

CITY NEWS.

The Presbyterian ministers will hold an adjourned meeting in Dr. Meldrum's study this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

A union meeting of the Bohemian societies was held yesterday afternoon at 283 Michigan avenue, at which resolutions were adopted on the death of President McKinley.

Ed Harris, a man about 45 years old, was arrested late yesterday afternoon by Sergeant Call on the charge of peevish larceny. The man is accused of having taken a cheap watch and was arrested near Seventh and Minnesota streets.

There will be a union memorial meeting of all the Episcopal churches of the city Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at Christ church. Rev. Dr. Wright will be the speaker of the evening and the church will be appropriately draped for the occasion.

A man giving the name of Fritz Wartz, was brought to the city hospital from Mendota yesterday morning. He is 45 years old and had his leg broken in a scuffle in front of a store at Mendota yesterday. The doctors at the hospital reported that the leg is fractured below the knee.

WILLIAM ODELL USES A KNIFE ON FRED GORDY IN A FIGHT.

WOUNDS ARE NOT SERIOUS. Claimed That Gordy Assaulted Odell and That the Weapon Was Used in Self-Defense.

As the result of a stabbing affray about 10 o'clock last night on the West side, William Odell, thirty-three years old, and Fred Gordy, twenty years of age, are at the Duces police station, the former charged with assault with a dangerous weapon upon Gordy and the latter charged with disorderly conduct. Gordy was stabbed three times in the breast, but his wounds are not of a serious nature.

According to the police, the alleged fight came off in front of Mr. Eckmund's residence, 106 Edward street, shortly after 10 o'clock. Odell claims that he and his wife had some trouble about three weeks ago, and that she has been staying at Eckmund's place since. Last night Odell went to one house to see his wife, and, according to him, he was standing outside talking to a friend when Gordy came up and struck him in the face. Gordy had five or six other men with him, and they all jumped on him to help. When the fight became too hot, Odell claims he used a knife in self-defense. He was taken to Dr. Roberts' office, at Robert and Isabel streets, and as soon as his wounds had been dressed, taken back to the Duces police station and tabbed at a disorderly.

Odell claims to live at 83 Edmund street and is a steamfitter by trade, while Gordy lives with his parents at 183 Concord street, and is twenty years old. Odell also claims that there were four women in the house besides Mrs. Eckmund at the time he tried to go in.

TO MEET IN ST. PAUL. TRANS-MISSISSIPPI COMMERCIAL CONGRESS COMES NEXT JUNE.

St. Paul will entertain the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress next June, when it meets in its twelfth annual convocation. The congress will take an important factor in the commercial interests of the country, and the convention will be a large amount of local preliminary work.

The Commercial club of this city has charged the secretary of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress, Fred A. Stone, of Chicago, with the duties of secretary of the congress to represent St. Paul.

Among the local men who are prominently connected with the congress are Chairman Schumann, of the committee on arrangements, has appointed Ald. Dobner and Knauft and Assemblyman Dix a committee on resolutions and they will report to the meeting to be held this morning at 11 o'clock.

YOUNGER IN HOSPITAL. JIM WILL UNDERGO AN OPERATION TO PREVENT PARALYSIS.

It was reported last night that James Younger, who was taken to the city hospital Saturday morning, was resting much easier and appeared to be considerably better. According to Dr. Angus Macdonald his condition is traceable to a slight paralysis in the right arm and leg. It is understood that an operation will have to be performed to prevent paralysis. It is known that Younger has lived most of his life with six bullets in his back.

He was painfully bruised near where one of these bullets is lodged, and the injury has assumed serious proportions and paralysis of the legs has manifested itself.

COMES TO MILL CITY. F. A. Carle, Formerly of St. Paul, Joins Tribune Staff.

F. A. Carle, who has been traveling in Europe during the last year, has become a resident of Minneapolis. He has associated himself with W. J. Murray, editor and publisher of the Tribune, in the capacity of a city editor, and in charge of the editorial page. He has filled the same position on the New York Evening Advertiser for about three years. Before that he was in charge of the city selling coal, and the Margaret street patrol was broken by the injured man to the city hospital.

FRACTURED HIS ARM. James Helme, of Mystic, Ohio, Sustains a Painful Accident.

James Helme, a mine owner from Mystic, Iowa, was taken to the city hospital yesterday afternoon with a fractured arm. Helme is in the city selling coal, and claims that he was walking across the street at Fourth and Wabasha about noon yesterday when in some way he fell and broke his left arm. Dr. Stevens reduced the fracture.

KICKED BY A HORSE. George McCaffrey's Leg Broken in a Stable Yesterday.

George McCaffrey, a driver in the employ of the Northwestern Shot and Lead company, is at the city hospital suffering from a broken leg, as the result of being kicked by a horse yesterday. He was kicked against a stall and his right leg was broken. The Margaret street patrol was broken by the injured man to the city hospital.

Time is Money. You save time and therefore money by using Twin City Telephones.

Our thoroughly modern equipment enables us to give more prompt and satisfactory service than the Twin City have heretofore enjoyed.

RATES: $2.50 Per Month for Residence. $4.00 Per Month for Office. Twin City Telephone Co. Phoenix Building.

DAY OF MOURNING

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES TO BE HELD IN ST. PAUL ON THURSDAY

CITY TO BE DRAPED IN BLACK

Feature Will Be a Procession in Which Military, Commercial and Secret Organizations Will Take Part.

Thursday, the day on which the remains of the late president are to be laid at rest, will be observed as a day of mourning in St. Paul, and already preparations are on foot to make the exercises as impressive and elaborate as the solemnity of the occasion demands. The details of the programme will be discussed at a meeting of the common council to be held this morning at which representatives of the various commercial organizations of the city will be present. Mayor-Smith has appointed Dr. Rudolph Schmitt and Capt. J. J. McLaughlin as the committee on arrangements, and these gentlemen said last night that it was certain that there would be exercises at the Auditorium in the afternoon and a procession through the principal streets. The business men were also to be asked to drape their places and to display flags at half-mast, or where this is not possible, to show flags draped in black.

The procession will in all probability be one of the largest and most impressive that the city has ever seen. The troops of the Fourth infantry at Fort Snelling will be asked to participate in the exercises and to march in the procession and Col. Quinton has accepted the invitation. All the companies of the national guard will also be seen in line, and a general invitation has been extended to all the commercial, social, secret and military organizations in the city. Owing to the large number of civic and fraternal societies, it has been deemed not to send them written invitations, but on receipt by the committee of a desire to be in the parade from heads of such organizations will be assigned by the chief marshal.

It is particularly desired by the committee that the display of drapings and flags be as large as possible. This will do most to impart to the exercises an appearance of solemnity and impressiveness and will be a fitting evidence of the grief inspired by the national calamity. Chairman Schmitt, of the committee on arrangements, has appointed Ald. Dobner and Knauft and Assemblyman Dix a committee on resolutions and they will report to the meeting to be held this morning at 11 o'clock.

TO MEET IN ST. PAUL. TRANS-MISSISSIPPI COMMERCIAL CONGRESS COMES NEXT JUNE.

St. Paul will entertain the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress next June, when it meets in its twelfth annual convocation. The congress will take an important factor in the commercial interests of the country, and the convention will be a large amount of local preliminary work.

The Commercial club of this city has charged the secretary of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress, Fred A. Stone, of Chicago, with the duties of secretary of the congress to represent St. Paul.

Among the local men who are prominently connected with the congress are Chairman Schumann, of the committee on arrangements, has appointed Ald. Dobner and Knauft and Assemblyman Dix a committee on resolutions and they will report to the meeting to be held this morning at 11 o'clock.

YOUNGER IN HOSPITAL. JIM WILL UNDERGO AN OPERATION TO PREVENT PARALYSIS.

It was reported last night that James Younger, who was taken to the city hospital Saturday morning, was resting much easier and appeared to be considerably better. According to Dr. Angus Macdonald his condition is traceable to a slight paralysis in the right arm and leg. It is understood that an operation will have to be performed to prevent paralysis. It is known that Younger has lived most of his life with six bullets in his back.

He was painfully bruised near where one of these bullets is lodged, and the injury has assumed serious proportions and paralysis of the legs has manifested itself.

COMES TO MILL CITY. F. A. Carle, Formerly of St. Paul, Joins Tribune Staff.

F. A. Carle, who has been traveling in Europe during the last year, has become a resident of Minneapolis. He has associated himself with W. J. Murray, editor and publisher of the Tribune, in the capacity of a city editor, and in charge of the editorial page. He has filled the same position on the New York Evening Advertiser for about three years. Before that he was in charge of the city selling coal, and the Margaret street patrol was broken by the injured man to the city hospital.

FRACTURED HIS ARM. James Helme, of Mystic, Ohio, Sustains a Painful Accident.

James Helme, a mine owner from Mystic, Iowa, was taken to the city hospital yesterday afternoon with a fractured arm. Helme is in the city selling coal, and claims that he was walking across the street at Fourth and Wabasha about noon yesterday when in some way he fell and broke his left arm. Dr. Stevens reduced the fracture.

KICKED BY A HORSE. George McCaffrey's Leg Broken in a Stable Yesterday.

George McCaffrey, a driver in the employ of the Northwestern Shot and Lead company, is at the city hospital suffering from a broken leg, as the result of being kicked by a horse yesterday. He was kicked against a stall and his right leg was broken. The Margaret street patrol was broken by the injured man to the city hospital.

FRACTURED HIS ARM. James Helme, of Mystic, Ohio, Sustains a Painful Accident.

James Helme, a mine owner from Mystic, Iowa, was taken to the city hospital yesterday afternoon with a fractured arm. Helme is in the city selling coal, and claims that he was walking across the street at Fourth and Wabasha about noon yesterday when in some way he fell and broke his left arm. Dr. Stevens reduced the fracture.

KICKED BY A HORSE. George McCaffrey's Leg Broken in a Stable Yesterday.

George McCaffrey, a driver in the employ of the Northwestern Shot and Lead company, is at the city hospital suffering from a broken leg, as the result of being kicked by a horse yesterday. He was kicked against a stall and his right leg was broken. The Margaret street patrol was broken by the injured man to the city hospital.

JUST TWENTY YEARS FROM CITY RULERS

HOW ST. PAUL RECEIVED INTELLIGENCE OF PRESIDENT GARFIELD'S ASSASSINATION

CITY PLUNGED IN GRIEF

All Public Buildings Were Elaborately Draped in Black and Bells Were Told for an Hour.

It was just twenty years ago that the newspapers of this city announced in headlines of solemn black the death of President Garfield. The news was published in the morning papers of Sept. 20, 1881.

A somber appearance was presented by the papers that fateful morning. The new ideas in journalism had not taken hold of the press at this early time, and the headlines were not as dramatic as "The Lamb which is in the midst of the throne."

Rev. John Sinclair, of the First Presbyterian church, took the text for his morning discourse, Rev. 19: "The Lamb which is in the midst of the throne."

In almost all the Protestant churches in St. Paul strong were preached bearing on the death of the president. Special emphasis was laid on his character as a man, apart from his eminence as a statesman and politician.

Rev. John Sinclair, of the First Presbyterian church, took the text for his morning discourse, Rev. 19: "The Lamb which is in the midst of the throne."

Men are mourning today the death of the president in his official capacity, for he was a man of the highest executive position to guide the nation at a time when dark clouds were gathering over the land, when wars and rumors of wars were heard, and when the cry for bread was arising from millions of homes such as never before.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

He is highly significant of Christ that he is described as "The Lamb of the slain of the living." Speak of the lamb as the symbol of peace and endurance, but not of rule, yet when we look into the heart of the figure we see that there could not be a more fitting symbol of truth than that. No man has ever lived who was so successful as he was in the lamb, that is, the sufferer, the victim of the sacrifice. It is in the character of the lamb that the greatest is now in the midst of the throne and is enthroned in the heart of the world.

ELOQUENT TRIBUTES PAID TO MEMORY OF THE DEAD PRESIDENT

His Character as a Man

Late Executive's Sterling Christian Character Won for Him the Esteem of the Whole World.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

At the Central Presbyterian church Rev. A. B. Meldrum devoted his evening discourse to the subject of the national calamity. After briefly referring to the rapid advancement of the shooting of President McKinley, he paid a high tribute to the character of the deceased executive.

WHIPPLE'S DYING

THE BISHOP WAS SINKING RAPIDLY AT AN EARLY HOUR THIS MORNING

DEATH A QUESTION OF HOURS

His Physician, Dr. A. J. Stone, Says a Change for the Worse Set in Yesterday Afternoon.

Word was received from Fairbault at 2:15 this morning that the condition of Bishop Whipple was hopeless, and that he would probably not live more than a few hours. Dr. A. J. Stone, who spent yesterday at the bedside, said that between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the condition of the bishop suddenly changed for the worse and that the action of his heart began to get appreciably weaker.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

He continued to sink during the evening, and at 2 o'clock this morning hope was entertained for a rally.

Well Dressed Men. Fall Suits and Overcoats to Order, $30 and upward. SCHUSLER, Merchant Tailor, 357 ROBERT STREET.

Best Line to St. Louis. The finest train in the world leaves St. Paul daily at 8:05 P. M. for St. Louis. Ticket Offices—400 ROBERT ST. (Hotel Ryan), ST. PAUL. 414 NICOLLET AVE., MINNEAPOLIS.

HASTY FRUIT NAMES NOW. BREAD AND BUTTER STATE PRODUCE. FINE APPLES AT BUFFALO. Historic Fort Snelling to be Reproduced in this Variety of Fruits for Pan-American Visitors.

AROUND THE HOTELS. At the Windsor; N. D. March, Litchfield; V. St. Clair, Winona; S. W. Hayden and wife, Great Falls; W. J. Munro, Morris; W. L. Howland, Kan.; J. C. McGreevy, Eveleville; A. W. Butler, Duluth; W. J. M. Thompson, West Superior; W. E. Wesser, Duluth; J. E. Bishop, Oskosh; A. W. Cordello and wife, Duluth.

OUR LAST CANNIBAL TRIBE. It may not be generally known that cannibalism was once prevalent over large areas of the American continent. Such was the case, for example, in the very word of Carib, or Cariba, the proper name for the Carib Indians, the dreaded scourge of the Antilles three centuries ago, among whom the Spaniards, on first landing, found a human cannibalism, and with good reason. One of these was the Atakapa, from whom the Louisiana Indians have inherited the name "man-eaters." Another was the Karankawa tribe, on Matagorda bay, with the Karankawas, the name of the expedition witnessed many a barbarous feast. In 1599 the priest of the old San Antonio mission, Fr. Alonso de Salazar, for the use of their Indian converts, among the questions to be asked in confession the first one was, "Have you eaten human flesh?"

OCEAN LINERS. Antwerp—Arrived: Southwork, New York via Southampton. Queenstown—Arrived: Etruria, from Liverpool via Southampton. New York—Arrived: Zealand, Antwerp. Philadelphia—Arrived: Carthagen, Glasgow and Liverpool via St. John's, P. and Halifax, N. S.; Walsland, Liverpool and Queenstown. Potsdam, Rotterdam and Boulogne; La Bretagne, Havre; Haverford, Southampton.

Worcestershire Sauce. The Original Worcestershire Sauce. Beware of Imitations. Butlers, Chefs and Cooks pronounce it the best Sauce; piquant and appetizing, it enriches all dishes.