PRODUCTION OF SOUTH DAKOTA EXCEEDS THAT OF WHOLE ISLAND

PEOPLE ARE GETTING RICH

Donne Robinson Quits Poetry and Does Out a Few Figures Just by Way of Change.

Special to The Globe.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Dec. 11.—Figures just compiled here by Donne Robinson, secretary of the State Historical society, and editor of the Monthly South Dakotan, show that the production of South Dakota this year exceeds by 1 per cent that of the entire island of Cuba during any single year in its history so far as new wealth is concerned.

The figures also show that, for the fourth consecutive year, South Dakota stands far away ahead of any other state in the Union in the per capita production of wealth. The current number of the Monthly South Dakotan is entirely devoted to an exhaustive review of the state's progress during the year now drawing to a close.

The final summary places the production of new wealth for the year 1901 at $13,622,750. Mr. Robinson's estimate of the state's production for 1900 was $10,500,000, about $3,000,000 less than estimates made by others.

The total estimate does not embrace manufactures, the railroad and bridge which the United States census for 1900 placed at $12,331,238. Manufactured products were omitted for the reason that they do not constitute new wealth in the sense that agricultural and mineral products do.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Thomas Cadden Fatally Hurt While Walking on Track.

Special to The Globe.

TWO HARBORS, Minn., Dec. 11.—A man who gave his name as Thomas Cadden was struck by a passenger train on the Duluth & Iron Range railroad at 6:15 this afternoon near York station. The injured party was apparently walking on the track, oblivious of impending danger. He was struck by the approaching train until it was upon him. He was picked up by the crew on the passenger train and brought to Two Harbors and taken at once to the local hospital, but he died within half an hour after he was admitted.

TO SAVE THE SINKING FUND.

Trades and Labor Assembly of Superior Favor the Railroad Merger.

Special to The Globe.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Dec. 11.—A meeting of the taxpayers of the city will be held on Friday afternoon to discuss the financial situation, and it is likely that the necessary funds for the sinking fund will be obtained. The meeting is called at the request of Robert Kelly, manager of the land company. He is out of the city at present, otherwise it would be held sooner.

Crookston Killings.

Special to The Globe. CROOKSTON, Dec. 10.—The district court for Polk county opened here today with its civil and criminal cases on the calendar. The latter are nearly all prosecutions of keepers of houses of ill-fame at East Grand Forks. Attention was given to the case of Mrs. J. J. Kendall vs. W. W. Eagle, of Ferris, for $1000, and Robert E. Warren, of Gaylord, of Ferris, for $3000, were dismissed.

Hastings Happenings.

Special to The Globe. HASTINGS, Minn., Dec. 11.—A bright little daughter, Mrs. W. J. Yank, of the Hastings state asylum, was born to Supt. and Mrs. W. J. Yank, of the Hastings state asylum, on Monday night. It is the first child born in the institution. Seventeen patients were received from Fatal Accident at Le Sueur.

Special to The Globe. LE SUEUR, Minn., Dec. 11.—Fred Kopke, one of the owners of Kopke Bros., sawmill at Rice Lake, this county, met his death by being hit in the stomach with a piece of board that became detached from the saw. He lived about one hour after the accident. He was twenty-nine years old and married.

Death of Daniel Trask.

Special to The Globe. DANIEL TRASK, a well known farmer of Swan River, aged sixty-nine years, died today after illness of two months. He was a native of Maine, came to Minnesota in 1858, and was a member of Company B, First Minnesota Volunteer infantry. He leaves a wife and three children.

Case of Mrs. Dennis.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Mrs. Ada Gilbert Dennis, found mysteriously assaulted in her apartments yesterday morning, is hovering between life and death. She showed some improvement this morning, but the chance for recovery is very slight. "It's a woman," "It's in a book," and "I'll tell you all about it," are the only coherent words that the detectives sitting by her side have been able to distinguish. The detectives are not yet ready to announce a motive for the crime. William H. Johns, of Gettysburg, Pa., a nephew of the victim, arrived today, and after being admitted to the sick room, went to police headquarters, leaving there subsequently with a detective. The hospital attendants are keeping the patient quiet and hope she may be able to give some information by tomorrow.

Kitchener is Harsh.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Lord Kitchener's private secretary has issued a statement that the general is not in any way connected with the thirty-seven separate instances in which natives have been shot by the Boers and which

CANNIBALISM IS CHARGED

Gen. Chaffee Criticizes a Rather Peculiar Verdict and Pardons a Bunch of Inferior Murderers.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Cannibalism has appeared in the varied list of crimes charged against Filipinos by American military courts. According to the record of a court-martial convened in the department of the Visayas, P. I., which has been received at the war department, Raymundo Fonte, a native, found his working companion, Liberato Benigno, sleeping in his (Fonte's) boat. Fonte became enraged, killed the slumbering man with a blow of an ear, cut off his nose and ears, and, according to his own confession, cooked and ate part of the body. He was sentenced to be hanged at Capiz, Iloilo, on the 15th inst.

A military commission headed by Maj. Henry S. Turill, surgeon, sentenced Juan Olivar, a Filipino, to be hanged. Olivar was charged with the murder of a policeman and a policeman. The grand-mother, godmother and daughter were shot to death in the vicinity of the capture. Olivar, his wife and many other members of the Olivar family were killed with bullets. The brother made his escape. Incidentally Olivar and his band robbed Labrador of 78 carts, 800 pesos and other articles.

Gen. Chaffee criticized the proceedings on the ground that the accused was charged solely with the murder of a policeman, and that the circumstances of this killing and robbery, while the murder of three women, one small girl and the policeman was not included in the charges. A band of Tulaissas, armed with knives, rifles and daggers, killed eleven members of the Echevarria family at Naro, Masbate, on Aug. 14, 1900, for the sole reason that the victims were Spaniards. Two members of the band were brought to trial and were sentenced to be hanged. But, in view of the fact that the more responsible participants in this crime are still at large, the general pardoned the sentences were commuted by Gen. Chaffee to life imprisonment.

Yngveo Siantong, an insurgent leader, operating against the American government after having taken the oath of allegiance, was sentenced to hang for murdering a native woman suspected of friendliness to the United States.
