

THE FAMOUS SONG FROM "THE BURGOMASTER," NOW AT THE METROPOLITAN.

By Courtesy and Kind Permission of Mr. Gustave Luders.

Public performance prohibited without permission

The Tale Of The Kangaroo.

Words by FRANK PILLEY. Music by GUSTAV LUDERS.

Allegretto. In a grove far away in Australia - a Dwell! But one night, and to say, As he sang that day, He was locked up the maid, for they felt quite a - fraid She'd - hope and would soon be a night as the light of the moon-beams bright Steals in through the grate -

But she danced on her tail in that home-made jail when she heard the door, How it lights up the gloom of his four-wheeled tomb When he heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a

heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a

Copyright 1901 by W. WITMARK & SONS. International Copyright Secured.

folks said: "No, we have formed other plans for you! - Then they hope-less way through the bars of a cir-cus pen. But at locked up the maid, for they felt quite a - fraid She'd - hope and would soon be a night as the light of the moon-beams bright Steals in through the grate -

But she danced on her tail in that home-made jail when she heard the door, How it lights up the gloom of his four-wheeled tomb When he

heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a

heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a

heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a

heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a

heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a

heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a

heard these words on the side. "Oh, how I wish I could see you, my dear little kangaroo. And she soon found a beau, but he heard by a side show man. Now he mourns all day in a moon-beam light and air - y. Oh, moon-beam soft and big, pray be a good kind fair - y, for I've work to-night for you.

CHORUS.

Moderato.

out my dia - tant sweet-heart. Oh, swift as Cu - pids dove, Give her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

her my heart's true mes - sage. "You're the only one I love!" Oh, love

SET FIRE TO A WOMAN

CHICAGO FIEND ARRESTED FOR A DEVILISH CRIME

Took a Globe From a Lamp and Attempted to Burn a Girl's Face - Victim Died After Agony Suffering.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Annie von Broth, of 24 South Sangamon street, died at the county hospital from burns said to have been inflicted by Andrew Boland, who lived in the same house with her.

According to the anti-crime statement made to the police by Miss von Broth, the couple had been quarreling. She declared Boland became so angry that he removed the globe and the chimney from a lamp and then attempted to burn her face with the flame. She cried out for help and struggled to save herself. Her dress caught fire and in an instant she was a mass of flames. Later she learned the result of his action, the woman said, Boland attempted to extinguish the fire and was severely burned himself.

Two other roomers in the house heard Miss von Broth's cries and notified the police. An ambulance removed Miss von Broth and Boland to the county hospital, the former suffering greatly. After arriving at the hospital the woman regained consciousness and made a statement accusing Boland. He was then removed to the jail hospital, where he informed the police that the affair had been meant as a joke. Later he said it was an accident. The police do not believe either of his statements and will hold him pending the result of the coroner's inquest.

ICE LAW COLDLY IGNORED

COMPANIES REFUSE TO OBEY A WISCONSIN STATUTE

A Tax of Ten Cents a Ton Was Proposed to Be Levied on Ice Shipped Out of the State.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 25.—Indications point to an interesting fight between the ice companies and the state. The last legislature passed a law taxing ice companies in central Wisconsin. The law was shipped out of the state. The companies made a hard fight against the bill, but were unable to prevent its passage.

The bill provides that all companies or individuals intending to cut ice for shipment out of the state must apply for a license from the secretary of state prior to Sept. 1. This provision has been ignored. None of the companies has made such application, and though the secretary of state would be accommodating enough to date back the licenses provided they were applied for, the companies show no desire to take advantage of this opportunity.

It is learned that two companies who ship out thousands of tons of ice each year will provide with their cutting this year as usual and let the state initiate proceedings. Then the law will be taken into court on the ground that it is unconstitutional.

SUING FOR FREEDOM

Effort to Knock Out a Peculiar Georgia Law.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 25.—A writ of habeas corpus was signed by Judge Emory Speer in the United States court tonight in behalf of Samuel R. Evans, one of the leading bankers, warehousemen and farmers of Baldwin county who is confined in Dr. Allen's private sanitarium at Milledgeville. Mr. Evans' wife has kept him in the sanitarium, it is claimed, against his will and without any legal proceedings in the federal court. A private sanitarium can detain a patient and treat him without his consent. The proceedings in the federal court is to show that this law is unconstitutional.

Latest Ticks of the Telegraph.

Heavy Consensus Tax. WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Secretary Gage has received from an unknown person, through the collector of customs at New York, a consignment of $18,000.

One Brute Well Struck. CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Jack Gallagher, a police officer, was fatally stabbed this morning by Myrtle Mayes, a fourteen-year-old girl. Because Richardson was leading her to death, was today indicted a butcher knife and slashed him across the neck.

Wife Murderer Sailed. SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Nov. 25.—Ben McInnis, convicted of murdering his wife by leading her to death, was today indicted a new trial and sentenced to twenty-five years in prison.

Ocean Liners. New York—Arrived: Buenos Ayres, Glasgow. Boston—Arrived: Commonwealth, Liverpool. Halifax, N. S.—Arrived: Numidian, Glasgow and Liverpool.

German Colonel Dismissed. BERLIN, Nov. 25.—German newspapers assert that Baron von Reisswitz has been summarily dismissed from the army by order of Emperor William. He was colonel of the regiment in which Lieut. Blaschke, who was recently killed in a duel with a brother officer, had served. The action was taken because Baron von Reisswitz did nothing to prevent the duel.

Tolstoy's Fever Checked. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 25.—The health of Count Tolstoy is improving. His fever has subsided and he is sleeping better.

Nebraska's Official Count. LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 25.—The official count of the November election shows that Seligson (Rep.) for supreme judge has a plurality over Hallebeck (Union) of 12,689, and a majority over all of 6751. For records of the university Ernest and Calkins, Republicans, have an average plurality of $1571. The total vote in the state was 29,192.

Declines a Bishopric. NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, of this city, recently elected bishop of the new diocese of Western Massachusetts, tonight declined the honor.

Balfour Has Influenza. LONDON, Nov. 25.—In consequence of alarming reports concerning the illness of A. J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury.

Passenger Service to Hutchinson Via Great Northern.

Passenger train leaves Union depot, St. Paul, at 1:40 p. m., Monday, except for Hutchinson over Great Northern Railroad.

MUNYON'S WITCH HAZEL SOAP. Ask one of your friends who has used this famous soap. It is the best that you can buy. It is the best that you can buy. It is the best that you can buy.

Weak Men INCIDENTALLY IN THE CITY Pay When Cured

Should not go home before consulting the Famous Men's Specialist at this Heidelberg Medical Institute. He cures Old Men afflicted with any hidden or visible disease in less time than any other doctor. You want to get cured and YOU ought to get cured. You know your own doctor. Don't let him keep you in pain. Don't let him keep you in pain. Don't let him keep you in pain.

HEIDELBERG MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Corner Fifth and Robert sts., St. Paul, Minn. 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. evenings. Sundays, 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. Honest Treatment

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS

WAS NOT ARRAIGNED

COUNTY ATTORNEY REFUSES TO MAKE COMPLAINT AGAINST TRIBUNE REPORTER

CHARGE MAY BE CHANGED

Mayor Ames' Views in the Matter - He Sees the Newspapers and Municipal Court Officials.

Mayor Ames, seen by The Globe yesterday afternoon, and asked in regard to the arrest of the Tribune reporter, Fred Bonge, Emory, chief of the charge of blackmail, said: "I have nothing to say at present, the fact is just this: We set a trap for this fellow, and he put both feet in it. We have positive evidence in the matter and are prepared to prove our side of the case when called upon."

He was then asked regarding the operations in the city of the alleged "big mitt" men, and he said: "There may be 'big mitt' men in Minneapolis, but I can assure you that we keep a pretty close watch on them, and their stay in our midst is not very long. You see these fellows work a good deal like burglars; they jump into the city and stay but a few days, and are gone to some other point. We are endeavoring, and I think with a fair measure of success, to purge the city of all kinds of confidence men, 'gruffers,' 'big mitt' and tough characters of every description, and you can readily see that in a city of this size, with our homogeneous police protection, it is hard to entirely eradicate this class of people from the city, but our records will compare very favorably with cities of equal importance."

"Now, I want to tell you one thing," and the doctor grew emphatic, "the worst class of 'big mitt' men we have to deal with in this city are the fellows down on Newspaper Row; they are a pretty close watch on them, and their stay in our midst is not very long. You see these fellows work a good deal like burglars; they jump into the city and stay but a few days, and are gone to some other point. We are endeavoring, and I think with a fair measure of success, to purge the city of all kinds of confidence men, 'gruffers,' 'big mitt' and tough characters of every description, and you can readily see that in a city of this size, with our homogeneous police protection, it is hard to entirely eradicate this class of people from the city, but our records will compare very favorably with cities of equal importance."

Another strange feature of the case is that under the statutes of Minnesota the alleged crime is not blackmail. A prominent attorney said today that blackmail consisted only in a written communication, and certainly the police department had no such communication in writing, so that it appears, if anything is done, it will have to be on a different charge.

The city hall was the scene of confusion all day yesterday, and the chief topic of conversation among the police and officials around there was Bonge's night's arrest, and all were wondering as to what the outcome would be; some of the administration henchmen were bold enough to say "that they would show the newspapers that a few things before they got through with them."

The mayor also brought the municipal court in for a little roast. He said: "The clerk refused to call the case, which, of course, made it impossible for the city to do anything but wait until the case was called." The clerk of the court was seen in reference to this charge and he said: "The law plainly sets down for our government such cases which we may call without a complaint, and they are those which only come under a violation of the city's ordinance, such as drunks, disorderly conduct, and the like."

The charge of blackmail comes under a different head, and the case can only be called upon presentation of a complaint, which complaint was not presented at the municipal court this morning. The supreme court has passed upon this point at various times, and the officers of the municipal court acted strictly in accordance with the law. The municipal court was highly indignant at the charge that they failed to do their duty, and wished it distinctly understood that their branch of the city government was one which played no favorites.

The detectives in the case maintained a dignified silence when asked about the matter, they looked wise, however, and endeavored to carry the opinion that they had done their whole duty, and had no desire to speak until the proper time came.

THEY ELECT OFFICERS.

Seventh Ward Republican Club Also Favors Third Interurban.

Stimulated by the possibility that the proposed third interurban street railway will be built in the near future, the Seventh Ward Republican club at its meeting last evening appointed a committee of five members to again take up consideration of a cross-town line through South Minneapolis.

The committee will go into the question of securing the right to cross the Marshall avenue bridge from the quarters of Hennepin and Ramsey. Mantley Fossee is chairman of the committee, and other members are L. L. Wicklock, D. B. Johnson, C. C. Horton and E. Pierson.

The attendance at the meeting was very good, and officers were elected as follows: B. F. Ward, president; first vice president, Edwin Jones; second vice president, Clarence Carr; secretary, Mark Stapleton; treasurer, George McGregor.

One of the features of the meeting was the speech made by D. B. Johnson, formerly known as an active Democratic worker.

TAKES HIS LIFE.

Gottlieb Williams Shoots Himself Because He Has Had Luck.

Gottlieb Williams, being tired of life and unwilling to face the stern realities of earthly existence, took his life yesterday by sending a bullet through his brain.

Williams was a farmer and resided at 615 Plymouth avenue north. He had some trouble with the man of whom he rented a farm out on Rockford road last Saturday, and got into an altercation with him and his hired help, and was quite badly beaten.

He came to town and made arrangements to have the farmer and his hired men arrested and brought up on the charge of assault and battery, but he did not carry out these plans, as he killed himself in the meantime.

Death appeared to be instantaneous. Williams is survived by a brother and sister, both of whom live in Minneapolis. They know of no other reason as to why he should have killed himself than that of despondency, caused by hard luck.

ATKINS GOES UP.

Will Attempt to Get an Appeal to Supreme Court.

B. Glove Atkins, convicted of attempting to commit extortion and sentenced to serve eighteen months in the state prison, was taken from the county jail yesterday morning. He has written to his home in England for money with which to appeal his case to the supreme court.

Leaves for Washington.

Congressman Loren Fletcher will leave tonight for Washington in order to be present at the opening of the session of congress next week.

Mr. Fletcher will return during the holidays to take a glance at his political fences, and on his second journey to the national capital, after the holidays, will be accompanied by his sister and Miss Fletcher.

Action on Lighting Bids Postponed.

The council has committee, to which were referred the bids on electric and gas lighting, met yesterday afternoon to consider the bids. General Manager Robertson, of the Minneapolis General Electric company, and Secretary Levings, of the Minneapolis Gas Light company, were present, but in view of what happened, their attendance proved unnecessary. The committee postponed action on both bids until the meeting to be held Dec. 3.

Republicans Make Merry.

The first of the winter monthly social gatherings of the Fourth Ward Republican club was held last night at the club's hall. Music was furnished by T. V. Twining, pianist, and Mrs. Cleons Danneberg and Sidney H. Chase, vocalists. Short addresses were delivered by Mayor Ames, Congressman Fletcher, W. H. Egan, and Judge Strick.

Gov. Van Sant was to have delivered a talk, but he was unable to attend because of an aching tooth.

Should No One Else Challenge, He Will Make Another Attempt to Lift the Much-Coveted America Cup.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—"Should no one else challenge, I am willing seriously to consider making another attempt to lift the cup."

This announcement was given out by Sir Thomas Lipton at the banquet given at the Hotel Cecil in his honor, tonight and which was attended by more than 400 guests. "It would never do," added Sir Thomas, "to give up when only a pulsant came between me and victory."

The reception to the challenger for the America's cup was marked with the greatest enthusiasm, and all classes were represented at the banquet. Lord Tweedmouth acted as chairman, and in proposing the health of President Roosevelt, he referred to his versatility as a politician, sportsman, sportsman and writer. Roosevelt's name was greeted with tremendous applause, although only a few Americans were present.

Sir Thomas' speech was the feature of the evening. He maintained the excellence of the Shamrock II, and that a wee bit of luck would have turned the tables.

QUEEN WOULD NOT PAY WILHELMINA OF HOLLAND HAS A WILL OF HER OWN

After Marriage the Prince Consort Expected Her to Pay His Debts, but She Refused, and Trouble Ensued.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 25.—In connection with Queen Wilhelmina's illness particulars have been published showing that before her marriage Prince Henry lived at a pace beyond his means and as a consequence fell into the hands of money lenders. His debts, which show many days were to be settled after his marriage with the rich young queen, and quite recently Henry made a clean breast of the matter to her, and she, in return, declined to pay his debts.

It is said that only the most imploring telegram sent him by the queen's mother, induced Henry to return to Holland. The queen's mother is anxious to preserve appearances at least. Since his return to Holland Henry has not been once to the palace where his queen is taken ill.

It is said that only the most imploring telegram sent him by the queen's mother, induced Henry to return to Holland. The queen's mother is anxious to preserve appearances at least. Since his return to Holland Henry has not been once to the palace where his queen is taken ill.

As a proof of the serious character of the queen's illness, in spite of all assuring reports to the contrary, she mentioned the fact that the recent official gazette did not contain a single royal command, which is an unprecedented state of things.

ANointing THE KING ENGLAND EXCITED OVER SOME RUMORED CHANGES.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Keen interest has been excited by a report for which the coronation paper is responsible, that the ceremonies of anointing with oil and the celebration of the holy communion will be omitted from the coronation ceremony. It is said, however, that the statement is true. Nothing is known at Westminster Abbey of the change, and the English people generally would view with regret the abrogation of the ceremony in any way.

The ceremony of anointing dates back to a very remote past. It is appointed that anointing shall be made on the hand, breast, shoulder and elbows and on the head last of all, but according to the ancient rite, the sovereign was anointed on the head only. Every English monarch, with the exception of James II., has partaken of holy communion at the coronation service.

CREDIT MEN MEETING.

Favor the Ray Bill to Amend the Bankruptcy Law.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—At the annual meeting of the directors of the National Association of Credit Men given today the most important matter given consideration was the attitude of the association toward the bankruptcy law. It was the opinion of the directors that the law should be amended and that it would be to the interest of business men if the Ray bill, introduced in the house of representatives in February, were passed.

LASSOED IN CLEVELAND.

Wealthy Easterner Robbed in Real Western Style.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Gustave Heinrich, a wealthy furrier of New York city, was assaulted and robbed of diamonds valued at $50,000 early today while on his way to his hotel, after calling on friends. Heinrich states that two highwaymen threw a lasso about his head, choked him into insensibility, robbed him of his diamonds, and threw him into a nearby yard. Passerby heard the man's feeble cries, and he was taken to the hospital. He is not seriously injured. A gold watch and $225 in money in his pockets were not taken.

Represents the Ray Bill to Amend the Bankruptcy Law.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—At the annual meeting of the directors of the National Association of Credit Men given today the most important matter given consideration was the attitude of the association toward the bankruptcy law. It was the opinion of the directors that the law should be amended and that it would be to the interest of business men if the Ray bill, introduced in the house of representatives in February, were passed.

LASSOED IN CLEVELAND.

Wealthy Easterner Robbed in Real Western Style.

ertson, of the Minneapolis General Electric company, and Secretary Levings, of the Minneapolis Gas Light company, were present, but in view of what happened, their attendance proved unnecessary. The committee postponed action on both bids until the meeting to be held Dec. 3.

Republicans Make Merry.

The first of the winter monthly social gatherings of the Fourth Ward Republican club was held last night at the club's hall. Music was furnished by T. V. Twining, pianist, and Mrs. Cleons Danneberg and Sidney H. Chase, vocalists. Short addresses were delivered by Mayor Ames, Congressman Fletcher, W. H. Egan, and Judge Strick.

Gov. Van Sant was to have delivered a talk, but he was unable to attend because of an aching tooth.

Should No One Else Challenge, He Will Make Another Attempt to Lift the Much-Coveted America Cup.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—"Should no one else challenge, I am willing seriously to consider making another attempt to lift the cup."

This announcement was given out by Sir Thomas Lipton at the banquet given at the Hotel Cecil in his honor, tonight and which was attended by more than 400 guests. "It would never do," added Sir Thomas, "to give up when only a pulsant came between me and victory."

The reception to the challenger for the America's cup was marked with the greatest enthusiasm, and all classes were represented at the banquet. Lord Tweedmouth acted as chairman, and in proposing the health of President Roosevelt, he referred to his versatility as a politician, sportsman, sportsman and writer. Roosevelt's name was greeted with tremendous applause, although only a few Americans were present.

Sir Thomas' speech was the feature of the evening. He maintained the excellence of the Shamrock II, and that a wee bit of luck would have turned the tables.

QUEEN WOULD NOT PAY WILHELMINA OF HOLLAND HAS A WILL OF HER OWN

After Marriage the Prince Consort Expected Her to Pay His Debts, but She Refused, and Trouble Ensued.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 25.—In connection with Queen Wilhelmina's illness particulars have been published showing that before her marriage Prince Henry lived at a pace beyond his means and as a consequence fell into the hands of money lenders. His debts, which show many days were to be settled after his marriage with the rich young queen, and quite recently Henry made a clean breast of the matter to her, and she, in return, declined to pay his debts.

It is said that only the most imploring telegram sent him by the queen's mother, induced Henry to return to Holland. The queen's mother is anxious to preserve appearances at least. Since his return to Holland Henry has not been once to the palace where his queen is taken ill.

As a proof of the serious character of the queen's illness, in spite of all assuring reports to the contrary, she mentioned the fact that the recent official gazette did not contain a single royal command, which is an unprecedented state of things.

ANointing THE KING ENGLAND EXCITED OVER SOME RUMORED CHANGES.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Keen interest has been excited by a report for which the coronation paper is responsible, that the ceremonies of anointing with oil and the celebration of the holy communion will be omitted from the coronation ceremony. It is said, however, that the statement is true. Nothing is known at Westminster Abbey of the change, and the English people generally would view with regret the abrogation of the ceremony in any way.

The ceremony of anointing dates back to a very remote past. It is appointed that anointing shall be made on the hand, breast, shoulder and elbows and on the head last of all, but according to the ancient rite, the sovereign was anointed on the head only. Every English monarch, with the exception of James II., has partaken of holy communion at the coronation service.

CREDIT MEN MEETING.

Favor the Ray Bill to Amend the