

IN SOMBER DRAPING

LIBERAL DISPLAY OF CREPE IN PARIS MARKS RECEIPT OF BAD NEWS

AMBASSADOR PORTER IS ILL

News of the Death of the President Has Not Been Communicated to Him as Yet

PARIS, Sept. 14.—The news of President McKinley's death became known here generally at about ten o'clock, and the central portion of the city immediately draped with crepe and draped flags.

The United States embassy and consulate, all the hotels, business houses and the establishments of many French firms on the Avenue d'Opera, the Rue de la Paix, the main boulevards and in the Champ Elysee quarter, displayed this mark of respect.

The United States embassy had not received official notification of the president's death when the Associated Press dispatch announcing it had arrived, and at half-past nine the news was communicated to the embassy.

Minister of Foreign Affairs Delcasse called at the embassy about ten o'clock, but could not be received. A messenger later later President Loubet drove up. The ambassador's private physician received him and explained that the news thus far had been kept from Ambassador Porter.

President Loubet sent the following dispatch to Mrs. McKinley: "I learn with deep pain that his excellency Mr. McKinley has succumbed to the deplorable attempt on his life."

The premier, Waldeck-Rousseau, called at the residence of the United States ambassador.

The registers opened at the United States embassy and at Ambassador Porter's residence were quickly filled with names of American residents and visitors.

The death of President McKinley, it is understood, will not interfere with the general programme of the czar's visit to France.

Another article in the Temps says: "What perspectives, what a touch of the magic wand, and what mingled, troubling sentiments must occupy his mind."

The anarchist Czolgosz flattered himself with a vain hope that he would be shot by a revolver shot he could root up on which Bryan wished to prevent humankind from being crucified.

The Journal des Debats says: "Never did the friendly expressions of the two sister republics appear more justified than at the present moment when there is only room for a sentiment of profound cordiality."

PORTER IS TOLD THE NEWS. The news of President McKinley's death was communicated to United States Ambassador Porter this afternoon.

The tricolor over the Elysee palace and other official edifices was flown at half-mast during the day.

The morning papers all publish articles expressing appreciation of the late President and of President Roosevelt.

The Gaulois says: "The death of President McKinley will have a greater reverberation throughout Europe than the disappearance of Garfield, Lincoln or Carnot."

La Follette's Speech Serious. MADISON, Wis., Sept. 14.—Gov. Robert M. La Follette, who has been confined to his bed for several days, is reported much worse tonight.

INTEREST IN BERLIN

EXTRA EDITIONS CONTAINING NEWS OF MCKINLEY'S DEATH FIND READY SALE

NEWS IN OFFICIAL CIRCLES

Received With Expressions of Regret and Sympathy for American in Her Bereavement

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—Newspaper extras containing the news of the death of President McKinley were eagerly purchased this morning by the people, who were much touched by the cable dispatches telling of the public eulogies and Mrs. McKinley from her husband's presence.

The correspondent of the Associated Press took the news to the United States ambassador, Mr. White, who was very much affected. Mr. White said:

Undoubtedly President McKinley will pass the service in the United States as one of the great presidents. None of his predecessors had shown so broad and thorough a knowledge of the main questions relating to our industry and commerce.

The foreign office was not informed of the death when the correspondent called there, but an official dispatch on the subject was received later.

Consul General Mason this afternoon received the following letter, representing the feeling in wide commercial and industrial circles of Berlin:

"In the name of the Berlin Merchants' and industrial association and the central committee of the commercial association and various other associations permit us to express the deepest sympathy at the death of the great American president."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

FLAGS AT HALF-MAST

CITY OF LONDON IN MOURNING FOR THE DEATH OF PRESIDENT MCKINLEY

CALLERS AT THE EMBASSY

In Constant Stream Testified to Ambassador Choate the Esteem in Which the President Was Held

LONDON, Sept. 14.—United States Ambassador Choate arrived at the embassy from Scotland at an early hour this morning. No official news of President McKinley's death had been received there prior to his arrival.

The first of these was Mr. Charles Spencer Francis, United States minister to Greece, who is now in London.

The citizens of London are profoundly moved and deeply affected by the sad intelligence of President McKinley's death.

From the towers of Westminster Abbey, from the gray buildings where the government of the empire is administered, from the mansion house and law courts, from churches, hotels and business and private houses in London, Union Jacks are floating at half-mast as a mark of sympathy for the murdered president.

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

received by the United States embassy increased as the day wore on. The British ambassador to the United States, Lord Pauncefote, personally expressed to Mr. Choate his deep sorrow.

The Earl of Aberdeen, in presenting medals to some of the Gordon Highlanders who were killed at the battle of the Marston today, said that their whole hearts and British give the Americans unstinted sympathy.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Most Rev. Frederick Temple, has sent the following dispatch to Mr. Choate:

"I assure you that your grace's promise that the prayers of the church will be offered for our afflicted people will excite the gratitude of our countrymen."

The Westminster Gazette today printed a rather striking article on the new president, concluding as follows:

"Taking him all in all, probably no man has succeeded so far in his career as President McKinley. He has been a man of great energy and ability, and his death is a great loss to the world."

Andrew Carnegie has sent the following dispatch to the Associated Press:

"President McKinley passes into his place in history as one of the greatest of our countrymen, and he stands forever with Lincoln and Garfield as the noblest of our presidents."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

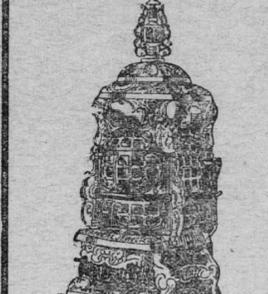

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

"The number of callers and telegrams received at the residence of the United States ambassador is increasing rapidly."

TRIBUTES

Are often made on articles that are undesirable. We sometimes make special prices on that kind of goods, but we always tell you what to expect.

But generally, and this week in particular, we quote only desirable things. Our prices are based on a much smaller margin of profit than other dealers, and are consequently lower than can be found in the West. We are satisfied to give time to pay for the goods.

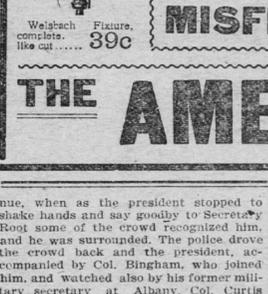

Regal Jewel Heaters. All the 1901 improvements, duplex grate—full sizes—full nickel—$28.50. One like cut—$1.00 down and $1.00 a week.

Child's Bamboo Rocker, like cut—$4.80. Floral Jardinier Stand, like cut—$3.90.

Washboard, No. 7, others would ask $2.50. Our price $1.40. Soap, Special Savon, per cake—5c.

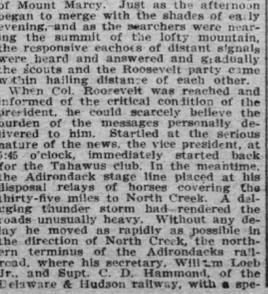

Mantel Folding Bed, gold oak finish, extra heavy, like cut—$9.75.

Family of President Roosevelt En Route for New York. SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 14.—President Roosevelt's family today had farewell to the city.

Ready to Do What He Can to Get the Son Whom He Desires to Talk. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Very soon, perhaps Monday, a supreme effort will be made to break through the shield of self-possession with which Assasin Czolgosz has protected himself from the day that he shot the president.

On His Way to Buffalo. BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—The Commercial court for trial, as capital offenses cannot be tried in the county court.

Father of Leon Czolgosz Ready to Start. BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—The Commercial court for trial, as capital offenses cannot be tried in the county court.

Advertisement for The American Housefurnishing Co. featuring various household items like jewel heaters, washboards, and furniture. Includes prices and contact information: 22-24 E. Seventh.

THE AMERICAN HOUSEFURNISHING CO. 22-24 E. Seventh.

TRIAL OF CZOLGOSZ. DISTRICT ATTORNEY PENNEY WILL LOSE NO TIME IN PROSECUTING THE ASSASSIN FOR MURDER FIRST DEGREE. The Prisoner Will Probably Be Arraigned Before the Supreme Court on Monday.

ON HIS WAY TO BUFFALO. BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—The Commercial court for trial, as capital offenses cannot be tried in the county court.

FATHER OF LEON CZOLGOSZ READY TO START. BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—The Commercial court for trial, as capital offenses cannot be tried in the county court.

WORK OF THE PHYSICIANS. BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—Besides the brief official report of the autopsy given out by the doctors, they will prepare extended reports, based on their notes for the medical journals.

FOR CHEATING BABIES. Little Daughter—Mamma, can folks be in prison for cheating a baby? Mamma—Why do you ask such a question? Little Daughter—I saw Mrs. Nextdoor filling her baby's bottle, an' she put some water in the milk.