PRIMARY LAW MAKES DEFICIT IN FUNDS

Over Half of Total Appropriation Has Been Expended—New Law Responsible.

Because of the extraordinary cost incurred in the conduct of the late city election, a deficit is likely to result when the bills for the November election are presented. Of the $35,000 set aside for election purposes by the conference committee, nearly $20,000 has so far been paid out, and those in charge of the fund are now wondering what they will do when the November contest arrives.

The shortage is credited to the new primary law, the observance of which entails almost as great an expense as a regular election. Heretofore this was avoided, the several parties paying their own expenses incidental to the selection of nominees, but now the city at large must pay the bill.

When the appropriation was made last year the primary law was not considered, and as a result when the conference committee again meets it will have to make up a deficit. For judges and clerks alone in the last city election over $11,000 was necessary.

Heretofore only about one-half of this amount was required.

Engine Horse Gives Out.

Burning paper in the basement of the Sherman hotel, Fourth and Sibley, brought out the fire department about 9:30 last night. There was no damage, still alarm brought some of the apparatus to Eighth and Robert, where a small shed on Eighth street, between Robert and Jackson, was burning. The damage amounted to about $100.

One of the horses on the hose wagon from Engine House No. 6 gave out on the way to the Eighth street fire, which ran in a few moments under the alarm for the Sherman hotel. For additional information address R. C. Haase, N. W. T. P. A., St. Paul, or E. N. Austin, G. P. A., Chicago, Ill.

VAN SANT A DIGEST

GOVERNOR WANTS TO PERSONALLY MANAGE EVERY LEGISLATIVE FIGHT IN STATE.

CANDIDATES RESENT HIS "WHOLE THING" ATTITUDE

So Confident of a Walkaway That He Wants to Gain Greater "Glory" by Making All Legislative Contests Personal Affairs and "Van Sant Victories."

The Van Sant administration is taking a hand in the legislative campaigns to the intense disgust of some of the legislators who would like to be candidates to succeed themselves, and do not enjoy the prospect of fighting both the Democrats and an administration faction of their own party.

According to the claims made by some of the interested statesmen, Van Sant thinks he is right in the middle of easy street, and is impressed with the idea that his administration will require so little attention that he can turn part of his time to the laudable task of getting even with the legislators who opposed his pet measures, especially the ill-starred tax code.

The backdown of the insurgents at the memorable committee meeting, which cleared the track for Van Sant, put the finishing touch on the government of Minnesota. He then saw how soft it was going to be for him to assume the role of party dictator for a couple of years before taking up the task of pulling Roosevelt through, with himself as a candidate for vice president.

Wants All the Glory.

The governor of Minnesota thought so well of himself that the idea of a peace retreat at the price of Van Sant entertained by the men who stopped the insurrection never occurred to him. The make-up of his state central committee was in line with the same general conception of his importance and the desire of his first lieutenants to insure against the enlistment of any powerful men who might be expected to cut in for a share of the glory which they believe is to come in bales.

Candidates Resent Action.

In the meantime a quiet hand was taken in legislative fights throughout the state, and now the objects of the fight are getting ready to declare war. Several conferences have been held at the Merchants' hotel, and in every instance attended by members of the house or senate who have found themselves opposed by administrative candidates. The men interested say they are willing to submit to the bickering of the ultra-Clapp element because Clapp really has something at stake, but they will not submit to Van Sant's tinkering with their affairs after he has landed the nomination and must again look to them for support, which they have given him in abundance for election if not for his projected measures.

FINISH ORGANIZATION TODAY.

Both committees meet and Democrats select a chairman.

The committees of both parties will meet in St. Paul today to finish the preliminaries to the campaign.

The work of the Republican committee will be purely perfunctory, and as announced will probably consist largely of talk about what should be done, without any reference to what will actually be done by the gentlemen who will run the campaign, and who will have very little use for the advisory services of the committee as a whole after today.

The Democratic committee and the candidates will meet at the Merchants. The meeting has a two-fold purpose. There are still three members of the committee who are to be selected, or rather announced, and organization perfected by the election of a chairman.

The members of the committee it is not confined to the membership of the organization in the selection of a chairman, and an outsider may be selected to run the campaign, and is perfected the general plan of campaign will be discussed. After the general discussion today the campaign will be left to the chairman, and when he is ready to start it concerted action will be taken up.

GRIST OF THE POLITICAL MILL.

Senator Dickey, of Goodhue county, who is slated for the next election, is pegging away for renomination in the Nobles-Murray county district as well as in the Nobles-Murray county district as well as in the Nobles-Murray county district.

George Wilson, Worthington, is a candidate for Republican nomination to the house. His success is believed to hinge largely on the result of the fight between Murray, and Nobles for the senatorial nomination, as it is believed that those who vote for Shell for senator will vote for a Murray county man for representative.

Representative Frank Benolen, of Freeport, Stearns county, has relieved any uneasiness about his legislative intentions by accepting an appointment as deputy sheriff under Sheriff Schlipf.

Gus Sugar Beet Theden is still running for Republican nomination to the senate in the Eleventh ward, Minneapolis. Theden has had lots of legislative experience, and the taxpayers of the state know it to their sorrow.

W. E. Morton is a candidate for Republican nomination to the house of representatives in the Forty-second district, Minneapolis.

The expected has happened. Senator Frank Daugherty, Duluth, after drubbing Frank Searle and getting a majority of satisfaction for the manner in which he was treated by the immediate henchmen of Judge Morris, announces that he will be a candidate for renomination in the Fifty-first district. He is opposed for the nomination by Representative George Laybourn. Both have brilliant legislative records and the chase for the nomination promises to be lively.

Haldor Boen, of the Fergus Globe, who was once a member of congress, sizes up the platforms of the several Republican candidates for congress-al honors in the Ninth district as follows:

Erza G. Valentine wants to go to congress because he was chairman of the Red River valley ditch commission and is rich.

Hilvor Steenerson wants to go to congress because he pushed through the supreme court twice and won the "Steenerson grain raise" case, which secured a reduction of freight rates and established the right of the state to control the railroads.

Solomon Chinnock wants to go to congress because he was there once and liked the job. (Me, too.)

A. Grindelund wants to go to congress because he is a member of the Synodal Lutheran church, and a good fellow.

Cyrus Little Smith wants to go to congress because he is attached to an immense mouth.

City Attorney Holds That Three Democrats Are Elected to Board of Abatement.

In an opinion furnished City Clerk Mat Jensen, First Assistant Corporation Attorney McDermott holds that the three members selected by the two bodies of the council as a board of abatement are legally entitled to act.

Mr. McDermott says, however, that Assemblyman Whitcomb, over whose selection a difference resulted, is not a member. He cannot be recognized as a holdover or retaining his office until his successor is elected. This one place on the board is therefore vacant.

CITY CANNOT ESCAPE PAYING ITS JUST TAXES

Park Board's Application for Rebate-ment Turned Down.

At the meeting of the county board of abatement yesterday afternoon an application signed by President Joseph Wheelock, of the park board, to have the taxes rebated on block 2, of Wardendale's addition to the city, was considered, but no action was taken until an opinion can be secured from the corporation attorney's office.

The claim is advanced that the ground is public property, inasmuch as it is used for park purposes, and hence should escape taxation.

SERGEANT LAUDERDALE HAS LEG AMPUTATED

Pioneer Police Officer Expected to Survive Operation.

Acting Sergeant James Lauderdale, of the Ducus street station, had his right leg amputated below the knee yesterday at St. Luke's hospital. He withstood the shock of the operation well and the physicians believe that he will recover. Willard, a candidate for election if not for his projected measures, was injured about two weeks ago and was removed to St. Luke's hospital Saturday, as there were some signs of gangrene setting in.

NEWSPAPER MEN TALK ABOUT THEIR BUSINESS

The North Star Press Association held its session in St. Paul.

The North Star Daily Press association met at the Windsor hotel yesterday afternoon for its annual session, with thirty members in attendance.

The early portion of the meeting was devoted to a business session, after which papers were read by P. McDonald, St. Cloud Times, on the best method of collecting subscriptions on a small daily; C. E. Wise, Mankato Record, on the value of presenting machines for the small dailies; James R. Jerrard, St. Cloud Journal-Press, and A. W. Hickey, Rochester Post and Record, also delivered interesting papers. J. Lee Mahlin, of the Mahlin Advertising company, Chicago, read a carefully prepared and highly interesting paper entitled "The Editor's Relation to the Publisher to the Advertising Agent."

WIND AND LIGHTNING INDULGE IN ANTICS

Heavy Storm at Midnight Does Much Small Damage.

About midnight last night a heavy windstorm accompanied by lightning and electrical display in the heavens, visited St. Paul, and for over an hour brought considerable havoc to the plate glass windows and awnings. The wind blew a fierce gale down the streets, so that it was impossible to walk against it. Trees were blown over, a number of awnings were torn from their moorings. The Minnesota News had a front plate glass window shattered, and many smaller windows were broken by flying sticks, with which the air was full for some time. It tried hard to rain, but almost impossible to any extent. The lightning was exceedingly fierce throughout the evening.

UGHT TO GO TO JAIL

THAT IS THE PLACE FOR BLIND-PIGGERS, SAYS JUSTICE START

MERE FINES HAVE NO REFORMATORY EFFECT

At Pardon Board Meeting He Declares His Opposition to Commuting Imprisonment Sentences Given in Addition to Fines—Many Applications Denied.

In the meeting of the board of pardons held yesterday afternoon, Chief Justice Start, of the supreme court, expressed himself as being firmly opposed to the revocation or even commutation of sentences of imprisonment imposed in addition to fines for violations of the liquor laws, or kindred offenses against the moral welfare of a local community. In explanation of his position thus taken the chief justice said in substance:

"As long as the keepers of 'blind pigs' and resorts of like character, and those who violate the other laws in regard to the sale of intoxicating liquors are permitted to escape with mere fines we will have frequently violations of the laws, and the enforcement of sentences of imprisonment has a marked effect in discouraging offenses of that nature. Of course, a man who runs a 'blind pig' will get caught once in awhile, but the payment of a fine is nothing to him; he figures on that, and unless the authorities are particularly vigilant, he can get off more cheaply in that way than by paying the required license. If he finds, however, that he must go to jail and remain there to the end of his sentence, he will desist in his violation of the law."

Prisoner of Eighty-one Years.

This statement had an equal bearing upon several of the applications before the board for consideration at this time, and conditions were urged as grounds for the pardon or commutation of sentence in the case of one of these cases which recommended itself particularly to the notice of the board by reason of peculiar conditions being that of W. J. Murray, sentenced from Freeborn county May 29 last, to serve one year in the state prison for keeping a disorderly resort. The prisoner, it was explained, is a man eighty-one years of age, and infirm in physical condition, as would be expected at his advanced age. His application to the board took under advisement the purpose of consulting with Warden Wolf.

Another application of the same class was that of Chris Johnson, sentenced from Mower county Sept. 20, 1901, to serve three months in the county jail and a fine of $100 and costs, with thirty days additional in case the fine and costs were not paid, for selling intoxicating liquors at wholesale in a village in which the people had voted no license. On behalf of the prisoner it was represented that acting under the advice of an attorney to the effect that he would be released in this case in infringement of his constitutional rights, Johnson had deliberately committed the act charged for the purpose of testing the law, and that upon conviction he had been fined the maximum amount to which was added the maximum term of imprisonment. This case also came under advisement, as was that of Ole H. Lewis, sentenced from Yellow Medicine county, June 22, 1901, to the Yellow Medicine county jail for thirty days and to pay a fine of $75 additional for selling liquor without a license. A physician's certificate was filed to show that Olson is in poor health.

Unique Grounds for Pardon.

The case which challenged particular notice on the part of the members of the board because of the unique grounds upon which the application for pardon was based was that of Claude Denison, now serving a ninety-day term in the Minneapolis workhouse for larceny. It is urged in this application that Denison is being punished for the reason that he is sensitive, nervous, and of delicate nervous constitution, and it is therefore feared that the surgery of a state prison for several years and six months for manslaughter, was continued, by request, to allow time to secure additional documents bearing upon the proceedings in the trial.

No Comfort for These.

The board denied the application of William Shea, sentenced from Hennepin county, Nov. 16, 1898, to state prison for five years for grand larceny in the second degree. Shea, sentenced from Waadena county, Dec. 11, 1901, to state prison for one year and six months for assault in the second degree. Shea, sentenced from Waadena county, Dec. 11, 1901, to state prison for two years and six months, for attempted burglary, and Henry Brown, sentenced from Wright county Sept. 20, 1893, to state prison for life for murder in the first degree.

A number of other cases were heard, and many of them were taken under advisement. In several cases it was deemed advisable to consult with the warden of the prison, and he has been given a week to make a report on the matter, which will be held this morning at 9 o'clock.

Officers Should Give Bonds.

Elmer Dearth, state insurance commissioner, has prepared a report of the recent examination of the Benefit League of Minneapolis, by his department. The report, which is dated from Dec. 31, 1900, to May 31, 1905, indicates that the company is financially solvent, but the commissioner advises that the by-laws be amended so as to require that the officers of the company who have given a state prison for serious offenses be required to give substantial bonds.

More care is also suggested in the matter of stockholders in the meetings of the stockholders.

Weekly Smallpox Report.

The smallpox report of the state board of health for the week of July 14 shows a total of 122 cases in the state, with one death in the counties in that period.

The cases are located in twenty-seven counties and in thirty-five different localities. The largest number of cases in any one locality came from Shookan township, in Lincoln county, where there are twenty-eight cases. The next highest one county reported 11 cases; Swift county, 13 cases; Blue Earth county, 13, and Clay county, 9. There were no cases in St. Paul, Minneapolis or Duluth.

Reception to Dr. Adams.

The Knights of Columbus lodge tendered a reception to Henry Adams Adams, who is noted as a lecturer, and the Knights of Columbus hall last evening. New Lodge Is Largest in America, Having 828 Members—Officers Nominated—Gala Occasion in Pythian Circles—The Governor and Others Speak.

Yesterday was a gala day among the Pythians of St. Paul, the occasion being the consolidation of the six Knights of Pythias lodges of St. Paul. The consolidation took place at Cambridge hall, and about 300 Pythians were in attendance, of which 200 were members of the new lodge. The new lodge is the largest Pythian lodge in America, having a total membership of 828 members. The meeting was presided over by Hon. George P. Tawney, grand chancellor. The business session, at which the election and installation of officers took place, was only expected to be a short one, but owing to opposition to some of the officers nominated by the committee, it was nearly 12 o'clock before the business was over and the social session commenced.

Officers of New Lodge.

Judge Grier M. Orr, chancellor commander; C. S. Bartram, vice chancellor commander; Frank W. Whitmore, prelate; F. W. Bauer, M. of W.; L. G. Shackford, K. of R. and S.; Frank Peterson, M. of F.; D. H. Bradley, M. of B.; W. A. Hall, M. of A.; J. J. G. McBride, L. G.; C. E. Forman, O. G.; trustees, J. A. McRae, Robert Ross, J. F. Angell. It was just 10:56 when Grand Chancellor Tawney declared the charters of the six lodges vacated and the charter of St. Paul Lodge No. 2 instituted in their place. After the business session a social entertainment was given and much was served, while excellent music was furnished by Weide's orchestra.

Short addresses were made by Grand Chancellor George P. Tawney, Judge Orr and Gov. Van Sant, who is a member of Winona lodge. Mr. Tawney, in his address, urged the further development of the social features of the order.

A number of prominent Pythians were present from different parts of the state and the affair was one that will not soon be forgotten in Pythian circles.

The first regular meeting of the consolidated lodge will be held on next Wednesday evening at Bowly hall.

Uniform Knights Present.

Unity Company No. 4, Minneapolis, uniform rank, and Capital Company No. 13, of St. Paul, were present in uniform as was the company of the Lincoln Lodge No. 13, Webster Lodge No. 29, Washington Lodge No. 74, and Capitol Lodge No. 51.

Reception to Dr. Adams.

ROYALTY ON ORE.

State Auditor Dunn has just received the first returns from a new mine located on state school lands in section 20, township 55, range 19, St. Louis county. In April, May and June of this year there were taken from this mine 6,987 tons of ore, and the royalty to the state amounts to $1,746.76. The tract was first leased to Gen. James S. Baker in 1892, who sold out his leasehold to B. F. Clements. The Interstate Mining Company of Fairbury is now operating the property under a contract with Mr. Clements.

Sued for Libel.

Isaac Farnstein, a tailor in the Gilliam block, has commenced suit against Harris Winburg for libel.

Farnstein alleges that Winburg advertised a judgment against him for sale in the columns of a daily paper, whereas, in reality, he possessed no judgment at all. On this account he alleges that the wholesale houses have refused him credit and that his business has been seriously handicapped.

Appropriation Not Legal.

Because of a heavy pressure of work in the office of the board of public works, the board of aldermen last night appropriated $400 for use as extra clerk hire by the board, but the appropriation is likely to meet with objection when the assembly is called upon for its approval.

The legal department of the request is a just one, but the charter forbids it.

Diamond Stud Stolen.

Edward Perry, a musician, reported to the police yesterday that a valuable diamond stud had been stolen from his shirt front some time Monday afternoon. Perry had been around different places during the week, and claims to have missed the stone while on the Interstate car on his way to the ball game.

Air Troubles in Police Court.

The Tauber-Float troubles were aired in the police court yesterday by the parties concerned. Louis Tauber, the father, told the story of the hearing, administered last Monday by his wife, aided by her two sons. Judge Finchout disbarred Charles James Float, the younger boy, and continued the case of Nellie Tauber and Arthur Float until Sept. 1.

Smallpox in Roseau.

It was reported to the state health department yesterday that smallpox is prevalent in some parts of Roseau county, and O. Peterson, assistant secretary of the board, has gone there to investigate the report.
