Intimate Connection Between Them Shown in Wall Street Dealings

STOCKS AND MINERS

ROGERS & ROGERS, CONFUSED AND DUBIOUS

Some Advances Made in Grain-Carrying and Other Roads, but All Are Lost in Last-Hour Liquidation.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Today's stock market reflected an unavailing effort to contest the downward tendency. After yesterday's revulsion from the semi-demoralization on Monday some reactionary tendency was natural to restore the normal balance of things, but this tendency was reinforced by the decidedly skeptical sentiment overthe prophecies of the anthracite labor settlement. These prophecies continued very confident from sources with every means of authoritative information, but the flat contradiction of the rumors received from Scranton, where the miners' delegates were in convention, caused confusion and uncerconvention, caused confusion and uncertainty and a suspicion that the Wall street outgivings were in the nature of "tips" designed to influence the stock

As a matter of fact, Reading, which was accepted as the index of the anthracite situation, was lifted a shade above last night. The reports of the condition of the crops and the weakness of the grain markets were a help to the grain carrying railroads, and they made a good advance in the day's session.

Strength in Southern Group. The continued aggressive strength of Louisville & Nashville and Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville and various smaller subsidiary lines gained additional influence from the response in Southern railway, which was considered significant of closer relations in the whole Southern group, Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis, Chicago & Eastern Illinois and Evansville & Terre Haute all shared in the movement.

Evansville & Terre Haute all shared in the movement.

Illinois Central was a conspicuous exception and was heavy throughout, falling at one time 1½. The advance in Kansas City Southern was attributed to the formation of a pool in the stock. All of the strong points, however, yielded to the liquidation during the last hour, caused by the relapse in Reading to 2¾ under last night. Practically all of the gams were wiped out and the level of prices carried below last night. Brunswick Con. 10 Phoenix

Realizing in Chicago Great Western. Realizing sales were much in evidence in Chicago Great Western, which lost 2¼ of yesterday's 4¼ point gain. Tennessee Coal lost over 3 points on account of the annual report which was considered discouraging. United States Steel stocks did not escape the depression, notwithstanding the extracrdinary exhibition of the last year's transactions by the company.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Grain speculators traded on the weather map again today and pressed prices hard all around. July wheat closed 1%c lower, July corn 1%c down and July oats %c lower. Provisions closed unchanged to 5c higher.

There was a fair show of strength to wheat at the outset on the influence of yesterday's cash business and more rains last night in the overwet Northwest. Traders changed their stand, however, on later reports of seasonable weather. The weather map showed clear weather Scuthwest, and what was still more important, an end to the wet weather in the Northwestern spring country for the present. Both these localities sent in liberal selling orders on the weather news, and their own markets were weaker.

This caused local speculators to lose

rer.

This caused local speculators to lose sight of bullishly small receipts, Kansas crop damage reports and fairly firm cables. Longs deserted their holdings and threw stuff overboard, but inasmuch as many shorts covered their accounts yesterday, buyers were scarce, except at good declines.

Corn started with a good show of strength on firm cables and a fair cash situation. The leading buil crowd also was ouying some July and selling September. The strength, however, was short lived, for when wheat broke the bulls began to consider the favorable crop reports and reduced their support. Bears jumped into the market and sold short and broke prices over ic. Trade was not large and the greater part of the session the market dragged. July bull manipulation was still talked of, but inasmuch as the supposed manipulators did not hold prices up, many lost falth in the bull situation. July sold from 62½c down to 65%c, and closed weak, 1½c lower, at 66%c. last year. Duluth had 25 cars, against 14, Clearances were 281,000 bu. Primary points received 204,000 bu, against 449,000 and shipped 207,000 bu, against 358,000. Reports of export business began coming near the close, but they helped little. The market continued weak and on decline. May wheat sold to 74½c and closed at 74½c. September sold to 71½c and closed at 71½c. It was dull in cash wheat, more from lack of offerings than from any lack of interest. Receipts were so light again

DULUTH.

DULUTH, May 7.—Wheat lost 1/4c today on an active market. Crop conditions aided the decline, and flour dullness helped. Some wheat was worked for export here, and some flour sales were made. July opened unchanged at 761/4c, sold almost at once to 761/4c, and declined gradually to the close, which was 751/4c for July and May. Flax was weak for cash, selling 1/4c off to 741/4c. Later it sold up and closed at $1.75. The new crop on the other hand was strong. September selling steady and closing at $1.75. The new crop on the other hand was strong.
