He will have an examination Wednesday.

A call was issued yesterday by City Engineer Clausen for bids for the city street lighting for the remainder of the year. The bids will be opened on the 17th. Considerable interest is being centered on the contest owing to the fact that existing contracts with the competing companies, The Cleveland Vapor Lighting company promises to make a price that will give its rival the American Development company, trouble in meeting.

TO SOUTH ST. PAUL

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR EXTENSION OF STREET CAR LINE THIS YEAR

FARE WILL BE FIVE CENTS

Transfer Privileges Will Be Included in Fare—Slight Hitch Over Terminals at Stock-Yards Town.

South St. Paul will have street car connections with the Saintly City before the close of the present year, and the fare will be five cents with transfer privileges to any line in the system.

These terms were practically agreed to by the local officials of the Twin City Rapid Transit company last week and as soon as other details, principal among them, the location of the southern terminus of the line are completed a franchise for a goodly term of years will be granted to the company by the St. Paul authorities. The only hitch now is whether the line shall end at the stock yards gate or run to the South St. Paul city limits.

The St. Paul end of the extension was provided for some weeks ago when a resolution was introduced in the council ordering that the Concord street line be extended to the city limits, which is Annapolis street. The remainder of the territory has been surveyed by the company's engineers and awaits only the invasion of a construction crew.

The local officials are reticent regarding the extension, and beyond admitting that it will be built, and possibly this year, will say little else. It is not known whether the line will be double tracked or not, though it is understood the South St. Paul authorities in promising a franchise have stipulated that it shall.

The Great Western which now handles the business makes twenty trips a day between the two cities, at no time with less than two coaches, and during the early morning and late afternoon as many as five and six. When the latter number is in, the cars are generally well filled with passengers. To obtain all this business and maintain a schedule that will accommodate those employed at the packing plants, especially during the rush hours, can only be done, it is contended, with the line double tracked.

The Twin City Rapid Transit company has been called for the afternoon to approve several districts which it is desired to sprinkle. The regular sprinkling season will probably begin, weather permitting, next week.

Public Examiner Johnson has notified county auditors and treasurers that delinquent special dog taxes under the law of 1901 are not to be spread upon the tax rolls for this year, nor shall any attempt be made to collect them.

CHAIN OF DRIVEWAY

PARK BOARD PLANS TO GIVE CITY A GREAT BOULEVARD SYSTEM

WILL SKIRT THE MISSISSIPPI

Boulevard Along Bluffs Between Twin Cities Will Connect With Series of New Driveways Linking All Parks.

Fifteen years ago St. Paul's park system, then just appealing to civic pride, included a boulevard that would trail along the heights of the bluffs which skirted the Mississippi river from city to city. Minneapolis forgot its part of the compact and to the high price asked for the ground which would have to be acquired for the improvement.

Last night the park board renewed its faith in the project and from now on will bend its energies toward bringing the improvement to a reality. Plats of the ground desired here were ordered of the city engineer, and as soon as they are received, the work of condemning this ground will be commenced. For the present the board will confine its efforts to acquiring a strip of ground 200 feet in width from the park, to the east of the Fort Snelling bridge. Later the strip will be extended to the high bridge, where a street, which will be given over to the park board to be beautified, will connect it with the series of driveways with which the board in time hopes to connect all the principal parks and drives.

Supt. Nussbaum last night informed the board that he had received information on the driveway that will connect Indian Mounds park with the state fish hatchery. It will be of easy grade, a mile in length and will cost $250,000. The beautifying of the hatchery grounds has been placed in the hands of the park board and with the other improvements now being made to the park board, it will make it one of the show places of St. Paul. Over twenty-five acres of ground has been added to Indian Mound park the past year. It is now being provided with a handsome and commodious building.

From the ruins of the old Eisenmenger building, which the board acquired through the purchase of several lots near Indian Mounds park, the board has constructed at Como park a handsome lavatory. It is constructed entirely of pressed brick and cut and carved stone, and is estimated to cost $100,000. For the lot, including the ruins, the board paid $3,500. It has realized more than that from the brick and stone taken from the dismantled buildings located on them.

TROUBLE IN A FACULTY

PRINCIPAL OF THE AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL MAY RESIGN

Fricition Said to Be Outgrowth of Differences Between F. D. Tucker and Mrs. Meredith-Crisis Expected.

It is rumored that Principal Frederick Tucker, of the state agricultural school may resign his position as principal of the faculty, where he has been for several years. Tucker and Mrs. Meredith-Crisis, who is the wife of the principal, are reported to be in the midst of a bitter quarrel. Tucker is said to be a man of high character and ability, and his resignation would be a great loss to the school. The quarrel is said to be the result of a misunderstanding between Tucker and Mrs. Meredith-Crisis, who is a woman of high social position and influence. The quarrel is said to have begun some time ago, and has since grown more bitter. Tucker is said to be a man of high character and ability, and his resignation would be a great loss to the school. TEACHERS WILL STUDY

SPECIAL INSTRUCTION IN INDUSTRIAL TRIAL WORK TO BE GIVEN.

The regular monthly meeting of the principals of the St. Paul schools was held yesterday afternoon at the Central High school. The collection project was discussed at some length, and the teachers decided that they did not consider it wise to take any action as a body, but preferred that the matter be left an individual one, each teacher being allowed to act independently in the matter of giving a day's wages for the collection fund.

The meeting discussed the industrial work to be taken up in the public schools. Although his work will not be introduced until the close of the school year, this work will consist of weaving, woodwork, sloyd, etc., and is being received most favorably by the teachers.

PAY PENALTY FOR DELAY

PAULY JAIL COMPANY ASSESSED $25 A DAY.

The Pauly Jail company, of St. Louis, must pay Ramsey county at the rate of $25 per day since the first of last September, and probably for some time to come, at the same rate.

The contract between the company and Ramsey county, for the construction of the new jail specifies that all the iron work shall be delivered in St. Paul by Sept. 1, and a penalty of $25 per day was affixed to the contract. The material has not all been delivered yet and will not, in all probability, for at least six weeks. The commission recently sent notice to the Pauly company that the contract would be strictly enforced.

DULUTH GETTING PROUD

ZENITH CITY WILL CELEBRATE TWO ARBOR DAYS THIS YEAR

Mayor Hugo Cut in Ahead of the Governor, and Insists That His Is the Real One.

Gov. Van Sant thought he was more than "bright and early" in announcing Arbor day this year, especially in the face of the weather of Saturday and Sunday. But it appears that his exuberance was not quite rapid enough, and as a result Duluth will have the rare privilege of observing two Arbor days. Mayor Hugo fixed Saturday, April 19 as Arbor day, and the board of education, of which Van Sant named Friday, April 18. It is somewhat unusual for a mayor of a city to name Arbor day on his own account. That is supposed to be the duty of the functions of the governor. Mayor Hugo is going to allow his day to stand anyway, and he thinks the people of Duluth will celebrate his Arbor day more universally than will the day of Gov. Van Sant's Arbor day. Of course Gov. Van Sant does not care when they celebrate Arbor day, but it will give his enemies a chance to say that he was second favorite in the Duluth Arbor day race.

Mayor Hugo's reason for letting his Arbor day stand is that losing teachers and school children will take a prominent part in starting the campaign here, and if it occurred on Friday, they would not be able to attend school, and could not be expected to engage in the programme to any great extent.

As the mayor had issued his proclamation previous to the governor's, he does not see fit to write his right of priority, particularly as a great many of those who were notified by the city authorities have made their arrangements accordingly.

REWARDED FOR BRAVERY

SEVERAL ST. PAUL OFFICERS BREVETTED FOR GALLANTRY.

In the list of officers brevetted for conspicuous service during the war at Manila and the Philippines are a number of St. Paul men. To be mentioned in the list is a great honor, and the following are included in the list of captains by brevet: Capt. W. H. Ward, Forty-fifth United States Infantry; Capt. Seebach, United States Infantry; and First Lieutenant Harry D. Lockore.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S SALARY

Commissioners Favor Paying Him From Revenue Fund.

County Commissioner Wright and Powers are favoring having the county surveyor's salary and clerk's pay paid from the county revenue fund, instead of from the bridge fund, as in the past. An item of $10,000 was included in the road and bridge fund last July for the surveyor's salary and the clerk's pay, and this appropriation will be expended when the outstanding claims are taken up. This action was taken on the matter at the meeting of the commissioners yesterday.

The First Ward Democrat held a rousing meeting last night at Bedford and Decatur streets, 250 people cheering the principles of Democracy. The meeting endorsed the city ticket from top to bottom. TALK OF A PROTEST

CENTRAL HIGH DEBATORS NOT SATISFIED WITH DECISION AT LE SUEUR

LOCAL PAPER'S ENTERPRISE Extra Containing Decision and Arguments of St. Paul Team Sold as Soon as Debate Was Over.

Central high school students and members of the faculty, who went down to LeSueur Friday for the state high school oratorical contest are by no means satisfied with the decision given in that contest and there is some talk of a protest, due largely to suspicions aroused by an apparently creditable display of newspaper enterprise. The question debated was: "Resolved, That capital punishment ought to be abolished in the United States." Kenneth McMangan, Clifford Menzies and P. S. Campbell were the St. Paul debaters; and Michael Doherty, Alice Currier and Henry Currier represented the LeSueur high school. W. W. Freidberg, assistant superintendent of public instruction; Hon. D. T. Stebbins, of Rochester, and Hon. A. R. Pfau, of Mankato, were the judges. Their decision was in favor of the LeSueur debaters.

It is claimed by the St. Paul students that as the audience was wending its way homeward from the assembly hall where the debate was held, the boys were crying an extra of the local paper on the street. The extra contained a full account of the debate and the decision, and the arguments taken down in short hand, then transcribed and up in type while the judges were arriving at a decision and have the paper in possession of the St. Paul students. It is understood, but the St. Paul students feel that all has not been fair and above board. Prof. A. T. Denney, Central high school faculty, accompanied the debaters to LeSueur and managed the debate for this high school.

By the Globe last night, he refused to state just what the trouble was or whether a protest would be filed, but he intimated that the matter would be decided late this afternoon.

ST. PETER IS WRATHY

CITIZENS WILL NOT ALLOW HOSPITAL TROUBLE TO BE HUSHED UP

WAITING FOR BOARD TO ACT

Dr. Tomlinson, the Superintendent, is Blamed for Managing the Institution to Suit Himself.

The St. Peter asylum trouble is not yet at an end, and several persons are side-stepping at a very lively rate hoping to dodge the blame. It is likely to be if they should suddenly run out of diplomacy, or the opposition should determine to push its advantage.

ALL BIDS ARE TOO HIGH

ESTIMATES FOR LIGHTING PLANT ARE REJECTED.

Lowest Submitted Was $29,300, While Architect's Estimate Was $9,000—To Call for Others.

All the bids for the electric lighting plant for the new contagious ward at the city hospital were rejected by the board of control at a meeting yesterday afternoon. The lowest submitted was that of the firm of Nemis & Nemis, and the figure was $29,300, which the board considers exorbitant.

"It looks as if the boys had got together," said a member of the board yesterday. "The bids were submitted, and they are all very close together, the highest being $35,000. When they are ready to submit bids that are reasonable," said the board member, "we will accept them. In the meantime all bids are rejected."

The board is acting largely on the advice of Architect A. H. Stem in awarding contracts. The bids submitted for the lighting plant, and while the board hardly expects to get a bid as low as $9,000, it is of the opinion that they can get the work done for about $12,000.

The board considers the bid of George C. S. Neutson and M. Gilbert substantial injuries.

There were two lively runaways yesterday afternoon, and in each case a man was hurt. C. S. Neutson, who conducts a livery shop at Fourth and Washburn, attempted to stop a runaway horse at Sixth and Minnesota shortly after 3 o'clock, but he was knocked to the pavement and his leg broken in three places. The police patrol removed him to the charge of a hospital, where he was examined by Dr. Gilbert. His injuries were not serious. His injuries were not serious. His injuries were not serious.

BUILDING IN YARDS

OMAHA ROAD TO PUT UP A NEW $60,000 FREIGHT HOUSE

BIG STRUCTURES PLANNED

Packing Firms Are to Erect Warehouses Near Tracks—Building Trade Active All Over the City.

In another week construction work will be commenced on what will give the Omaha road one of the largest depots in the city. It will be located in the yards east of Broadway, and will cost nearly $60,000.

The old building, which is located on East Fourth street, is now being demolished, and from its ruins will rise the new structure. It will be brick, two stories in height and will be nearly 200 feet in length.

The ground which composes these yards was at one time the bed of a slough, always subject to overflow, and what of late years cut off from the river by constant filling in, has been a constant source of annoyance. The reason of the drainage it affords to the street and the high lands in that vicinity. This is now being relieved by severing the entire tract.

Opposite the Omaha's freight depot the Wisconsin Central has just completed a $40,000 freight house, while to the east other substantial structures are being planned for the numerous business interests that use the yards as distributing points. Several pile drivers were hauled to the yards yesterday and will be set to work driving timbers for the foundations.

Plans are now being considered for the two-story building that T. Reardon will erect on the corner of Broadway and Washington street, near Sixth. It is now proposed to increase the height of the building to four stories.

BUTTER TAKES A JUMP

RETAIL QUOTATIONS WERE 35 CENTS PER POUND YESTERDAY.

The upward tendency of the prices of all grades of butter and cheese which has been manifest for many days, appears to have reached the limit, and the householders who were dismayed and indignant at finding themselves obliged to pay 29 cents a pound for their table butter on Saturday, will still further surprised yesterday morning by the general statement that prices are always high at this season of the year by reason of the fact that there is no grazing for the cattle and feed is scarce and costly.

FINANCES OF COUNTY

Auditor Johnson Submits Annual Statement.

At the meeting of the county commissioners yesterday morning Auditor Johnson submitted his annual financial statement, which showed that the county was in good standing at the close of the year. The expense of the county for the year was $2,225,500. Of this amount $675,000 was paid out on warrants of previous years. The receipts of the year were $2,537,491, and the amount on hand at the first of the year was $35,551, leaving a balance Jan. 1, 1902, of $119,032.

WILL LET PASTOR GO

CONGREGATION OF CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ACCEPTS PASTOR'S RESIGNATION

COMES BEFORE PRESBYTERY

Committee Will Wait on That Body This Morning to Request That Pastoral Relations Be Dissolved.

Though greatly regretting the decision of Dr. A. B. Meldrum to go to Cleveland, the congregation of the Central Presbyterian church has decided to place no obstacle in his way and, at a meeting held last night, appointed a committee to wait on the presbytery this morning and join with Mr. Meldrum in a request that pastoral relations be dissolved.

Dr. Meldrum received the call from the Cleveland church over a month ago, but did not announce the fact for some time. He desired to go to Cleveland, yet did not like to leave the congregation in St. Paul for which he had served as pastor so long. After carefully considering the matter some time, he called a meeting of the congregation, at which he informed them that he had decided to accept the call, and requested immediate action, that the matter might come before the presbytery at the spring session.

The session promptly brought the matter before the congregation, and the latter, feeling that it would be ungenerous to demur, as their pastor made final decision, appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs. R. P. Lewis, B. H. Schuber and Hugh Grant, to attend the presbytery today and inform them of the decision of the congregation.

Dr. Meldrum expects to leave for Cleveland not later than the middle of May, and as the resignation was unexpected, the congregation has taken no steps to extend a call to a successor.

The congregation feels the loss of Dr. Meldrum keenly. The church has undergone a marvelous change under his able guidance, both from a standpoint of increase in numbers and financially. When he assumed the pastorate, in December, 1895, the congregation was over $65,000 in debt on the church edifice. During his May the congregation has paid off the debt and has a surplus of $3,000, while the membership has been tripled.
