

TO BRIDGE THE LAKE

NORTHERN PACIFIC PREPARING TO BUILD A TRESTLE AT MCKENZIE WAVES ARE TEN FEET HIGH Trip by Boat is Dangerous, but Many Passengers Faced It Rather Than Submit to Further Delay.

Special to The Globe.

JAMESTOWN, N. D., March 30.—Northern Pacific officials decided today that the only present difficulty over two miles of submerged track at McKenzie was to bridge, and work will probably be commenced tomorrow. The transfer has been only fairly successful.

Today fifty-five passengers west bound, and twenty east bound, were transferred over Lake McKenzie. Passengers east bound were conducted two miles north on the west side of the lake on land from trains, these 600 feet across by boat and five miles by wagons to trains on the east side.

It may no longer be said that John W. Gates and his fellow millionaires from the West are devoid of sentiment and the finer feelings of humanity. They are not. They are grateful. Like other men, their hearts and their pockets are to be reached through their stomachs, and it is best to do this by means of pie, which must be of the good old home made variety.

Mr. Gates prides himself on being a good judge of pie, as he is of other things. He knows good pie when he tastes it, and he is ready to reward the maker. A check was recently drawn for a sum that represents a small fortune and it was in payment for two pies. The most popular probably stands under, and the highest price ever paid for pie is represented by that check. But had the turn of a coin been otherwise, the pie would have been drawn for about $500, the profit resulting from a deal in Northern Pacific securities.

Although the check was recently drawn, the pie was eaten last May, but the memory of it still lingers to make the mouths of the eaters water. The history of the pie and the water was related yesterday by one of those interested with Mr. Gates in the speculations of last spring.

J. P. Harris, now head of the firm of Harris, Jones & Co., then had an office at No. 12 West Second street. During the days when the New York stock market seemed to have gone crazy, Harris was occupied every afternoon by a number of guests who came from the West whose interests were common. Employed there then was J. E. Kane, a telegraph operator, who was a close friend of George C. Fort, of Clear Lake, Iowa.

No offense is meant to any person when it is said that Mr. Kane found the food provided for him by "Oscar" a trifle too good for his digestion, so he arranged to have a lunch sent to him from his home.

Then Rogers was struck by an inspiration. He remembered that Mr. Harris had a lunch sent to him from his home. He planned a surprise for him. "Just like mother used to make," said Rogers to the porter who took it.

There was a repetition of the luncheon the next day, and there was another pie. The next day was the first to speak of Rogers to buy 100 shares of Northern Pacific stock for which they stood ready.

By leaps and bounds the price of "Nip" went up. From 11 1/2 it rose to 25, and then to 30. Mr. Kane was perceptibly nervous. He did not like to suggest selling out, but that night there was a party in the Reform church, his regular place of worship, where the Rev. John M. Schick, the pastor, preached the sermon.

He-Let's found a mutual admiration society. I admire your beautiful face. Now, what'll you admire in me? "Your good taste," San Francisco Town-Talk.

TARIFF FIGHT PUT OFF

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The house during the coming week will be largely occupied by the sundry civil appropriation bill, which will be called up tomorrow. Such time as remains will be devoted to the consideration of the senate bill to promote the efficiency of the revenue cut-off service and the Chinese exclusion bill.

Many Absent From Congress.—The present congress is made up in large part of absentees. One member, Frank Eddy, of Minnesota, is in Europe somewhere, presumably in Norway, working up an immigration scheme. Senator James K. Jones, of Arkansas, was not in Washington this session. He had business at home trying to get a vote there. His mantle of leadership has fallen on the shoulders of young Mr. Bailey, of Texas, who, by the way, seems quite able to wear it.

World's Conference of Joseph Smith Branch Near at Hand. LAMONT, Iowa, March 30.—The world's conference of the reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, which convenes at Lamont, April 6, promises to be one of the largest gatherings of the church ever held. Among the ministers and delegates already arrived are all the members of the quorum of twelve apostles, of whom Homer T. Griffiths comes from England. R. C. Evans from the Canadian mission and Joseph Luff from Colon.

Quay Is Away Fishing.—Senator Quay has not been present at any of the sessions. He left nearly four months ago for Florida and has been spending his winter there. He is very fond of fishing, and prefers to sit in the sun waiting for a bite than to fuss around with debates and speeches.
