

FUGITIVE CAPTURE

TWO FUGITIVE CONVICTS CAPTURED BY A SHERIFF AND HIS DEPUTY. FINALLY MAKE THEIR ESCAPE. Walked Through Girdon of Police, Holding Their Prisoners in Front of Them for Shields. POSSES NOW IN PURSUIT.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 10.—Sheriff Cook of this county, and Deputy Sheriff Williams were captured by two escaped convicts from the Fort Leavenworth military prison this afternoon at Pauline, five miles south of Topeka, and held prisoners in the farm house of a man named Wooster for several hours.

At 12:30 this afternoon some farmer boys near Pauline learned that the convicts were in the neighborhood. Hastily forming a posse, armed with target rifles, pistols and clubs, they set out to capture the convicts.

One of the convicts told Sheriff Cook that he would be killed if he made the slightest move looking toward their capture. In the meantime the police officers on the outside had surrounded the building, but were afraid to make a move for fear that Cook and Williams would suffer.

Make Their Escape. Mrs. Wooster had fainted during the excitement. She finally revived, and at 7 o'clock the convicts placed the women and Sheriff Cook in front of them as shields and made for the door. Then, after exacting a promise from the sheriff that he would not permit any of the officers outside to fire on them, they started for the open.

After covering a considerable distance down the track the convicts suddenly disappeared through a hedge fence, binding the officers a mocking farewell. One of the police sergeants later said he could have easily touched the leading convict with his hand as he passed. The convicts had secured a good start before the officers had recovered from their surprise.

DELAWARE BOSS IS TURNED DOWN

HARD BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT. THE DEMS. ARE OVER-PLEASED. Congressman Grosvenor's Interview Likely to Result in a Democratic Lower House Next Year. GENERAL WASHINGTON NEWS. GLOBE WASHINGTON BUREAU, Post Building, Room 45. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—What President McKinley dared not do up to the day of his death, President Roosevelt has done. He has taken the bill by the horns in Delaware and started to work out the famous Addicks and an Addicks faction row. Addicks is a rich gas magnate who has an ambition to come to the United States senate. Failing in the effort to secure the votes of the Delaware legislature he has acted the dog in the manger and prevented any other Republican from being elected.

DEMOCRATS ARE PLEASED

Democratic leaders hear with delight the predictions of Representative Charles S. Grosvenor and others that this congress will not revise the tariff or ratify the reciprocity treaties. Fervently do they pray that this prediction may come true. They sniff an issue. It is about the first issue that has been presented since the McKinley bill. If congress does not do something along this line they intend to appeal to the people next summer to entrust the task to them. They hope to repeat what they did before the McKinley bill. The most astute Democratic leaders think they see a strong set of sentiment in the middle West favorable to the McKinley bill. The prospect of taking the duties from articles manufactured by the great trusts which no longer need fostering. This and the establishment of better relations with the European world are the two main points in McKinley's Buffalo speech, they think would appeal to voters of both parties in that part of the country where the political battles have to be fought. They intend to keep the matter before the public. They intend to allude frequently to the McKinley recommendations. They intend to harp on the power of the trusts, which have been able to make the party men forget the dying message of the martyred president. Then when congress fails to act, they believe they will have an issue which will send some Democratic to the senate.

GROSVENOR'S CON TALK

"Foxy Grandpa" Grosvenor, eminent congressman from Ohio—is making the most of the "off year" election results. Having enlisted on the side of the New England Tariff league to fight any tariff revision, he is now, before the McKinley bill is passed, declaring loudly that the strong showing made by the Republicans is an unmistakable indication of public sentiment on these questions. It is doubtful if any voter in a hundred thought of tariff or reciprocity when he entered the booth Tuesday, but Grosvenor now says that the whole campaign in Ohio, Iowa, Nebraska and New York was made on this issue, and that the people have shown that they would sooner amend the Ten Commandments than the tariff on steel trust products. GORMAN WILL BE SENATOR

As a result of the returns in Maryland, Arthur B. Gorman will probably be sent back to the United States senate. However, Gorman has not crossed all his bridges yet. There are some Democrats in the Maryland legislature who are not favorable to Gorman, though they claim to be willing to vote for some other Democrat. So there is likelihood that Gorman will be senator.
