MAYORS WRIGHT AND DORAN. Police Departments of Each Were the Butt of the Country—Things Widely Different Now — Campaign Subcommittees Named.

Comparison of the votes by which former Mayors Wright, Doran and Kiefer were elected with the votes polled by Mayor Smith, the strong commentary on the distrust of Republican administration of municipal affairs prevalent in St. Paul, and proves conclusively that the public administration has brought the city to the verge of ruin and disgrace, it has turned to Mayor Smith to retrieve its credit and honor.

CATARRHAL NERVOUSNESS.

A Condition Known as Systemic Catarrh—A Prominent Doctor Cured by Pe-ru-na.

G. B. CROWE, M. D.

Dr. G. B. Crowe, a physician and very influential man in Alabama, and Chairman of the Populist State Committee, in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio, says:

"Pe-ru-na is a most valuable medicine. It affords me unlimited pleasure to testify as to the merits of your remedy as a catarrh cure. I have used it as such and find it is of very great benefit when my nervous system is run down. I heartily recommend Pe-ru-na to all whose nervous systems are deranged." Yours truly,

G. B. CROWE, M. D.

The nervous system is the source of all our bodily powers, mental or physical. The brain and spinal cord generate the power and the nerve fibers convey the power to every part of the body.

Whenever it occurs it produces the same condition—chronic catarrh. The symptoms of catarrhal nervousness are: A foreboding of calamity, a sense of something awful about to happen, twitching of the eyelids, moving brown specks before the eyes, and metallic ringing in the ears, sour stomach after eating, the feeling of going to bed with a great weight in the stomach, morbid fear of leaving home, a constant desire to wash, sleeplessness and sexual exhaustion, hands and feet usually cold and clammy, general tendency to coldness and dryness of the skin of the whole body, neuralgic headache, nervous chills, hysteria, sinking and faint spells, distressing palpitation of the heart, defective memory, inability to read, write or do any business, urine abundant without color, loss of flesh, emaciation and general debility. Some of these symptoms are present in every case.

When this congestion continues for some time it is known as chronic catarrh.

Mr. T. W. Scott, Custom House, San Francisco, Cal., writes:

"Some time ago suffering from indigestion, loss of sleep, and what might be termed general exhaustion, I was recommended to try Peruna, which I did, and found that it did what is claimed for it. I have tried quite a number of tonics but Peruna was the first one from which I derived any great benefit. Several of my family have used it for different complaints as we never are without a bottle in the house, and it seems to be a household necessity. I always recommend it to my friends who I think need such a remedy."

Mr. W. A. Roberts, No. 1401 McGee street, Kansas City, Mo., County Treasurer of Ottawa county, Kansas, writes:

"No one can endure a prolonged strain but that nature will demand rest or you will suffer for it. I found this out during my last official campaign, which was unusually severe and resulted in an over-taxed system. I tried to decide what to do, when a friend advised me to try Peruna as it had cured him when he was a physical wreck. I saw a bottle and methodically used it, and was much pleased to find that soon new vigor began to flow, restful sleep returned, and my appetite increased, and my nerves quieted, and within two months I felt as though I had enjoyed a year's rest. I am pleased to endorse Peruna."

Mr. W. A. Roberts, No. 1401 McGee street, Kansas City, Mo., County Treasurer of Ottawa county, Kansas, writes:

"For about three years I was afflicted with sleeplessness, lack of appetite and felt at all times feverish and nervous. There was no sleep, and I was so weak that I got so weak finally that I could not attend to my farm work."

"During this time 3 physicians treated me; they did not help me, they gave me no hope of recovery. I was positive of dying soon, when my attention was called to Peruna. I tried the medicine with much expectation of being benefited by it. But soon how anxious I became to show it to my family. I could sleep, my appetite returned, I became strong, mentally and physically. My nervous trembling ceased. I use about twenty bottles about every year and at the end of that time I was another man. My health was and is now more robust than I have had for many years."

"Peruna saved my life and I write then letter to express my thanks. I hope that you will make it known and make it known to the benefit of suffering people. We are never without our Peruna in our household. If it never falls to help. Yours sincerely, W. A. ROBERTS."

Practical admission of the right of the prohibition party to a place on the May election ballot was made yesterday when City Clerk Max Peterson accepted the city committee of the party the list of candidates it desires to offer.

Accompanying the tender of the ten names which have been decided upon, and which were selected at the city convention held at Federation hall, was a check for $200 the lawful filing fee. The money was taken by the clerk and a receipt given. The ticket filed is as follows:

Comptroller—B. T. Butler, 713 Conway street. Treasurer—Harvey S. Webster, 507 Palliser street.

Assembly—T. S. Ellison, 507 Charlotte avenue; J. Kirkman, 607 Brown avenue; Sigurd A. Johnson, 15 1/2 Water street; W. B. Haworth, 607 Nelson avenue; W. A. Powers, 104 Dayton avenue; Alderman—A. L. Preston, 30 East Ninth street; Alderman—First ward, R. N. Vane, 132 Sims street; Alderman, Second ward, S. K. Robinson, 578 Hamilton avenue.

John H. Fitz, of the Seventh ward, as the prohibition party's candidate for mayor, filed his papers last week and a receipt was given. The basis of the proceedings being made the basis of the mandamus proceedings in which the city was defeated.

The case is now in the supreme court on an appeal, but those of the legal department who instigated it have little hopes of victory. The filing of the ticket, however, and its right to a place on the ballot, is conditional on the outcome of this appeal.

LIKE A TIDAL WAVE

COLISEUM MOVEMENT IS SWEEPING TRIUMPHANTLY ON THOUSANDS HAVE SUBSCRIBED

Over $11,000 Already Pledged—Newspaper Men Arrange a Week's Star Vaudeville Performance for Benefit of the Fund.

Up to yesterday 5,647 people had decided to give one day's salary to help to build the Coliseum, and there are many times that number still to be heard from. The Carpenters' union, numbering 1,000 men, is included in the above figure, and the day's pay from this association alone will amount to thousands of dollars.

Estimating that the average daily wage of those already signed to be $2, the amount already pledged in this way will amount to $11,348, which will help some. The greater number of those who have already signified their intention of giving a day's pay are from labor unions and mercantile establishments. There are still a large number of lists being distributed, and every day finds at least two establishments in line. As the time draws on the list will come in faster.

Yesterday the Hackmen's union notified President Bowly that its members would contribute the day's earnings, and the employees of the Charles Mitzl Co. company did likewise.

The agitation for a Coliseum in St. Paul has affected neighboring towns, and a Minneapolis paper is now asking why one cannot be built in that city. In referring to the work that is being done in St. Paul, a Minneapolis paper says:

"They are giving one day's income to the auditorium fund—professional men, capitalists and clerks, laborers, teamsters, carpenters and workmen generally. The organized trades are meeting and voting to appropriate sums equivalent to the income of their members of one day. Employees of large establishments from the manager or president to the office boy are signing subscription papers agreeing each to give one day's earnings."

Newspapermen's Show. Commencing May 25 for one week the Newspaper Men's Coliseum association will put on a professional vaudeville performance at the Metropolitan for the benefit of the Coliseum fund. The general committee of the association has decided upon this means, and will make its report at the next meeting of the association, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

This date has been chosen, as it makes possible to secure an all-star aggregation of performers, who at any other time would be playing in different parts of the country. The usual house price will be $2.50, but the boxes will be sold for $25 each. Several of the boxes for this performance have already been engaged, and there is every assurance of a large house for the entire week.

The company that will be selected will be composed of the most famous artists on the vaudeville stage, and there will be many turns that have not been seen before in this city. Each act in the performance will be a feature that has been staged in some company, and the result will be a fitting end to the vaudeville season.

PAVING COMES HIGH

DR. WHITCOMB DOES NOT TAKE MUCH STOCK IN CHEAP ASPHALT

DEFENDS HIS STATEMENTS. Says St. Paul Will Never Solve Paving Situation Until Sandstone and Asphalt Become Competitors.

Assemblyman Whitcomb says he is still of the opinion that if St. Paul wants good asphalt paving, the kind that will last, it will have to pay a good price for it. "In commenting upon my remarks made at a council committee meeting a few days ago," said Assemblyman Whitcomb yesterday, "certain parties have been claiming that Minneapolis secures its asphalt paving at a figure approximating $2.25 a square yard. This claim hardly agrees with a clipping I have just received in which the Minneapolis engineering department is credited with furnishing Mayor Rose, of Milwaukee, information to the effect that asphalt paving in Minneapolis cost about $2.50 a square yard."

"I might add, though the clipping doesn't say so, that Minneapolis does its own paving, and even at the price of $2.50 doesn't get a day's guarantee. In St. Paul the guarantee, I believe, is ten years."

Dr. Whitcomb says he has come to the conclusion that there are only two kinds of asphalt paving, the kind that will last and the kind that will not. In referring to the work that is being done in St. Paul, a Minneapolis paper says:

"They are giving one day's income to the auditorium fund—professional men, capitalists and clerks, laborers, teamsters, carpenters and workmen generally. HOME DEALERS BEST

MINNESOTA FOOD MANUFACTURERS GENERALLY COMPLY WITH LAW

DAIRY DEPARTMENT'S REPORT. Seventy-Four Per Cent of Meat and Sixty-Four Per Cent of Vinegar Samples Found to Be Good.

Yesterday the dairy and food department made public the results of the last year's sanitary audits by the state chemist. The report shows the following results:

Ninety-one inspections of meats were made, and 83 samples were found to be legal, and 23 illegal. The meat inspections covered many towns of the state, Owatonna, Fairbault, Park Rapids, St. Cloud, Austin, Lyle, Barnesville, Cannon Falls, Wadena, and dealers and packing houses in St. Paul.

The meats found in the possession of the retail meat dealers were, for the most part, found to be legal. The larger part of the inspections were for different varieties of sausage and prepared ham. The inspectors found that many of the meat dealers are now making their own sausages, instead of, as has been heretofore, chiefly the practice, buying the goods ready made from the packing houses. The reason for this is that the packing house sausage contains preservatives which are, for the most part, illegal under the state laws of Minnesota.

Naturally this entails more labor upon the meat dealers, but in the end it is more profitable, and is the means of keeping the dealers out of trouble.

Of the twenty-three illegal samples, every one of them was traced to some of the packing houses. They all contain some preservative condemned by the state law. However, not all of the packing house samples were found to be illegal. Nineteen of the samples were inspected by the department at the special request of the department.

The department also reports that out of 76 samples of vinegar examined by the chemist 66 were found to be legal and 10 illegal. The samples were taken from dealers in St. Paul, Minneapolis, Ancker, Hayfield, Kasson, Lyle, Lambert, Fairmont, Mankato and other towns in the state. The samples were supplied to the retailers by local manufacturers were found almost invariably to be legal, while it was the exception if they were manufactured outside of the state. This was found to be true in law. This is another proof that dealers can much more safely supply their needs from local manufacturers than by patronizing outside manufacturers.

Samples from Missouri, Illinois and New York are found to fall short of the required standard.
