FIGHT IN THE FIFTH

STRENUOUS EFFORTS BEING MADE TO SHELVES CONGRESSMAN LOREN FLETCHER

THREE OTHER CANDIDATES

Doctor Ames, James A. Peterson and State Senator, Wilson Are Doing the "Barkis" Act in Vigorous Manner.

Congressman Loren Fletcher is beginning to realize that ten years in congress is about all the people of Hennepin county will stand from him.

The congressman is fighting for his political life, and although he has not taken his seat as a member of the Fifty-seventh congress he has begun a campaign for re-election.

Never before has "Uncle" Loren had such a hard row to hoe. He knows it as well as anybody, and the way he is hustling around demonstrates better than words that he is up against it.

Since congressmen are nominated at the primary elections it is a more difficult matter for the congressman and his friends, Postmaster Loveloy, to control things as they did in the old days when a little influence in the right place was all that was necessary to prevent fusion between the Democrats and Populists.

Four persons are worrying the congressman from the Fifth Minnesota district. They are Mayor Ames, who sometimes says he wants to go to congress, and who also remarks he expects to be elected mayor; James A. Peterson, Frank M. Nye and State Senator George P. Wilson.

Ames is out to make trouble for the congressman, and he is doing it in many ways. He is making it a matter of time while the congressman is entertaining members of the Commercial club and friendly newspaper men with stories of how much better the postoffice building looks after it is supplied with a portion of a quarter of a million dollars for the addition of two more stories. This addition, of course, is contingent upon the congressman's remaining in the office.

Ames is also making it a matter of time while the congressman is entertaining members of the Commercial club and friendly newspaper men with stories of how much better the postoffice building looks after it is supplied with a portion of a quarter of a million dollars for the addition of two more stories.

Sweden is tending backwards politically. No attempt is ever made to mix up in the affairs of other countries, and Sweden is not likely to take part in the European congress.

"Inwardly, Sweden is recognized as a democracy. It is ruled by a king, but in many respects the president of the United States has greater power than our king."

SCHOOLS ARE CROWDED.

Over One Thousand Pupils Are Now in Annexes.

The Board of Education is having great difficulty in finding places for all the school children who present themselves at the schools. The regular buildings cannot accommodate all the children, and the excess are housed in the annexes. The board thinks it is a more expensive system than providing a more school accommodation.

At the Bremer school 200 pupils are in annexes; at the Hawthorne, 150; at the Whitcomb, 100; at the Polk, 50; at the Longfellow, 150; at the Bryant, 100; at the Adams, 50, and at the Monroe, 100. Most of the pupils are located in the annexes.

In addition to this there are fully as many children who must be content with but half a day of schooling each day. The board expects the attendance will be greatly increased at the end of this semester, in the latter part of January, and is in a quandary as to what to do with the boys and girls.

ONE THING AT A TIME.

Ald. Lane Thinks the Water Supply Should Be Looked After First.

Ald. Lane is not in favor of submitting to a vote of the people Ald. Leigh's proposition for a bond issue of $200,000 to enable the city to install an electric lighting plant. His objection is not based upon any objection to the principle of municipal ownership of public service plants, but upon other grounds, which he outlined to The Globe reporter yesterday.

"The situation is just this," said Ald. Lane. "This city has more immediate needs than will necessitate a bond issue for the purpose of installing a water supply system that will insure a pure water supply."

HIS MIND UNBALANCED.

Mail Collector Imagined People Motioned Him Away From the Boxes.

Robert Coleman, colored, who has been collecting mail for Uncle Sam for a number of years, has been suspended. He is thought to have become insane. Coleman has been collecting mail in the downtown district, and for some time the collection boxes have been showing signs of being tampered with. Coleman said "that there were people at the boxes who motioned him away."

THINK IT IS STABLE.

Police Think Chicago Force Has Made Important Capture.

In the capture of James Wilson at Chicago on a charge of forgery, the Minneapolis police are satisfied that none other than Louis W. Stahlein, the alleged forger who made the sensational escape from the Hennepin county jail a year ago, has been captured. Stahlein was indicted for forgery on several counts, and was being held at the county jail when he made his escape.

WILL FILL HIS OLD PULPIT.

Rev. M. Falk Gjersten will again appear in the pulpit of the Norwegian Lutheran Trinity church. At a meeting of the committee of deacons the former pastor was selected to conduct the services at Trinity church Sunday.

THE SELECTION IS NOT A PERMANENT ONE, and the deacons are continuing their search for a permanent pastor. The People's society of the church is said to have signed a statement endorsing Rev. Gustave Ottelid for the pastorate.

ARSON CASE CONTINUED.

Aaron and Sarah Naimon were arraigned before Judge Elliott yesterday upon an indictment found by the grand jury charging them with having set fire to the building of Timothy Ryan, at 612 Monroe street northeast. Both entered pleas of not guilty, and the trial was fixed at 9:00 a. m. The case was continued till the January, 1902, term. Satisfactory bail was given and the prisoners were released.

GUILTY OF ASSAULT.

Samuel Hagan was convicted of assault in the second degree yesterday. He is the man who shot and wounded Peter Kolkic in a saloon row last September. The jury found Hagan guilty of the assault on Peter Kolkic. Kolkic claimed he was an anarchist, this enraged Hagan that he attempted to kill him.

By getting after the employers and making it impossible for them to transact business on Sunday, the clerks will not be called upon to work.

Is Manhood Ever Lost

No, Emphatically, No! From the Living Spark a Glowing Fire May Be Rekindled.

NEED CREO WANT CREO

Because the fire of youth is slowly dying out, your manhood gradually slipping away—not what you used to be—want to enjoy life again.

Because it strengthens, invigorates, revitalizes and rejuvenates the reproductive organs, imparts the vitality and vigor of manhood that you should possess.

DR. ALFRED L. COLE.

Weak Men. VARICOCELE. BLOOD POISON.

Who are not sick but who have pains in the back; headache; dizzy spells; specks before the eyes; nervous, bad dreams; with unnatural losses; sapping the vitality, undermining the constitution and slowly wrecking the general health, resulting in early decay, insanity or death, are quickly cured by Dr. Cole's Creo.

The situation is just this," said Dr. Cole. "This city has more immediate needs than will necessitate a bond issue for the purpose of installing a water supply system that will insure a pure water supply."
