PLAY TRY THE LITTLE CITY
MANAGERS OF POULTRY SHOW
THINKING OF HOLDING NEXT ONE IN MINNEAPOLIS

BUILDING IS UNSATISFACTORY
Impossible to Keep Auditorium Evenly Heated—Last of the Prizes Were Awarded Yesterday.

There is some talk of moving the poultry and pet stock show to Minneapolis next year. The auditorium has proved a very unsatisfactory location, it being an utter impossibility to heat the ground floor and the heat rising to the roof. The balcony, however, is sufficiently heated. There are hopes of obtaining the second floor of the court house in Minneapolis next year. St. Paul has had the show two years, and is getting tired of it, and the city next year.

An interesting feature of today's programme will be the liberating of Fred May's "racing homers." The pigeons make their trip home to Lake Calhoun by themselves, thus saving the expense of transportation, and proving their training to asubscribers.

One wonders what carrier pigeons are used for in these days when wireless telegraphy is being used," said an enthusiast yesterday. "But lumbermen going out beyond the limits of civilization, fishing smelt and cod country doctors find them invaluable, especially the doctors. They take several pigeons and leave them at the homes of their patients. Let us in precarious conditions and the patient gets worse the pigeon is sent home to the doctor. There is one pigeon, Crazy, who broke all records and at the age of four months flew 300 miles on the same day."

Another pretty exhibit is that of G. J. Royce's "Bluettes," a peculiarly fine breed and something unique as well, for while they are all blue, they have a blue, blue, Japanese cockerel and pullet, Chinese cockerel and pullet, English cockerel and pullet, and a pair of blue and white cockerels and pullets.
