

RUSSELL HERBERT KERR.

Ag'd Two Years, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Kerr, Aurora Avenue.

CONTRAST.

Because mine eyes were lifted high, They lost what time they won? 'Tis night have seen the moon if I Had never seen the sun.

Had I not heard the crash and scream Of great waves on a sea, The prattle of a brook might seem A wondrous thronology.

I may not tell if God had blessed, Or hanned me in this wise, Because one day I knew the best, No lesser thing I prize.

Ah, well, the little joys go by— I smile, remembering I might have loved the crown if I Had never seen the sun.

—Theodosia Garrison in Cosmopolitan.
