

He who invests one dollar in business should invest one dollar in advertising that business.—A. T. Stewart.

Canal Bill is Passed. Loren Fletcher and a Virginia Democrat Alone Voted Against It. All Amendments Defeated. President is to Secure Necessary Territory and the Secretary of War is to Have Charge of Digging the Ditch. Total Cost to be $180,000,000.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The Hepburn Nicaragua canal bill passed the house late this afternoon by practically unanimous vote. Only two members out of 30 voted against it. Messrs. Fletcher (Rep., Minn.) and Lassiter (Dem., Va.) were the two voting in the negative.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Although Representative Hitt is no longer opposing Chinese exclusion legislation, he believes the act should be amended in one respect. He thinks the enforcement along the Canadian border should not be entrusted to local officials.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The inter-state commerce commissioners spent six hours today in examining seven witnesses regarding grain rates from Western ports to the Atlantic seaboard, and other Eastern destinations.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The inter-state commerce commissioners spent six hours today in examining seven witnesses regarding grain rates from Western ports to the Atlantic seaboard, and other Eastern destinations.

Mrs. Busk Cut Loose. Wyoming Woman Freed From English Husband. Special to The Globe. Laramie, Wyo., Jan. 9.—A divorce was granted today to Mrs. Belle Donnelly-Busk from George Busk, an English lad, on the ground of non-support.

Traffic in Chinamen. Officials on Canadian Border Alleged to be Crooked. Representative Hitt Talks Very Plainly of the Methods of Petty Bribery That Defeat the Exclusion Law.

Five Workmen Burned. Two Are Dead and a Third Will Die. Men Ran Out of the Mill With Their Clothes on Fire and Got to the River—Explosion Caused the Fire.

Funston Has Arrived. Fighting Kansas May Not Return to Philippines. San Francisco, Jan. 9.—Brig. Gen. Frederick Funston arrived here tonight from Manila on the transport Warren.

Bribed the Aldermen. Damaging Evidence Given in Kentucky Court. Louisville, Ky., Jan. 9.—In the trial today of J. M. McKnight, ex-president of the German National bank, whose funds he is charged with embezzling, the Ald. John W. Reeder testified that he signed an agreement to vote for McKnight for mayor for 1900, $225 of which was paid to him and $75 to Sterling B. Edmunds, who engineered the deal.

Good Thing for Merriam. Bill Recommended to Make Census Bureau Permanent. Washington, Jan. 9.—The senate committee on census today unanimously agreed to recommend the passage of the bill introduced by Senator Hale to create a permanent census bureau.

Robinson Got Rates. One Man Makes Admission of Discrimination at Kansas City. Saved Five Cents a Hundred. On Export Grain on a Concession From the Missouri Pacific Railway—This is the Only Admission Made.

Very Few Admissions. J. A. Robinson, of the firm of Hall & Robinson, grain commission merchants in Kansas City, was called, and testified as stated above.

Mr. Bryan in Boston. He Spoke on "The Patriot in Peace." Boston People Give the Nebraska Demosthenes a Warm Welcome, and Cheer His Sentiments Heartily.

Burned the Wrong Man. Person Seeking Revenge Discovers Mistake Too Late. Aurora, Ill., Jan. 9.—Charles Strausburger, of Chicago, a student for an aerobid thrower at the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy depot here, as Strausburger entered the door of the depot a man stepped in front and dashed a vial of acid in his face.

A Bonanza Nugget. Helena, Mont., Jan. 9.—A gold nugget that weighed 22.8 ounces was melted at the United States assay office today. It was the largest piece of virgin gold ever received at the local assay office.

The Dooley Letters. Will be resumed in next Sunday's Globe. The hiatus in their publication was due to the fact that the author, Mr. F. P. Dunne, has, for some weeks past, been making a tour of Mexico.

Bitter Strike Ended. Garment Cutters Get a Shorter Work Day. New York, July 9.—A virtual settlement of the bitter struggle for shorter hours, which has been waged for months, was reached today.

To Sift Schley Case. President Roosevelt Will Go to the Bottom. He is Determined to Ascertain for Himself the Exact Merits of the Controversy and Settle It Right.

Refreshments Captured. As commander of the National Women's Veteran Relief Union I protest against these proceedings, and am a buzz of angry hisses from one side of the house, and some vigorous hand-clapping from the other.

St. Paul Away Ahead. Leads All the Large Cities in Building Done. Chicago, Jan. 9.—The Construction News tomorrow will print building statistics of the thirteen leading cities in the United States for 1901, showing that the sum of $24,573,794 was expended for 48,725 new structures, as against $18,855,820 in 1900 for 37,664 structures.

Dowager is Daring. Violates a Sacred Rule of the Chinese Dynasty. Peking, Jan. 9.—The dowager empress of China asserted her complete supremacy today by granting an audience in the most sacred hall in the Forbidden City.

Women Have Level Row. Exciting Time at Installation of Officers of Woman's Veteran Relief Union. Two Rival Factions Clash. Selection of Mrs. E. L. Eubank as Official Head Arouses a Storm of Vigorous Opposition.

Two Rival Factions Clash. Selection of Mrs. E. L. Eubank as Official Head Arouses a Storm of Vigorous Opposition. The scene was a rather noisy one.

Case Will Move Very Slow. From the Globe Bureau, Washington, D. C. Washington, Jan. 9.—Attorney General Douglas and his helpers, Munn and Wilson, called on the president today.

Case Will Move Very Slow. From the Globe Bureau, Washington, D. C. Washington, Jan. 9.—Attorney General Douglas and his helpers, Munn and Wilson, called on the president today.

Case Will Move Very Slow. From the Globe Bureau, Washington, D. C. Washington, Jan. 9.—Attorney General Douglas and his helpers, Munn and Wilson, called on the president today.

Case Will Move Very Slow. From the Globe Bureau, Washington, D. C. Washington, Jan. 9.—Attorney General Douglas and his helpers, Munn and Wilson, called on the president today.

Generous Supply of Millionaires. New York World Credits Minnesota With Seventy-Nine Plutocrats—New York's List.

There are just seventy-nine people in Minnesota who must shudder every time they glance at the eye of a needle. Not that these seventy-nine people are tailors or seamstresses. On the contrary, indeed! In the almanac just issued by the New York World for the year 1902, their names are given as the millionaires of the North Star state.

There are just seventy-nine people in Minnesota who must shudder every time they glance at the eye of a needle. Not that these seventy-nine people are tailors or seamstresses. On the contrary, indeed! In the almanac just issued by the New York World for the year 1902, their names are given as the millionaires of the North Star state.

Case Will Move Very Slow. From the Globe Bureau, Washington, D. C. Washington, Jan. 9.—Attorney General Douglas and his helpers, Munn and Wilson, called on the president today.

Case Will Move Very Slow. From the Globe Bureau, Washington, D. C. Washington, Jan. 9.—Attorney General Douglas and his helpers, Munn and Wilson, called on the president today.

Case Will Move Very Slow. From the Globe Bureau, Washington, D. C. Washington, Jan. 9.—Attorney General Douglas and his helpers, Munn and Wilson, called on the president today.

Case Will Move Very Slow. From the Globe Bureau, Washington, D. C. Washington, Jan. 9.—Attorney General Douglas and his helpers, Munn and Wilson, called on the president today.