GRAND MASTER DIMITS SOUNDS ANOTHER NOTE OF WARNING TO WORKMEN.
CHANGE MUST COME QUICKLY
Classified Assessments Recommended in Place of Bad Plan—If Not Done, Results Will Be Fatal.
With the precision and business-like methods which have characterized the sessions of the order, the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the grand lodge, A. O. U. W., came to order yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in Sherman hall, sixth and Wabasha streets. Grand Master Workman Diment, of Owatonna, was in the chair as upward of 200 newly elected delegates were brought to the altar to receive the oaths of membership, and passwords. The sessions are behind closed doors and none but those qualified to sit in the degree can have admittance. The distribution of the members and receiving credentials took up the entire forenoon.

DESIGNS ON LEVEE

BILL IS BEING PREPARED
Strip Nine Blocks in Length in Design, and if Secured, a Breakwater Will Be Built.
At the request of West Side parties and the West Side Improvement association, the city legal department is now engaged in preparing a bill, which, upon the opening of the levee below State street, to settlement. As soon as completed the bill will be introduced in the legislature.

ONE YEAR COUNTS AS TWO

SOLDIERS IN FOREIGN SERVICE HAVE ONE GREAT ADVANTAGE
System May Have to Be Abolished, as It Tends to Cripple Retirees.
"One very important factor of the United States troops serving in the Philippines and other possessions that has not been given much publicity is the fact that each year that a soldier serves in the foreign possessions counts as two in computing his pension in view of retirement," said an officer in the army budget bureau.

GRANTED A FRANCHISE

GENGE CAN BUILD LIGHTING PLANT AT ST. ANTHONY PARK.
The board of aldermen last night passed an ordinance granting to F. G. Genge and others a franchise for a lighting and heating plant at St. Anthony Park. The ordinance is similar to that granted to the Fairview Manufacturing company. The company has one year in which to complete the plant. The franchise was granted for placing a plant, form and other things on the grounds. It will be $30. The contract for the furnishing of paint for the Fort Snelling building, and also one of $7,000 for the painting and paving of the Selby avenue bridge to the same firm, a promise was secured from one member of the firm to employ union labor if possible, but in the case of Newman & Hoy, who were given a contract for the painting of the Fort Snelling building, it was practically a flat refusal.

SPRITUALISTS COMING.
Three-Day Convention to Start Friday Morning.
The Spiritualists of the Northwest will hold a convention in this city beginning Friday morning at 10:30. The sessions will continue for three days, and it is expected that a large number of Spiritualists will be present. The Spiritualists will gather in I. O. O. F. hall, corner Fifth and Wabasha streets. The following are on the programme for addresses: George B. Wain, president of the Illinois State association; Mrs. George E. Wain, Chicago; Mrs. Clara J. Stewart, president Wisconsin State association; Will E. Erwood, missionary of Minnesota. These, assisted by representative Spiritualists speakers of St. Paul and Minneapolis, will occupy the entire time.

ANNUAL MEETING OF SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS HELD YESTERDAY.
The annual meeting of the Minnesota Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held yesterday in the rooms of the Relief society on East Ninth street. D. R. Noyes was re-elected president, and a motion was made to re-elect T. A. Abbott secretary, but he declined, pleading that his duties as president of the local society were too heavy to allow him to accept the office. J. I. Jillette was elected treasurer, and R. A. Hoy was re-elected agent. The secretary's report showed increased interest in humane work throughout the state during the year. Five new societies have been organized through the efforts of Mrs. C. A. Severance, the corresponding secretary, at Waseca, St. Paul Park, Hastings, Cottage Grove and Monticello, and two through personal efforts, one at Stewartville and one at Redwood Falls.
