

FIGHT WON BY INSURGENTS

Differential on Refined Sugar Removed and Hope for Bill in Senate Ruined

DEPEAT FOR RECIPROCIITY

CHAIR OVERRULED BY VOTE OF DEMOCRATS AND THIRTY-SEVEN RECALCITRANTS

ACCEPT MORRIS AMENDMENT

Republican Leaders Are Run Over Roughshod and Debate Brings Tawney, Datzell and Richardson into Prominence.

FROM THE GLOBE BUREAU, WASHINGTON, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—One of the notable men in town tonight is Congressman James Tawney, leader of the beet sugar revolt in the house of representatives. His fight for the sugar beet industry has won and for the first time since the invention of the Reciprocity bill the Republican house leadership has been overthrown. It marks the beginning of the end of the Henderson rule, and it gives the death blow to its empire.

The Minnesota delegation stood solidly and were a part of the valiant 178 who marched by the tellers in the vote to overrule the chair. Afterward money came into the band wagon, but the teller vote was the test. The Cuban reciprocity bill is killed by the amendment which removes the duty from refined sugar. The effect of this would be to knock $5,000,000 a year off the profits of the sugar trust. The senate will not pass the bill in this shape, so it will die.

Representative Page Morris was one of the most vigorous speakers here during a very vigorous day. He spoke to the proposition that his amendment was germane to the bill and in his enthusiasm became quite carried away. The judge cut loose from notes and figures and moved about the hall declaring in stentorian tones that "it was all as clear as a pikestaff."

Tawney spoke until he was so hoarse he could hardly whisper, but both had the satisfaction a few minutes later to see the house vote against the Cuban reciprocity bill.

LEADER'S DEFEAT DECISIVE.

Thirty-Seven Insurgents Join Democrats in Overruling Chair.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Democrats and the Republican insurgents rode roughshod over the house leaders today when the vote on the Cuban reciprocity bill. They overthrew the railing of the chair in committee of the whole on the question of the germaneness of the amendment to remove the differential from refined sugar during the existence of the reciprocity agreement provided for in the bill.

The vote to overrule the decision of the chair, made by Mr. Sherman, of New York, was 171 to 139. The number of thirty-seven joining with the anti Democratic vote to accomplish this result.

Having won this preliminary victory, the amendment was adopted in committee, 164 to 111, and later in the house by a still larger majority, 159 to 106. On this occasion sixty-four Republicans voted with the Democrats for the amendment. The bill then was passed by an overwhelming majority, 247 to 62.

An analysis of the vote shows that 121 Republicans and 122 Democrats voted for the amended bill and forty-two Republicans and ten Democrats against it. Mr. Tawney, of Ohio, was one of those who voted against the bill. The vote on the bill was the culmination of a long struggle which began almost with the opening of this session of congress and after two weeks of continuous debate during which much bitterness was aroused.

ENTIRE DEBATE IS LIVELY.

Today's debate was of an exceedingly lively character, the feature being echoes of last night's Democratic caucus. To that caucus the defeat of the Republican leaders who sought to pass the bill without amendment was a notable event. Previous to the holding of the caucus the Democrats were very much divided, and the opposition of the Republican beet sugar men showed signs of disintegrating. Today the beet sugar men decided at a meeting attended by thirty-two of them, to take the bit in their teeth and overrule the chair.

As soon as this combination was effected the Republican leaders realized that they would be defeated so far as the removal of the differential was concerned, and Mr. Payne, the Republican leader, contented himself with warning his beet sugar colleagues that in removing the differential they were taking off a bit of protection placed in the Dingley bill especially for the benefit of the beet sugar producers.

The Democrats attempted to follow up their advantage when the differential amendment was adopted by offering the Babcock bill and other amendments to reduce the Dingley schedules, but these amendments the Republicans declined to stand with them and the Democrats did not press them vigorously.

ROBERTS VOTE DOWN.

One of the surprises of the session was the attempt of Mr. Roberts, a Massachusetts Republican, to take the duty off hides. He offered two amendments and appealed once from the decision of the chair, but was voted down each time. The bill as passed authorizes the president as soon as may be after the establishment of an independent government in Cuba and the enactment by said government of immigration, exclusion and contract labor laws as restrictive as those of the United States, to negotiate a reciprocity trade agreement with Cuba by which, in return for equivalent concessions, the United States will grant a reduction of 20 per cent from the Dingley rates on goods coming into the United States from Cuba, such agreement to continue until December 1, 1902. During the existence of such agreement the duty on

FEAR WAR BY IRISH

Open Violence Predicted by Leaders of Patriotic Societies in America

REDMOND FAVORS SWORD

Large Sums for Aid of Home Rule Societies Now Being Raised in the United States.

Special to The Globe.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Open violence reaching possibly to the extent of insurrection is expected in Ireland by Irish leaders in this country as the result of enforcement of the crimes act and the extended proclamation against the United Irish league as a seditious and unlawful society.

The United Irish League of America in response to a telegram from John Redmond and John Dillon, appealing for its support, is already straining every nerve to give assistance to the Irish league and the officers expect that within thirty days $100,000 will be sent across the Atlantic.

This opinion was expressed today by Messrs. John F. Finerty, president of the league, and William Redmond, M. P., who is lecturing in this country.

"I sometimes hear it said that by physical force alone can Ireland achieve freedom," said Mr. Redmond. "It may come to that in the end. The Irish are prepared to fight and will do so if oppression makes it necessary."

"We are camped today as a foreign and hostile force on the floor of British parliament and nothing is more certain that sooner or later England will be obliged either to grant us the right to rule ourselves or to govern us openly before the world by the sword."

QUEEN VICTIM OF TYPHOID FEVER

Doctors Encouraged by Condition of Wilhelmina, but Castle at Capital Is Placarded by Warning.

RETLOO, Holland, April 18.—Queen Wilhelmina's fever, which is now officially admitted to be of a typhoid character, has not abated, but the condition of the royal patient is said to be satisfactory. Her Majesty's physicians are said to be less anxious as it is believed the malady will not assume the ordinary malignant character.

Queen Wilhelmina is visited by her doctors three times a day, and is supposed to have contracted her illness as the result of a chill.

Among the cable messages received at the palace today, inquiring about the queen's progress was one from President Roosevelt.

The question of a regency is being earnestly considered by the Netherlands government, and it is considered likely in the event of a probable long illness of the queen that the states general (parliament) would be summoned in joint session at an early date to consider the matter.

The gates at Castle Loo have been placarded with a notice: "Typhoid Fever." This was in compliance with the Dutch law requiring every house in which a case of contagious disease exists to post a notice to that effect outside.

It has not yet been discovered where her Majesty contracted the disease. It is declared that while the water supplied to the castle is good, the queen had been in the habit of drinking sterilized milk.

BET SUGAR MEN ARE NOW JUBILANT

President Leavitt Praises Insurgents for Defeat of the Alleged Aims of the Sugar Trust.

Special to The Globe.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 18.—Regarding the vote on the sugar tariff in the house of representatives today, Heyward G. Leavitt, of Nebraska, president of the Standard Beet Sugar company, said:

"The vote is a victory for American sugar producers and a defeat for the sugar trust. The proposed 20 per cent reduction would by itself not have benefited Cuba, but would have helped the sugar trust in its war against the sugar producers. The trust last year sold sugar in the Northwest for 3 1/2 cents, which cost them 4 cents to produce. Cuba did not need the American congress' aid."

SWITCHING CHARGES ABOLISHED BY ROADS

Agreement Reached by North-Western, Milwaukee and Other Systems.

Special to The Globe.

CHICAGO, April 18.—By an agreement entered into between the executive officials of all Eastern and Southern roads and the North-Western and the St. Paul, all the local factories on these lines will in the future not have to pay switching charges. The agreement goes into effect at once and gives hundreds of factories within a large radius the advantage of the "Chicago rates," whereas in the past they have been compelled to pay the "Chicago rates" plus whatever the switching charges might be.

The advantage to the industries thus affected is large, as the average switching charge in the territory covered has been

With This Exception and French Companies, London Papers Declare Passenger Vessels Will Be Under One Control.

LONDON, April 18.—The Daily Telegraph this morning announces that prolonged negotiations have resulted in a new combination among the steamship lines, involving no change in officials and little change in management. The lines involved are the White Star, the Dominion, the Leyland, the Atlantic Transport, the American and the Red Star lines.

The joint control of the amalgamated companies, says the Telegraph, will be practically in the hands of the same men who guide their separate destinies, the intention being to reduce working expenses, to avoid ruinous competition and to secure harmonious working relations with the great American railways.

The Telegraph continues: "We understand the hearty co-operation of the North German Lloyd line and the Hamburg-American Steam Packet company is also assured. These lines will, by a working agreement, enter into a harmonious community of interests and cooperate, while still maintaining their absolute identity and nationality."

The Telegraph, in an editorial on this subject, views with great satisfaction the
