Ticks of Telegraph

His Throat Full of Hair. WABASH, Ind., Feb. 7.—Andrew Meier, a resident of Akron, twenty miles northwest of this city, is at the death of a peculiar case. A specialist made an examination of the throat and found that the patient's throat and bronchial tubes were filled with hair imbedded in the membrane.

KAISER OPPOSES FAITH CURISTS.

Berlin, Feb. 7.—Emperor William has intervened to stem the spread of the faith healing cult in Germany. His majesty's intervention has been effected by the police for the purpose of deterring measures to counteract the campaign here of the Christian Scientists who have followers in the higher circles of Berlin society.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 7.—Because she was so devoted to her husband that she would not leave him, she was killed by a train. Her husband, John Kay, an employe of Crosby's flour mill, beat his wife to death with a flat iron last evening. He then attempted to take his own life by hanging himself from a bridge near his home. He was cut down before life was extinct and revived.

SENATORIAL STEERING COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Senator Allison, chairman of the Republican caucus committee, today announced the person accommodation of the business of the road. The passenger trains of the road will run into the Milwaukee station, and do not expect to be changed for some time.

It is the desire of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern to give to the city the best service which is in their power to do, as this will be the most important station on their line, and he intends to spend several weeks here among the business men and looking after the interests of his road.

After being out for forty-two hours, the jury in the Megardner case were of the opinion that it would be impossible for them to reach an agreement, as they were apparently too evenly divided on the question of the innocence and guilt of the defendant.

The jury when it first entered the room where the deliberations were to take place took a ballot before the question of evidence or anything else had been talked of and the vote stood six for acquittal and six for acquittal. The next ballot, which was an expression of opinion, was seven for acquittal and five for conviction; the next ballot was eight for acquittal and four for conviction case.

The bids received from four companies, and was one of the largest contracts that any of the companies ever figured on. The entire contract is about $600,000, and it is expected that it will be awarded to one concern. The award will be made today.

The scheme to reorganize the Chamber of Commerce clearing house, limiting its membership to 100, was yesterday turned down by a vote of 63 against the proposition to limit it to 100.

The change made some forcible arguments as to the advantages which would accrue from a "clearing house" but it was plain that their arguments did not have very much effect on the majority of the members.

The Johnson murder case was continued in the criminal court yesterday. The entire forenoon was taken up in trying to secure a jury, but the venire was exhausted without getting any additional jurors from what was secured Thursday.

A special venire has been summoned, and it is likely that the prosecution will have secured a jury by next Monday. So far but five jurors have been secured.

The "steering" committee, which arranges the business of the senate, it is as follows: Messrs. Allison, Aldrich, Hale, Cullom, Lodge, Spooner, McKinley, Elkins, Clark (Wyo.), Beveridge and Hanna.

Mrs. Dennis Adjudged Insane. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 7.—The jury in the case of Mrs. May Dennis, charged with the murder of her husband, whom she shot and killed on June 14, 1901, at their home in Springfield, returned a verdict of not guilty, holding Mrs. Dennis was insane at the time of the murder, and is now insane.

WHITNEY and Bride in Georgia. THOMASVILLE, Ga., Feb. 7.—Payne Whitney, formerly of Chicago, and Miss Helen Hay, daughter of Secretary of State John Hay, arrived in Thomasville at 5 o'clock this afternoon to spend their honeymoon. They will be the guests of Col. Oliver Hazard Payne at his mansion, Glenwood, near this city.
