IOWANS THREATEN TO MAKE TROUBLE FOR MINNESOTA FOOTBALLISTS

GOPHERS TO BE DISCIPLINED

Claimed That Conference Will Re-prove Minnesota for Playing Doble-Rogers Also to be Knocked Out.

Special to The Globe.

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 20.—These are troublous times for the University of Minnesota. The entire football team could be raked with a fine tooth comb to find a football coach who would be willing to be in Coach Williams' position under any circumstances. For a great many things are about to happen. They center around the playing of Quarter-back Doble in the Wisconsin-Minnesota game against the team without the consent of the University of Wisconsin. Minnesota has the benefit of the example of the University of Iowa in not playing Williams, though he was protested for five minutes before the game. In the face of this example, Minnesota played her protested player. The action subjects Minnesota to the action of the conference which meets in Chicago after the Thanksgiving day games. The conference will at least censure the University of Minnesota, and lucky will Minnesota be if she is able to make her peace as easily as did Prof. Stagg, of Chicago last year for playing Atwood against Iowa's protest. Minnesota's case is aggravated, and in the opinion of some it will be more difficult for Minnesota to obtain any more big games on her schedule because of her action in playing Doble. This is the most usual method for the members of the conference to indicate their opinions toward a recalcitrant member.

Should Minnesota be able to make her peace with the conference, it will probably only be a matter of time before the pleasure of drawing up in binding language the opinion of the conference on one or two points which should govern amateur athletics in the West. One is the protest should not be made five minutes before the game and the other is that players on professional teams like the Carlisle Indian team be not allowed in games played under the conference rules.

Minnesota's act in protesting Williams at the last moment was particularly felt by the Iowa authorities to be an unjust blow, but Iowa is not the only one who goes to the conference meeting with clean hands. Said an Iowa man today, "and she will say that Doble matter and a few other things. This is the right of an amateur member to bring in a long howl and I guess she will come pretty near doing it." The constant protesting of the best men of both the Wisconsin and Minnesota teams raised a storm of protest that will inevitably bear its fruit in the conference meeting.

Redmond, the Indian classmate of Rogers, whose name was called by the Iowa men at the conference meeting, will hardly play football there next year and bets are freely offered at Iowa that Rogers will play his last game for Minnesota at Champaign, Thanksgiving day.

PREPARING FOR GOPHERS.

Hollister's Men Try Out Against Minnesota Play.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The Northwestern university football team was out for practice yesterday on Sheppard field for the first time since the Beloit game. It lined up against the scrubs. Dr. Hollister gave his men what he called a puzzle practice. He had drilled the scrubs in the Minnesota style of playing for a short time before the varsity came out on the field. Then he turned the scrubs over to Glass and Smith, former members of the team, who saw the Minnesota and Wisconsin game last Saturday.

They drilled the men in the Minnesota plays for some time. Then the scrubs lined up against the varsity. The varsity were expected to lose the play and stop the gains.

The varsity undertook a big job and the scrubs, while they were not completely large gains and completely opened the varsity in the background on offensive playing.

This is the last time that this mode of procedure will be undertaken. All the plays of the Minnesota eleven will be given the varsity team and it will practice stopping them.

During the practice Peckham, who played right end in the Illinois game, was knocked unconscious by a blow on the head. He was revived and was able to take his place in the scrubs team against G. O. Dietz was the only man of the varsity eleven who was not out for practice.

Dr. Hollister gave no indication of what he was intending to do with offense, but used the entire afternoon on defense. Viewing the work of the scrubs yesterday, it is certain that the coach will have to make an entirely new defense to meet the playing of Minnesota.

The scrubs take holes in the center of the line. And if they being very light, were able to do it it is thought probable that Dr. Hollister will devote most of the week to building up a formidable defense.

Several times the coach yelled to his men to hurry and repeatedly he urged them to get in the scrubs without delay. The scrubs were much quicker than the varsity and took advantage of their speed yesterday.

STAGG'S BEAUTIFUL FAITH.

Nothing Seems to Dearth Hopes of Chicago Coach.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Out at the University of Chicago on Marshall field there is but one topic of conversation. This discussion is in regard to the annual contest with Wisconsin, which takes place this year on the day when turkeys are plucked. It is the wisdom that Dr. Stagg, of Chicago last year for playing Atwood against Iowa's protest. Minnesota's case is aggravated, and in the opinion of some it will be more difficult for Minnesota to obtain any more big games on her schedule because of her action in playing Doble. This is the most usual method for the members of the conference to indicate their opinions toward a recalcitrant member.

HOPE FOR WADDELL.

Derby Winner May Recover From Injuries.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—There still remains a great chance for Robert Waddell, winner of the American Derby, to recover from the injury to his shoulder received in his last race at the Lakeside track. The gelding is improving daily and it is only a question of time when the game little thoroughbred will be out of reach of all danger.

PENNSYLVANIA SUFFERS CRUSHING DEFEAT ON WEST POINT GRIDIRON

FINAL SCORE WAS 24 TO 0

Quakers Played With Determination, but the Soldier Lads Simply Walked Through Them.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The University of Pennsylvania football team was defeated by West Point Military academy today and incidentally suffered one of the worst defeats in her football history. The score, 24 to 0, shows how West Point outplayed the Pennsylvanians. The visitors put up a stiff game, however, and were beaten simply because West Point played a superior article of football.

After Pennsylvania kicked off, the ball was in West Point's possession on her own thirty-yard line. Bunker, Graves and Casad, with excellent teamwork, carried the ball to Pennsylvania's 15-yard line, where Pennsylvania was given the ball for off-side play. Pennsylvania, however, was forced to punt. West Point by center rushes and a pretty hurdle by Bunker, carried the ball to Pennsylvania's 10-yard line, where Casad kicked a goal. Score, West point 6, Pennsylvania 0.

After the next kick-off Pennsylvania secured the ball and by a series of plays and reverses forced West Point back for thirty yards, but West Point was given the ball for off side play and again worked it down the field and pushed Bunker back to a touch-down. Daily kicked goal, making the score: West Point 12, Pennsylvania 0.

It is not because he is particularly angry with the American league that he has left it, but he says that he just wants to go back, that's all. Garvin said, in speaking about his desire to join the National league that it is a matter of time before he will find with the new organization, he did not like the idea of being transferred to St. Louis, where most of the Milwaukee players will be located.

Garvin has never felt exactly right about the way he used the National league in jumping the American organization. He was traded to New York by President Hart, of the local club, together with Strang and Gansel, and in return the Orphan management secured Capt. Jack Doyle. Garvin was sent to New York, but instead he went to Milwaukee, and played through the season with the team.

HART WANTS SWORMSTEDT.

Chicago Man Would Put Scores Up Against the Big Nines.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 20.—President Hart and Manager Seles, of the Chicago National League baseball club, are after Pitcher Swormstedt, of the Cincinnati team, with sassa and guns, but they have not landed him yet. President Hart has been in communication with the tall twirler for a long time, and each letter is more to the point than the preceding one. Manager Seles has also written many letters to the tall young man, but he has not signed yet.

Swormstedt's release has not been secured from Minneapolis, and Mr. Hart is sure to make a great deal, those named by Swormstedt were finally accepted by Hart, and a contract calling for $2,400 was sent to the pitcher to sign. There was a promise with the contract that just as soon as Swormstedt's release was secured from Minneapolis $200 more would be paid.

TOO GREEN TO DEFEAT

GOPHER TEAM DETERMINED TO WIN FROM NORTH-WESTERN

OFF FOR CHICAGO TONIGHT

Old Spirit Returns and Rooters Are Still Enthusiastic—Hard Thanksgiving Game at Champaign.

Tonight the Minnesota football team will leave over the Great Western for Chicago, where on Marshall field they will meet Hollister's purple pigskin outfit. Saturday afternoon and at an attempt to redeem the sad defeat of last week at Madison. Contrary to general opinion, the team is not all split up as a result of that defeat, neither are the rooters disheartened. After recovering from one first week, an unexpected blow the rooters got together with the old indomitable spirit, roused by the irresistible appeal of Prof. Jones, who never quits, and the players threw themselves into the practice with new determination, and there is confidence on the part of the enthusiasts that Northwestern will be up against a different proposition than Phil King's aggregation encountered last Saturday.

All rumors to the effect that the team was all broken up because of its recent defeat would make a sorry show against Northwestern and Illinois are ridiculous. The team has shown up strong in practice and played with all the old-time spirit. The boys feel that a decisive defeat of Northwestern will partially wipe out the stigma of the Wisconsin defeat.

The talk as to radical changes in the line-up is also without foundation. There is no truth in the reports that particular players have been especially blamed for the Wisconsin fiasco. It would be laid off. It is possible that Aune may be played at tackle in Schach's place. There is a general feeling that Aune's right place is at tackle. Doble may not be Chicago's answer to the team going to the death of a brother. There is, however, absolutely no truth in the rumor that Williams intends to keep Doble out of the game. There has been some talk of playing Doble at end in Aune's place. Doble himself prefers to play end, and that seems to be the proper place for him. It would allow him to get up the field on a kick, which he cannot do at present, under Williams' instructions. Doble is a very fast player and would have better opportunity for his speed if used at end.

The story from Iowa City to the effect that the conference of the Big Nine will reprimand Minnesota for not barring Doble at the request of Wisconsin and give the Minnesota management a cold deal contains little truth. Prof. Jones has been very thorough in his investigations and is sure of his ground. No man in the West has stood more consistently for pure athletics than Prof. Jones and Dr. Williams is not the man to countenance anything that savors of unsportsmanlike methods. The Iowa story bears evidence of being inspired by a selfish spirit of revenge for a fancied grievance against Minnesota for the disbarment of Williams.

Southwestern will continue to play in Mueller's old place for the rest of the season. His splendid showing at Madison was commented on by all the Chicago players, and there seems to be no doubt that he is the best fitted man on the squad to fill Mueller's place.

While Northwestern hardly hopes to win on Saturday Hollister is working hard to get his men in shape to put up a fierce fight against the Gophers, and the game is sure to be a hot one. The Illinois duplicate whist series. Summary: North and South—

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Dr. Restrepo, head of the Colombian Junta in this city, gave out a statement in which he says that the Colombian army, with 100 men and six field pieces, started to attack our forces at Chorrera, fifteen miles from Panama. We have 3,000 men there, and according to numbers we might be expected to defeat Gen. Alban. Yet he is confident he can route us. His confidence is based on the belief that our force under Gen. Benjamín Herrera, with Gen. Lago in immediate command, is poorly armed and equipped. Therein lies the trap. We have 3,000 stands of arms, which have been sent from New York and are ready in three months. We have artillery also. Gen. Alban will find that he has made the mistake of trusting to his own strength for that is what we have tried for months to tempt him into doing. The quick attack of the government of Panama and the rest of the isthmus will be in our hands."

COLON IS TAKEN.

Continued From First Page. Doubtless would be disastrous, for the insurgents then would have, temporarily at least, undisputed sway over the entire isthmus. Mr. Herran naturally was considerably concerned at the news, especially because of the close proximity of Panama, the leading city on the isthmus and second only in importance to Bogota.

Gen. Fatio, of the Attacking Force, Is Killed at the Start. COLON, Colombia, Nov. 20.—On receipt of the news that Gen. Alban, the military commander of the Isthmus, had started to attack the Liberals at Chorrera, near Panama, the government troops under Gen. Fatio, to attack Colon. This force embarked on board a train bound from Panama to Colon yesterday evening at Las Cascadas station, previously cutting off telegraphic communication across the isthmus. On arriving at the outskirts of Colon, where the government usually maintained a small guard, the train was met by a force of 100 men, which was in the initial skirmish, which began soon afterwards, Fatio was killed.

The command of the Liberals then devolved on Col. Frederico Barrera, and he immediately began at Colon, arriving there a few minutes after the start, thus surprising the whole town. The government troops at Colon were outnumbered by the Liberals.

Immediately began at Colon, arriving there a few minutes after the start, thus surprising the whole town. The government troops at Colon were outnumbered by the Liberals. The district representative of the department of the Cauca, who was wounded. Fighting subsequently occurred at the town hall, which was also taken by the Liberals. Among the prisoners captured by the Liberals were the prefect, guardia and the comandante of police, Senor Paredes, the mayor, managed to reach the gunboat Gen. Pinzon, which sailed last night for a destination unknown, probably Carthagena. The whole affair was over in less than three hours.

Communication with Panama was restored today. This revealed that no fighting had occurred, that everything was quiet and the city was in the hands of the government. News of the capture of Colon reached Panama when communication was restored this morning, and was a great surprise to the inhabitants of that city.

The issue now depends upon the result of the fight which is now doubtless occurring at Chorrera, news of which is anxiously awaited here. The Liberals are busy raising reinforcements locally. They are reported
