THE STATE SECRETS

Appointments Are Made to Smooth Out Van Sant's Broken Promises

LEGISLATURE IS OILED

Legislature is oiled. Governor's Shifty Tactics Stir Up Big Four's Friends, and Interesting Administration History Is Given Away.

The friends of the Big Four are busy pricking air holes in the administration bubble calculated to throw the blame of Van Sant's appointments on Fred Schiffmann. Schiffmann himself will have nothing to say about the matter beyond general denials of any strained relations between himself and the governor, but some of his close political friends are not so particular and are shedding quite a bit of light on the bit of buncombe furnished the administration papers by Governor in fact Robert Jamison.

An article in an administration paper a few days ago has stirred up a hornet's nest and bids fair to result in the airing of no little Republican dirty linen. The article was prefaced by an admission on behalf of the governor that he is sorry he appointed Schiffmann to the most lucrative office in his gift. It explained how the governor was forced to make the appointment in payment for his election and deftly takes the governor around behind the broad shoulders of Schiffmann, Reese and Warner to shield him from the consequences of his appointments.

Schiffmann is accused of refusing to deliver the patronage of his office to the governor, and although the governor thought Schiffmann did not need the money and would turn the receipts of the office over to the campaign fund, the oil industry and the oil inspectors have created no end of fuss. The Duluth politicians wanted him to have it. Schiffmann refused to deliver the goods requested, the appointment of W. B. Marshall, Marshall is an old timer and physically incapacitated for hard work. He needed the place and the live politicians wanted it. Schiffmann's refusal to have the money and nerve to veto Van Sant's attempt at political suicide and Marshall was appointed.

It was another surveyor of logs break. Windup was right with the workers at home and his appointment was made created no end of fuss. The Duluth politicians wanted him to have it. Schiffmann refused to deliver the goods requested, the appointment of W. B. Marshall, Marshall is an old timer and physically incapacitated for hard work. He needed the place and the live politicians wanted it. Schiffmann's refusal to have the money and nerve to veto Van Sant's attempt at political suicide and Marshall was appointed.

Shows Governor's Hand. The whole thing is political buncombe on the part of Van Sant and Jamison to play even for having one or two of their little games blocked and to play solid with the up country knockers by hurrying Reese. The governor controlled the patronage of the oil inspector's office with just three exceptions and in one of those the appointment was made to shield him from a fool break of a promise he had made in another direction. As for money for the campaign fund, Van Sant had played even until Schiffmann plays even on the money administration contrivance with the Hurd bill cost him.

The first appointment which Schiffmann made contrary to the wishes of the governor was the appointment of W. B. Marshall. Marshall is an old timer and physically incapacitated for hard work. He needed the place and the live politicians wanted it. Schiffmann's refusal to have the money and nerve to veto Van Sant's attempt at political suicide and Marshall was appointed.

Intendent of schools, is prominently mentioned as the Democratic candidate for county commissioner in the First commissioners' district, which comprises the county districts west of Rice street. James Powers who now represents the district, filed for the Republican nomination for another term.

The Republican slate-makers who put C. A. Fyssen in the senatorial race in Redwood county, Frank Claggett, Republican Representative Haugland, of Chippewa, and H. L. Hayden, of Lac qui Parle, are going to support White, of Elk River, against Senator Barker.

L. Garlock is a candidate for the Republican nomination for representative in Redwood county. James Larson is so busy with the seventh district congressional fight that he has not had time to announce himself as willing to accept any office.

The general public waits in breathless suspense to learn if Any-Niche-Will-Do Dare is going to support White, of Elk River, against Senator Barker.

Joel Heatwole's paper, the Northfield News, now explains that it was not Mr. Heatwole, but Mr. Lacey, of Iowa, who is the so-called Jefferson bible. Thanks, the voters of the Third district may now wait with comparative ease for the announcement that on account of the insistent and persistent demands of a thankless constituency, Mr. Heatwole has withdrawn his regular biennial notice of retirement and will again accept the Republican nomination for congress.

A prominent Minneapolis Republican sizes up the Fred B. Snyder majority from as follows: "Born Tuesday, sick Wednesday, buried Thursday."

The Morris Tribune says Senator E. T. Young is the natural legate of the Eddy support; has collected his bequest and will be ready to go in a course.

Several of the Republican papers are now telling their readers that the state is to be congratulated over the fact that Senator Samuel Lord, of Kasson, is a candidate to succeed himself. Oh! Lord.

Representative Peter J. Schwarz, of Dodge Center, who the insurgents put on the Republican state central committee to succeed the late Senator Stockton, will not land the nomination to succeed himself without a tussle. G. Andrist, of Milton, and G. G. Dalen, of Hayfield, are out after Schwarz's scalp and promise to give him at least a run for his money. And further the administration says, not.

The faith of the Chattfield Democrat man received a severe jolt when Tams Elby threatened to give up a good thing, but subsequent developments have brought ease to his troubled political soul, for which he gives fervent thanks thus: "Tams Elby has reconsidered his determination to resign as a member of the Dawes Indian commission. It is the universal rule of the oldholders in their and never resign. It was feared that Tams would prove an exception to the rule, but thank heaven! The danger is passed."

Editor Charles Eastman, of the Wadena Pioneer-Journal lets go with the following entirely impersonal remark: "It would be a pity if the Republican party of this state if there was a new deal so far as the Republican state central committee is concerned. There are a number upon that committee who do not represent the best sentiment of the people. They should be stricken."

Editor Hays, of the Sleepy Eye Dispatch, is one of the most resourceful men in the fraternity. He has hopes that some day the party legislature ticket will be retired by the Republican voters of the Second district and offers the following suggestion to the party members: "The thought came to us that one of our members should write a book on 'Eighty Years in Congress, or How to Keep 'Em Scared.'"

The Republicans of Lincoln county are making a hustle to save themselves a jacket. The party legislature ticket will be retired by the Republican voters of the Second district and offers the following suggestion to the party members: "The thought came to us that one of our members should write a book on 'Eighty Years in Congress, or How to Keep 'Em Scared.'"

Either Way Hurts. A Cross-Fire on Coffee Users. The breaking away from coffee is an exceedingly serious problem to many people, especially when headaches follow leaving off the drug, and dyspepsia and bowel trouble grows more and more serious if the coffee is continued. So there you are, and the headache comes.

A comparatively easy way out was taken by a lady from Franklin, Pa., who says: "We had a curious experience with coffee. Husband and I had been drinking coffee, a sufferer from dyspepsia, with heart-burn, headaches and general nervous trouble. We tried a great many physicians and a great many remedies and none of them did him any lasting good."

We concluded there must be something about his employment that thus affected him. One day a man told me that probably coffee was the cause of his trouble and advised him to use Postum. The first time I made it I studied directions and made it good. Well that day was a day long to be remembered.

We liked the Postum, but we had a hundred headaches compressed into one. You see, we had been drinking coffee so long that our nerves were in a state of collapse without the usual stimulant. Until then I did not dream I was such a coffee addict.

It was a day long to be remembered. We liked the Postum, but we had a hundred headaches compressed into one. You see, we had been drinking coffee so long that our nerves were in a state of collapse without the usual stimulant. Until then I did not dream I was such a coffee addict.

The Thirty-second legislative district developed a trio of candidates yesterday. Along with the affidavits of McKusick and Olson was that of W. F. Rowe, of Lanesboro, who was announced as a candidate for the state and county seat. Rowe is the editor and publisher of the Chicago County News at Lanesboro, and should be in a position to make a hot race for the Republican nomination.

It was an even bet that the Big Four mixed cold beans and champagne with curses, and they were always fresh roasted and exactly as you want them.

a candidate for representative backed by a solid county vote.

There will be 150 delegates in the Blue Earth county Democratic convention held at Mankato at a clock Saturday June 21. The apportionment was made on the basis of one delegate for every twenty-five voters and a major fraction cast for Lind in 1900.

It has been generally conceded, and justly, too, that Editor Vandiver, of the St. Peter Journal, does not know anything about politics, is not worth delving very deep into, and seems to have struck a play too dark for him at last and guesses for light and information as follows:

The question is, was Tams Bixby's resignation from the Dawes Indian commission a four flush or a ten-strike?

The Winnebago City Press-News says Representative J. A. Armstrong should be given another term on account of his excellent record, and to make it strong recites that Mr. Armstrong took an early stand for Moses E. Clapp, from which he was never dislocated until the senatorial battle was over. Would that record jar the family preserves?

The candidacy of H. P. Hall, of St. Paul, for clerk of the supreme court of this state, which the country press, and if Mr. Hall goes after the nomination the delegates and voters will not wait an equally warm welcome. The Hutchinson Leader says:

"There is talk of H. P. Hall, of St. Paul, for the Democratic nomination for clerk of the supreme court. If there is a newspaper man in Minnesota who would not get right out and howl for Old Hall, let him stand up and be counted. Every editor in the state is under everlasting obligation to him and would hail with delight the opportunity to return the compliment."

The Appleton Press pays its respects to Charles A. Fosnes, whom the Republicans have bought over with promises of support for state senator in the following entirely pertinent manner:

The report is current that C. A. Fosnes, of Montevideo, seeks the Republican nomination for state senator. This causes considerable surprise, in view of the fact that Mr. Fosnes has been supposed to represent the principles of the Democratic party and was honored by that party and the Populists in his election to the state legislature in 1898 and again in 1900. His political honesty and sincerity of purpose would now be less subject to suspicion if his sudden change of opinion was not accompanied by the declaration of his Republican candidacy in a strong Republican district."

GRADUATING CLASS AT MACALESTER.

Officers Selected to Be Voted for at Annual Meeting on June 17.

At a meeting of the Retail Grocery Clerks Union No. 404, held at Federation hall last night, the following nominations were made for officers to be voted for at the next regular meeting, which will be held on June 17, President, Paul Brill; first vice president, T. C. Kay and William Hazard; second vice president, Nicholas Bruch and H. H. recording secretary, Charles Dickson and Mathew Haider; financial secretary and treasurer, Frederick Miller, guide, W. J. Burke; guardian, Mathew Kroner; trustees, J. J. Ryan, J. A. Waters, Frederick Miller and E. J. Johnson.

The contest for the nominations was very lively last night, and it is expected that some time this evening, as there is more than one candidate for most of the offices.

Seven new members were initiated, and the union now numbers in the neighborhood of 200 members.

BIG STRIKE BREWING

Four Hundred Boiler Makers Are Ready to Quit Work and Go Out

DEMAND NINE HOUR DAY

Unless Concession Is Granted Within a Week, Union Will Call All the Men Out.

St. Paul seems on the verge of another big strike, which will involve 400 men. There are prospects that within a week the boiler-makers of the city will be called out in a united fight for their demands. A nine-hour day is the point of contention over which the Boiler-makers' union and the boiler shops of the city are having trouble at the present time.

The trouble has been brewing for some time, but came to a climax yesterday when three men employed in the Omaha shops went out to enforce the demand for a nine-hour day. Instead of ten, as is in vogue at present, while the strike was an individual one, and does not affect the action of the union in any way, it is probable that the latter will back up the section by ordering a general strike all along the line.

The boiler-makers held a large meeting in Central hall last evening, but refused to divulge any information on the subject. Negotiations have been in progress for some time between the car shops, where the majority of the men are employed, and the union, but the men declare they will go out if they are not granted the concession of a nine-hour day.

The indications are that the demands of the men will not be immediately granted and that the strike will be a reality within a very few days.
