

SONS OF YALE GATHER

Celebration of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of Its Founding Begins at New Haven.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 20.—Yale university began today the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the founding of Yale college.

The services were performed in accord with the devout and reverent traditions of Yale college.

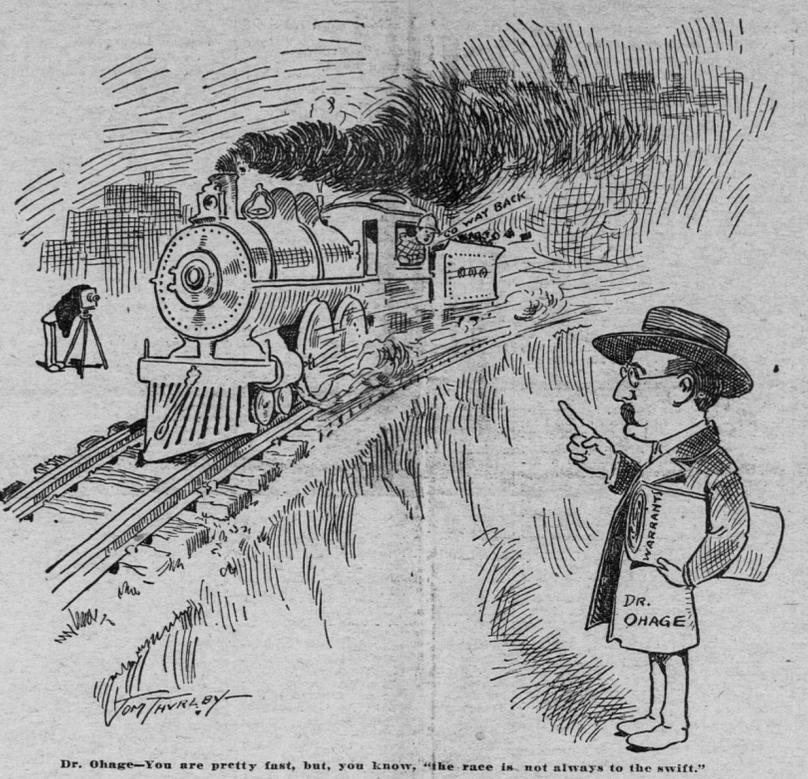

Within Battle chapel, where the bi-centennial was inaugurated, the services were participated in by an assemblage as imposing as the exercises were simple.

On the program sat President Arthur Twining Dodge. At his right was Rev. Joseph A. Bell, D. D., of Hartford.

Other special services. Meanwhile special bi-centennial services were held in other churches of the city.

"Scholarships and the Study of God" was the subject of Dr. Anderson's sermon in the United church.

Dr. Anderson made an earnest plea for the study of theology, not alone in the Divinity school and pulpits, but in the thinking of the people.

Dr. Ohage—You are pretty fast, but, you know, "the race is not always to the swift."

NEEDS OF THE NAVY

ADmiral Bowles, of Bureau of Construction and Repair, makes suggestions.

PRESENT SYSTEM IS FAULTY

Dry Docks at Havana and Manila Urgently Recommended—Number of Naval Contractors Should be Increased.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The annual report of Admiral Bowles, chief of the bureau of construction and repair, calls attention to the slow progress in construction of ships now building for the navy.

Admiral Bowles strongly recommends that the floating dock at Manila, recently purchased from the Spanish government, be sent to the site of the new station at Olongapo, Philippine islands.

Admiral Bowles earnestly recommends an increase in the number of naval contractors, which is now limited by law to forty.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Col. Charles James, a prominent figure in Washington and a man of varied attainments, died at his residence here today, aged eighty-four years.

REFUGES IN DEATH

TRAGIC END TO LIASON OF A PROMINENT CHICAGO DENTIST

THE WOMAN FOUND DEAD

Dr. Orville Burnette and Mrs. Charlotte Nichol Resolve to Die Together After Living Dual Lives.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—While grieving over the dual life she was leading with Dr. Orville Burnette, a prominent Chicago dentist, Mrs. Charlotte Nichol, wife of W. L. Nichol Jr., the commercial agent of the Nashville, Chattanooga & Louisville railroad, committed suicide today.

The two were found in their rooms, both stretched across the bed, the woman dead, and Burnette with his neck pierced with a hat pin, a bottle of morphine clutched in his hand.

"To whom it may concern: I did it because I loved him better than anything on earth, and he loved me, and we could not be separated. Good-by, Charlotte."

RESOLVED TO DIE. "She again asked me to die with her and I consented. Then she swallowed nearly all the contents of the bottle and handed it to me, I drank what she left, but believing that I had not taken enough to prove fatal, I tried to end by life by sucking the hat pin into my neck."

NOT KNOWN IN NASHVILLE. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 20.—Nothing is known here of Dr. Burnette, connected with the suicide of Mrs. W. L. Nichol Jr. at Chicago.

INSURGENTS ARE ACTIVE

Another Slaughter of American Troops Only Averted by Vigilance of Their Commanders.

Natives Do Not Attempt to Conceal Their Delight at News of American Disasters.

MANILA, Oct. 20.—Owing to the vigilance of Lieut. Thomas M. Baines Jr., of the Ninth United States infantry, another slaughter of American troops by insurgents has been avoided.

Other attempts have been discovered, but fortunately frustrated at Pambujan and other points in Samar.

Reinforcements are being rushed to Samar. Three hundred and thirty marines, under Lieut. Col. Manoll C. Goodrich, have gone there on board the United States cruiser New York, and two battalions of the Twelfth infantry will start immediately for the same destination.

United States officers from Manila, who have recently arrived in Manila, and they say that the news of American disasters spread like wildfire among the natives, who scarcely attempted to conceal their delight. The Manila constabulary discovered a large quantity of steel wagon springs, which were being shipped to various districts.

Since this document was executed several of Lacuna's officers and men have been tried, condemned and sentenced to death for killing American prisoners.

REMAINS OF DAVIS GO TO WASHINGTON

Oakland cemetery was robbed of one of its treasures yesterday.

No longer can St. Paul point out to the inquiring tourist and say there lies a man we loved, a man the world would love.

The body, encased in its original black casket, with an outer covering of plain pine, was quietly placed aboard a baggage car attached to the Burlington limited at 8:05 o'clock.

Mrs. Davis kept her plans well to herself, and not even the most intimate friends of the family were aware of her mission.

NEW ELECTRIC LINE LAST DAY IN CANADA. REPORTED MINNESOTA CITY IS TO BE CONNECTED WITH THE TWINS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—It was learned today that the survey recently made for a railroad line between Minneapolis, City, Minn., and St. Paul and Minneapolis, which has caused much speculation in Great Western circles in the Northwest, is not in the interest of either the Chicago and Great Western or the Chicago & North Western, as has been generally believed.
