There was nothing but ac in the second game of the series between St. Paul and Denver at Lexington yesterday, and when the show-down came in the final round, the Red Caps held four, while the visitors had but three. It was a great game, requiring ten innings to establish supremacy, and fast and exciting at all times. The Saints held a lead of one at all times until the ninth, and then the visitors sent in the tying score on a fluke. Frisk and Preston, the first two men up, were easy outs, and then McHale cracked. The Denver team made an effort to catch him off the bag and Kelly let the ball get away from him. McHale went to third on the misplay. Delehanty was the next man at bat and hit a long fly to left. Holly misjudged the ball by running in on it. When he discovered his mistake and started back it was too late, and the ball went nearly to the cycle track. McHale scored and Delehanty landed on third. It was up to Captain Bill Everett to win the game, but the old man fell down badly, striking out.

The Saints needed a run and needed it badly when they came up in the half of the extra inning. The youngsters determined to get it, and they did get it. Shannon led off with a hit back of Radcliffe. The shortstop fielded the ball to Everett, who let go through him, and Shannon went out on third. Great things were expected of Holly when he came up, for it was his error of judgment that had made necessary the extra inning. The youngsters more than fulfilled expectation by hammering the ball far out to left-center for two bags and the score, which turned out to be the winning run, was in. Bram and Kelley were easy outs.

Jones led off with a single for the visitors, but was retired a moment later in a double by Shannon. Shannon caught Denver's long, low drive to right and held the ball back to first before Jones could return. Radcliffe drew a pass, but Sullivan ended the agony by flying out to catcher.

Both Cook and Frisk pitched good ball. The Denver man had a little the best of the argument, in that Cook was wild, hitting three men and passing three. He kept the hits well scattered, but scattered as they were, the drives made by the Saints came at opportune times, and this, coupled with good work on the bases, won them the game. Score:

TO EXPEL JUMPERS
PLAYERS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCI-ATION WILL NOT STAND FOR VI-OLATION OF CONTRACTS

Hereafter Players Will Be at Liberty to Change Their Address at the End of the Year.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A meeting of the Players' Protective Association was held here today, the delegates present being Jennings and Donahue, Philadelphia; McGuire and Daly, Brooklyn; Green, Menefee, Taylor and Dexter, Chicago; Hedrick, Raden, Harper and Murphy, St. Louis; Dinkie of Providence, and Rosch of Brockton, Mass. None of the American leagues attended the meeting, but as all of the clubs of that league are at present in the West, it was expected that the players could not get to New York and back without interfering with their regular club.

The question of the punishment of players who jumped their contracts at the beginning of the season was the principal item on the agenda. It was decided to have a report on the matter, but in the absence of a report the association decided to let the past cases go by default. It was unanimously decided, however, that in the future any player who, after signing one contract, jumped to another club, shall be summarily expelled from the association.

In the matter of the signing of players, the association decided to take no cognizance of the one year option clause in the National League contracts. A player in the future will sign for one year only. If at the end of the season he desires to go from one club to another, or from one organization to another, he is perfectly at liberty to do so, as far as the players' association is concerned.

Some of the players claiming that the clubs were behind in paying their salaries, the association arranged for a secretary of the association to notify the president of the Eastern League that unless these salaries are paid within a reasonable time, the association will not be bound to take any further action and go with other clubs, either of the Eastern League or of other organizations.
