take all their old employes back, except the two leaders of the strike. The committee appointed by the Trades and Labor council to settle the trouble refused to accede to these terms, and the employes refused to go to work. ployes refused to go to work.

tillnes, and last evening on parade one of the riders was dismounted. Preliminary revolver practice has also been taken up among the officers, and some excellent scores are being made. Lieutenant N. P. Nelson gained another good score—48 this time and 49 yesterday.

Among the additional lady visitors to the artillery camp are the Misses Hana Meyer and Pauline Mernheim, of St. Paul.

The Misses Cora and Bertha Bennet, Minneapolis, daughters of Capt. C. C. Bennet, arrived in camp yesterday and will remain several days. They were accompanied by Maude R., and Miss Alice Maguire, also of Minneapolis.

Sergeant Major Hal Bennet returned to Minneapolis yesterday.

Miss Irene Davis, of St. Paul, is a guest of Mrs. George C. Lambert.

Raise Due to Natural Causes.

The packers at South St. Paul are now paying $6.20 per cwt. for hogs, the highest paid since 1894, when the Cudahy corner or provisions sent it into the St. The high prices of today are simply due to natural causes, supply and demand. The market has been fairly steady for the last six weeks, and on several occasions packers have paid as high as $6 and a little more.

Nine-hour day has been established by the Brewing Workers throughout the United States, except in a few cities where old contracts have not yet ex-pired. These contracts will not be renewed unless they contain the nine-hour clause. One of the most promising labor organizations in the country is the Shirt, Walst and Laundry Workers' International union, which has established a record of securing seventy-two new unions since last January.

About 1,200 members of the Boiler-makers' unions are involved in strike in various parts of the country for the nine-hour day and ten hours' wages, with good prospects for success. Twelve unions organized during the past month; increase in membership, 250.

Nine-hour day was granted the Coopers without strike all along the Pacific coast. Eight-hour day with the same pay as for nine hours conceded by all the brewerles in Boston without strike. Reductions of one hour in the working day in several other places. Three new unions organized in the last month.

The Electrical Workers' union and Building Trades council will hold meetings Monday night.

The Minneapolis Labor Day committee has appealed to the local unions to advance the $500 necessary to defray the expenses of the parade, which, it is asserted, will surpass all previous efforts. Every-brass band in the city is to be employed, and fully 25,000 laboring men will be in line.

A. C. Bainbridge, business agent of the Minneapolis painters' union, has written the executive board of the Painter's National Brotherhood protesting against the exaction of an assessment for the benefit of the striking painters on the local organization, unless the money is to be spent in the West.

COLUMBUS STRIKE ENDS

Reporters, Packed by Mechanical Workers, Force the Reinstatement of Two Discharged Employes.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 12.-A strike of the writing and mechanical force at the press postoffice continued today. This afternoon Dewitt C. Jones, formerly editor of the Press Post, made an application before Judge Badger, of the common pleas court, for the appointment of a receiver for the paper. Jones, as a stockholder and a creditor of the paper, averred that it is being ruined by the policy of the management. Notice of the application was served on Mr. C. M. Jones, but he failed to make his appearance to resist the ap-pointment and Judge Badger named Mr. P. Stevens, former general manager the company as receiver. A bond of $15,000 was required and the receiver at once took charge, While the receiver-ship proceedings were in progress, Mr. C. M. Jones surrendered completely to the demands of the union and signed the scale of the writers. Late this afternoon Congressman John

J. Lentz, attorney for C. M. Jones, proprietor of the paper, appeared before Judge Badger and asked to have the receivership set aside. Mr. Lentz offered the court a certified check representing the par value of the stock held by the complainant in the receivership proceed-ings as a guarantee that the interest of the complaint would not suffer. A plea for immediate action was made, but Judge Badger reserved his decision on the motion until Monday.

The city edition of the paper appeared with four pages this evening and no further trouble affecting publication is anticipated. Telegraph Editor Cooper, who refused to strike with the union reporters, has rel nquished his position. City Editor Creger and Reporter Dear-duff, who were discharged by Mr. Jones have been reinstated by the receiver.

NEW YORK, July 13 .- Mrs. Mary Harrington Hanna, who obtained a divorce from Dan R. Hanna, of Cleveland, three years ago, sailed for Europe tolay on the Campan'a with her three children. Mr. Hanna is a son of Senator M. A. Hanna. son and Julius Richardson, his son, for the alleged kidnaping of the prisoner at Lutchfield, Ill, last year.

Several important witnesses were examined for the state, and they all declared the prisoner was Bert Glenn. The question that the public is now interested in is whether or not the defendant has false teeth. Every witness today said she had, and nobody but lawyers for the defense and Ellis Glenn can state otnerwise, and this they have not done. The most important witness today was J. C. Jayne, of Hillsboro, Ill., who stated that the prisoner had frequently talked to him about Williamstown, W. Va., and Marietta, Ohio. He said defendant had told him that she had her hand cut in a butcher shop in Williamstown, and it hurt her at times; but, strange to say, there are no scars on her hand to prove this. Jayne's evidence was very favorable to the cause of the state, and it is thought by some that the defense will not be able to tear it down.

Ellis Glenn assumed her old-time demeanor, and frequently smiled at the witty remarks of the lawyers. She was in good spirits all day, and the evidence and positiveness of the witnesses did not concern her in the least. The court room was again crowded, and the heat was terrific. It is now thought that it will take at least two weeks more to finish the trial.
