

Your Physician

Is called, as occasion requires, because you have confidence in his ability to relieve pain, to repair injuries or to bring you safely through a run of fever.

Should you not choose your doctor? Should you not choose a man who makes the DRUG BUSINESS his life work?

Should you not go to a man who has filled his store with the goods you need, with all the Drugs your physician directs and whose business success depends wholly upon the goods he sells you, and the manner of treatment he gives you?

You can find that place at FIFTH and WABASHA.

DELICATE DESSERTS.

By Parker Quincy Adams. (Copyright, 1902.)

The following desserts are features of a noted restaurant menu, and the recipes loaned me by its chef should have a place in the menu of every home.

Orange Meringue Pudding.—Scald three cups of milk in a double boiler; wet two tablespoons of corn starch with a cup of cold milk; stir it into the boiling milk and when thick and smooth cover and cook for ten minutes; add one teaspoonful of butter and a pinch of salt; take from the fire, let stand five minutes and then add the yolks of three eggs, beaten with one-half cup of sugar. Peel and seed a dozen oranges, removing the seeds. In a baking dish put the fruit and custard in alternate layers, a layer of the custard at the top, and bake for twenty minutes in a hot oven.

Little Caramel Puddings.—Put four tablespoons of granulated sugar in a clean frying pan and stir over a moderate fire with a clean spoon, being careful not to let it become too dark.

Cream of Coffee Bavarois.—Scald one pint of milk in a double boiler. In four tablespoons of freshly ground coffee in a piece of clean cloth, drop it into the milk, cover and let stand beside the fire for ten minutes.

JOTTINGS FOR A YOUNG WIFE.

Always have the dining room in perfect order before breakfast is served. Everything should be in good order before the meal is commenced.

Glasses should be filled with clear, cold water and should be served hot with hot milk.

There should always be a place at the table for the unexpected guest at a moment's notice.

The butter should be kept in the refrigerator until the last moment in the summer and soft enough to spread in the winter.

A cotton flannel "silence cloth" not only makes the tablecloth look better, but preserves the varnished surface of the table from the stains from hot dishes.

Enough knives, forks and spoons should be placed on the table so that the baking need be called for after the family are seated.

MENU FOR WEDNESDAY.

BREAKFAST. Fruit, Cream and Sugar. Grape Nuts, Toast, Chocolate.

LUNCHEON. Stewed Celery, Prunes, Brown Bread, Cocoa, Dinner, Corn Soup.

For the Hands. Broiled Steak, Corn Soup, Washed Potatoes, Squash, Apple Tart, Lettuce, Wafers, Coffee, Cheese.

Keep at hand half a lemon, from which the pits have been removed, and a fibrous piece of box inserted. The juice will remove almost every kind of stain, and its constant use keeps the hands white and soft.

A Skin of Beauty—Is a Joy Forever. Dr. T. Felix Gourauds Oriental Cream, or Magical Beautifier.

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Redness, Itch, and all skin diseases and every blemish on the face and neck, and restores the complexion to its natural beauty.

ST. PAUL SOCIETY WOMEN DO NOT LIKE DINNER JACKET FAD

IT IS POPULAR IN THE EAST

Western Women Not Partial to Very Low Cut Dresses, and Jackets Are Not Necessary.

The dinner jacket finds no favor with St. Paul's society matrons and matrons.

It is remembered that shortly after her husband became president of the United States Mrs. Roosevelt suggested to some of her friends in Washington that dinner jackets worn over low-cut gowns at dinner would save the wearers many a cold.

The suggestion instantly found favor with a number of Washington society women and the dinner jackets became one of the season's fads.

At a dining room in a much safer place to be in, so far as draughts are concerned, than a ball room, and who ever heard of a ball room jacket? Women who are susceptible to colds here do not hesitate when invited to a dinner to wear a high-necked gown, in fact great freedom of choice is allowed in the matter.

To prove her point the lady interviewed told the following story about an American girl who went abroad for the first time last fall.
