

APATHY IS APPARENT

REPUBLICANS OF THE FIRST DISTRICT ARE NOT ENTHUSIASTIC THIS YEAR

TAWNEY AS PROMOTER OF HIS OWN INTERESTS

Van Sant, Who Lost His Own County Two Years Ago, Is Even Less Popular Now Than He Was Then—Some of His Appointments Are Quite Unpopular at Winona.

Special to The Globe.

WINONA, Minn., July 13.—Notwithstanding that in Minnesota there have been held three political conventions, each of which has placed in nomination candidates for state officers in the First district, as yet, there is scarcely any manifestation among the people to indicate that a political campaign confronts them. Matters political have been unusually quiet here, in spite of the efforts of certain Republican organs to arouse enthusiasm.

This apathy may be attributed, in part at least, to what is known in politics as an "off" year, combined with the fact that the state conventions were held at earlier dates than has been the custom. The ordinary voter is not prepared to scent the coming battle afar off.

It must also be considered that the candidacy of state officers alone does not make a very enthusiastic political campaign. These candidates require important allies in the nomination of congressional and legislative candidates, and also the numerous candidates for county offices, before the demonstrative patriots are aroused to a sense of duty toward the exercise of the right of human suffrage.

How Tawney Catches Voters. With regard to the congressional outlook in the First district, from the Republican side there is nothing to indicate that the present incumbent will be "primarily" renominated by acclamation. To any person, in the least conversant with the political career of the present representative from the First district, comes the reminder that he is ever on the alert to manufacture political capital that will redound to his glory and be the means of adding to the number of votes to his credit when the ballots are counted.

For instance, if the name of a new pensioner in his district is added to the pension roll it is proclaimed with some significance through his syndicate of newspapers: "This was accomplished through the able and untiring influence of our distinguished representative in congress, Hon. James A. Tawney." When the oleomargarine bill was the theme of discussion these political organs were so well disciplined that one vied with the other in endeavoring to create the most favorable impression. The burden of the song was that Tawney conceived the bill, was its author—introduced it, and to his influence in congress was due the fact that it became a law. This false sentiment has been so generally disseminated in the rural districts that it has found lodgement, to a certain degree, in the agricultural communities.

Inspired by an insatiable ambition for political power Tawney has constructed a political machine in this district that has done much for him in the past and is now serving its purpose well. Every federal appointee and his family and relatives are subservient to the "Tawney machine." When one considers the legion of postmasters, postal agents, revenue collectors, etc., etc., who respond with alacrity to their master's beck and call, it is but reasonable that Republicans look with a certain degree of confidence to his reelection. But political machines are not omnipotent; neither are they everlasting. They become autocratic, dictatorial and exacting. They create friction with the masses until at last the people rebel and the machine is repudiated and condemned.

Fall of the Machine. It was Mark H. Dunnell, an acknowledged able representative from this district, who conceived and fostered a political machine that for two years served its purpose well, but at last its manipulator became too domineering. What was the consequence? The people protested at the polls one November day and the machine fell. This is the inevitable fate of the man who depends upon a horde of federal officeholders to perpetuate himself in political power. The inevitable may come when least expected.

While the political sky may appear more auspicious for the Republican candidates, there is no certainty, and for various reasons the Democrats have reason to indicate considerable encouragement. There are records of broken Republican ranks in the election of Milo White, Judge Thomas Wilson and Capt. W. H. Harries. In the Democratic presidential one, too, the Democrats made such aggressive an effort, under the able leadership of L. L. Brown, that Mr. Tawney's majority was reduced to less than 5,000, from a majority of over 10,000 two years before.

The Democratic party in the First district is not lacking good material from whom to select a worthy and able candidate for a representative in congress. Assuming that Mr. Brown would again yield to the wishes of the opposition to the Tawney machine, undoubtedly he would be the strongest candidate. But there are others who are well qualified in Harries, of Houston; McGovern, of Waseca; McGovern, of Wabasha; Wells, of Fillmore; Lees, of Winona, the Democratic state senator of Steele, and others whose names might be mentioned.

Van Sant Even Less Popular.

So far as can be learned thus early in the campaign, Gov. Van Sant will receive no better support in his home county this year than he received two years ago, when, it will be remembered, he was elected to the governorship.

With regard to the congressional outlook in the First district, from the Republican side there is nothing to indicate that the present incumbent will be "primarily" renominated by acclamation. To any person, in the least conversant with the political career of the present representative from the First district, comes the reminder that he is ever on the alert to manufacture political capital that will redound to his glory and be the means of adding to the number of votes to his credit when the ballots are counted.

For instance, if the name of a new pensioner in his district is added to the pension roll it is proclaimed with some significance through his syndicate of newspapers: "This was accomplished through the able and untiring influence of our distinguished representative in congress, Hon. James A. Tawney." When the oleomargarine bill was the theme of discussion these political organs were so well disciplined that one vied with the other in endeavoring to create the most favorable impression. The burden of the song was that Tawney conceived the bill, was its author—introduced it, and to his influence in congress was due the fact that it became a law. This false sentiment has been so generally disseminated in the rural districts that it has found lodgement, to a certain degree, in the agricultural communities.

Inspired by an insatiable ambition for political power Tawney has constructed a political machine in this district that has done much for him in the past and is now serving its purpose well. Every federal appointee and his family and relatives are subservient to the "Tawney machine." When one considers the legion of postmasters, postal agents, revenue collectors, etc., etc., who respond with alacrity to their master's beck and call, it is but reasonable that Republicans look with a certain degree of confidence to his reelection. But political machines are not omnipotent; neither are they everlasting. They become autocratic, dictatorial and exacting. They create friction with the masses until at last the people rebel and the machine is repudiated and condemned.

Fall of the Machine. It was Mark H. Dunnell, an acknowledged able representative from this district, who conceived and fostered a political machine that for two years served its purpose well, but at last its manipulator became too domineering. What was the consequence? The people protested at the polls one November day and the machine fell. This is the inevitable fate of the man who depends upon a horde of federal officeholders to perpetuate himself in political power. The inevitable may come when least expected.

While the political sky may appear more auspicious for the Republican candidates, there is no certainty, and for various reasons the Democrats have reason to indicate considerable encouragement. There are records of broken Republican ranks in the election of Milo White, Judge Thomas Wilson and Capt. W. H. Harries. In the Democratic presidential one, too, the Democrats made such aggressive an effort, under the able leadership of L. L. Brown, that Mr. Tawney's majority was reduced to less than 5,000, from a majority of over 10,000 two years before.

The Democratic party in the First district is not lacking good material from whom to select a worthy and able candidate for a representative in congress. Assuming that Mr. Brown would again yield to the wishes of the opposition to the Tawney machine, undoubtedly he would be the strongest candidate. But there are others who are well qualified in Harries, of Houston; McGovern, of Waseca; McGovern, of Wabasha; Wells, of Fillmore; Lees, of Winona, the Democratic state senator of Steele, and others whose names might be mentioned.

Van Sant Even Less Popular.

So far as can be learned thus early in the campaign, Gov. Van Sant will receive no better support in his home county this year than he received two years ago, when, it will be remembered, he was elected to the governorship.

With regard to the congressional outlook in the First district, from the Republican side there is nothing to indicate that the present incumbent will be "primarily" renominated by acclamation. To any person, in the least conversant with the political career of the present representative from the First district, comes the reminder that he is ever on the alert to manufacture political capital that will redound to his glory and be the means of adding to the number of votes to his credit when the ballots are counted.

For instance, if the name of a new pensioner in his district is added to the pension roll it is proclaimed with some significance through his syndicate of newspapers: "This was accomplished through the able and untiring influence of our distinguished representative in congress, Hon. James A. Tawney." When the oleomargarine bill was the theme of discussion these political organs were so well disciplined that one vied with the other in endeavoring to create the most favorable impression. The burden of the song was that Tawney conceived the bill, was its author—introduced it, and to his influence in congress was due the fact that it became a law. This false sentiment has been so generally disseminated in the rural districts that it has found lodgement, to a certain degree, in the agricultural communities.

Inspired by an insatiable ambition for political power Tawney has constructed a political machine in this district that has done much for him in the past and is now serving its purpose well. Every federal appointee and his family and relatives are subservient to the "Tawney machine." When one considers the legion of postmasters, postal agents, revenue collectors, etc., etc., who respond with alacrity to their master's beck and call, it is but reasonable that Republicans look with a certain degree of confidence to his reelection. But political machines are not omnipotent; neither are they everlasting. They become autocratic, dictatorial and exacting. They create friction with the masses until at last the people rebel and the machine is repudiated and condemned.

Fall of the Machine. It was Mark H. Dunnell, an acknowledged able representative from this district, who conceived and fostered a political machine that for two years served its purpose well, but at last its manipulator became too domineering. What was the consequence? The people protested at the polls one November day and the machine fell. This is the inevitable fate of the man who depends upon a horde of federal officeholders to perpetuate himself in

GOES TO WELLESLEY COLLEGE.

Miss Josephine Burnham Translated From Brownell Hall.

OMAHA, Neb., July 13.—Miss Josephine Burnham, head of the English department at Brownell Hall, has accepted the chair of a similar department at Wellesley college. She is a graduate of the University of Chicago.

Miss Florence M. Walker, who has lately been granted a second degree by the Chicago university, will succeed Miss Burnham at Brownell Hall.

CAN'T REACH MR. TRACEY YET.

But the Pursuing Sheriffs Purpose Keeping Up the Hunt.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 13.—Notwithstanding the general belief that Tracey is on the verge of collapse as the result of buckshot wounds and illness resulting from exposure in the wet brush, he managed to keep hidden from the officers today. This was especially disappointing to the five sheriffs now on his trail, as they had had him an exciting chase up to last night and hoped to press the pursuit up to a virtual encounter. Vigilance had been doubled and the encircling cordon about the district where it was almost certain the man was hidden was stronger than ever. The deputies scoured the neighborhood, but beyond discredited reports of the convict's appearance near Enumclaw nothing was heard of him.

The officers, however, have not wavered, and the hunt is being pushed with greater zeal than ever. The hunt is to be continued through tonight and tomorrow without cessation. The sheriffs are convinced that the convict is within the territory guarded by the deputies and policemen.

ENUMCLAW, Wash., July 13.—The man hunters are once again hot on the trail of Harry Tracey. At 3:30 o'clock tonight the bloodhounds were placed on his track, and after following it for three quarters of a mile lost it in a dense swamp that borders the road leading from here to Buckley. The wires have been kept hot for two hours with messages to surrounding towns, and it is believed that Tracey is either killed or captured by noon tomorrow.

Tracey was seen at 5 o'clock this afternoon a mile and a half east of Enumclaw.

WIND-UP OF THE SAENGERFEST.

Northwestern Scandinavian Singers Elect Officers.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., July 13.—A business meeting today concluded the tenth annual saengerfest of the Northwestern Scandinavian Singing association, which has been in session here for the past three days. The following officers were elected for the ensuing two years:

President, L. K. Hasell, Grand Forks, N. D.; corresponding secretary, T. H. Hamm, Minneapolis; recording secretary, Carl Hanson, Minneapolis; treasurer, Oleson, Port Dodge, Iowa; director in chief, J. H. Pleaton, Duluth, Minn.; grand marshal, Wollert Hildahl, Sioux Falls; vice president, O. W. Elm, Decatur, Iowa; P. J. Mostad, Sioux Falls, S. D.; G. Host, Leeds, N. D.; E. N. Selestad, La Crosse, Wis.; Dr. John Brandt, St. Paul, Minn.

Grand Forks, N. D., was selected as the place for the next saengerfest. A committee was appointed to revise the constitution of the association and report at the next delegate meeting, to be held two years hence. The following singing societies were admitted to membership in the association: Lief, Leeds, N. D.; Apollo, Minneapolis; Gancken, Nasset, Iowa; Kjerulf, Minneapolis; Hendren, Inwood, Iowa; Unas, Seward, Iowa; S. D.; Nordraak, Madison, S. D.

THEIR BOAT OVERTURNED.

Two Boys Drowned in Cass Lake, in Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., July 13.—Two boys, Anthony Rukhanp, aged sixteen, and Adolph Budeler, aged eighteen, residents of this city, were drowned today in Cass lake, twenty-five miles from here.

In company with My Wiesler, they were rowing. The boat began leaking and finally tipped over. The girl was saved, but both boys sank before rescuers could get to them.

Special to The Globe.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., July 13.—Nellie Hamby, the twelve-year-old daughter of Fred Hamby, sexton of Forest Hill cemetery, was drowned in the Eau Claire river this afternoon.

The girl, with other children of her age, was running on logs, when she fell in.

MISSING MAN ACCOUNTED FOR.

J. H. McBrier's Body Found in River at the Soo.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., July 13.—The body of J. H. McBrier, son of James McBrier, real estate and ship owner of Erie, Pa., was taken from the river this morning by dockmen. It had been in the water forty-five days and was badly decomposed. The words, "My name is J. H. McBrier," were written on an envelope found in a pocket.

McBrier had been missing from his home for two months. His father traced him to the Soo.

WOLVERINES DEFEND FRIARS.

Grand Rapids Catholics Adopt Protest-Resolutions.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 13.—A meeting of Catholics was held here tonight to protest against the United States forcing the friars out of the Philippines. All of the Catholic clergy, including Bishop Richter, attended. Resolutions were adopted as follows:

Whereas, the friars as a class are unjustly maligned, and are even threatened with expulsion and spoliation of their property. Therefore, be it

STRIKE IN COGNAC

SETTLEMENT OF FREIGHT HANDLERS' DIFFICULTY APPARENTLY REMOTE AS EVER

Men Firmly Refuse to Accept Eighteen Cents an Hour—Evidence That Sincerity Is Deficient—Longshoremen Will Organize and May Inaugurate an Independent Strike.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Final overtures for the settlement of the strike were made at meetings of the two unions tonight. At the instigation of the members of the Chicago board of arbitration the freight handlers agreed to send committees to all the railroads tomorrow morning. This agreement was made after the board had announced to the union men that eight of the largest railroads entering Chicago had agreed to pay 12 1/2 cents an hour to truckers and pay overtime and to do away with the demand for a probationary period of service.

The general managers of two railroads agreed to no such proposition. They agreed that when the committees shall visit the railway offices tomorrow morning the roads will offer them the same terms as those which were rejected by the union men yesterday. The statement of the general managers destroyed the hope of a settlement of the strike tomorrow on a basis of terms suggested by the general managers of the railroads.

Even if the general managers had not insisted upon maintaining their position, it is not probable that a settlement could be effected. The freight handlers agreed to make another effort to reach a settlement with the railroads only to please the teamsters, who previously had endorsed the attempt of arbitration to settle the strike.

Lack of Sincerity.

There is an apparent lack of sincerity in the attempt to make a serious effort to settle the controversy. Freight Handlers' union stated tonight that the committees tomorrow morning will insist on the payment of 18 cents an hour instead of 17 1/2 cents, which the railroads agreed to pay.

He also stated that the freight handlers will make no more overtures and hereafter will reject all proposals which shall be put before them. The payment of the wage scale as formulated by the union and the recognition of the union.

With the general managers and unions both maintaining these respective positions, it is believed that there is slight chance for a settlement tomorrow night, when his opportunity shall have vanished it will be a fight to a finish.

Every teamster union that has membership in Chicago voted today to take terms of the freight handlers.

Longshoremen, Too.

The longshoremen of Chicago, who have been on strike since they were formed into a union today, they are in sympathy with the freight handlers, but may inaugurate an independent strike of their own if an advanced scale for loading and unloading big lake steamers is refused.

Ice haulers have agreed not to re-enter the city until the freight handlers' strike is settled. This is virtually a sympathetic strike, and until the railway shall settle the trouble with the freight handlers, the ice haulers will have to be closed.

The coal teamsters, at a meeting today, determined that no men of the strike will be permitted to work sheds during the strike. While there is little likelihood of coal teamsters being asked to haul from the freight handlers' strike, it is probable that such a contingency by refusing to touch any articles unloaded from freight cars by non-union laborers.

SITUATION IN THE COAL FIELDS.

Miners Opposed to a General Sympathetic Strike.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 13.—The tenth week of the great anthracite miners' strike has shown no signs of anything but a continuation of the crisis. Everything now depends upon the national convention which meets at Indianapolis on Thursday. If the convention should vote in favor of a general sympathetic strike, the coal miners now on strike with the operators may be prolonged indefinitely. On the other hand, should it vote against the strike, it might mean the end of the strike, and the operators, taking advantage of it, may attempt to resume operations at some of the collieries.

ALTOONA, Pa., July 13.—Reports from all the subdistricts of District No. 2, United Mine Workers show that delegates elected to the national convention from this field, are unopposed as to voting for a general sympathetic strike. The eight districts are conservative miners selected especially to avoid, if possible, bringing the central bituminous field into a sympathy strike. The delegates will urge the convention to donate a day's pay weekly to the anthracite men, permitting the bituminous miners to continue at work and permit the anthracite men to earn good wages by reason of the full supply of cars available and the enormous demand for coal.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 13.—The advance guard of delegates to the miners' convention, which meets in this city on Thursday, will begin to arrive tomorrow. The national officers' opposition to the radical element in the union in favor of a tie-up, will exercise a great influence in the convention and may control it. The five districts that called the convention, the three anthracite districts of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Michigan, will probably have more than one-third of the nominal voting strength of the convention.

The greatest hope that the convention will defeat the proposition for a general tie-up is the feeling that the miners will follow the advice of Mitchell. It is evident from the advice rendered only by his brother, the next in succession to the crown prince, and two aides-de-camp, officers in the Siamese army.

The crown prince is in his twenty-first year, and for more than eight years has lived in England, speaking and writing the language. He has been educated at Oxford, is president of the Comopolitan club that university, and is most simple and unaffected in his manner. He is said to be thoroughly imbued with Western civilization, as is also his father, the king of Siam.

He will call on the president and secretary of state officially.

The Best N. E. A. Side Trips

Are the Best. Personally conducted tours via rail and lake, including all expenses enroute to:

Toledo, Ohio, and return.....$40.00
Boston, Mass., and return.....65.00
Boston, Mass., and return.....40.00
Niagara Falls, N. Y., and return.....55.00
Get particulars and itineraries at ticket office, 379 Robert street.

A beautiful, sweetheart, the superb personality of the soul, belongs to every woman. The heart, the most beautiful and the most stubborn heart, is warmed by the charm of a beautiful soul.—Detroit News-Tribune

CASTORIA advertisement. The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment. What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend. GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer. The Kind You Have Always Bought In Use For Over 30 Years. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 N. BROAD ST., NEW YORK CITY.

CHANGE OF PREMIERS FOR GREAT BRITAIN

Continued From First Page.

bury's resignation was not caused by any political differences with his colleagues in the cabinet, and says: "We understand that the king was very anxious to mark in some special manner his high sense of the great service Lord Salisbury has rendered to the state, and expressed a desire to bestow upon the retiring minister some conspicuous honor in recognition; but Lord Salisbury begged to be allowed to decline the proposed honor."

There is reason to believe that the king sought Lord Salisbury's advice as to his successor, and that the retiring prime minister suggested Mr. Balfour. A message was thereupon sent from the palace to Mr. Balfour at the house of commons. Feeling that it was impossible to respond to the king's wishes with success without having secured the concurrence and support of Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Balfour immediately drove to the colonial secretary's house and saw him in his sick room.

Joe Was Cordial.

"We are in a position to state that he was met in the most cordial manner, and that Mr. Chamberlain recognized that Mr. Balfour was the natural successor to the premiership, and assured him of his government and of the administration. As Gov. Taft started the negotiations it is likely the reply of this government to the Vatican authorities will be at once announced, and as Mr. Balfour has accepted no new office, he will not have to present himself to his constituents for re-election. It may be taken for granted that the Duke of Devonshire will lead the house of lords."

The Standard says it thinks Lord Salisbury will be sent through the north successor to a line of illustrious predecessors, and that his loss will be felt abroad as much as at home. Then referring to the absence of intrigue or friction in the change, the Standard says:

"Mr. Chamberlain has generously and patriotically effaced his own aspirations, when he might almost have been excused for declining to rest satisfied with any place lower than the highest in the gift, not for the first time, that he can prefer to interest in the gratification of personal aims."

All the morning papers are filled with sketches of the career of the statesman concerned, and with speculations as to the future, the Liberal organ expressing doubts as to whether Mr. Chamberlain is likely to remain content to act under Mr. Balfour.

Fruit Growers Alarmed.

CARBONDALE, Ill., July 13.—Fruit and vegetable growers of Carbonada are much alarmed over the strike of the fruit handlers in Chicago. Thousands of dollars' worth of fruit are rotting in the fields. Much fruit, including peaches and apples, is being sold at a marketable condition during the present week. None of the growers' shipping associations in the north have responded to Chicago under the present conditions.

How Italy Takes It.

ROME, July 13.—Lord Salisbury's resignation of the premiership has produced here a feeling of surprise, tempered with the hope that the relations between Great Britain and Italy will grow cooler under the retiring premier, will under Mr. Balfour resume their ancient cordiality.

THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF STUDENTS

Broadening of Their Intellectual Horizon Is the Object Sought.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The third international congress of students is to be held at Budapest from Sept. 24 to Oct. 1. The main value of the federation, according to Mr. Levesque, former minister of public instruction of France, consists in its avowed object of bringing together from time to time the students from all parts of the world, and in doing so, bringing about the wholesome result of broadening the sympathies and the intellectual horizon of the students.

The second congress of the federation, held in Paris in 1900, was attended by more than 1,000 foreign students, who enjoyed French hospitality for more than a week.

Woman Worker and Editor Dead.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Mrs. Ada Eugenie Vrooman Leslie died today at her home in this city, after a lingering illness. She was born in 1846, and when only sixteen she was widely known by her contributions in prose and verse to the leading periodicals. She married Alfred Leslie, a son of Frank Leslie. After his death Mrs. Leslie edited the Lady's Bazaar and other periodicals. In recent years she assisted her sons, Arthur and Frank, in organizing the Leslie syndicate.

CASTORIA advertisement. The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment. What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend. GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer. The Kind You Have Always Bought In Use For Over 30 Years. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 N. BROAD ST., NEW YORK CITY.

"CLEANLINESS IS NA E PRIDE, DIRT'S NA E HONESTY." COMMON SENSE DICTATES THE USE OF SAFOLIO

Continued From First Page.

FRIARS MUST LEAVE THE ARCHIPELAGO

President Roosevelt and Secretary Root Spend the Sabbath Statesmanizing.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE YOUNG BAPTISTS

Union Puts in a Very Busy Day at Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 13.—The Baptist Young People's Union of America, after having been in session here for four days, today terminated its twelfth annual convention.

The day opened with prayer meetings in Infantry hall and in the First Baptist church. Rev. Walter Calley, of Boston, speaking in the hall upon "The Source of Missionary Enthusiasm," while Rev. E. P. Tuller, of Detroit, Mich., conducted services in the church, taking for his theme "Open Windows."

The pulpits of a dozen churches were occupied for the regular morning meeting by the visiting clergymen. A Swedish conference in the hall closed the forenoon exercises. The work was again taken up at 3 o'clock, when President N. E. Wood, of Newton Center, Mass., preached the convention sermon. At the same hour in the First Baptist church Rev. Galusha Anderson, D. D., of Chicago, spoke upon "The Victory That Overcomes the World."

Rev. E. D. Burr, of Newton Center, Mass., conducted a vesper service at sundown on the campus of Brown university.

The order of exercises in the evening in Infantry hall was duplicated at the First Baptist church. Rev. J. A. Bennett, of Philadelphia, at the hall, and Rev. J. M. Field, of Fort Wayne, Ind., at the church, dealt with the topic, "Words of Appreciation." The address was delivered in duplicate by Mr. Morgan Williams of New York, and by George Coleman, of Boston, as was the "consecration service" by Rev. W. H. Getchell, D. D., of Chicago, and Rev. H. J. White, of Beverly, Mass.

Moline Plow Manufacturer Dead.

MOLINE, Ill., July 13.—George Washington Moline, president and founder of the Moline Plow company, died at home here late last night. He was eighty-three years of age.

Summer Excursions Via Great Northern Railway.

Call at Great Northern City Ticket Office for information about excursion rates to Minnesota Lakes, Isle Royale, Montana and Washington points, and booklets and full information at City Ticket Office, W. J. Dutch, D. P. & T. A., 322 Robert St., Cor. 4th, St. Paul.

To the Apostle Islands.

Special excursion Wednesday, July 16, via the Onawa, to Duluth, from there by boat along the south shore of Lake Superior, through the Apostle Islands to Houghton, New York, and returning to Washington, Secretary of the Navy Moody is expected to arrive here some time during the present

DISEASES OF MEN advertisement. Every man who is afflicted owes it to himself and to his posterity to get cured safely and positively, without leaving any light or weakness in his system. You do not want to be mutilated and maimed for life trying to be cured of Varicocele, Stricture and kindred troubles in a few days by surgical procedures. We make no misleading statements or unbusiness-like propositions to the afflicted in order to secure their patronage. The many years of our successful practice prove that our mode of treatment are safe and certain. We will spare you the penalties associated with the use of the old-fashioned Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Varicocele, Blood Poison, Kidney and Urinary Diseases, Weakening Drains, Self-Abuse, Stricture of Organs, Premature Decline, Loss of Memory, Energy and Ambition, Nervousness, Pimples, Palpitation of the Heart, Shortness of Breath, Apprehension of Castration, and kindred troubles. Matrimony. We will render you robust. Call at our office, or write and we will not accept your money UNDER ANY CONDITIONS; but if we find you are curable we will guarantee a SAFE AND POSITIVE CURE. In the shortest possible time without injurious after effects. Our charges will be as low as possible for conscientious, skillful and successful services. Consult us before consenting to any surgical procedure upon important blood vessels and organs. CONSULTATION FREE at office or by letter, and strictly confidential. A LEGAL CONTRACT and guarantee of cure given to every patient. Home treatment by mail always successful. Office hours—8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sundays—10 a. m. to 1 p. m. References—Best Banks and Leading Business Men of This City. State Electro-Medical Institute. Longest established. Thoroughly reliable. Authorized by the laws of the state. 301 HENNEPIN AVENUE, COR. THIRD ST., MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

Hire Help, Rent Rooms, Get Boarders, Sell Real Estate, Sell Horses, Sell Pianos, Get Partners, Advertise In The Globe, GLOBE WANTS PAY BEST, TRY IT TO MORROW